Local Department. DEMOCRATIC MASS MEETING!

Rally to the support of Pattison and Reform.

The annual meeting of the Democracy of Centre county will be held in the Court House, in Bellefonte, on Tuesday Eve., Aug. 29, '82.

The meeting will be addressed by a number of able and distinguished gentlemen whose names will be announced next week.

Come one! Come all! and hear the political issues of the day presented in their true light!

By order of the County Committee. R. H. FORSTER.

Chairman.

Ay, though so oft deceived by hope, Our deeds by our intents cer-topped We still expect, as on we grope, To come out perfect and epopt.

-The stomach's greatest friend is PE-RUNA. -We were pleased to see Mr. J. H

Oliger, of Curtin township, on Tuesday. -Lawyer Ray has discovered several uses to which umbrellas can be put, heretofore entirely unheard of. -The soldiers appear none the worse for their trip to Lewistown, all are considerably tanned, however.

-Mr. W. T. Auman, of Millheim, one of our young teachers, and a writer of some ability, called on Saturday.

-A Bush meeting conducted by the A. M. E. Z. Church, will be held in Valentine's groves commencing Aug. 19th, 1882.

-Our Hose companies, the Logan and Undine, have received invitations to attend and participate in regulation parades at several places.

-An Ice cream festival for the benefit of the Fillmore Methodist church will be held at that place Friday and Saturday 25th and 26 of August.

-Just what any one means by standing around with four hundred dollars in his hand, we can't see, but no doubt "Cap" Mingle can tell all about it.

-Our friend, Mr. Richard Harris says that Geo. Tate, Esq., the contractor, while looking at the parade on Saturday could not tell the difference between horses and

-Although Edward Graham, Esq., has been a resident of Bellefonte for forty years, he never until last week visited or saw the large spring that supplies the town with water.

-Our neighbor, Mr. J. Shrom, manufactures harness of such excellent quality that orders are pouring in from all directions, he shipped an elegant outfit to Virginia on Tuesday.

-Mr. Samuel Lewin wishes to return his sincere thanks to the members of the Zion band for the complimentary serenade with which he was favored on Monday evening, also to the Logan Hose Company. -Ex-Gov. Curtin expects to be present at the reunion at Rebersburg, August 25. He will address the veterans there assembled; the presence of the venerable gentleman will in itself be sufficient to attract a large crowd.

-The library of St. John's Lutheren Sabbath-school, of Bellefonte, has been augmented by the addition of 166 new, elegantly bound volumes of choice reading matter, and is now one of the most com plete libraries in this neighborhood.

-A young lady, whose name we could not ascertain, came within an ace of shifting off this mortal coil at the station on Friday evening. She attempted to cross the track as the late evening train was coming in, fell flat on her face directly across the rails and was gotten away as the engine whizzed past.

-It is the little things that fret and worry us. A three-year-old may keep a drive, in common with Republican maman in perfect misery, whereas no such trials would accompany the presence of his eighteen-year old sister. Did you ever observe what a tremendous amount of discomfort there is in a poor cigar—even if it county. The buildings, numerous, large is small? Harry Green's brands are all and commodious, are painted white. This

We should be pleased to not content with running one store, must have some Centre county horsemen enter have two, and if current report be not in the lists, and come out victoriovs.

-Detaining a passenger train may be pleasant sport for S. S. Words Fitly Spoken.

John A. Woodward acted the part of a man and patriot when he said that in case Mr. Hunter should be nominated first for assembly, he would under no circumstances accept a second nomina-tion were it tendered him, because it tion were it tolldered min, owner would not be a good thing for the party to have both nominees on this side. When a number of his friends assured When a number of his friends assured him that they believed his nomination could be made after Mr. Hunter, he said; "No, gentlemen, it must not be done. I should positively decline such a nomination, because it would be a bad thing for the party to have both candidates on this side of the mountain." Those were the words of a true Democrat, and they do Mr. Woodward great credit. Immediately after Mr. great credit. Immediately after Mr. Hunter's nomination, he (Woodward) gracefully withdrew his name, and Mr. Meyer, over the mountain, and at the end of the county, was then nom-This places the candidates for inated. Assembly about the right distance apart and locates them as should be." The above paragraph is taken from the Watchman of last week. We are glad to add our commendation to the course pursued by Mr. Woodward. It was the right thing done at the right time. It could not have been otherwise for Mr. Woodward is incapable of doing a dishonorable or unworthy act. We sincerely hope that the good people of Penn's aud Brush Valleys will bear in mind the action of Mr. Woodward, and at the first opportunity they shall have return with hearty unanimity the favor by giving to a man so worthy and competent their united suffrage. In this connection it is not amiss to state that the manner in which Mr. Woodward was supported by his home and neighbor ing townships demonstrated his strength and popularity among those who know him best. He had practically the unan mous vote of the townships of Boggs, Curtin, Howard, Liberty, Marion and the borough of Howard. It is common for men to receive the unanimous vote of their own township, but it is very uncommon for candidates to receive at the delegate elections the entire popular vote of so many districts.

Over the Mountain.

Through the kindness of Mr. W. B. Miller, of Bedford, we were favored with what necessarily must be an occasion fraught with many pleasing recollections. Leaving Bellefonte, early on Monday morning, with the flery steed under the control of our friend, whose skillful manipulation of the movements of the aforesaid "charger" rival the manner in which fabled Phaethon of old directed the course of the horses supposed to have been at tached to the chariot of the sun,

We started; the courser, whom the lashing v Excites, outstript the winds, and whirl'd the Fast through the airy_void.

and Centre Hall was reached in time to "break the fast" at Meyer's. While there we met many of the leading personages, to whose pleasantry and kindness we owe much of the enjoyment of the occasion W. B. Mingle, cashier of the Penns Valley Banking Company, one of the few men who have not become vritable Shy-locks in a business that so from the case up men's souls, Hon. Fred. Kurtz, Wm Wolf, J. C. Boal, ex-Sheriff Spangler, C. D. Runkle, (the last two are now actively engaged in handling cattle-figuratively, of course,) and many others. This village is orderly, settled by industrious well-todo citizens, and in every respect a most delightful suburban place of residence.

The manager of our colossal aggregation of cheek decided that Centre Hill should be our next stopping place. There M. Strohm, Esq., a venerable gentleman, is proprietor of a complete country store, postmaster, etc.

Two miles farther, is Potter's (Bank) Mills, one of the oldest settlements in the county, situated at the base of the Seven Mountains, enjoys a delightfully healthy climate, surrounded by a farming comm nity noted for the fertility of its soil, and worth and honorable character of its people. We met, and were agreeably entertained for a moment or two by, Mr. W. J. Thompson, general merchant, who report business brisk, even at this dull season the year.

Our next objective point being Spring Mills, the most direct route led us thence via. the back road, and back it is, more serpentine than the spine of enraged Grimalkin ever hoped to be. But the tedious jorities and other evils, grew sensibly less as Spring Mills loomed in sight. The new addition, through the enterprise of I. J. SAD DEATH .- Mr. Robert Pruner, for many years a resident of Bellefonte, was killed on the railroad at Tyrone, on Friday night of last week. The deceased was well known here and had many warm friends, among the citizens of Bellefonte. He was walking on the track when an engine, unobserved bore down upoh him with the above fatal result.

Mr. Pruner was a brother of Edward Pruner, Esq., of Tyrone, Joseph Pruner, Miss Margaret Pruner, Mrs. Jacob Shrom and Mrs. John Hoffer, of Bellefonte.

Death at any time under any circumstances is dreadful, but when cut down, thus, in the enjoyment of good health, separated from loving and indulgent friends it is doubly distressing.

A PLEASANT AFFAIR .- The auditory of the Presbyterian church was filled, on Thursday evening, by an expectant representation of all the best families in townto witness the marriage of Rev. Sylvester Beach, of Baltimore, and Miss Nellie Orbison, of this place.

At 6.30 the organ pealed forth a wed, ding march and the contracting parties, preceded by the attendants, Misses Beach of Baltimore, Morris of Philadelphia, Emma Valentine, Agnes Orbison and Bessie Sommerville, of this place, together with the ushers, filed down the centre aisle, every one thought the bride beautiful and the groom dignified and handsome Rev. Dr. Woodbridge, of New Jersey, erformed the ceremony, assisted by Rev. Laurie. The chancel and pulpit furniture were elegantly and tastefully decorated with choice flowers.

The couple left on the 8.45 train to visit different points of interest prior to entering upon the realities of house keeping, in which undertaking they will be continually upheld by the good wishes and prayers of their many friends.

One day last week we heard the cry of 'Police" on the upper end of Front street. We wended our way thitherward to see what the excitement was and upon our arrival found a man lying upon the ground in the custody of two men who we took for policemen, begging piteously to be allowed to go on with his wife whom it appears he had been choking and otherwise abusing as they were passing along in their wagon which was standing by. The man was considerably the worse for liquor and she, (the wife,) had been jawing him as she said, for drinking and he struck and choked her. She joined her petitions with his and after quite a lot of parleying they were allowed to go home to their family which was, as he asserted, the finest in the inty, particularly his b he must be a fine lad if he was a chip from the old block. Persons desiring a fair discussion of the issues involved in the present campaign can seenre the same by subscribing now. It is important that every Democrat in the county be a regular reader of a good live Democratic paper and to thus favor the many who we know do not have this means of keeping themselves posted we make this offer. -Wilson, McFarlane & Co., call attention to the only reliable Ready Mixed Paint in the market. The Pioneer Prepared Paint is not only superior to any Ready Mixed Paint sold but rivals pure white lead in its smoothness in working and durability. This paint is guaranteed by the manufactures not to crack or peel within three years. The guarantee is not only good for replacing the paint but it will be put on if it should crack or peel within the time specified. It will be to your interest to call and see Wilson, Mc-Farlane & Co., Lefore purchasing either white lead or any other Ready Mixed Paint.

-After all that any of us can say is said it will be acknowledged that our statement is correct that Messrs. S. & A. Loeb are to-day enjoying a larger trade than any other of the general mecrhants in Bellefonte. It seems as though the usual inactivity of trade at this period of the year has little or no effect upon them. They sell Arbuckle's roasted coffee at 17 cents per pound, and everything else at the same rate. Their motto being "Live and let live."

-At this time, during the heated term it is very natural for us to desire to wear as little clothing as possible. But the time is coming when heavier garments will be needed and there is no reason why preparation should not be made now. The Philadelphia Branch disposed of a great deal of summer clothing during the season and still has anything in that line that you may need. Take our advice, call upon Mr. Lewin and see whether or not he can give you a bargain in fall clothing. There are many inducements that he is prepared to extend during the coming thirty dasy.
