-The News wants a stone lock-up. The suggestion is proper. What has been expended in repairing breaches made in the old one by restive inmates would have built a new one of stone or brick long ages. The same authority states that a new location, near the water works, has been so lected for it and will soon be moved.

-M. B. Leavitt's "Gigantean Minstrels" one of the most popular and successful companies on the road, will appear in this place December thirteenth, with many novel and attractive features. This com pany received the plaudits of an appreciative public wherever it appeared last season and promises to maintain its superior ndard of excellence in all engagements for which it is booked during this winter.

-Additional public interest was gained for the Sociables of the Methodist church by the exercises of which the one given on Friday evening of last week consisted The spacious room was completely filled and every one enjoyed the entertainment to an unusual extent. All the credit is due the ladies of the committee, and we would suggest that in the future mone of the sterner sex be selected to act in that -We had the pleasure of meeting Prof-G. W. Atherton, of the State College, on Saturday. Mr. Atherton is an eminent degree possesses the qualities that may be expected to insure success—extensive learning, energy and pleasant address The immediate future will demonstrate that the College is an institution meriting the united support of all. Our readers are directed to the prospectus to be found in another column

-Maj. R. H. Forster in the official man agement of the late campaign in this county succeeded in maintaining the best of spirit within and without the party lines. No noise, no friction, no dust and no mud slinging were tolerated. The organization was effected and the well-defined course, marked out, rigidly adhered to. Great defferance was shown Gen. Beaver, and whatever else may remain for the future, regarding this election, nothing can be in any sense detract from the high esteem in which he has been held by his neighbors and friends. Mr. Forster deserves kind treatment at the hands of Centre county

DEMOCRATIC DEMONSTRATION .- Years came, and they went, until more than a score of snows had fallen upon the blasted hopes and blighted prospects of the Democracy. Defeat only served to render her more determined, and each successive election found her bravely fighting the same good fight, contending for the principles to her far dearer than mere party success, and valiantly unfurling to the breeze of public opinion the banner she so proudly looks up to to-day. Adversity enabled her to see herself as others saw her, defects were noticed and speedily corrected, and now her forces, as they appear after a most me norable conquest, challenge the admiration of every lover of free and honest government. Pure, clean and undefiled, what tenable objection could be urged to intrusting to her care and guidance the affairs not only of Pennsylvania, but as well of twenty-three other States-East, West, North and South?

Is it strange, then, that the citizens of Centre county should desire in some public manner to express their joy and gratification caused by the happy turn the tide has taken? Saturday last, as the time, and Bellefonte, as the place, were agreed upon, and, as you will notice before we are through, the expressions of satisfaction came not entirely from the victors. The parade, consisted of brass bands, drum corps, men on horseback, citizens in private conveyances, and hundreds of jubi lant men carrying "wide awakes," pitchpine torches and illumined transparancies among the latter were "There is no place like home," "The O's and the M's to the front, Pat Tyson elected," "We propose to run this thing awhile, now," "Jumbo" and many others equally expressive. A boat, in consideration of the depleted condition of the stalwart wallet, was provided, and passes furnished all travelers bound for the Salt River reservation. Mr. Hammon Sochler officiated as chief marshall assisted by a number of aids. About seven o'clock the line moved, traversed the most important thoroughfares of town presenting the most gorgeously brilliant sight Bellefonte has ever seen, the thousand glaring torches being re-enforced, en route, by millions of burning candles in the windows, unnumbered fanciful lanterns swaying fitfully to and fro, and flags, large and small, gracefully floating in the air rent by cheers from more than a regiment of men, not to mention the quiet, favorable comment of many ladies on the pavements and balconies. The illuminations were grand, chaste and attractive, indicative of the light and glory that burst upon the people on Wednesday morning, when the news of the result was announced. A fine display of fireworks contributed to the elephantine character of the jubilee.

The surging mass that crowded into the ourt house consisted of persons of all political opinions, and called Adam Hoy, Esq., to the chair. Mr. Hoy with calm, quiet dignity, and graceful ease of manner announced himself at the service of the meeting. Speeches by Gov. Curtin, Ex-Senator Alexander, C. M. Bower, J. L. Spangler, D. F. Fortney, Esq's., Mr. Jas. cofield and Col. D. H. Hastings followed. Maj. R. H. Forster, chairman of the Democratic county committee, introduced the latter gentlemen, who being the chairman of the Republican committee must have felt like a fish out of water, but with his usual success he succeeded in doing what few others would under similar circumstances-making no mistakes. He assured the Democrats that Gen. Beaver and his friends entertained no ill-feeling toward their opponents in this county, characterizing the campaign as one fairly and honorably conducted. He was lustily

After the adjournment Maj. Forster with a band proceeded to the residence of Gen. Beaver and tendered him a serenade. Upon making his appearance he was vociferously applauded and replied in his accustomed loquent manner, remarking, in substance, that he was only too glad to remain at home. Maj. Forster and J. L. Spangler spoke on behalf of the serens ders.

In its comments upon the affair the Republican thus reports in part the remarks. of Col. D. H. Hastings, and coming from that source they are very complimentary. The speaker, Col. Hastings, referred to the open and fair campaign which Chairman Forster had conducted for the Democratic party and said nothing else than honorable treatment could have been expected from a battle-scarred old veteran of two wars. He said the Democracy deserved great credit for the dignified manner in which this jubilee had been conducted. The only personal thing that was done during the procession was the halting that Salt River boat in front of his house for over half an hour. Not one of their speakers had referred to Gen. Beaver, the defeated candidate, in other than most respectful terms. Indeed they appeared to vie with each other in paying tribute to his record as a soldier, his sterling abilities and manly worth, and his blameless life as a neighbor and citizan.

-We are under obligations to David M'Kay, of 23 South 9th street Philadelphia for kind rementbrance in shape of an elegant publication "Penn's Treaty" forwarded through Mr. Stitzer, of whom the book can be procured. But we desire to laid at the door of our chairman that will state that Mr. M'Kay buys and sells new and old books, and is always anxious to quote prices for oldfbooks either singlyfor in complete libraries. If you desire to buy or sell anything in the look line put yourself in correspondence with Mr. M'Kay.

-Speaking roughly, about three-fourths, by weight, of the body of man is constituted by the fluid he consumes, and the remaining fourth by the solid material he appropriates. It is therefore no figure of speech to say that food makes the man. We might even put the case in a stronger light and affirm that man is his food. cannot obviously be a matter of indifference what a man eats and drinks. We know the effect the feeding of animals has on their temper and very natures; how the deg fed on raw meat and chained up so that he cannot work off the superfluous nitrogenized material by exercise becomes a savage beast, while the same creature fed on bread and milk would be tame as a lamb. It may be fair to say that different kinds of food exert a parallel influence upon man. They who buy groceries at Sechler's never, on account of the food they eat, are subject to the annoyances sure to follow having used im-

-Demorest's Monthly Magazine comes to us with its accustomed regularity, and on examination of the November number, we find that the articles are of a nature to make them highly acceptable to the readers of this popular publication. Mrs. Alexander's serial, "The Admiral's Ward gains in interest, and the shorter tales are exceedingly well told. "Wanderers in the Heavens," "Winter Resorts in Southern Europe," and Jennie June's "Talk with Women" are worthy of note. There is a variety of very readable articles, some of which are illustrated, on instructive topics, and every department, including the "Fashion," "Household," and "Current Topics," is fully and judiciously filled. A handsome oil picture forms the frontispiece, and the art department is further supplied by several pretty engrav-

This paint is guaranteed by the manufactures not to crack or peel within three years. The guarantee is not only good for replacing the paint but it will be put on if it should crack or peel within the time specified. It will be to your interest to call and see Wilson, Mc-Farlane & Co., Lefore purchasing either white lead or any other Ready Mixed

Bellefonte, Nov. 10, 1882.

Mr. A. L. Zelibski, No. 2563 Germantown road—Dear Sir: Yours of the 9th inst. received. I am quite satisfied with the result of the election and have no regrets in regard to it. I did my duty so far as I could and left the decision to the people. They ought to understand their own business best, and my hope is that they may be better served than I could have served them. Philadelphia did her duty fairly, and I am of course grateful to ail my friends for their generous confidence and support. I will always stand by my old comrades as long as I live. the following letter will show: by my old comrades as long as I live.

-The circulated report that no county institute would be held by the teachers of this county, this year, is an error. Prof. Wolf, during the course of an hour's chat on Saturday, said: "An Institute will be eld, and I am endeavoring to secure able instructors, among those whom I have written are Prof. G. W. Atherton, State College, Prof. Brooks, Millersville, Dr. Higbee, State Supt. of Public Instruction and Prof. Sanford, of New York." Should all of these gentlemen be here all or part of the time the members of the institute will be unusually favored.

6 . at Figures are not always facts " but the incontrovertible facts concerning Kidney-Wort are better than most figures. For instance: "It is curing everybody" writes a druggist. "Kidney-Wort is the most popular medicines we sell." It be by right, for no other medicine has such specific action on the liver, bow-els and kidneys. Do not fail to try it.

GOV. CURTIN AND THE JUDGES .- On Tuesday the Congressional return judges of the XXth District and those of the XXXIVth Senatorial District met at this place. They accepted the invitation of Gov. Curtin to dine with him and were elegantly entertained.

After the Congressional return judges made out the certificate of election, they again repaired in a body to Mr. Curtin's certificate to him. Mr. Laverty, of Clinton county, in a handsome speech, on bemuch pleasure to present you with this certificate of re-election as an endorsement of your course as Representative of the XXth district, in the present Congress. In doing so we are not unmindful of the fact that you were the honored Governor of this common wealth, in a time of great excitement, and that your duties were many and arduous. That you afterward represented this country in one of the most important foreign missions and the people of this district realize that while you represented them faithfully and carefully Congress, they were no less honored in having you as their Representative. Your re-election by so large a majority was an emphatic endorsement of your course upon all public questions before Congress, while you were a member. A glance at the returns will show that although you were a party candidate, your vote was not confined to a single party, they felt proud to regard you as the representative of the whole people, and know that your course in the future will be as it was in the past." To this Mr. Curtin replied in eloquent and fitting terms, and received at several times hearty applause. The judges had a pleasant time and re turned to their homes with cheerful recollections of their visit to Bellefonte.

PLEASANT GAP ITEMS .- The election is ver, and our stalwart brethren are about the saddest set of boys ever seen about the Gap; they died hard, poor fellows they have our sympathy, for we know how hard it is to be beaten, and oh so badly too, however, we have been telling them

THE GERMAN VOLUNTEER .- This intensely interesting military drama will be produced in Reynold's hall, on the evenings of Wednesday and Thursday Nov. 29 and 30, and Friday and Saturday, Dec. I and 2, under the auspices of Gregg Post, of this place, directed by WILL D. SAPHAR. Philadelphia's renowned comedian, assist ed by 35 ladies and gentlemen, of Bellefonte. Mr. Saphar completes a four nights engagement at Atlantic City just before coming here.

Our citizens remember the restaurant and Art Gallery conducted by this Post in were assisted by our people and to whom they have on more occasions than one been placed under obligations for acts of kindness. It being necessary that the "Relief Fund," which is-devoted to defraying the expenses of caring for sick comrades, burying dead ones, the support of soldiers' orphans, etc., be augmented, it is deemed expedient not to solicit direct contributions but to afford all the opportunity of attending a first class entertainment, in which the thrilling scenes of a soldier's life are faithfully aud graphically portrayed.

Admission-reserved seats, at Brew's store, 50 cents, general admittance 35 cts.

ATTENTION, SMOKERS !- Dr. Decarsne has startled the smokers of France by a paper he read before the Societe d' Huygiene, in which he announces the discovery of a new disease, discernible through the pulse, which he styles "Intermittency." It is induced by the parcotic action of the picotine and the other latent alkaloids present in the tobacco leaf. This rhythmical action induces heart disease, derangement of the nervous system, and indigestion. The same physician has tested the effects of tobacco upon boys from nine to fifteen years of age, and discovered that not only did it produces the produce of the part, but also a proquitation of the heart, but also a proquitation of the heart, but also a propulies. palpitation of the heart, but also a peculiar condition of the blood, akin to anæmia.

Laziness, stupidity, and an inability to Mr. Specker media. study characterized all boys who used tobacco. His statistics prove conclusively AS that the use of tobacco induced a taste for vinous stimulants. The lad who commenced with a cigarette finished his career as the slave of the brandy bottle.—Demorest's Monthly for November.

PUMPKIN PIE AND COFFEE .- The reception committee of the Y. M. C. A. has concluded arrangements for the holding of a reception, on next Tuesday evening, that will cause those previously held to appear very insignificant. Music, pumpkin pie and coffee are thought attractive enough to secure the attendance of a large number. had completed the count of the vote and No cards. All are invited. Come and bring your ladies with you, for if there is any one thing of which ladies are fond residence for the purpose of presenting the and know how to appreciate it is a piece of good, well-baked, fat pumpkin pie. Should you not receive a verbal invitation, do not half of the judges, said: "It affords me think it was intended to overlook you, but come to the hall of the Association on Tuesday evening. Positively no charge and no hat passed 'round. The intention being to afford a general good time.

DEATH .- On Monday night at twelve clock the spirit of Miss Mary A. Rankin, daughter of Joseph A. Rankin, Esq., was called hence. Her case was one demanding the sympathy of all-young, talented and a favorite in society wherever she mingled with others, it was sad to see one so well adapted to minister to the happiness of others, completely disabled. For a number of years she was confined to her room. On Sept. 25 last she had attained her 24th year. Her remains will be in-terred at two o'clock this rfternoon.

-Read the advertisement of S. & A. Loeb. No doubt the intelligence it conveys will be a matter of much importance to you. They do not say much, but the little means a great deal. Their trade thus far during this season has been good and they are prepared to meet any demand made upon their facilities to supply their customers.

WALNUT LEAF HAIR RESTORER .- It is entirely different from all others. It is as clear as water, and, as its name indicates, is a perfect Vegetable Hair Restorer. It will immediately free the head from the dandruff, restore gray hair to its natural color, and produce a new growth where it has fallen off. It does not in any manner affect the health, which Sulphur, Sugar of lead, and Nitrate of Silver preparations have done. It will change light or faded hair in a few days to a beautiful glossy brown. Ask your druggist for it. Each
