The Centre Democrat.

Thursday Morning, October, 19, 1882. CORRESPONDENCE, containing important news, solicit d from any part of the county. No communication-merted unless accompanied by the real name of the Local Department.

-If you are subject to chills, a certain cure is PERUNA. Regulate your bowls with MANALIN.

-Forty criminal cases were disposed of by the Court during the last term of Quarter sessions of Clearfield county.

-We have received a copy of Justice an anti-monopoly paper published at 252 Broadway, New York. $1. per annum. It covers the entire ground and is well worth the price asked.

-A democratic mass meeting was held Houtzdale on Saturday evening, Oct. 14. Speeches were mace by Hon. A. G. Curtin, Col Walter Barret, --- Brockhart, Esq. and D. F. Fortney, Esq.

-Our citizens are beginning to value the advantages held out by the managers of the Holly Tree Inn and the number of persons who breakfast there before leaving town on the early morning train is constantly increasing.

-When it comes to combining business with pleasure our friend. Mr. Kyle M'Farlane, is perfectly at home. His idea of killing two birds with one stone, or rather transporting a lady and stove in one buggy is good and worthy emulation. -Can Bellefonte not organize a cornet band? An effort was made on Tuesday to revive the once famous organization in which our citizens took so much pride but the effort failed ignominiously and all fell through. Come, boys, brace up.

-The men's reading room connected with the Y. M. C. A. has been tastefully papered, and is now one of the most attractive rooms in town. All persons are tendered the freedom of this room and we hope it will be appreciated and frequented as it deserves.

-Mrs. E. T. Tuten, who, accompanied by her son, Mr. E. L. Gray, editor of the Daily News, had been visiting in New England for several months returned home. Mr. Gray, we are pleased to be able to announce, has improved in health, and much of his bouyancy of spirit has returned.

-You can find the largest line of ladies and misses gossamers and gum coats at the Boston Clothing House, Bellefonte, Pa., and at prices less than any other store in the county, and every one is warranted to give satisfaction. Call at the Boston Clothing House when you are in town.

-We have received the October number of Wilford's Microcosna, a religioscientific monthly edited by A. W. Hall Ph. D., and published by Hall & Co., 23 Park Row, New York. Its list of contributors is large and the discussions cover a number of questions interesting to scientists and others, who desire to keep pace with thinking minds of the age. One dollar per annum.

-A meeting of the Democrats of Gregg township will be held at Union Scho house on next Tuesday evening. Addresses will be delivered by C. M. Bower, Esq., J. L. Spangler, Esq., and Hon. Fred. Kurtz. We hope all will attend as the invitation includes our Republican friends, and if they "lend us their ears" something will be said that may cause them to see the error of their ways and repent ere it is too late.

-The service of song and praise in the lecture room of the Y. M. C. A. on Sunday afternoon was well attended. Rev. W. H. Hibschman, of Northampton county, led. Rev. J. H. Bomberger, of Collegeville, Rev. T. T. Miller, of Easton and Rev. J. Stein, of Philadelphia, delivered encouraging and appropriate addresses. D. S. Keller, Esq., on behalf of the Association tendered the visiting gen-

THE COST OF LIVING .- Mr. Atkinson a well-known writer on social subjects, asserts that the average earnings of the whole population of this country are not over fifty cents a day, or $1 a day for a family of two persons, and $2 a day for a family of four ; and there are thousands of families who manage to get along on an income of $300 a year. When social conventionalism, therefore, lavs it down that a young couple have no business getting married on a smaller income than $1,000 a year, it not only defies notorious facts, but forgets that the majority of those who constitute our best society began life on half a thousand a year. That expenses may not exceed the income it is necessary that some attention be paid to the quality as well as quantity of what is purchased.
