"Juan II. Whight, H.D., Analytical Chemists, St. Louis."

The Royal Baking Powder received the highest award over all competitors at the Vienna World's Exposition, 1873; at the Centennial, Philadelphia, 1870; at the American Institute, and at State Fairs throughout the country.

at State Pairs throughout the country.

No other article of human food has ever received such high, emphatic, and universal endorsement from eminent chemists, physicians, scientists, and Loards of Health all over the world.

Nora.—The above Draeman illustrates the comparative worth of various Paking Fowders, as shown by Chemical Analysis and experiments made by Prof. Schedler. A one round can of each powder was taken, the to all leavening power or volume in each can calculated, the result being as indicated. This practical test for worth by Prof. Schedler only proves what every observant consumer of the Royal Baking Powder knows by practical experience, that, while it costs a few cents per pound more than the ordinary kinds, it is far more recommical, and, besides, affords the advantage of better work. A single trial of the Royal Baking Powder will convince any fair minded person of these facts.
