

The Centre Democrat.

Thursday Morning, February 1, 1883.

CORRESPONDENCE, containing important news, solicited from any part of the county. No communications inserted unless accompanied by the real name of the writer.

Local Department.

—Mr. Meyer Lyon is at home.

—Esq. Reitsnyder, of Millheim, called to see us on Monday.

—The mercantile appraiser is a son-in-law of Commissioner Wolf.

—No bridges, no boilers, no extras of any kind and expenses the same.

—Mrs. Adam Yearick we are sorry to learn is at present lying dangerously ill.

—It is reported that the proprietors of both Millheim hotels have been "returned."

—Hon. B. F. Hunter, member of the House, will accept our thanks for public documents sent us.

—Dr. H. K. Hoy, this week performed a signally successful operation in the way of removing a tumor.

—Three Republican borough auditors is rather too much of the good thing. Give us a Democrat this year.

—$7,679.10 is the amount thus far subscribed to the Presbyterian new Sunday school and lecture room.

—There is considerable difference between paying $250 one year, and $125 the next, for the same work.

—Editor Grow of the Lock Haven Journal has been elected secretary of the Clinton county Agricultural Society.

—"Thad" Longwell, a Bellefonte boy, is serving the P. R. R. at Snow Shoe, as telegraph operator and train weigher.

—Sam. Boyer, of Snow Shoe, is the same good fellow he always was, and is being favored with business success of no mean order.

—Maj. R. H. Forster, of this place, is to have a desk in the office of Secy. Africa. Excellent choice.

—A little girl by the name of Garman residing near the class works was badly injured by a sled on Bunker Hill, on Thursday last.

—Du Bois has 3,000 inhabitants and twenty-three drinking places, and nine other applications have been made for license. Too bad!

—Mrs. Abram Valentine while on her way to Sunday School fell, and struck her head, and has been confined to her bed since almost unable to move.

—The recent thaw has seriously interfered with the dangerous amusement of coasting, but has undoubtedly contributed much to the comfort of anxious parents.

—Many of the property owners in town have shown decided neglect in removing the slush from their pavements which renders walking exceedingly unpleasant.

—Mr. Holtz, of Joseph Bros. & Co., is as much a success handling the pick as he is pulling down clothing that is all wool but the buttons and sure to fit like paper on the wall.

—Mrs. Ann Eliza Young lectured at Brookville, Pa., yesterday, on "Utah's Curse and the Nation's Shame." Eliza has had some experience and should know all about it.

—Co. Supt. Wolf was in town on Tuesday and seemed most interested in the Local Institutes, one to be held at Howard on Friday and Saturday next and the other at Millheim one week later.

—Last Thursday Mrs. Robt. Thompson of Coleville, an elderly lady being out in the yard fell upon the ice sustaining a painful fracture of the wrist, she is reported however as improving as rapidly as is to be expected.

—The News is truly in a bad way when it employs a drunken rhymer to write its poetry. The Milesburg musician may possess many excellent qualities of head and heart, but he isn't a poet, and they ought to know it.

—Mr. John G. Uzzle has established a meat market in connection with his hotel at Snow Shoe that is the pride of the people of that neighborhood, and entrusted its management to a gentleman, Mr. Orr, who understands every detail of the business.

—Our friend of the Boston Clothing House is one of the happiest men in town. The little fellow came Saturday night and of course his father is bristling all over with the dignity attending fatherhood. We tender congratulations, Mr. Schneeberg.

—At their meeting on Monday evening last the Ladies Parish Aid Society of St. John's Episcopal Church passed resolutions of thanks to Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Sands for their generous loan of the room in which the oyster supper was held last week, and to all others who so kindly lent their help and patronage.

—The Mountain House, at Snow Shoe, kept by Mr. E. A. Nolan, is one of the most delightful places in the world to put up at. So exceedingly attractive is it, that guests not infrequently forget that life is short and permit themselves to miss a train in order that they may tarry awhile longer. The phenomenal success that has attended the present management has been earned by close attention to business and a scrupulous regard for the welfare and comfort of guests. It will be a cold day when anyone, who stops with Ed. Nolan, gets left.

—Lock Haven has secured a town clock at last.

—Valentines store will be moved April 1st to the rooms lately occupied by I. Guggenheimer.

—C. U. Hoffer, & Co., will move into the room occupied by M. L. Schneeberg, April 1st.

—If we again hear of a certain pool room proprietor permitting playing on Sunday we shall expose him.

—After April 1st, Alfred Nichols, of Brooklyn, will open a general wholesale and retail grocery in the room now occupied by Brew & Son.

—Dr. Higbee, State Superintendent of Public Instruction, who was compelled to forego a visit to this place during our late county institute, on account of sickness is rapidly recovering.

—Maj. J. B. Fisher, Penn Hall, A. C. Hinton Esq., ex-county commissioner, Moshannon, Dr. P. T. Musser, Aaronsburg, Messrs J. P. Rankle and M. S. Fielder, Haines twp. and Mr. Jno. H. Creamer, Millheim, were among the welcome callers at this office within the last day or two.

—The Y. M. C. A. of Centre Hall has a Ladies' Auxiliary, officered as follows: Pres. Miss Cora Murray; Vice Pres. Mrs. W. K. Forster; Secy. Miss Jennie Boal; Treas. Mrs. J. W. Conley, and Librarians, Miss Kate Resman and Miss Maggie Thompson. We wish the effort abundant success.

—On Friday a little son of John Bradley, while coasting on Bunker Hill, struck a post at the corner of the Public School grounds, and was picked up insensible. He was carried to Dr. Dart's office where he was kindly cared for by the Doctor and then taken home in his sleigh. He was injured about the face and had one tooth broken off besides other injuries.

—The pound party of the Presbyterian Mite Society, which was held on Friday evening last, at the residence of John P. Harris, was a very enjoyable affair. There was quite a large number of packages disposed of and the receipts of the evening were very satisfactory. The improvised auctioneer, who is one of our legal fraternity, acquitted himself with marked ability and added much to the pleasure of the evening by his quaint humor.

—Mr. W. G. Morrison an energetic and experienced teacher in the schools at Millheim is active in preparation for the coming local institute to be held in that borough in the near future. At his instance the board of directors have called a number of meetings relative to the occasion and the zeal he has so successfully aroused in the community generally, is commendable. To find the honest effort of our Co. Supt. to inaugurate a new era in educational matters in our midst, so significantly appreciated, is we think, an earnest of more satisfactory results from our common schools and inspires the reasonable hope that Centre county will soon wield some lasting influence in a matter so vital as the training of our boys and girls.

—Last Friday as Mr. S. W. Barefoot, with Mrs. D. C. Keller, was driving out Allegheny street, three half grown girls ran and tried to hang on to the sleigh, they were kindly asked to get off, when one, the largest, flung her red shawl in such a way as to cause the horse to suddenly run to one side, upsetting the sleigh and throwing the occupants heavily to the ground, as soon as he discovered the real condition of affairs he ran off and a dog, mottled sleigh and injured animal resulted. Mrs. Keller was considerably hurt and might have been killed. There is a method of preventing this outlandish nuisance and Mr. Barefoot should demand at the hands of the parents of the girls full restitution for damage sustained.

—The rare treat to be given at Centre Hall next week, to all lovers of the "Art Drame" is receiving the consideration it merits from the leading musicians of this and adjoining counties. A truly encouraging number have already signified their intention to become members of the class and until the festival week is ushered in there is abundant reason to expect the number will be increased. The eminent reputation of Dr. Perkins as an instructor and composed possesses an attractive feature that will surely create a desire in our local talent to please themselves under his valuable suggestions derived from a wide and varied experience. Besides the free entertainment of all singers in itself gives promise of a genial time in the hospitable families of Centre Hall.

CRAND JURY REPORT.—The Grand Inquest of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania inquiring in and for the county of Centre, after having disposed of all the bills of indictment before us under the instruction of the Court, have examined the public buildings and report as follows:

All the offices in Court House in good order. In the jail find water pipes out of order on the one side leading to the cells and ten water closets out of order and having no water. We find one end of gallery floor loose and hanging down; also four locks out of order. The furnace heating the back end of jail is out of order and gas is escaping from it. Our attention was called to a shed roof which is built on the outside of the back wall of the jail, which we think should be removed.

ROBERT J. HAINES, Foreman.

Jan. 24, 1883.

A GRAND SURPRISE.—On the evening of the 27th the music of bells was heard in front of the Evangelical parsonage, Milesburg, Pa., and on looking out of the window a horse and sleigh were seen in front of the house, and in a few moments the door bell rang. In opening the door a young man and a young lady were welcomed into the parlor, after which it proved to be Mr. C. C. Shuey and Miss Shrom, from the Hoffer store, Bellefonte, bringing with them and presenting to Rev. T. M. Morris, a first class grey wolf robe, beautifully lined, &c., a present from the Shuey family. God bless the donors, and thanks to the liberal givers.

T. M. MORRIS.

GRAND CONCERT AND BALL.—The order of Free Gardeners is an ancient one, claiming its origin to date from the time of Adam and Eve. Its membership is most numerous in Scotland, where it is held in high esteem. The first and only representative in this State is the St. Andrew's Grand Lodge, No. 1, at Snow Shoe city, this county.

It is strictly beneficial in its character and aim, designed to assist those of its members, who may be unfortunate enough to incur physical misfortune, and in case of death to insure decent burial and provide for the widows and orphans of deceased.

In order to place it in healthy financial condition a grand concert and ball were given under the direct auspices of the Snow Shoe lodge, last Thursday evening, which we are pleased to report proved an entire success.

If our memory serves us properly the following persons participated in the concert, each being greeted with vociferous applause: Wm. Morgan, Wm. Cook, the Carney Brothers, Wm. McClaren, Andrew Bernard, Thos. Cooper, David Carlich, Wm. Mair, Mr. and Mrs. Adam Barr, and Andrew Lee, who did the honors of floor manager, and is Grand Master of the Lodge.

The ball was largely attended, a great many taking part, and enjoyment seemed to be the portion of all.

We congratulate St. Andrew's Lodge upon its successful entry into the arena of united fellowship and trust many years of usefulness may be meted out to its kind-hearted members.

PLEASANT GAP ITEMS.—The shooting match at Haag's was a success so far as good order and shooting were concerned, two of the large porkers were disposed of with a large number of turkeys. Gottlieb is a brick.

I am sorry to say that quite a number of our citizens are making arrangements to move to Phillipsburg—among whom are John Harrison, J. R. Sheller, Sidney Miller and John W. Miller—all good Democrats and good citizens. We will miss these good men in more than one respect, and hope they will all be much benefited in their new mountain home.

Our esteemed friend, John Noll, is one of the successful applicants at the State Capital, having received the appointment of janitor. He now says truly, I would rather be a doorkeeper in the house of my Lords than dwell at the Gap. His many friends at the Gap and throughout the county congratulate him as the chosen champion.

Joe Ross says he cannot see why the editor of the Times, Alec McClure, is abusing Governor Pattison for appointing Mr. Cassidy unless he wanted the appointment himself. Joe says he hopes Mac will not find out that Spring township is going to erect an almshouse next summer, as one of our overseers is an independent, the civil service reform might bring the presumptuous editor of the Times out in opposition to the enterprise.

Miss Blanch Tate and her brother, George, are visiting friends in Williamsport, the Misses Kline, whose parents formerly resided in Benner township, this county. Hope they will have a pleasant time of it.

Our stores are all in full blast, the several merchants are trying their best to secure the most customers, lots of fun with them. Keep it up boys, the customers will not interfere so long as you sell cheap.

There is already considerable wire pulling in regard to the Spring election. What we want is a good strong ticket brought out and it will be a success, a ticket with no pullers or chokers to interfere will be successful, and those who are evilly disposed had better lay low if they wish to be successful, for you know our stalwart friends are very anxious to serve the dear people of Spring to whinship. So let us put a ticket in the field that even the most radical leaders of the opposite party cannot find fault with and we are sure to win.

SHIN BONE.

[We commend this letter of SHIN BONE to the notice of those in different parts of the county who might, if they would, do the same each week. It is full of news and will interest our Pleasant Gap friends.—Ed.]

—The time of holding the borough election will soon be here—Tuesday, 20th instant, and we trust those interested will see to it that only good men are chosen. The bulk of taxation is assessed and collected by these officials, and if they choose, they can expend money without any benefit accruing to the public. Take only the very best men, those who are known to conduct their private, personal business judiciously and economically.

The Auditors and the Commissioners.

The report of the County Auditors has been filed, without, as usual, the signature of the Republican member of the board, C. P. Hewes, Esq., being affixed thereto. We do not desire, at this time to enter upon a discussion of the merits of the work done, and shall, for the present, content ourselves by giving to the public some information they would not, in all probability, otherwise receive.

Mr. Hewes' reasons for not concurring in the finding of the balance of the board, are these:

To the Honorable, the Judges of the Court of Common Pleas of Centre County:

I concur with the majority of the board of Auditors in the settlement of the accounts of the Sheriff and Treasurer, but I dissent from the report so far as it purports to be a settlement of the accounts of the Commissioners with the county, and assign the following reasons—

1st. That in the settlement with the Commissioners the Auditors simply compared the vouchers produced by the Commissioners with the charges or entries made, without investigating whether the charges were legal; whether the expenditure was such as the county was legally bound to pay; that large amounts were claimed, to wit: over three thousand dollars for expense of county bridges, and no examination was made to ascertain whether the said bridges are county bridges or not, that in the opinion of your auditor, it is a question whether some of these bridges are county bridges, that the majority of the auditors refused to go into a full investigation of these different items, that your auditor to satisfy himself made private examination and found various irregularities and credits claimed against the county and from which investigation he is satisfied that other errors exist in the account as presented by the majority of the auditors.

2nd. That in the item of credit of $452.17 for the printing of the commissioners statement published in 1882 your auditor is of opinion that at least one half thereof is in excess of legal charges and that it was an unnecessary expense to the county.

3rd. That the majority of the auditors devoted one half day to the examination of the commissioners accounts, that no proper examination thereof could be made in that limited time. The result is that it was but a comparison without an auditing and examination such as the law requires and therefore I can not join in the said report as far as the commissioners accounts are concerned. Respectfully submitted,

C. P. HEWES, Auditor.

In their report the auditors saw fit to make a few remarks and suggestions, as follows:

It was hoped that when the present board of commissioners come into power, an effort would be made to collect the back-standing taxes. We must express our surprise and regret to find so few of these old accounts settled in 1882. There is no reason why every duplicate, now out farther back than 1882 should not have been settled prior to January 1, 1883. If there is no other way to compel the collection of this vast amount of out-standing taxes we think the auditors will have to begin to charge all moneys lost by reason of delay in collecting to the commissioners.

The law contemplates the collection of all taxes in 90 days from the time the duplicate is first placed in the hands of the collector. Instead of enforcing it the duplicates are allowed to run anywhere from three to eight years. By this means the county loses a large amount of money annually. Persons move out of the districts, property is sold and transferred, and then the collectors come in and ask for large exonerations because of this.

We hope therefore by the time we are called upon to settle the accounts another time, no taxes further back than 1883 will be found out-standing.

The auditors heartily join in recommending that hereafter accounts which cannot be collected be stricken from the list of assets of the county. Their is neither use nor sense in carrying forward, from year to year, accounts that are entirely worthless.

We understand that there are duplicates outstanding as far back as 1872, given out to men who were worthless and without security being taken. If such is the case they should be set out as uncollectable, and the people given to know exactly what the available assets of the county are.

The auditors suggest that the commissioners keep their books in a more simple manner. The difficulty of which we complain seems to arise through a multiplicity of books, and a lack of system in properly classifying entries or subjects in them. A little more care in this direction will be profitable, save time and labor, and the accounts will be more readily understood.

This evening the Ladies Mite Society of the Presbyterian church will give the oyster supper of the season, at Sands' ice cream parlors. Nothing will be wanting that can add to the attractiveness of the meal. The quality and the quantity of eatables to be furnished will render it an occasion of rare pleasure. In addition to the "season of supper" proper, ice cream and cake, at usual prices, will be supplied. Every thing strictly first class and well worthy the patronage of all. Tickets 50 cents. Help the good cause along.

A DONATION.—The good people of Port Matilda, Black Oak and Mt. Pleasant, took possession of the U. B. parsonage at Port Matilda, Pa., on the 16th inst., and proceeded to prepare an excellent dinner for the occasion. About 70 were present, and left behind them over $80.00 worth of dry goods, groceries, provisions, &c., feeling that it was good to be there, and that it was more blessed to give than receive, and the heart of Rev. U. Conley and wife were gladdened by their visit.

TWENTY YEARS A GREAT SUFFERER, from constipation. Had swallowed a half bushel of Pills, and drank over a barrel of Cathartic and Laxative slops. Had tried every Patent Medicine recommended in such cases, and had been treated by all the very best physicians in Philadelphia, and was finally told by her consulting physicians that she was now to weak for Cathartic Medicine, or injections, and that she must die. She then took Manalin and was cured. See 31st page of the "Mills of Life." Get the book from your Druggist, or address DR. HARTMAN, Osborn, O., for one.

AGRICULTURISTS IN SESSION.—The Agricultural Society of the county met at the Court House on Monday evening, Dr. E. W. Hale, president, in the chair. The secretary, S. D. Ray, Esq., noted the proceedings.

The attendance was decidedly meagre, about twenty being present, but the lack of members was more than compensated for by the enthusiasm of those whose devotion to the cause of husbandry had induced them to be on hand, promptly.

Messrs. Wm. Shortlidge, Capt. J. A. Hunter and A. V. Miller, constituted a committee to nominate officers for the ensuing year. They reported—Henry C. Campbell, of Rock Springs, president, Jno. I. Thompson, Lemont, George Runk, Spring Mills, Hon. B. F. Hunter, Fillmore, and Jno. A. Woodward, Howard, vice presidents; J. R. Alexander, Bellefonte, chairman, Hon. J. F. Weaver, Milesburg, Wm. Boal, Centre Hall, Samuel Decker, Zion, Wm. F. Reaick, Spring Mills, and Alexander Chaney, Port Matilda, executive committee; H. H. Hersberger, Esq., Bellefonte, secretary, and Calvin Peters, Fleming, librarian.

Mr. Campbell admitted that he considered himself highly honored and assured his friends that the cause of agriculture would find in him a staunch supporter.

Col. Shortlidge, whose round physical make-up is evidence sufficient that in proposing to annually banquet the society he was saying one word for the organization and at least half a dozen for himself.

Leonard Rhone, Master of State Grange, Mr. Runk, Mr. Harsberger, Capt. Hunter and others took part in animated discussions.

Altogether the society appears to be flourishing and we urge the active cooperation of all those interested.

—Wilson, McFarlane & Co., call attention to the only reliable Ready Mixed Paint in the market. The Pioneer Prepared Paint is not only superior to any Ready Mixed Paint sold but rivals pure white lead in its smoothness in working and durability. This paint is guaranteed by the manufacturers not to crack or peel within three years. The guarantee is not only good for replacing the paint but it will be put on if it should crack or peel within the time specified. It will be to your interest to call and see Wilson, McFarlane & Co., before purchasing either white lead or any other Ready Mixed Paint.

A GOOD WORK COMMENCED.—That evils exist in the management of the borough affairs is daily becoming more apparent. Without attempting to explain we quote competent authority, and say, that the report of the Borough auditors when published next April or May will show that the committee of council, having the streets in charge, have expended about the same amount of money used last year, and made no improvements to speak of, whereas a bridge costing over $1,200, was built the year before. The water works will also have cost nearly as much, and last year's report shows a new boiler, worth $1,400, to have been bought and paid for.

On account of this and kindred recklessness, much dissatisfaction exists, taxes increased at an alarming rate until they amount to as much or more than the rent tenants are willing to pay. In one case a house is rented for $300 on which the aggregate taxes amount to $304.

The only result one might reasonably expect has been to arouse a feeling of bitter antagonism to this system, and to plant directly, in the minds of all, and desire to correct the existing abuses.

With this purpose in view a number of our citizens met on Tuesday evening at the office of E. L. Orvis, Esq., and after choosing Dr. R. L. Dart, chairman, talked the matter over coolly, and authorized him to appoint a committee of five, whose duty it will be to map out the work to be done as well as to devise means for its accomplishment, and report to a similar meeting at the same place on Friday evening next. The committee consists of Ellis Orvis, D. M. Lieb, Frank P. Blair, Cyrus Weaver and Chas Cook.

Now all friends of equity and honor in the administration of our borough affairs should come right in regardless of political bias, and see to it that competent men only are elected to fill borough offices. Come to the meeting on Friday night.

—This we take from the Pittsburg Leader, of Sunday last, and refers to a citizen of this place and well known here as a tip top, first class, good fellow, and we know there is not an iota of flattery in it, but every bit is more than merited by our genial friend.

It would be hard to imagine a man more surprised than was Mr. H. C. Yeager, the manager of the St. Charles hotel, yesterday afternoon on being called into the dining room where he found the employees of the hotel waiting for him. Without giving him time to inquire what the trouble was Mr. Isaac Watson, the head waiter, presented him with a handsome gold headed ebony cane as a mark of the high esteem in which he is held by the employees of the hotel. Mr. Watson made a very appropriate speech and ended by hoping that Mr. Yeager would never be cased in a manner not quite as agreeable as the present. Mr. Yeager was greatly moved and expressed his appreciation of their kindness in a few well chosen words. The cane was then passed around the people present and all united in saying that they never had seen a handsomer present of the kind.

A $20.00 BIBLICAL REWARD.—The publishers of Rutledge's Monthly offer twelve valuable rewards in their Monthly for February, among which is the following:

We will give $20.00 in gold to the person telling us which is the middle verse in the Old Testament Scriptures by February 10th, 1883. Should two or more correct answers be received, the reward will be divided. The money will be forwarded to the winner February 15th, 1883. Persons trying for the reward must send 20 cents in silver (no postage stamps taken) with their answer, for which they will receive the March Monthly, in which the name and address of the winner of the reward and the correct answer will be published. This may be worth $20.00 to you; cut it out. Address: RUTLEDGE PUBLISHING COMPANY, Easton, Penna. 21.

WALNUT LEAF HAIR RESTORER.—It is entirely different from all others. It is as clear as water, and, as its name indicates, is a perfect Vegetable Hair Restorer. It will immediately free the head from the dandruff, restore gray hair to its natural color, and produce a new growth where it has fallen off. It does not in any manner affect the health, which Sulphur, Sugar of lead, and Nitrate of Silver preparations have done. It will change light or faded hair in a few days to a beautiful glossy brown. Ask your druggist for it. Each bottle is warranted. Smith, Kline & Co., Wholesale Agents, Philadelphia, and Hall & Ruckel, New York. 4-ly
