

The Centre Democrat.

Thursday Morning, November 2, 1882.

CORRESPONDENCE, containing important news, solicited from any part of the county. No communication inserted unless accompanied by the real name of the writer.

Local Department.

No service at the M. E. church Sunday evening.

Mr. Wm. Wolf, of Penn township, has rented a farm in Illinois and will take possession next spring.

Monday's News took "Fair Luna" to task for being so late in making her appearance the night before.

We learn that one of our promising young legal lights means to get married about the 10th of this month. Until then

County Superintendent, Rev. D. M. Wolf will hold a special examination of teachers at the court house on Saturday, 11th instant, beginning at 9 A. M.

The Y. M. C. A. hall will be used for the present by the Baptist congregation. The room in Bush's arcade in which they formerly worshipped is being remodelled.

You can find the largest line of ladies' and misses' gossamers and gum coats at the Boston Clothing House, Bellefonte, Pa., and at prices less than any other store in the county, and every one is warranted to give satisfaction. Call at the Boston Clothing House when you are in town.

The Evangelical Alliance has announced that its members throughout the world will observe the week commencing January 7, '83, as a week of prayer. Special attention will be given to prayer for the church universal for families, thanksgiving, education, temperance, missions and the traffic in opium.

The members of the United Brethren church will hold a festival on Tuesday next, in the room lately occupied by Mr. I. Guggenheimer. It will be open all day and evening and meals, luncheon, etc., can be had at all hours. This enterprise is deserving of extensive patronage and we trust the assistance asked for will be cheerfully given.

On Tuesday of last week, the Pardon Board listened to arguments favoring the release of Moyer and Erb, the unhung Snyder county murderers. The pardon of Moyer was unconditionally refused and that of Erb continued for the present. Moyer will be taken from the Middleburg jail, before long, and in accordance with the death warrant to be issued by Gov. Hoyt, hanged upon the same scaffold used to execute his brother a short time ago.

A crowd of real gypsies—those romantic beggars, thieves and fortune-tellers,—passed through town on Friday. The band encamped in Armor's woods and during their stay the town was visited frequently by members in search of anything they could get that was worth appropriating. They had with them women, children, horses, dogs, bears and monkeys, and seemed perfectly content with their lot.

Tuesday night, 31 ultimo, was halloven. Although custom has changed many of the practices and doings upon the annual recurrence of the holiday, the small boy continues to indulge in corn throwing, and the larger one to show his restless spirit by moving any object not fastened and thus rendered incapable of being toted around. The license usually granted is very often imposed upon to the inconvenience of the subjects of the practical jokes.

We have received N. W. Ayer & Son's American Newspaper Annual for 1882. It is a handsome book of over 800 pages and contains a complete list of all the papers published in the United States, Territories and Canada. Valuable information concerning cities, towns and villages, distinctive features of States and counties, and a great deal of matter interesting to every one. Advertisers will find it specially suited to the furtherance of their interests. Price $3. Address N. W. Ayer & Son, Times Building, Chesnut and 8th streets, Philadelphia.

A district convention of the Y. M. C. A. will be held at Centre Hall, November 10 and 12. Representatives from Hughesville, Williamsport, Jersey Shore, Renovo, Lock Haven, State College, Bellefonte and Centre Hall will participate. We do not know what work is marked out to be accomplished but suppose the interests of the association will be materially furthered by the gathering. At any rate we commend the visiting members to the good people of Centre Hall and are satisfied that on the score of entertainment no room will be left for fault finding.

The new styles of house wrappers and morning negligees, take the form of Japanese and Turkish robes—principally the latter. The Modistes ought never to allow Arabi Pasha to be punished for his revolt. He has been a god-send to them. He has given us new styles of make-up, he has given us the Arabi red and the Turkish plush, and he has given little boys and young girls the Turkish fez. Arabi deserves a monument instead of the bowstring. A fancy in bonnets at present is to have the crown of one color and the brim of another. The effect is odd, but with some faces it is very becoming. A pretty novelty for neck lingerie, is made by uniting several colors in the ribbon bows that mingle with the lace at the throat. For young girls this is very becoming.

LOUIS HAAS DEAD.—This gentleman, who for many years has conducted the brewery business at Roopburg, a suburb of Bellefonte, breathed his last on Friday morning last. His illness was of a lingering nature, and for some time his death had been anticipated.

He was between 62 and 63 years of age and by frugal attention to business had amassed quite a fortune.

Mrs. Haas, his widow, and five children survive him.

He was buried on Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock, a great many attending the ceremonies.

OVER-SHOOTING.—A grave and dignified D. D., after listening to the recitation of the catechism by a class of children, was asked to make a few remarks to them, whereupon he arose and said: "I desire my young friends, to express an unqualified approbation of this exercise. I regard the catechism as the most admirable epitome of religious belief extant." The superintendent pulled his sleeve and asked him to explain the word epitome, which he elucidated as follows: "By epitome, children, I mean—that is—it is synonymous with synopsis." Too many merchants do the same thing. They use language that few if any understand and as a consequence the facts they wish to communicate are lost sight of. Now, if you will but turn to the advertisement of Messrs. S. & A. Loeb you will be able to read and know what they wish to communicate. Their English is plain and everything they claim will be fully substantiated.

Co. "B" AT THE BI-CENTENNIAL.—A great many Bellefonters attended the exercises attending the celebration of the two hundredth anniversary of the landing of Penn. Co. "B" turned out 31 men strong and made a very creditable appearance while parading. The 2nd Division, to which this company belongs, was commanded by Gen. James A. Beaver, of whose staff Col. D. S. Keller is a member. Regiment 5, with Col. Theodore Burchfield, of Altoona, at the head of it, was supported in part by Lieut. Col. D. H. Hastings and Maj. G. F. Harris. The position of the company was second in the line of march and was led by Capt. Amos Mullen, than whom no handsomer or more attractive officer was to be seen in the entire procession. Lieutenants Potter and Hale received no little attention, and Sergt. Geissinger broke more than one heart by the bewitching smile he once in awhile shot to either side of him. That happy trio Eaton, Strickland and Van Pelt furnished all the amusement needed to entertain those around them, and even yet can, by showing some of the mementoes brought home with them, cause almost any one to laugh heartily.

They were quartered in comfortable rooms on the third floor of a building near the corner of Broad and Race streets, and except on Friday, were permitted to go and come as they pleased. This privilege was taken and it would have been almost as easy to have found a needle in a haystack as to have run across anyone you really desired to see.

At Harrisburg the company was thought to have been a part of the regular army, a compliment fully merited by their military bearing and gentlemanly demeanor.

DEDICATION.—The Reformed congregation, on Sunday last, dedicated to the worship of God one of the most beautiful church buildings in this neighborhood. It is a fine stone structure, situated on corner of Linn and Spring streets and cost, we think, about $14,000. The interior is elegantly furnished, but good taste prevented all flashy display. The pulpit and chancel furniture, as well as the appointments throughout the room, are calculated to insure the greatest amount of comfort and reflect "great credit" upon the persons making the selections.

The dedicatory sermon in the morning by Rev. D. S. Wagner was listened to with marked attention and tended to bind the Reverend gentleman still more closely to those who have been such ardent admirers of him in the past.

In the evening Rev. D. M. Wolf officiated. His discourse, in common with all his efforts toward the furtherance of the interests of the cause in which he is so warmly enlisted, was remarkable for the true Christian spirit noticeable throughout, his earnest desire to reach the hearts of his hearers through love, his practical common sense, and its brevity. The fact of Mr. Wolf's inability to devote his entire time to the ministry, on account of physical causes rendering it impossible, is to be regretted. He would exert an influence such as is rarely encountered.

Rev. J. F. D'Long, announced that the solicitation of subscriptions would be conducted privately, and thanked those who had responded to previous calls, saying that nowhere else, than in Bellefonte, in all probability, would the assistance, rendered by sister denominations and those connected with no branch of the church, be as cheerfully and generously given. We do not know what amount of money is needed to wipe out the existing indebtedness, but would commend the cause to the favorable notice of all our friends.

Graham & Son have a full line of 4 sole driving boots, long leg boots, proof boots, wool lined winter boots, gum boots, lumberman's over shoes, of every description, calf and kip boots for men and boys. Children's button and lace school shoes, the cheapest in town.

—Miss Keyser was placed in charge of the telephone exchange yesterday.

—Mr. John Anderson the popular down town saloonist, has purchased the beer-bottling establishment lately conducted by Mr. I. H. Spitzer.

—The body of Mrs. Dowling, a resident of this place, was brought from Renovo to Bellefonte for interment on Monday.

—Rev. G. D. Pennepacker was presented Wednesday evening, 25th ultimo, with a copy of the "People's Cyclopaedia," the gift of numerous friends.

—If you want a first class pair of boots or gaiters made to order, Graham & Son will make you something extra nice any shape or style desired.

—Mr. Ira Garman, of Coatesville, Chester county, is visiting his parents and friends. Dick is a son of Daniel Garman, Esq., and is learning the business of watch-making with his uncle.

—Graham and Son have the handsomest line of gent's and boy's gaiters in town. No shoddy, no paper soles, every pair warranted good. C. D and E widths. High-cut button shoes for boys wearing short pantaloons, just what is needed for a nice shoe.

—That one of the gentlemen who attended the Bi-Centennial, with others from town, made a strike is evident since we know that he in one day acquired sufficient knowledge of the practice of dentistry to enable him to remove at one operation an entire set of teeth. We wonder whether he intends to make a business of it.

—Miss Sadie A. Reiber, daughter of Dr. W. F. Reiber, of Berrien Springs, Mich., formerly of Pine Grove Mills, this county, was married at the residence of her father, on the 26th of Oct., to Mr. W. C. Hall, of Berrien Springs. The occasion was one of more than ordinary interest, and the bridal presents numerous and costly. We hope the future may have nothing but pleasure in store for them.

—The Holly Tree Inn, the only temperance restaurant of which Bellefonte could boast during the last year, has succumbed to the inevitable and closed its doors. The ladies who managed it were very ardently interested in the work they had so carefully planned, and had the public given the enterprise a time of the support it deserved, all would have been well. It is a sad reflection upon the people of our town that while saloons thrive and grow fat, no attempt to lessen their influence and decrease their effect is encouraged.

—Doll & Mingle still lead in the manufacture and sale of boots and shoes. Enterprise, pluck and business sagacity are sure to win. These are not the only characteristics that mark the business transactions of this firm, they handle only A No. 1 goods, sell at prices, low as any other house in the county, are always obliging, genteel and polite, have unsurpassed facilities for turning out work to order and carry the heaviest line of ready made work. They fully merit the extensive trade with which they are being favored and we can assure our readers that all who deal there will be used fairly. Give them a trial.

—On Wednesday afternoon last the Republican Senatorial Conference of this district met at the office of Col. D. H. Hastings and nominated Cyrus Gordon, Esq., of Clearfield. Gordon? Gord? Gor? oh, yes, now we know, Mr. Gordon is a brother of the gentlemen of the same name residing in Bellefonte, and is a member of the law firm—Murray & Gordon. His nomination was deferred until this late day that the attention given his canvass might not interfere with his business affairs, and he can now proceed as best suits his pleasure to looking after the interests of his clients, and from afar off he can view Wallace passing under the wire amid the plaudits of the thousands who desire that important offices should be filled by competent men. He will need just about 4000 more votes, than he will receive, to elect him.

—Bellefonte usually excels in anything she undertakes. There is a stability and genuineness about Bellefonte enterprise that invariably causes success to perch upon the banners thrown to the breeze by her business men. Prominent among the latter are John Powers & Son, whose manufacture of boots and shoes has long since secured for them a reputation that extends from the Atlantic to the Pacific and is no more confined to the narrow limits of our own neighborhood than can a bushel of wheat be crammed into a one pound paper sack. We are proud of the renown achieved by this firm and as the proof of the pudding is in the eating, we append a few letters—only a few of the many received:

KANSAS CITY, MO., OCT. 15, 1882.
FRIEND JOHN: I am in need of a pair of shoes, I can find nothing out here to compete with your shoes in style, neatness and durability. Enclosed find money order for $10. Make same as before and oblige.
Yours truly,
G. W. MONTGOMERY.
No. 121, Kansas City, Mo.

PITTSBURGH, OCT. 18, 1882.
MY DEAR FRIEND POWERS:—I need a pair of very fine shoes. Send them immediately. Pittsburgh shoes don't suit me.
Yours,
T. J. KROGH.

Works of the Edgewater A. V. R. R. Eleven miles north of Pittsburgh.
MESSRS. POWERS & SON—Gentlemen: Please make for me as early as possible a pair of your best button gaiters, double sole. I need them at once. Send by express to Hulton, Allegheny county, Penna. and oblige.
Yours very truly,
C. ALFRED SMITH.

DEATH OF MRS. J. H. ADAMS.—Mrs. Adams died Tuesday night after a protracted and suffering illness. Dr. Goodell, of Philadelphia, one of the most eminent members of the medical profession and a professor in the University of Pennsylvania, was summoned by Dr. Hayes on Saturday last and performed a very delicate and careful operation, but on account of important internal organs being involved with malignant disease, no hope was entertained by Dr. Goodell of her recovery. A devoted husband and loving daughter and son tenderly nursed her and deeply mourn her death.

SPRING MILLS NEWS.—Scarlet fever is prevailing at Spring Mills. Thomas Hoover has lost one child and two grandchildren while another child is poorly.

The Sabbath-school closed Sabbath 29th. The schools of Gregg township except those of Spring Mills opened last Monday.

G. R. Spigelmeyer has been nominated for legislative honors by the Republicans. How is that for high. Ralph is a full-blooded, Solon Chase, Labor Reform Greenbacker, whom I have frequently heard ridiculing the Republican party.

How can you vote for him Repubs? The citizens of the southern precinct of Gregg township will vote at the next election on the removal of the polling place to the Spring Mills House.

OBITUARY.—On the morning of the 28th of October, the home of your correspondent was shrouded in gloom and mourning, the cause being the death of Miss Hannah Paget, a much esteemed aunt, who for nearly eight years has been a member of our family. Miss Paget was the daughter of George Paget, one of the pioneer school masters of Penna valley, who, about seventy years ago, settled upon a tract of land at the foot of Brush mountain one-half mile north of Spring Mills, where he lived up to the time of his death in 1834. Here three of his children, Elizabeth, Hannah and Mary, continued to live until the fall of 1878, when they moved to Centre Hill, where shortly afterward two of them died, after which time the subject of this notice made her home with our family, first at Centre Hall, until the spring of 1880, when we all moved to the old homestead of Grandfather Paget.

In her younger days she taught school in both Brush and Penna valley. Her sister Mary was also a teacher. In early youth she, with her three sisters, one of whom was our mother, connected themselves with the Presbyterian church at Centre Hill, and continued consistent members of it until the time of their respective deaths. She had been slightly indisposed for several days, but was able to be up most of the time until the day before her death.

On Friday evening she began to grow worse rapidly, and at half past seven o'clock on Saturday morning her spirit winged its flight to that "better land where the weary are at rest."

Her complaint was heart disease; her age 79 years, 6 months and 7 days.

W. A. KRISKE.

PLEASANT GAP ITEMS.—DEAR DEMOCRAT: Having been silent for a long time I will now give a brief account of our neighborhood. On Friday of last week, the good people of the Gap were in a state of the wildest confusion caused by the unexpected appearance of what some thought was the sudden release of Satan after his one thousand years of bondage. Men ran, women and children shrieked and hid, all on account of the Turks and their bears coming up the road, but all escaped unhurt.

We are now like the lost sheep of Israel, our worthy pastor has been taken from us and stationed at Lumber City, Clearfield county. Why the Elder has seen fit to take him from us we are at a loss to know, unless it is because he wished to benefit him both financially and morally, as we have nothing to boast of morally we sincerely hope our loss will be his gain, only some of our lady members fear we will be burdened with some old fogey again as we so often have been before.

Politically, everything is quiet, the Beaver dam is out of repair. Abe and Math are trying to patch the break but their trowels are too small. They are thinking of getting some of the dissatisfied Hunter men to help them, but they made such a mess of it last fall when they tried to defeat Dunkle, that they are afraid to risk it this time for fear Spring will go Democratic again.

A new enterprise is being talked of. The Messrs. Noli are going to open a country store in Haag's new store building. We wish them success but Bob, the P. M., is a little down in the lip about it, but he need not be, it is a free country.

The scout and hunter, after a prolonged tour in the far west, returned home a few days ago. Like the prodigal of old he thought it better to feed on the husks of his father's corn than starve in the west. We have not heard of the fatted calf nor the feast that his Dad made for him yet, but presume it was all right. Now ye foxes look out for your lives for Wash is home and you will suffer.

The scapegrace that robbed our friend Haag no doubt is enjoying himself on his ill-gotten gains. A vigilance committee is needed and a lynching or two, just for example, would be in place.

The Judge is still busy in putting up his cabbage, which are like the sands of the sea. All ye lovers of good sauer kraut can be supplied as all orders will be promptly filled.
SHIN BONE.

ATTENTION FARMERS AND OTHERS.—When the "Cattle Law," that is such a blessing to many of those who own cattle and cannot afford to keep them penned up, was being discussed, and its passage pending, ex-Sheriff Woodring presented to Gen. Beaver a petition, signed by over two thousand Centre county people, praying the Legislature to place it upon the statute books, and asked him to sign it. In refusing to place his name among those of so many of his neighbors and friends, he, with a supercilious toss of his head, gave as his reason that "ANY ONE WHO WAS TOO POOR TO KEEP A COW PENNED UP SHOULD NOT OWN OFF."

The poor should be compelled to forego keeping cows, should they? Forsooth, General, you are not consistent. Have you any claims that the "POOR" are under obligations to respect? If so, what are they?

Mr. Beaver's opposition to the measure can be accounted for because he was the salaried, retained counsel of the railroads doing business in this county, and did all he could to prevent the passage of a bill compelling his clients to pay for the cows belonging to the "POOR" killed by them.

Had he at the time filled the gubernatorial chair he would have vetoed the bill.

It is not too late, even yet, to effect its repeal.

His opposition to it then would naturally lead him to desire its becoming a nullity now.

Daniel Rhoads, one of the Republican candidates for the Legislature, is the friend of corporations, a railroad official, and all his sentiments accord with the desire of monopolists to extend the power they have managed to assume. Beware!

A remarkable occurrence, fighting in a nude condition, is thus graphically portrayed by a correspondent of the London Daily News, and is a bit of history connected with the Egyptian war. It happened at the battle of Chailouf.

Lieut. Lang was the officer, who, by swimming the Fresh Water Canal and bringing back a boat with which to cross his men over, succeeded in turning the Egyptian flank. Lang of course had to strip, for the most powerful swimmer in the world might very easily come to grief if, with his clothes and accoutrements, he should attempt to make his way through the long grass and weeds with which the channel was filled. But he was in too great a hurry to put his clothes on when he went back with his boat. He shipped his plucky little band of blue jackets from the Mosquito, next his small party of Highlanders, and charged. The Egyptians must have been astounded to see this singular apparition in boots and a "cholera belt" running at them with a sword in his hand. In the Prophet's name this must the Christian devil, Shaitan, of the white race, whom the swine-eaters mis-spell Satan. Barring the boots and the belt, Mr. Lang was as naked as his ancestor Adam. Perhaps his dreadful appearance may account to some extent for the speedy success of the flanking party in dislodging the Egyptians from the buildings in which they had taken up their position and from which they were diligently "blazing away."

—It is a good thing to keep one's temper in control. It is a sad thing to have no temper to keep in control. Some men, are disturbed because they are disturbed. They regret their temptation to get angry; whereas they would be worth a great deal less in the world if they couldn't get angry. Unless they were temperate, they would be neither admirable nor efficient. Thank God if you have a quick, strong temper; and pray God to enable you to keep it in due check, and to use it wisely. Ill-fitting clothes cause much of the display of fretfulness alike so unpleasant to the party himself and these around him. It is seldom that any one who wears Lewis's clothing exhibits such poor control of their temper, as to get mad and make a dunce of himself. Try the Phila. Branch and find out. Their goods and manner of dealing are veritable panaceas for ordinary discomfort.

—It may be laid down as an incontrovertible principle that no family can be happy without employment—regular, diversified, continually recurring employment. There may be the possession of wealth, there may be an ample domain, there may be everything externally to enjoy, but unless there be appropriate employment to occupy the body, enrage the mind, and awaken the energies, there cannot be happiness. It is the active, industrious, persevering family that is the truly happy family, not the idle, the slothful, the useless—not the family that has no definite plan, no fixed and important object, no personal and collective energy. Neither can a family be happy without a liberal supply of pure fresh groceries and provisions—in fact, the kind Sechler & Co. deal in.

—Wilson, McFarlane & Co., call attention to the only reliable Ready Mixed Paint in the market. The Pioneer Prepared Paint is not only superior to any Ready Mixed Paint sold but rivals pure white lead in its smoothness in working and durability. This paint is guaranteed by the manufacturers not to crack or peel within three years. The guarantee is not only good for replacing the paint but it will be put on if it should crack or peel within the time specified. It will be to your interest to call and see Wilson, McFarlane & Co., before purchasing either white lead or any other Ready Mixed Paint.

WALNUT LEAF HAIR RESTORER.—It is entirely different from all others. It is as clear as water, and, as its name indicates, is a perfect Vegetable Hair Restorer. It will immediately free the head from the dandruff, restore gray hair to its natural color, and produce a new growth where it has fallen off. It does not in any manner affect the health, which Sulphur, Sugar of lead, and Nitrate of Silver preparations have done. It will change light or faded hair in a few days to a beautiful glossy brown. Ask your druggist for it. Each bottle is warranted. Smith, Kline & Co., Wholesale Agents, Philadelphia, and C. N. Crittenden, New York. 4-ly

Explicit directions for every use are given with the Diamond Dyes. For dyeing: Mosses, Grasses, Eggs, Ivory, Hair, &c.

—Special inducements for Fall and Winter clothing during the Summer months.
