THE GOVERNOR ELECT.

ROBERT E. PATTISON.

THE BOSSES SOUELCHED

Minority Rule.

The Washington Post speaking on claims of the Republican party in connection with this principle of free government remarks: "As a minority ruler the Republican party in the United States has no equal in any country that has a representative government. It came into power as a minority, and as a minority it has ruled during the greater part of its period of ascendency. Leaving out of the record the war and reconstruction eras and coming down to the authe Democratic majority of the people he failed to respond to Hubbles assessas represented by the House, thwarted ment circular. Here was minority rule in its most insolent and exasperating shape, as hard to be born as it would have been for to be born as it would have been for tucky the Republicans to have endured Democratic ascendency based on the hands of the officers of the law while votes of such Southern men as Chal- they were being tahen to another mers, Cash and Mahone, entered on the rolls as Senators from Vermont, Massachusetts and Rhode Island. At the same time the people elected a Democratic President LAWRENCE, Mass., November 5. It has just leaked out that General Butler came near being drowned last Friday evening. He came up the river on the steamer C. L. Mather, and just at the upper edge of the rapid, four miles below this place, the steamer ran upon a rock and stuck there. It was indispensable that General Butler should be at Lawrence at an early hour, and a small boat carried by the steamer was and Vice-President, thus decreeing the transfer of the Government to the Democratic party. Yet this decree was annulled by a revolutionary minority who boldly set aside the Presidential election and installed in the Executive office the man who had small boat carried by the steamer was brought alongside and the General May-or Breen, the Hon. Caleb Saunders and been defeated at the polls. For four years the Democratic 'majority was Captain Homans took place in it. The water was running swiftly and as soon as the boot was loaded the current be-gan to suck it under the counter of the thwarted by this infamous crime and the minority continued to rule. There has been no Congressional gan to suck it under the counter of the steamer. In endeavoring to push it clear the boat was partially swamped and each effort to right matters only made them worse. The current was so wift that only a very strong swimmer could escape being drawn into the rap ids and whirled down the river a mile election for seventeen years, and there have been few State elections of any kind in that time, in which the .power and prestige of the Federal machine have not been employed to prevent an or two before still water could be honest ve "rt of the people. signed for the transaction of the Federal business through the executive the subject of minority rule and the departments has been and is used as if its primary intent and chief purpose were to control elections and prevent a fair expression of public sentiment. Thus minority rule has been and is maintained; for a party that depends on purchase for its victories, a party that does not trust the people, that sends legions of "strikers" and millions of money into close States to control elections, is not in the majority in any fair sense of the word

THE story comes from Washington tumn of 1874, nearly ten years after that Attorney General Brewster, has the war closed, we find the country advanced his stepson to a comfortable rising up and electing a Democratic office in Washington by the reward of House by an overwhelming majority a competent incumbent, a veteran of Yet for four years thereafter we find two wars, whose only offense was that by a Senate that was held in the Re official record both in the star route falsely claiming to represent Southern countenance to this kind of proscrip-

THE general inquiry which has been instituted all over the country as to the means used by stalwart bosses to control elections and enjoy the plander of office, is having very salutary results just now. In all the states where boss method's have been omnipotent in stopping honest and fair expression of the public will, enlightened public sentiment asserts itself this fall. and the stalwart Bosses are retired. In Pennsylvania; in New York; in New Hampshire ; in Massachusetts, the money forced from the army of officeholders, the wages of labor and the living of widows and orphanage, has failed to save and each of these states will now be supplied with Democratic subject to the Don Camerons, the Bill Chandlers, or the Roscoe Conklings. This is glory enough for one campaign!

The Increase in Pension Frands, special Dispatch to the World.

WASHINGTON, November 1 .- At the Pension Office the work of sending out special examiners is being pushed. This made necessary by the increasing frauds on the Government, which have grown of late to an alarming extent. It is estimated that last year several millions were taken fraudulently from the Treasury. Two hundred and fifty clerks have been sent from the office here, to each of whom is assigned a district. They are to collect testimony on all irregularities and report to Commissioner Dudley. Hitherto the few examiners who have been in the field have not been able to keep abreast of demands upon them and suspected pensioners have not been looked after properly. Of the new examiners about twenty-five will cover all New England.

EX-SENATOR HENDERSON FINEDFOR KNOCK-ING MR. CUNNINGHAM DOWN IN THE UNITED STATES COURT ROOM IN ST. Louis.

Louis. Sr. Louis, November 3.—This after-noon while ex United States Senator John B. Henderson and Henry A. Cun-ningham were discussing an order of the Court in the United States Court-room, Mr. Henderson remarked that Mr. Cunningham had not kept faith in some matter connected with the case. Mr. Cunningham replied in a heated manner that Mr. Henderson's asser-tion was false. Whereupon the as Sermanner that Mr. Henderson's asser-tion was false, whereupon the ex-Sena-tor struck Mr. Canningham in the face and head, knocking him violently sgainst an iron pillar and thence to the floor. Friends then interfered and the two lawyers were separated. Judge Treat became greatly excited. He characterized the affray as the most dis graceful that had occurred in the court during the twenty-four years he has been on the bench, and, notwithstand-ing the fact that Mr. Henderson made an apology, he fixed him $20. Mr. Cun-ningham in his contact with the iron pillar had a finger broken and two others dialocated.

men, charged with murder, out of the county for trial. The governor sent the state troops to aid the law officers. The mob came out in a boat to attack them as they passed down the Ohio river in a steamer. The officers of the law were fired upon and they returned the fire, wounding and killing some of those who assailed them and others in the crowd or those who had assembled to witness the conflict, if not to aid in it. Peaceable citizens ought not to have been in the vicinity of the danger, and their suffering, though unfortunate, was by their own fault.

We are delighted to note this one We are delighted to note this one case where the executive of a state has had the nerve to shed the blood of a mob to maintain the law. Every man who undertakes to execute mob law deserves to be killed, and we have no sympathy for him if he meets his fate. The lynch law of the country is one of its greatest disgraces. Pennsylvania even has lately been disgraced by it, and no attempt has been made to punish those engaged in the scandalous crime in the Lebigh Valley. Governor Blackburn declared that he would execute the order made upon him by the judge for the delivery for trial of these prisoners if every man, woman and child in the country whence they wers to be taken was killed in the attempt; and that is the kind of a gov-ernor for us.
