

Correspondence, containing important news, solicited from all parts of the county. No communication inserted unless accompanied by the real name of the writer.

Local Department.

The attendance at Court this week was decidedly meagre.

Mr. Samuel H. Goodhart, of Hubersburg, called on Monday.

Miss Sauer, of Williamsport, is the guest of Mrs. Geo. W. Eaton.

Mr. W. E. Burchfield has nearly completed his sale of groceries at cost.

Mr. and Mrs. Benj. Schroyer, of Altoona, were in town on Sunday.

Hon. Fred. Kurtz, of the Centre Hall Reporter, smiled upon us on Monday.

Mr. Wm. Lyon, and a Mr. Pifer, of Howard, looked into our holy of holies yesterday.

Monte Ward, the celebrated base ballist, has been hovering in this neighborhood for some time.

The Logan Hose Company boys are making arrangements for a grand dress ball on the evening of Jan. 1, '83.

The Undine Hose Company will give one of their grand dress balls at the Brockerhoff house, Thursday night, Nov. 30.

The Diamond Dyes for family use have no equals. All popular colors easily dyed, fast and beautiful. 10 cents a package.

On Saturday we had the pleasure of an hour's chat with Mr. I. S. Frain, of Marion township, who was accompanied by his two little sons.

To-morrow Hon. A. G. Curtin, A. H. Dill, Esq., and W. U. Hensel will orate at an ox roast, conducted by the Democrats of White Deer Valley, Union county.

His Honor, Judge Orvis, was confined to his room on Sunday and part of Monday, the trouble being a severe cold. We are glad to know that he is rapidly recovering.

Mr. Leonard Rhone, master of the State Grange of Pa., with his lady, attended the 16th annual session of the National Patrons of Husbandry that convened at Indianapolis, Nov. 15.

Yesterday Mr. E. A. Brushre, presenting Messrs. Chalmers & Murray, 76 Reade street, New York, manufacturers and jobbers of cutlery, etc., called to see us. We congratulate the firm upon securing the services of a gentleman so well fitted to further their interests.

Mr. James Corneley now runs the local express wagon that Mr. Daniel Wisotzkey used to operate. We trust Jim may receive a very liberal share of the patronage of the people of Bellefonte, and eventually become one of the wealthiest citizens. "Jeems," we're all looking at you.

At the re-union of the 49th regiment, Pa. Vols., at Huntingdon, last week, Mr. Christie Dale, of this county, was called to the chair, the president of the association being absent. Mr. Dale was re-elected vice president for this year. The next session will convene at Millintown, Juniata county, Nov. 1884.

Samuel K. Faust, Esq., of Miles township, the same Mr. Faust that came so nearly being elected sheriff in '81, took us by the hand yesterday. He is without any doubt one of the busiest men in Centre county and without any exception the most enterprising carriage manufacturer within our knowledge.

This time it happens to be "Al" Garman that is laughing all over his face. The little stranger is a boy and put in an appearance on Saturday afternoon. His papa says he is a Patten boy, and as a suggestion Patty Garman sounds well. Now, Al, do not spare the rod and spoil the child, but train him up in the way he should go.

Read the advertisement of S. & A. Loeb. No doubt the intelligence it conveys will be a matter of much importance to you. They do not say much, but the little means a great deal. Their trade thus far during this season has been good and they are prepared to meet any demand made upon their facilities to supply their customers.

The Philadelphia Branch is alive and busy. The throngs of customers that crowd the room daily understand fully that to buy good clothing at reasonable rates is true economy. It never pays to buy anything cheap simply because the outfit is not so great. Mr. Lewin's word never has been doubted and his goods speak for themselves. Try them.

Prof. A. N. Raub, principal of the Lock Haven Normal School, is spoken of as the probable successor of Dr. E. E. Higbee, State Superintendent of Public Instruction. Dr. Higbee has proven to be a valuable official, and if nothing more than the demands of political influence is urged as a reason for his removal, should be retained. Yet, if Mr. Higbee must step down, Mr. Raub would be acceptable.

We are pained to record the death of an old friend, in the person of Mr. S. A. McDowell, of Marion township, at the age of 72 years, 10 months and 21 days. Dr. Huston pronounced the ailment typhoid pneumonia. He had been sick but four or five days, having done quite an amount of work on Friday before his death. He took an unusual interest in the progress of the late campaign and the success of Pattison seemed the crowning glory of his devotion to the Democratic faith. He will long be remembered by those who knew him as a man whom all respected and loved. Peace be his.

CENTRAL CITY AND MILESBERG.—Our Republican friends in Central City are taking things comfortably, although Mr. John Wagner, Sr., feels badly over the result, but puts a good face on matters by being if anything more social and jolly than usual. He is in hopes of a turnaround in '84 and his motto is like Cromwell, "Trust in Providence and keep your powder dry."

Our friend "Charlie" is radiantly happy upon the advent of a fine little daughter that came one day last week.

The portion of Mr. Henry Musser's house, to be occupied by Mr. Cal Zimmerman and his bride, is almost completed and it is to be presumed there will soon be a housewarming.

It is our opinion that those parties who tie stones about cats and dogs necks and throw them into the creek might take them somewhere else than just at the bridge, or else, use a shorter string, so that the bodies would not float upon the surface, for they are an extremely loathsome object.

Milesburg is to have a brass band, at least such is the talk at present and there is no reason it should not for there are musical men enough here to form a capital band. All we can say is that we hope it will succeed.

It is evident that McCoy's iron company have no fear of a business prostration following the change in political affairs, if we may judge from the new mill they are erecting and the very large stock of charcoal and iron ore they have on hand.

County Supt. D. M. Wolf was in town last week, and visited the Milesburg schools but left our schools in the "city" until another time.

The new eating house, under the supervision of J. C. P. Jones, opened up last Friday with a very flattering degree of success and quite a liberal patronage. We wish him success.

Quite a number of our little folks are sick with measles, and Miss Gertie Eise one of our young ladies is also having a siege of them.

It is our sad duty to record the death of Mrs. Isaac Wieland. Mrs. W. was taken sick last Saturday morning and lay in convulsions until about twelve o'clock that night when she died. She leaves a sorrowing husband and four small children who most certainly have our sympathy in their bereavement. The remains were interred in the Milesburg burying ground, Monday, Nov. 20, Rev. Morris preaching the funeral sermon.

Mr. Robert Bierly is having quite a lot of repairing and plastering done at his home. We understand that Mr. Wm. Campbell means to have his new house done this fall. We predict cold fingers for the "Little Plasterer."

Henry is not driving the tombstone business very lively now. Expects to get at it full force soon. NEMO.

THE JUNIATA VALLEY EDITORIAL ASSOCIATION.—The printer's association of the Juniata Valley, which met in this place on the first of September last, is now a thing of the past, that gathering being the last in its history. In consequence of the fact that the privileges which the organization extended were abused it was not considered advisable to continue it, and in its stead an editorial association was organized at Huntingdon on Saturday last. The meeting for that purpose was held at the Leister House in that place, the following named editors being in attendance: H. C. Dorn, Altoona Tribune; E. Conrad, McVeytown Journal; Edward T. Tuten, Bellefonte Republican; W. W. Trout, Lewistown Free Press; George Shrom, Newport Ledger; Harry E. Bowman, Mount Union Times; L. A. Frazier, Houtzdale Observer; C. S. W. Jones, Tyrone Herald; W. C. Smith, Bedford Republican; Hugh Lindsay, Local News; John A. Nash, Journal; S. E. Fleming, and Port Crawford, Monitor; Frank Willoughby, Globe, Huntingdon.

The meeting was called to order by E. Conrad. He C. Dorn was chosen chairman of the meeting and George Shrom, Secretary.

On motion, a committee of three, consisting of Messrs. Lindsay, Tuten and Trout, were appointed to draft a constitution and report at 2 o'clock. The same committee were also directed to nominate permanent officers.

On motion the meeting adjourned until afternoon.

The meeting was called to order at 1.30, when the committee reported a constitution which was adopted.

Article 3 states that the object of the association shall be to promote the business and financial interests of the members of the newspaper fraternity, by mutual interchange of views; to protect each other against dishonest advertising agents and fraudulent advertisers generally; and to cultivate and maintain friendly relations among its members.

The following officers were chosen for the ensuing year: President, H. C. Dorn; vice president, Geo. Shrom; secretary, E. Conrad; treasurer, John A. Nash; executive committee, C. S. W. Jones, W. W. Trout and Hugh Lindsay.

The long winter evenings are at hand now, and our lady readers will thank us for a few suggestions how they may make them pass pleasantly, as well as usefully by engaging in a little work to decorate their homes. Pillow shams are going out of fashion at present, and when used at all, are no longer made of white linen, but either of colored silk edged with lace, or of cream-colored crash, embroidered in colored 'crown' or fleiselle. The favorite designs are Thorwaldsen's Night and Morning and other similar designs, suggestive of repose. A charming novelty for upper mantle-decoration consists in the insertion of a broad band of figured plush between the carving at the top and the framework which supports the shelves.

The tone of the wall paper in the room determines the color of the plush. Cushions for deep cane chairs may be made of figured plush. Peacock blue, maroon, or dead gold velvet also looks very beautiful and enrich the appearance of even the most humble apartment. Great attention is being paid at present to the decoration of lamps and globes. Colored designs of wreaths or flowers are especially suitable for the latter, and they are as readily painted on glass as on china; but it is less easy to have them burnt in. The colors, however, will last a long time if simply laid on and left to dry. For ladies who are unable to paint, decalcomanies, obtainable in any stationery store, will come very handy. Unusual attention is being paid, both in Europe and America, to this branch of lithography, and when carefully put on, it would require a practiced eye to tell them from genuine painting.

Speaking roughly, about three-fourths, by weight, of the body of man is constituted by the fluid he consumes, and the remaining fourth by the solid material he appropriates. It is therefore no figure of speech to say that food makes the man. We might even put the case in a stronger light and affirm that man is his food. It cannot obviously be a matter of indifference what a man eats and drinks. We know the effect the feeding of animal has on their temper and very nature; how the dog fed on raw meat and chained up so that he cannot work off the superfluous nitrogenized material by exercise becomes a savage beast, while the same creature fed on bread and milk would be tame as a lamb. It may be fair to say that different kinds of food exert a parallel influence upon man. They who buy groceries at Sechler's never, on account of the food they eat, are subject to the annoyances sure to follow having used improper food.

A $20.00 BIBLICAL REWARD.—The publishers of Rutledge's Monthly offer twelve valuable rewards in their Monthly for December, among which is the following: We will give $20.00 in gold to the person telling us how many verses there are in the New Testament Scriptures (not the New Revision) by December 10th, 1882. Should two or more correct answers be received, the reward will be divided. The money will be forwarded to the winner December 15th, 1882. Persons trying for the reward must send 20 cents in silver (no postage stamps taken) with their answer, for which they will receive the Christmas Monthly, in which the name and address of the winner of the reward and the correct answer will be published. This may be worth $20.00 to you; cut it out. Address Rutledge Publishing Company, Easton, Pa.

Let it be known that Graham & Son have the most complete stock of boots and shoes in town, and are selling good goods at the lowest figures; piles of boots and shoes of every description. Persons that are troubled with cold and tender feet should try a pair of those warm, soft buffalo lined boots or shoes, or a pair of cloth boots. All sizes and styles of the long leg four-sole driving boots, long leg grain water proof boots, thigh, hip and knee gum boots for men and boys, different styles of lumbermen's gums, in fact boots and shoes to please everybody. If you want a pair of boots made to order leave your measure, they are ahead of all in manufacturing work to order. Corner Brockerhoff Row, Bellefonte, Pa.

Wilson, McFarlane & Co., call attention to the only reliable Ready Mixed Paint in the market. The Pioneer Prepared Paint is not only superior to any Ready Mixed Paint sold but rivals pure white lead in its smoothness in working and durability. This paint is guaranteed by the manufacturers not to crack or peel within three years. The guarantee is not only good for replacing the paint but it will be put on if it should crack or peel within the time specified. It will be to your interest to call and see Wilson, McFarlane & Co., before purchasing either white lead or any other Ready Mixed Paint.

Make all necessary arrangements to attend the "German Volunteer," to be produced in this place next week. The receipts to be applied to relief fund of Gregg Post, G. A. R. Mr. Will D. Saphar, of Philadelphia, will lead, assisted by 35 ladies and gentlemen of Bellefonte. Reynolds' Hall, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, of next week. Seats at Brew's store.

Seventeen commercial men were housed at the Brockerhoff on Sunday.

GREAT JOJILLIFICATION MEETING AND TORCHLIGHT PARADE AT HOWARD.—The Democrats of Howard borough and township, and the townships of Curtin, Liberty and Marion, had a magnificent torch light parade and jollification meeting on Thursday night of last week. The dwelling houses and business places of every Democrat in the town were beautifully illuminated and decorated with flags.

About four hundred men took part in the parade. At seven o'clock the line was formed on the common near the R. R. station, and headed by the Zion Cornet Band the column marched through the principal streets of the town, hearty, whole-souled cheering being kept up almost continually.

The chief marshal of the occasion was John A. Woodward, who is much of the life and energy of the Democracy of this end of the county. When anything is to be done for the Democracy that requires hard work, good judgment, and the display of energy and ability we always call upon Mr. Woodward. The chief was ably seconded by marshals Shutt, Gardner, Brickley and Confer.

Howard Brickly, Howard Moore, Balser Weber, J. W. Gardner, Ira Leathers, Samuel Kline, George Wister and every Democrat in Howard did his full share to make the demonstration a grand success.

After an hour's marching the parade dismissed and fully a thousand people gathered in front of Samuel Kline's fine residence, magnificently illuminated, where the meeting was called to order by Mr. Kline, and on his motion the following officers were elected: John A. Woodward, President. Hen. Henry Dopp, of Howard township, David Brickley, of Curtin, Dan'l Bitner, of Liberty, Josiah Hoy, of Marion, Henry Brown of Walker and Henry Barnhart, of Boggs, Vice Presidents. George Wistar and Mitchell Gardner, of Walker township, Secretaries.

The president on taking the chair said he congratulated the Democracy of Howard on its very fine display and large turnout to rejoice over the almost incomprehensible victory achieved on the 7th of November. That it was not his purpose to make a speech and he would conclude by introducing the eloquent, gifted, and witty young orator of Clinton county, T. C. Hipple, Esq. Mr. Hipple was in fine spirits over the result of the election, and opened his speech by referring to the great men Centre county had given to the State and nation. That she had furnished a secretary of the national Treasury, two judges of the Supreme Court, one governor who would go down in history as the great War Governor of Pennsylvania, and when she undertook to furnish a second governor "he got left." He referred to the fact that during the campaign Pettison was called the boy candidate by the Republicans, but the boy had grown so rapidly during the race that he came out a grown man, 40,000 bigger than the other fellow. He spoke of the evils practiced by the Republican party, and said they had led to its overthrow, and that if the Democrats wanted to retain power they must stamp out these evils and act honestly with the people. Mr. Hipple's speech was excellent, eloquent and we were glad to have him with us in our rejoicing.

The Zion Band discoursed an excellent piece of music after which J. L. Spangler, Esq., delivered a short and very effective speech. A few howling radicals were obnoxious enough to attempt to annoy the meeting by calling for an explanation of the late Sheriff's bill for boarding prisoners. Mr. Spangler took up the matter, although not strictly appropriate to a jollification meeting, and explained that when the Democratic County Commissioners published their statement and it was thought there were some things wrong about the Sheriff's account, the Democratic auditors investigated his accounts, and found a balance due to the county, that the Sheriff had appealed from the Auditor's report and the whole matter would come into court and be judiciously settled. He claimed that great credit was due to the Democratic officials of the county for taking hold of the matter and correcting all mistakes themselves. Then he went for the Republicans and their record of stealing, and concluded his speech by saying that with Tucker, of Virginia, Carlisle, of Kentucky, Morrison, of Illinois, Randall and Curtin, of Pennsylvania, in Congress for leaders our party would make no mistakes, and that when the great battle of 1884 was fought we would surely be the victors.

The band played the dead march over the burial of the Republican party. After this D. F. Fortney, Esq., was introduced as one of the wheel-horses of the Democracy of Centre county. He congratulated the people on their great deliverance from boss and machine rule. The victory is one of the people over the bosses and their political appliances, our man was successful and will rule for the good of the whole people, and see that our laws be faithfully executed. That the Democracy had promised reform in civil service, denounced the use of the patronage of the government for the promotion of personal political ends, and assessments for political purposes, and now as Democracy was successful these reforms must be made, and the assessment business and the use of patronage stopped, and that at once as far as our party had power to do so or it would be setting in bad faith with the people. Parties to be successful must keep faith with the people. He urged the necessity of choosing good and pure men for office; that it cost the people as much for the service of a poor, weak or bad man as it did for a high-minded honorable man of good abilities. That good men in office who will honestly and faithfully discharge their duties will do more to keep the Democracy in power than anything else. He referred to the happy deliverance of the Democracy of this Senatorial District from the unhappy muddle into which it had been thrown by the Clinton county candidate making sale of two of his confederates, to a conferee from Clearfield county and after the purchase money was in his hands, offered to return it and say nothing about the disgraceful business if the Clearfield confederate would nominate him on the next ballot. He said, suppose this man had been nominated and elected, it would take as much to pay him as it will to pay Mr. Wallace—and, the difference between the two is more than that between an angel of light and one of darkness. He said this occurrence illustrated his argument very clearly. We have for our Senator a man of great experience, learning and ability—high-minded, honorable and of indefatigable integrity, the peer of any living man in statesmanship. The deliverance was so great and so happy from what it might have been that of itself it is cause for great rejoicing. He said that men, who like the Clinton county candidate would use corrupt means to secure office, when in office are the power of the boss and machine. He said that only four years ago this same candidate was running on the Greenback ticket, endorsed by the Republicans. He urged the people to take warning, select only true and tried men and the party and the government would be safe. These views were heartily endorsed by the audience.

Col. Joseph L. Neff, of Boggs township, was seen in the crowd and heartily called for and responded in a neat little speech, urging the Democracy to be of good cheer that surely the victory in the next political battle would be ours.

The president then adjourned the meeting. We take pleasure in calling attention to the fact that in our districts the entire ticket ran closer, and more regular than in almost any other districts in the county. Much of this is due to the untiring energy, zeal and devotion of John A. Woodward to the interest and success of the Democratic party.

[We are pleased to be able to publish this report of the meeting at Howard, and glad to know that the Democrats of that section are so zealously alive to the interests of the party to which they belong.—Eds.]

An aged gentleman, Mr. David Emmitt, who resides at the home of his son, near the glass works, died on Tuesday night and will be buried to-day.

Mr. Jas. A. Keller writes us that there will be a meeting of Pomona Grange at Centre Hall, Tuesday and Wednesday, Nov. 28 and 29. Those interested will please take notice.

Our Howard friend, who sent us an excellent report of the jollification down there last week, was not quite soon enough, the other was in type before the latter reached us. Write often.

Do not overlook the new advertisement of C. Smith, the baker. He has an unusually complete stock of Christmas goods to an examination of which he invites all our readers. 29 High street.

In referring to Chairman Hastings, the Republican commends his method of carrying the political warfare into the strongholds of the Democrats. And exultingly exclaims, "we lacked but a few votes of electing an assemblyman." It would have been more in accordance with truth and honor had you supplemented your statement by the remark that the vote polled for said assemblyman was brought about by mercenary trading. In our opinion this manner of inducing an elector to vote for a candidate is an open violation of the election law, and subjects those who succeed in securing votes for Jones by casting their ballots for Brown to the penalties imposed.

The pumpkin pie reception given by the members of the Y. M. C. A., Tuesday evening, was an occasion of much pleasure to all who attended. For the first time the doors were thrown open to the ladies and a large number responded, favoring the association with their presence. The pies were excellent and in sufficient numbers to have some left after the feast. This can be accounted for because Messrs. Zellers and Green were not there. Mr. Charles Cook, however, got his work in to the tune of, we think, one pie and a half. The chairman of the committee, Mr. E. F. Garmap, worked hard to insure a pleasant time for all and the Young Men's Orchestra did some fine playing.

A MYSTERIOUS MAN ARRESTED.—Sheriff Dunkle has received the following card from the Chief of Police of Elmira, New York. It will explain itself:

Sheriff: I have a man arrested about 40 years old, brown hair and mustache, about 5 feet 7 inches tall, thick set, weight about 165 pounds. Had in his possession a dark bay or brown mare, about 6 years old, weighs about 1200 pounds. Star in forehead, quite crooked legs, hind feet up to fetterlock white. Mare was evidently stolen, as he offered her for one-half value. He had sold his buggy and was riding the mare. Please have this copied in your newspapers.

JOHN S. KNAPP, Chief of Police.

ROBBERY.—On Tuesday night unknown parties forced an entrance into the business office of Messrs. P. B. Crider & Son, blew open the safe and abstracted therefrom all the money it contained, about $3. Fortunately the amount of cash on hand was inconsiderable.

They entered the office of Wm. P. Duncan & Co., through the different departments of the foundry, breaking down several doors. The lock of the safe was tried and an effort made to bore a hole deep enough to admit of blasting but for some reason desisted before any especial damage was done. Their next stopping place was the office of Berwind, White & Co., where they paid no attention to the large safe belonging to that firm but instead tore the door off a small one, belonging to Daniel Rhoads, Esq., in which they found nothing but private papers.

We believe no one is suspected, but that we have among us persons who do covet what belongs to another cannot be doubted, and the necessity of a force of night watchmen is rendered all the more apparent.

Our stock of Woollens is now complete. Clothing made to order cheaper than ever. MONTGOMERY & Co., Tailors.

WALNUT LEAF HAIR RESTORER.—It is entirely different from all others. It is as clear as water, and, as its name indicates, is a perfect Vegetable Hair Restorer. It will immediately free the head from the dandruff, restores gray hair to its natural color, and produce a new growth where it has fallen off. It does not in any manner affect the health, which Sulphur, Sugar of Lead, and Nitrate of Silver preparations have done. It will change luster or faded hair in a few days to a beautiful glossy brown. Ask your druggist for it. Each bottle is warranted. Smith, Kline & Co., Wholesale Agents, Philadelphia, and Hall Kunkel, New York. 4-1y

SMITH, THE BAKER.

An interesting letter from Mr. Calvin Smith to the persons he wishes to address. Read it carefully.

Bellefonte, Nov. 26, 1882.

Holiday Goods.

Now that Christmas is but a month distant, I desire to assist my friends in making the usual presents expected by the members of your families and others at that time, by telling you in this way what I have for you to select from. These goods are latest invoices ordered expressly for this occasion and are sure to suit. I may as well say here that on account of purchasing and selling at wholesale, as well as retail, I can quote prices away below those of any other dealer in this neighborhood. I've of all grades, from the cheapest to the most expensive. Buy and sell hundreds of pounds of it daily, and to Sunday schools or other organizations intending to celebrate either Christmas or New Year by public entertainments that I am prepared to fill orders for any amount of supplies at the very lowest rates. I make this trade a specialty.

Toys.

For little folks there are so many things that I can't name half of them. Come, and see what they are.

Restaurant.

Those who are in town at any time for only a short time and do not want to go to a hotel can have in a few minutes a complete meal or lunch. My customers have increased so largely within the last three months that I am paying particular attention to this branch of my trade and now have the most complete establishment of public comfort in the county.

The Bakery

is still turning out only first-class bread, cakes, pies etc. I take pride in the quality of work, and the praises of customers cause me to make special efforts in supplying customers.

At Snow Shoe.

The branch of the Bellefonte bakery at Snow Shoe was opened to accommodate my customers out there and always keeps in stock the identical goods handled at the establishment in Bellefonte. They who need any HOLIDAY SUPPLIES can deal as cheaply there as any where else.

Thanking my friends for favors in the past, and requesting the patronage of new ones, in the future, I remain Respectfully
