NINTH ANNUAL PICNIC OF THE PA TRONS OF HUSBANDRY OF CENTRE COUN-TY will be held on the top of Nittany Mountain, near Centre Hall, on Thursday the 21st of September. There will be speaking from the main stand during the day by Col. V. E. Piolett, of Bradford county, Hon. A. G. Curtin, of Bellefonte, and others. All are cordially invited to

-To-day is the Jewish New Year. -For kidney and pelvic difficulties take MANALIN.

-Union county is going to have a large agricultural exposition, commencing October 4th.

-James B. M'Bath succeeds J. J. Galbraith as city editor of the Williamsport Gazette & Bulletin.

-September 26 has been named as the date of the next piano fund concert. Hunt up your tickets.

-Fifty-one new members will be admitted into full membership at the M. E. church next Sunday evening. -The festival of the ladies of the Luth eran church, held the latter part of last week netted the church about $225. -The county commissioners have con cluded to repair the court house roof instead of putting on an entire new one. -Miss Kate Schaeffer, of Nittany, on Tuesday, entered Lutherville (Md.) Seminary, where she expects to complete her education. -The Lock Haven young man will be sorely taxed during the coming season, as entertainments will be given every other -A picnic and festival will be held at

Penns Valley Cave, under the direction of the Farmer's Mills Band, on Saturday. A good time is anticipated. -- Have you seen the Y. M. C. A. Record? Is it not neat? Since its issue we have been gently blowing the glory off the shoulders of our job printer. -Prof A. Girod, of Milesburg, is organizing a class in vocal music at Valen. tine's forge. We trust he may receive the aid of a sufficient number to insure his suc-

-Williamsport's mail carriers: E. M Seigfried, Geo. W. Andrews, Wm. H. Hicks, John S. Leinbach, B. Harry Updegraff and Charles O'Brien, (colored.) Now look out for Hubbell.

-It is thought a new school will be organized by the board of directors to accommodate the number of pupils largely in excess of what should be in charge of the present body of teachers.

-The Altoons Times, a new Democratic daily, is edited by A. J. Grier, a veteran journalist. It is a neat affair mechanically, and edited with much ability. It deserves to and will meet with success

-Mr. J. W. Houser, of Pleasant Gap, has just finished an elegant job of painting, papering, calsomining and frescoing at the State College. It can be seen by calling at the residence of Prof. Atherton.

-Prof. C. L. Gramley, with his brother, Mr. T. M. Gramley, will sell the people of Rebersburg good goods at right prices, they having bought the establishment of Messrs. Samuel Frank & Son. Well, here's looking at you.

-An effort will be made to organize a lyceum in connection with the Y. M. C. A. on Monday evening next. All who are interested, and wish to lend a helping hand, are cordially invited to attend the the Association lecture room.

-Prothonotary Harper and ex-Recorder Tobias, of Bellefonte, called at the Journal office on Saturday but found the fighting made a most popular officer, and Billy Tobias leaves a record such as no other Recorder ever did. He has just completed an extensive index for the county. -Lock Haven Journal.

-The New Orleans Minstrels, who performed at Durley Hall on Monday evening, had one of the best bands which have ever visited our city. Several of the members are fine soloists on their respective instruments .- Bloomington Daily Bulletin, March 12, 1882.

At Reynolds' Hall Friday evening, 15th, Secure seats at once without extra charge at Brew's store.

-All is activity in the theatrical world. Theatre managers have ordered their annual supply of brilliants and the season promises to be one of the most delightful ever experienced. Bellefonte will likely called upon to contribute her share to ou can afford it; remember, however, connected therewith, abundant success. that you and your family must eat, groceries must be bought and paid for, and to meet this demand Mr. Hammon Sechler, whose place of business is in the Bush House Block, has largely increased his stock of elegant fresh groceries, fruits, meat and goodness only knows what all. Pay him a friendly visit, whether you desire to purchase or not, and, our word for t, he will treat you kindly.

-A well known business man of this place, one day last week, proposed that he, with nine others, should go to the office of the CENTRE DEMOCRAT, and throw out its presses, material, etc. The gentleman must have an indefinite idea of the weight of "them" presses, and no idea at all of what the probable weight of the material is. Ever since the threat reached us, our devil, broomstick in hand, has been stationed at the main entrance to ward off attacks of the character mentioned, and he is considered able to attend to the party whenever it may suit his convenience to call. Seriously, it has rather too much of the socialistic spirit in it to be treated in this style, and were it not that the party has on previous occasions proven himself a cowardly braggart we should treat it as it deserves. In case you conclude to do as you have remarked you would like to do, be kind enough to give us two moments notice.

-The Child of the State will be rendered at Reynolds Hall, Monday evening, Sept. 18. The fellowing from the Harrisburg Patriot is complimentary: A large and highly pleased audience reeted the famous Child of the State Company at the opera house last night. The play is one of the strongest known, and the company interpreting it are all artists of ability. At the end of each act the enthusiasm was so great that the curtain was again raised. Zelma Valdemir, the Russian artist, gave a strange portrayal of the character of Gertrude, and the Carline of Emma Stokes was a clever bit of acting. Under the management of Frank Pilling this play is meeting with great success, and it is deserved, for a stronger play or better company has not been seen at the pera house for many months.

No extra charge for reserved seats chart at Brew's store.

-With a sigh of relief we herald the announcement that hoops, not the ones used to keep barrel staves intact, but the sort that has rendered lovemaking a nuiance and fortified maidens fair so long, sare about to be discarded, at least so says Madam La Mode whose distates in this case, will be obeyed with wonderful alacrity and unanimity. But, ah, yes! but men must needs continue to adorn their beautifully formed lower extremities with pantaloons so tight that to sit down means to endanger the cohesiveness of their several onstituent parts. Now, the kind Lewin, proprietor of the Philadelphia Branch. whose clothing has been tendered compliment after compliment, sells will not rip.

-We desire on behalf of Messrs. S. & A. Loeb to call the attention of buyers to the following facts regarding their business: The house was established in 1852 hence is one of the oldest in the county they deal in everything, and have made every line of goods a specialty,-hence are able to accomodate all at reasonable rates; their salesmen are, genteel and obliging othing advertised by them is ever wanting when asked for, their motto is " Live and let live." and they honestly endeavor to carry into actual business practice the theory it teaches, and they are fully alive to the interests and necessities of their

-The New Orleans Minstrels played to Opera House. The vocal and instrumental part of the programme was exceedingly fine, the trombone solo of George W-Beck, and the clarionet solo of George W. Francum being deservedly encored. The dancing was very good and far above the average of that of more pretentious companies .- Auburnian, Auburn, N. It was lighted up with a great many coal oil lights placed at short intervals in niches in the rocky sides.

SOLDIERS' REUNION .- The veterans of the late war, who reside in this county, have for years been banded together in an organization known as the Veteran Club of Centre County, which is annually called together for the purpose of friendly greeting and to enjoy the pleasure of each other's company for at least one day. This year the objective point was Snow Shoe, to which place the excurtionists were taken on two trains. Arriving at their destination the different delegations were hastily formed in line before marching to the centre of attraction, the speaker's stand: Rev. W. A. Carver, of Snow Shoe, delivered the address of welcome, to which D. F. Fortney, Esq., responded, after which Col. D. S. Keller, Secretary, called the roll, and announced dinner in

When a sufficient quantity of good hings had been stored away, a large crowd urrounded the stand and Prof. G. W. Atherton. President of the faculty of the State College, was introduced. He spoke at some length, is a pleasant, forcible speaker. Hon. A. G. Curtin followed in his usual happy style, causing many a broad grin to spread itself over the faces of his listeners, when they were not on the verge of weeping as he graphically portrayed the various incidents of the war with which he was intimately associated. Gen. Thos. McCoy, of Tyrone, who had been elected an honorary member of the club, thanked its members for the honor onferred. Col. D. H. Hastings, and you all know how bashful our handsome friend is, tried to hide behind a tree when a chorus of voices declared their owners neighborhood was large enough to screen him, and he concluded to face the music. as he often has faced death on the bloody field, and produced a decidedly favorable mpression. His talk was patriotic, cheering and consoling to the friends of deceased soldiers. Mr. Abram Jeroid then presented to Post 26I, a fife he had captured from a soldier in the Southern army at Jamestown, Ken., D. F. Capt. Curtin Heard From.

ROLAND, PA., Sept. 12, '82. MESSES. SHUGERT & VAN ORMER, Genlemen: In your editorial placed in a conspicuous placein the last issue of your pa, per, you make a serious charge in regard to the organization of soldiers known as the "Grand Army of the Republic." I will not state your charges, all who read your paper know what they are, nor do I intend answering them in full.

I was not in Bellefonte in time to make any answer in the Watchman along with comrades. Harris, Keller and S. H. Williams, but I say here I can answer for all the places in which new posts were mustered, Unionville, Howard, Milesburg, Pine Grove Mills, Snow Shoe and Centre Hall, and say it is not so at any of the places to the best of my knowledge and be-

In your article you say "the members, who go from place to place to organize new posts, we are informed, carry with them blanks with printed headings which contain a pledge to support Gen. Beaver for Governor, etc. etc.

Now, Messrs. Editors, no person but myself went from place to place to organize new posts, and the blank I carried, or rather sent, reads as follows: [The blank is an application for charter, and is all right, but too long for insertion .- Ep. 7

I never carried, nor did I ever hear the east intimation of any comrade carrying any paper of the kind you state in your ar ticle, and what is more, politics in no way shape or manner was mentioned by any one in my presence in any such sense. You have had an informant who has evidently lied to you. I do not for a moment charge you with making the story. You owe to yourself, your paper, the G. A. R. and the ommunity the giving of the name of your informant that he may be dealt with as he deserves.

I am a Republican, will use all honorable means to secure the election of Gen. Beaver, but never have I in thought, word r deed, connected his succes, (as a candidate for that high office,) in his belonging to the G. A. R., and I defy any man who lives to face me and say I have done so And I fully and firmly believe, does every other member of No. 95, Dept. of Pa.

I could write much in answer to this infamous charge but I will add but little more because I do not know the authorand because I do not charge it to you.

I paid so little attention to the politics of those we mustered in that I can not tell today the politics of any unless I knew before I met them as men wishing to belong to the G. A. R.

Simon Harper and C. D. Runkle, both Democrats, of Centre Hall, can possibly answer if anything of the kind happened there; John Uzzle and other Democrats can answer for snow Shoe; John R. Baker and other Democratic soldiers can answer wish to hear him speak, but no tree in the for Howard; S. S. Gillman, F. B. Holt and others, who are Democrats, soldiers and members of the G. A. R. for Miles burg, and so on all through.

> We are anxious for such an investigation, let us have your author, then we will answer more fully.

Respectfully, yours, AUSTIN CURTIN.

MESSES, SHUGERT & VAN ORMER: ID our issue of the 7th instant, is an article which reflects somewhat severely upon some of the members of "Gregg Post, intimating that they have been working in the interest of Gen. Beaver, when out organizing new Posts. Fearing an impression might be created throughout this community that the G. A. R. is a Republican institution, I ask for space in your columns to make a few statements concerning said organization.

The Grand Army of the Republic is a late war together in a bond of social union; 2nd, charity, to teach its members the great duty they owe to all distressed soldiers, their widows and orphans, when in need of assistance; 3rd, loyalty, to inculcate a deeper love of country, and loyalty to the flag of our Union.

Politics and sectarianism are not allowed to be discussed at its meetings. It embraces within its folds Catholics and Protestants. Democrats and Republicans, and members of all other sects and parties.

If the fact that Gen. Beaver is a member of Gregg Post makes a few of its members a little more zealous, it does not follow that all members of other posts are necessarily working for him.

Our post, for example, has a number of Democratic members, who would sacrifice fail. The Black is far superior to log wood. all they are worth rather than vote for The other colors are brilliant. Beaver, not because they object to him personally, but because he represents a party whose principles are treasonable, and, if carried out, would plunge our nation into anarchy and suicide.

Yours truly, Spring Mills, Sep. 9. JUSTICE.
