Local Department.

TEACHERS WANTED.—The school board of Spring township wants two more teachers. Address D. Shearer, Zion, or W. H. Poorman, Bellefonte. Salary, $28.

—New floors have been laid in both school rooms at Boiling Springs and new furniture placed in the grammar department.

—Mr. Samuel Lewin has established a new clothing store at Benazette, Elk county. This is a boon to the citizens of that community.

—The Union Sabbath-school at Mann's is prospering finely. A membership of nearly ninety is now enrolled. Mr. J. M. Bell is superintendent.

—Mr. J. P. Houseman, of Tusseyville, paid us the compliment of a call last week. Glad to have seen him and shall be pleased to have him call often.

—Mr. Samuel Stein, of Roland, who is noted for the quality of flour he manufactures, looked in upon the DEMOCRAT on Saturday evening.

—Mr. S. Goldsmith returned from his trip to the East on Friday last bringing with him his sister, Miss Fanny Goldsmith, who will remain for some time.

—The packet of papers intended for Pine Grove Mills subscribers by some means found its way to Port Matilda, last week. This explains the cause of the delay.

—Mr. J. N. Van Ormer, after a prolonged tour of this and adjoining counties in the interest of Bartroff's carriage works, returned with a glowing description of the several localities visited.

—Dr. Geo. P. Rishel is attending lectures at Pennsylvania University, Philadelphia. At the close of this session he will graduate and then commence the practice of his chosen profession.

—If idling time away gossiping, or rubbing the paint off front door steps were a sure road to success in life, we know of one or two young men in Bellefonte who might soon be reckoned millionaires.

—W. H. Noll, Jr., will teach Pleasant Gap pike school and J. F. Harrison, Jr., the Horntown school. Now, boys, direct the attention of the young idea to a proper target, and then you can let it shoot with a clear conscience.

—Those of our patrons who have any desire to read all the news relative to occurrences in Ohio and neighboring States should subscribe for the Cincinnati Times Star, the best of all daily papers published in the native State of the famous "Ohio man." Send for specimen copy.

—After enduring, in comparative silence all summer, the inconveniences caused the citizens of town by the grasping cupidities of the men who attended the curb market here, twice a week, our down-town friends of the press are pitching into the market-ers with a vengeance that is truly remarkable.

—The white waiters employed at the hotels controlled by the Pennsylvania railroad company have been discharged and colored ones put in their places. The men thus displaced were paid one month's wages in excess of the amount due them and new situations secured elsewhere for them by the company.

—The Bellefonte readers of the DEMOCRAT will be pleased to learn that Mr. Eddy Graham has reached home and is in a fair way to recover. He looks none the worse on account of his continued confinement and all his friends unite in the prayer that his entire convalescence may be announced in the immediate future.

—In its comments upon the late county convention and its work, the Republican indulges in some of its old-time humor, grows facetious, as it were, and finally when its pent-up feelings can no longer be confined to their narrow limits blurt out in reference to the success of the candidates, that it "is a question deeply hidden in the womb of the future." Well, we should smile.

—Are the Republicans indulging the fond hope of inducing the Grangers to rally to their support, because Leonard Rhone, Esq., is on their ticket for Assembly?

—Have they any assurance that the capitalists, monopolists and financial autocrats will go in with them to win simply because Daniel Rhoads, Esq., has been nominated as a candidate for Representative? Oh, don't ask us.

—Mr. L. L. Boblett, of Philadelphia, who is engaged in the preparation of a history of this county, and who with his family spent the summer here, is again in town, stopping at the Brockenhoff House. Mr. Boblett is an exceedingly affable gentleman, and his effort to place in the hands of the people of our county an unprejudiced and reliable history will meet with entire success.

—The old Cincinnati Weekly Times continues to minister to the wants of its thousands of subscribers and friends, just as it has been wont to do for these many years. It can be called a family paper, business man's paper and young folks' paper, filling as it does each and every mission of an honest, capable and trustworthy publication. Terms $1, per annum. Read its announcement on our third page.

THE COST OF LIVING.—Mr. Atkinson, a well-known writer on social subjects, asserts that the average earnings of the whole population of this country are not over fifty cents a day, or $1 a day for a family of two persons, and $2 a day for a family of four; and there are thousands of families who manage to get along on an income of $300 a year. When social conventionalism, therefore, lays it down that a young couple have no business getting married on a smaller income than $1,000 a year, it not only defies notorious facts, but forgets that the majority of those who constitute our best society began life on half a thousand a year. That expenses may not exceed the income it is necessary that some attention be paid to the quality as well as quantity of what is purchased. If your income be large or small it will pay you to buy groceries from Sechler & Co.

EDITORS OF THE CENTRE DEMOCRAT.—Gentlemen: The people of Snow Shoe, and the whole region round about, are noted for their hospitality and generosity. No where do strangers and visitors receive a more cordial greeting. There are few people who once know them who can easily forget them. They have the happy faculty of making lasting friends. They respond quickly to any call on their benevolence and beneficence, and they do it with a heartiness and on a scale commensurate with their grand mountain home. Only last week they gave another instance of this, in their generous gift of seventy dollars, to one of their ministers, W. O. Wright. Such kindness and generosity deserve to be highly commended. "Ye shall know them by their fruits."

Nor are the people of Bellefonte and Milesburg lacking in these praiseworthy qualities. Only a few days ago some of these kind people sent me a handsome set of the "People's" Cyclopaedia of Universal Knowledge, through the kindness of the Rev. Myers, the agent for this excellent work. For these favors I desire to make my grateful acknowledgements.

Respectfully,
Milesburg, Oct. 2, W. O. WRIGHT.

Y. M. C. A. CONVENTION OF PENNSYLVANIA.—This annual convention held in Williamsport closed on Sunday evening last. One hundred and thirty-nine delegates were present besides visitors from some Associations. The first session was held on Thursday afternoon in the Y. M. C. A. hall, James McCormick, Esq., of Harrisburg, Chairman of the State Executive Committee, occupying the chair. Mr. T. B. Patton, of Altoona, Messrs. J. W. Gephart, of Bellefonte, and C. P. Heffenstein, of Shamokin, were chosen president and vice presidents.

Rev. S. E. Webster delivered the address of welcome in the Pine street M. E. church in the evening. The President, T. B. Patton responded to the cordial greeting after which Mr. W. R. Davenport, a prominent car builder of Erie, spoke on "Employers, their Duty to Young Men in their Employ." Among the topics of Friday were "Liberaries and Reading Rooms in care of Associations" by A. G. Kimberly, of Berwick. He argued the necessity of a good library in every town. Berwick, about the size of Bellefonte, has such. "Can a Young Men's Meeting be sustained in Places of less than two thousand inhabitants?" was opened by J. L. Gordon, of Philadelphia. "The Duty of the Board of Managers to the General Secretary" was well set forth in a paper by Mr. J. F. Robinson, a member of the Pittsburg Board. A State Association was organized and a constitution adopted. President Hill, of Lewisburg University, spoke at the evening session on "The Association in the College," after which reports were heard from the seven colleges represented. Dr. Cottell, of Lafayette College, pronounced the benediction.

On Saturday the business was resumed by a discussion on "What Are You Doing for Railroad Men?" Mr. H. T. Aukerman, of Altoona, led. A Bible study conducted by Mr. E. A. Orr, of Pittsburg, proved a very instructive and enjoyable affair, and your reporter was deeply impressed with the necessity of Bible studies for every Association. After conversation on topic, "What Are You Doing for Boys?" led by J. W. Miller, Bellefonte, the morning session adjourned.

The afternoon work was begun by a paper "Developing Workers from the Boy's Branch" by J. C. Johnson, Wilkesbarre. Discussion followed after which the "Watchman," the national organ of the Y. M. C. A., received attention. A half hour was given to devotional exercises.

The evening session was held in the Second Presbyterian church and the main topic of the evening was presented by J. W. Gephart, Bellefonte, by a most excellent paper on, "How Can a General Secretary be secured in a Town of less than ten thousand inhabitants?" Five minute addresses followed. "On the Work of a General Secretary."

Rev. J. C. Clark, of the Pine street Methodist church, pronounced the benediction.

At nine o'clock Sunday evening, a consecration meeting was held in the Association hall, and at 10:30 the various churches of the city were supplied by representatives of Associations, as they were also in evening.

The most impressive of all meetings was the young men's at four o'clock. The hall was large and filled with young men who were deeply sensible of God's presence. Four young men signified their desire to lead better lives. Open air and railroad men's meetings were held at different times during the week.

The farewell meeting was held in the Pine street church. The house was so crowded a half hour before the time for service that the pastor, Rev. Mr. Clarke, led in devotional services until the announced time of the meeting. Rev. Geo. Cooper, of the Baptist church, delivered the farewell address and not until ten o'clock did the delegates join hands in singing "Blest be the Tie That Binds." Shortly after the benediction was pronounced by Rev. J. Burroughs and the convention adjourned.

The Mill Hall Grammar school will be placed in charge of W. R. Leathers, of Mt. Eagle. Mr. Leathers is a good teacher, and we congratulate our Mill Hall friends.

—Mr. Geo. D'Almaine, the portrait painter, has been giving colored crayon or pastel work especial attention during his sojourn here. Those of our readers who love the beautiful, who appreciate artistic merit, and have not, as yet, seen any of this class of Mr. D'Almaine's work, should do so before he leaves town. Two of the most impressive of his many colored portraits are those of Jno. B. Linn, Esq., and his wife. In time to come, the descendants of our local historian will carefully scan the face, so faithfully portrayed, and have no trouble in pointing out the characteristics that now are so prominent. For happy blending of light, shade and color, the pictures can be equaled by few, if any. Another, that of one of Bellefonte's fair and handsome young ladies, has been pronounced by competent critics an admirable effort, and a very suitable representation of the most attractive style of American beauty. The subject of this will pardon our evident freedom and we promise never to do so again. In the line of crayon work Mr. D'Almaine has added new lustre to the reputation that preceded his coming here, by the masterly execution of portraits of Gen. Jas. A. Beaver and Abram S. Valentine, Esq. Nothing finer, more elegant or life-like could be expected from a steel engraving or mezzotint. That our people appreciate art in its noblest conception is certainly gratifying, indicating, as it does, refined taste and superior culture.

The elegant structure, used as a place of worship by the Methodists, of Bellefonte, narrowly escaped being burned on Wednesday evening of last week. Oiled rags are used, in cleaning the church, to clean the backs of seats and other furniture, some of which, when the time to quit work came, had been thrown into the pew that had been brushed up last, and while these spontaneous combustions ignited them, setting fire to the cushion. It was discovered miraculously in season to prevent the total destruction of the building.

John Olewine is a married man. Before taking this step he built and furnished a house. After all necessary preparations had been made he led Miss Tinnie Gummo to the altar and at seven o'clock, on last Wednesday evening, they were made one. The only question that now puzzles Mr. Olewine, is to know which is to be that one. The young couple commence the real voyage of life under very favorable circumstances, that they may never encounter anything unpleasant is the wish of all their friends.

—To-morrow night after the usual weekly prayer meeting the Y. M. C. A. will elect officers for the ensuing year. The retiring President, D. S. Keller, Esq., has filled his honorable position to the satisfaction of all concerned and is prepared to hand over to his successor the executive control of one of the most successful Associations in the State, and we hope the majority of ballots will be cast for one as active, zealous and capable as he.

—The farewell sermon of Rev. J. M. Palmer, who for three years has presided over the destinies of the A. M. E. church, of this place, preached on last Sunday evening was very touching. An intimacy, cemented by ministerial association, had taken firm hold upon the members of Mr. Palmer's church, and had spread into the community. We know of no one who does not wish the gentleman life-long prosperity.

—Dr. Hoy, who, by the way, is to be the next Coroner of this county, presented us with a specimen of what can be called successful fruit growing, in the shape of a monster pear. It was grown upon the farm of his father, Mr. John Hoy, near town. Doc, you can call whenever you have any more pears to give away.

—John Spangler, Esq., and Mr. C. D. Runkle, of Centre Hall, passed through town, some days ago, with a drove of the finest cattle ever brought to this county. They are making a business of stock dealing and we are glad to know they are succeeding.

—Rev. W. R. Whitney, of Wallaceport, Clearfield county, was in town on Tuesday. We can say to Mr. Whitney's friends in this county that he looks well, and is apparently enjoying life to the full.

—Hon. A. H. Smith, mayor of Phillipsburg, attended the meeting of Gregg Post on Tuesday evening. Mr. Smith is a pleasant gentleman and without any doubt he administers the municipal affairs of our neighbors satisfactorily.

—The M. E. sociable, on Tuesday evening was well attended. The exercises were interesting, especially so the reading of the Methodist Monthly by the editor, W. F. Reeder. In the matter of the collection the result was satisfactory.

—Look at trade dollars carefully before you take them. Some are only iron neatly washed or plated with silver, but not cleverly enough to deceive any one who examines the coin closely.

—Capt. W. W. Potter, agent of the P. R. R. company at this place, is very justly esteemed one of the most obliging and gentlemanly officials in the employ of that gigantic concern.

—Mr. E. T. Cole, one of the successful farmers of Walker township, called on Saturday.

—An interesting letter from our Port Matilda correspondent is crowded out this week.

—Never be without a bottle of that pure, mild, compound, PERUSA; take it with first symptoms.

—We had the pleasure of meeting Mr. Louis Sickles, agent for M. H. Eaton, Philadelphia, yesterday.

—Dr. Chapman said he could cure all disease with lancet, cologne and opium. You can with PERUSA.

—Prof. W. T. Meyer, of Aaronsburg, was in town on Friday, shaking hands with his many friends.

—It is thought the whale of the Republic has swallowed the Jonah of that party, in this county. What a whale!

—Faded articles of all kinds restored to their original beauty by Diamond Dyes. Perfect and simple. 10 cents, at all drug-gists.

—One new top buggy, one new open buggy, one new platform spring wagon for sale by Jas. Harris & Co., Bellefonte, Pa. 38-21.

—Special inducements for Fall and Winter clothing during the Summer months.

—We acknowledge the receipt of complimentary tickets of admission to the race of the Phillipsburg Driving Park Association, which commenced on Tuesday and will close to-day.

—S. & A. Loeb invite special attention to their unusually full stock of boots and shoes for men, women and children. The quantity, quality and prices alike challenge closest inspection.

—In dry goods S. & A. Loeb still lead as they always have done in the past. Their dry goods are always staple, well selected and no old unreasonable goods offered for sale. Go to see them.

—Baum's hack will leave Bellefonte for Lock Haven on Saturday morning at 5 o'clock and return Sunday forenoon. Fare for round trip $1.50. Those desiring to see Barnum's show will find this a good chance to go.

—The Democratic County Committee has opened rooms on the second floor of the Conrad House. To those headquarters the members of the party are cordially invited, where matters pertaining to the campaign can be discussed.

—Our good Democratic friend Mr. D. W. Miller, of Ferguson township, called to see us on Tuesday. Mr. Miller is one of the educational stand-bys of his district and takes a deep interest in all that pertains to the welfare of the schools.

—If the army of Washington at Valley Forge, during that historic period of unusual hardship, had been fortunate enough to have had access to a stock of clothing, such as Loeb's are now showing there would have been no occasion for the soldiers to have suffered as they did.

—Shoemakers, farmers and everybody using sole leather, will find it to their advantage to call and examine the nice, clean, plump leather just opened by Graham & Son, corner Brockerhoff row. It can be used for sewed or pegged boots and shoes. Without fear of contradiction we say it is the best leather offered in Bellefonte for a year.

—Graham and Son have a fine line of boots and shoes of all kinds, from the finest soft French kid shoes for the ladies down to men's heavy four-sole driving boots, men's gums, women's and children's good solid calf-skin shoes for fall and winter wear. For ease and comfort try a pair of their sewed army shoes. Remember the place—corner Brockerhoff row.

—Do not fail to attend the oyster supper to-night in the Y. M. C. A. rooms. The cause is worthy your support and you will be no poorer for having contributed the price of one or two tickets. Fair ladies, fine music, pleasant rooms, oysters in all styles known to culinary art, entertaining company, polite attendance and a hearty welcome are some of the attractions held out.

—An abundance of elegant clothing, complete in every respect is being exhibited at the Philadelphia Branch. There is nothing in that line that you cannot buy at right prices. The assortment never was fuller, the quality of the goods handled never was better, the different grades, from which to select, never were more numerous, the clerks never were more attentive, and the proprietor never was in better spirits. Do not delay making your usual fall purchases until the best of everything is picked out.

—Wilson, McFarlane & Co., call attention to the only reliable Ready Mixed Paint in the market. The Pioneer Prepared Paint is not only superior to any Ready Mixed Paint sold but rivals pure white lead in its smoothness in working and durability. This paint is guaranteed by the manufacturer not to crack or peel within three years. The guarantee is not only good for replacing the paint but it will be put on if it should crack or peel within the time specified. It will be to your interest to call and see Wilson, McFarlane & Co., before purchasing either white lead or any other Ready Mixed Paint.

—Mr. Randolph Nightingale, lately with H. Y. Sitzer, Esq., has gone to Philadelphia to resume his studies at the Jefferson Medical College.

MUSICAL INSTRUCTION.—The undersigned wishes to give instruction in music in remuneration for board.

Please address,
MISS S. OHNSMACAT,
39-1st BELLEFONTE, P. O.

—After a long life of singular usefulness Mr. John Keen, one of the most prominent of Millheim's citizens and business men, died at his residence, in that place at an early hour on Saturday morning, having reached within 23 days the ripe age of 73 years. Mr. Keen was closely identified with the material prosperity of his town and vicinity, and was looked upon as a man of strict integrity, uncompromising fidelity to any trust and confidence reposed in him, and enjoyed the universal good will and esteem of his neighbors. May his rest be tranquil.

GREENBACK LABOR BLOW-OUT.—The tail of Cameron's kite shot athwart the political sky here on Saturday afternoon. Mr. Armstrong, who heads the ticket of the so-called Greenback-labor party addressed a motley crowd at the court house. Mr. Harrison, of Baltimore, preceded him in a wishy-washy harangue of an hour, in which he declared there were but two parties, and they the ones now actively supporting Beaver and Armstrong. There was nothing in the speech meriting particular notice.

Thos. A. Armstrong, the purely nominal representative of the defunct Greenbackers, and chief advocate of the infantile Labor organization, as a political factor, is a man of unusual and commanding appearance, the extraordinary style of his facial development at once attracting attention. He presented his case in a cool, unimpassioned manner, showing that he had committed his little speech thoroughly, but like all orators, who are little accustomed to public speaking, he seemed more or less embarrassed and his hearers frequently became restless as the conviction forced itself upon them that he would "break down."

His argumentation evolved nothing new in solving the problem that is now causing political solons to so industriously scratch their heads, his explanations cast no rays of light upon the complicated rebus that is engrossing the attention of so many, and the best part of his speech was that part he failed to deliver, a description of the mystic link binding him to the machine. No sensible person doubts that the only end this movement is to subvert is the withdrawal of Democratic votes from Patton, but the intent is too apparent and Centre county will roll up more than the usual majority for the entire ticket to be found on the first page of the DEMOCRAT.

The affair, taken as a whole, speaking a la engineers, was a "good exhaust." SYNOD OF THE UNITED STATES.—The annual sessions of the Synod of the Reformed Church in the United States will be held in the Reformed church, in this place, on Wednesday of next week, October 11, at 7:30 p. m.
