Local Department.

-It is rumored that Howard is to have a new post master.

-Mr. Chas. A. Glenn expects to open a photograph gallery at Snow Shoe soen. -Mr. and Mis. E. A. Nolan, of Snow

Shoe, were in town last Wednesday evening.

-One of the most genteel images of "God cut in ebony" is now High Constsble of Bellefonte.

-The Special Conclave of the Sir Knights of Constans Commandery last Thursday was an occasion of rare enjoyment to the gentlemen.

-James N. VanOrmer, of Bellefonte called in to see us on Friday last. He didn't insist that the river run up .- Mifflintown Democrat & Register.

-Snow Saturday night and Monday afternoon sandwiched by warm and cold winds gave sufficient variety to the weather of late, to suit the most critical.

-Now all stand back and give the Watchman and Centre Hall Reporter fair play. We must have a little excitement occasionally. Don't crowd, stand back !

-Our venerable friend Hon. Samuel Gilliland, of Boalsburg, called on us on Saturday. We are always glad to see him and he will always find our latchstring out.

-Mr. Abraham M'Cullum, of Milesburg, paid us a visit last Saturday. He expects to go to Montana in April and Milesburg will lose one of her best citizens.

-Mr. Jackson Gorton, for seven years constable of Philipsburg, paid us a pop call on Tuesday. Mr. Gorton is now out of politics-or no, he is assistant Burgess of his flourishing town. 'Rah for Gorton.

-Esq. will be what people addressing our Republican friend J. R. Tate, of Pleasant Gap, must add to that worthy gentleman's name hereafter. He was elected Justice of the Peace for Spring township at the late election.

He leaves a widow, three sons and five daughters-all well provided for in the land of his adoption, with hosts of friends who regret his departure.

A BIG AFFAIR .-- While in Pittsburgh, recently, it was the good fortune of the writer to be the guest of Mr. H. C. Yeager, formerly of Bellefonte, and now business manager of the St. Charles hotel, situated between Third avenue and Wood street, ccupying one whole square. The house have been selected on account of their Moore has been in Montana for about five singular fitness for the duties allotted them. years and the family expected to move of those who stop there, ably assisted by son and brother is buried there.
