Holiday Goods.

NOW that Christmas is but a month distant, I desire to assist my friends in making the usual presents expected by the members of your families and others at that time, by telling you in this way what I have for you to select from. These goods are latest invoices ordered expressly for this occasion and are sure to suit. I may as well say here that on account of purchasing and sell ing at wholesale, as well as retail, I can quote prices away below those of any other dealer in this neighborhood. I've of all grades, from the cheapest to the most expensive. Buy and sell hundreds of pounds of it daily, and to Sunday-schools or other organizations intending to celebrate either Christmas and the chapter of the pand plenty of goods to suit our many patrons. New Year by public entertainments that I am prepared to fill orders for any amount of supplies at the very lowest rates. I make this trade a specialty specialty.

Toys.

For little folks there are so many things that I can't name half of them. Come, and see what they are.

Restaurant.

Those who are in town at any time for only a short time and do not want to go to a hotel can have in a few minutes a complete meal or lunch. My customers have increased so largely within the last three months that I am paying particular attention to this branch of my trade and now have the most complete establishment of public comfort in the county.

The Bakery

is still turning out only first-class bread, cakes, pies etc. I take pride in the quality of work, and the praises of customers cause me to make special ef-forts in supplying customers.

At Snow Shoe.

The branch of the Bellefonte bakery at Snow Shoe was opened to accommodate my customers out there and always keeps in stock the identical goods handled at the establishment in Bellefonte. They who need any HOLIDAY SUP-PLIES can deal as cheaply there as any where else.

Thanking my friends for favors in the past, and requesting the patronage of new ones, in the future, I remain Respectfully

CALVIN SMITH.

FURNITURE.

B. SPANGLER & CO. re. R. quest the attention of the intelligent reader for a moment or two. The facts they desire to make public will have a telling effect upon the domestic economy of any household in which this recital of their facilities to supply furniture of all kinds at reasonable prices, is given a fair hearing. They authorize us to state that every article they have on exhibition is new and seasonable, was bought for eash, and will be sold at the a defunct manufact rer at lowest price dealers can afford. They roinous prices, we will in have constantly on hand parlor and turn dispose of sam 3 to o r bed-room suits, velvet and carpet cus omers at about halt lounges, extension tables of their own heir value. REMEMBER lounges, extension tables of their own make, odd pieces, secretaries, sideboards, marble-top tables, tables, etc., etc. Anything made to order and guaranteed to give satisfaction. They Green, Crushed Strawb r superintend each department in person ry Olive, M rtle, Plum and keep themselves posted in matters of importance to customers.

They also invite special attention to their undertaking department. Mr. Henry Swartz, practical, scientific cabinet maker and undertaker of many years experience, superintends the arrangements and work. They have latey secured a new patent cooling board, the most perfect body preserver in use, and the only one in Centre county, at considerable expense. An elegant hearse will be provided gratis.

BELLEFONTE, PA.

When I decided to locate at Bellefonte I also decided to adhere to certain business principles that have never failed to insure success and crowd my rooms with customers. In the first place I have only one price. And although I handle all kinds and prices of goods I am always careful to explain to buyers the quality of every garment I exhibit. This does away with dissatisfaction, disappointment and faultfinding, and rarely fails to bring the same customer back for the same goods.

I will take pleasure in showing you anything you may wish to look at and assure you of a hearty welcome at the Philadelphia Branch. SAMUEL LEWIN.
