Notice.

We send bills this week to those in arrears, who reside outside the county, and make this final appeal to them to settle up. We have been patient while you have been tardy, and once more call upon you to remit the amount due.

-A Lock Haven cherry tree blossomed last week.

-The purest, best and cheapest remedy is that simple compound PERUNA. -Rev. Kline, of Howard, filled th

Methodist pulpit on Sunday evening. -No one can be healthy with a torpid liver and constipation. Take MANALIN. -Mr. Reuben Shafer and lady returned from the west last Friday, to remain here. -Mr. J. Willard Miller preached three sermons on Sunday, filling the appointments of the Howard circuit. -Two unmarried gentlemen can be ac comodated with good boarding at reasonable rates by applying at this office. -S. A. Taggart, State Secretary of the Y. M. C. A., attended the anniversary of the Boy's Branch on Monday evening.

-Mr. G. E. Parker, of Philipsburg, was in town on Monday, and reported our enterprising neighbors as being as full of life as ever.

-There is no disputing the fact that Harry Green's cigars are the most popular in town. If you have not done so, try them at once.

-Rev. --- Edwards, of Coatesville. Pa., will preach for the Baptist congregation here, on next Sunday evening, in their room, Bush Arcade.

-A special examination of teachers, on Saturday, Oct. 7th, at the Superintendents office, Bellefonte, commencing at 9 A. M., sharp, will be conducted by Prof. Wolf in person

-Mr. Wilkinson, agent for Jno. Wanamaker, has moved into his new room where he now has every thing to suit himself, and will be pleased to receive his many friends.

-Dr. Kirk, ignoring the attractions of his numerous Bellefonte lady friends, on Sunday went to Unionville, where he doubtless reveled in greener pastures. Too bad. Doc.

-Mortimer F. Elliott, Democratic can didate for Congressman-at-Large, passed through town yesterday and was greeted at the depot by a large number of our citizens.

-Mr. Agustus Albright, an employeat the nail works was badly scalded and otherwise injured, on Saturday, by coming in contact with a body of escaping steam from a pipe he was repairing.

-The last person in the world whom we might have expected to meet looked us up on Monday, George R. Barrett, Esq. He is doing some lively work on Philadelphia dailies in a reportorial capacity.

-Our sprightly exchange, the Lewisburg News professes to have bought (?) a new telephone and reports its first day's communication. The crowd consisted of Guiteau, Stewart, Beaver and the Chronicle

-Mr. Philip H. Musser, Millheim's obliging jeweler called to see us early on Monday morning. Philip is an accomplished type-setter and enjoys the communion of the composing room. Call often.

-James Schofield not only sells the best robes and blankets in town, at lowest prices, but can talk more politics than any two men in Bellefonte. Should you need a good harness or desire an hour's chat call on Jim.

DEATH OF REV. A. D. ROWE .- We are indebted to the Lock Haven Journal for the following :

Rev. A. D. Rowe, a Lutheran Mission-ary well-known in this vicinity, died a few days ago of fever, while engaged in the mission work in India. Rev. Rowe began his missionary work in 1874, locat-ing with his wife in Guntoor, India, where he remained for five years. He was about ing with his wife in Guntoor, India, where he remained for five years. He was about 30 years of age and leaves a wife and sev-eral small children. His untimely death is a great loss to the Lutheran church. We append the following biographical sketch:

THE LATE A. D. ROWE.

The subject of this sketch was the son of John B. Rowe, Esq., of Logan town-ship, Clinton county. His early opportu-nities of obtaining an education were such only as the county schools of Clinton county afforded twenty years ago. About the age of 18, however, he attended sev-eral sessions of the county Normal School, located at Rebersburg, Centre county, an located at Rebersburg, Centre county, an institution which was then conducted by R. M. Magee, County Superintendent of that county. In the month of August, 1867, he became a student at the State Normal School at Kutztown, Berks counby, where he became an intimate associate of Prof. A. N. Raub, who then held the shair of English Literature in that insti-lution. In the summer of 1868, he gradtution. In the summer of 1808, he grad-uated in the Elementary course at Kutz-town as one of the brightest members of the first class sent from that school. A few weeks later he was elected as Princi-pal of the Third Ward Grammar school of this city. In the following summer 1600 his city. In the following summer, 1869, his vacation was spent in the study of Natural Science at the State Agricultural Satural Schede at the black Agricultural College. At the opening of the public schools of Lock Haven, in September, 1869, he was promoted to the principalship of the Boy's High School of this city, which post he held until the following January when he resigned and took up the Scientific course of study at the Millers-ville State Normal School where he grad-uated the following July. While yet a student at that institution, the Superintendency of this county became vacant through the resignation of A. H. Strayer, Esq., and Mr. Rowe, though but 21 years of age, was appointed by State Superin-tendent Wickersham as Mr. Strayer's successor. He held the position a little over a year and then resigned to take a Theo-logical course in the Lutheran Seminary at Gettysburg. After the completion of his theological for the Lutheran church, a position which called him to active work in the matter of called him to active work in the matter of addressing meetings of children in various parts of the United States. Mr. Rowe was specially fitted for work of this kind. He was a genisl, pleasant speaker and was in thorough sympathy with child-life. In the summer of 1873 Mr. Rowe married Miss Mary E. Corson, of Bucks county, the summer of the Milly New York. the summer of 1873 Mr. Howe married Miss Mary E. Corson, of Bucks county, also a graduate of the Millersville Normal School, and soon thereafter they sailed as missionaries to India, locating themselves missionaries to India, locating themselves at Guntoor, in the Presidency of Madras. In the summer of 1880 they returned to the United States, but a year later went again to India where, unfortunately, Mr. Rowe died a few weeks ago. Mr. Rowe was a teacher of rare ability and there is no doubt, had he confined himself to his first chosen profession, that he would have risen to eminence and dis-

he would have risen to eminence and distinction in that calling. But few men can bring themselves in such closs sympathy with child-nature as could he. It was this peculiar qualification also which made him specially successful in the work to which he was assigned by his church. He was also a young man of unbounded energy and unlimited industry. He was succes-ful in whatever he undertook, because he was determined to succeed.

While yet in India on his first mission he wrote a number of letters to the Clinton Democrat of this sity, giving much information on Hindoo life and purgiving suits. He was author also of three or four attractive books on Hindoo life, manners and customs, which are published by the Lutheran Board of Publication, Philadeiphia.

BELLEFONTE, Sept. 23, 1882. Messrs. SHUGERT & VAN ORMER :- Be-ow I give you a draft of the problem you gave in your issue of the 21st instant. It is the only way I can see that the board

-A correspondent of the West Chester Daily News wants to know "who William Shortlidge, of Bellefone, is that deems it announced some time ago that the voters ecessary to endorse and vouch for the ir tegrity of Gen. Beaver ?" Mr. Shortlidge should assemble at stated places, on last est that could have been made. is manager of the business operations of Alexander & Co., a member of the staff of the Bellefonte Republican, a local politician, and a gentleman who, if he should ncounter the anxious inquirer, would be chance to read the announcement publishable to state not only his present polltical convictions, but assign ample reasons for his various attitudes in the past, in such a way as to convince the questioner that Centre county Republican politicians understand and practice the theory "you tickle me and I'll tickle you." -The editor of the Port Royal Times, who, upon his return from the printer's picnic, indulged in some complimentary llusions to Bellefonte and its people, has been taken to task by the Juniata Herald, and is charged with "fulsome laudation. Mr. Speddy enjoyed himself while here, and in speaking pleasantly of our town did himself a great deal more credit than they, of a few other sheets, who saw fit to find fault, and in so doing acknowledged being somewhat jealous. Will some one brush that chip off Mr. Allison's shoulder ?

-We are requested by Rev J. T. De Long to announce that the consecration of the new Reformed Church in Bellefonte, which had been announced for Sunday, October 8th, is postponed. This is made ecessary by a mistake in the manufacturng of the pews which has obliged the Building Committee to refuse them. This ostponement of dedication does not affect the convening of Synod which will take place on Wednesday the 11th of October, at 7:30 P. M. according to previous announcement.

-The Young Men's Christian Associa tion of Bellefonte has commenced publishing a neat little monthly called The Record, the first number of which is before us. It is small but first class, both as to matter and form. The Association is an active, live institution and no doubt is a means of doing much good. Its rooms are supplied with four daily papers, two semi-weeklies, twenty-six weeklies and thirteen monthly papers and magazines; besides, a library of five hundred volumes. accommodations for writing, &c. A flourishing Boys' Branch is also connected with the Association .- Millheim Journal

-This is the manner in which the Ha-

leton Bulletin advertises for an office boy :

If there should happen to be among the It there should happen to be smong the readers of the Bulletin a young man who aspires to newspaper fame; who wishes to be thought of highly by our fair damsels; who would aspire for political favors, we can now offer him the chance of gratifying can now offer num the ambitions. We want a his most exalted ambitions, has and hearty devil, a real live, active, hale and hearty devil, a weight the set of the set devil, a real live, active, hale and hearty, willing to-work-for-nothing-devil. We would like to accept the tutorage of a young man in the printing business. Our "devil" is expected to occupy the editor's cigars, answer all interrogations relative to the business of the paper, make bids for the advertising department, and to make himself generally conspicuous. Apply at once to the Bulletin.

-An experienced and reliable chemist declares pure white sugar cheaper and sweeter than brown. We do not doubt this, and feel like advising our readers to buy nothing but white. Sechler & Co., while they will sell you any kind you ask for, prefer to have you buy what they know to be absolutely pure. Their stock of groceries of all kinds was never more complete, and the patronage, with which they have always been favored, is daily increasing. You can buy all edible artieles at their stores at fair and equitable prices

-Our neighbors, Messrs. S. & A. Loeb, will soon receive their fall stock, and from the character of their selections made in the past it is safe to assume that they will return from the Eastern cities with an elegant line of goods to replenish each dedartment of their large store. You have only soldier, (a one-armed one, too,) whose ensuing term are: Thomas Erhard, Pike years and they propose to afford you the same excellent opportunities for judicious investments that have always attracted the attention of the people of this county.

GETTING THEIR WORK IN .- The chair- the legitimate child of the Republica s of man of the Republican county committee professing allegiance to that organization Saturday, and elect delegates to the convention to convene on the Tuesday follow. ing. Fearful that the majority of those whom he wished to get at would not get a ed in the only paper issued in this county in the interest of that party, they had in which Brother Jas. P. Coburn, Esq., posters printed and tacked up in conspicuus places conveying the same intelligence "All things moved on golden hinges, all went merry for while," or until Tuten determined to sit down upon Squire Rankin, and mash him flat, so flat that he would work and A KILKENNY CAT FIGHT resulted. Rankin apparently had the most bers of the party should be influenced by lives, for he came flying in on the home the example of their colored brethren and stretch with a glorious majority. This close up the ranks, and other nonsense, of should have ended the struggle, but Mr. the same nature. Tuten is not one to brook defeat calmly when accomplished through questionable gratuitous advertising :

The managers from all over the town came into the ward to champion their man and every device known to ring methods was resorted to to secure his election and with success.

If the Republicans of this county ever desire any success John I. Rankin is one of the most dangerous of leaders. It is a well known fact that he will stop at noth-ing to advance his own individual ends. He will, as he did hast fall, trade off the whole ticket for his own advancement. It It whole ticket for his own advancement. It is unnecessary to say such men are worse than useless to a party. We will remind our readers that last fall Bellefonte went against the state ticket. The county ticket, except Rankin, was badly slaughtered, while he had nearly 200 majority. Why was this? The answer is-Kankin and his friends of the merewithing the state of the nds sold out everything for votes for im for commissioner

In sifting the above it is readily seen that our esteemed colleague is hitting at Gen. Beaver, for he ever has favored Rankin with any influence he was able to command, and it is not improbable that the Republican knows what it's talking about when it claims that Rankin's succe is due to the practice of "every device known to ring methods." The managers of the Stalwart wing of the party will now have more trouble than ever in keeping the Republican and its editor from kicking over the traces, in their futile efforts to disentangle themselves from the half dozen or more setts of party harness they are working in. Let them kick, and amid the rattle of their hoofs, which reminds us of a woeful tattoo, plryed in memory of a deceased soldier, we saunter into the court house to take a hand in the CONVENTION which assembled on Tuesday at 2 o'clock, with A. O. Furst, Esq., presiding. After the usual business of organizing was completed, the work of nominating and baloting for Representatives followed. It required but one calling of the roll to have the men, whom Hastings & Co. declared to be out of the race, defeated. The vote

Mesars, Rhoads and Rhone, both o whom are gentleman of enviable character and unsullied reputation, having received a majority of all votes cast were declared the nominees. Mr. Walker was very much surprised, no wonder. He was struck hard, and his political career ended ere it began. It matters little, however, who the men are, for ther eis no chance of their being elected.

> -A few suggestions to those who intend be present at the Bi-Centennial, at Philadelphia, commencing Oct. 22:

1st. The railroads having reduced their rates to one-half fare, it would be well for persons is tending to come to Philadelphia to purchase their tickets at as early a date as possible.

2d. They had also better send to me, at the office of the Bi-Centennial association. their names and post office address, and I will with pleasure place them on a list to which hotel keepers and boarding house proprietors, or private families desiring to accommodate visitors, can have access, and send either circulars or letters, giving terms, &c.

3d. Bands should also send me their address, number of pieces, degree of profiiency, lowest terms, &c., &c., which will also be kept on file.

4th. I will also suggest to all civic associations desiring to come to Philadelphia, to send me word the number they will bring, &c.

5th. All manufacturers desiring to take part in the Trade parade should send me the details of their intended display in order to be properly assigned.

6th. CONNESTOGA WAGONS. To show the progress of motors, it would be well to have the old Pennsylvania Conestoga wagon represented. One or more of those ancient, solid, ponderous affairs that used to be weeks crossing the mountains between East and West, beside the magnificent locomotive which now thunders over the same distance in a few hours with long, heavy trains, would afford an eloquent commentary on what the Keystone State has accomplished.

It would also be a unique journey for parties in possession of any of the 'stogas to come with them to Philadelphia, where they would most heartily be received and welcomed.

We hope to have at least half a million visitors in Philadelphia, which during the four festive days in October will present a sight that will not be seen again in a lifetime. In my next, I wll send you more details of the intended celebration, and keep your readers posted on whatever is going forward here in Philadelphia. Very truly yours,

CHAS. W. ALEXANDER, Secretary.
