

The Centre Democrat.

Thursday Morning, March 8, 1883.

CORRESPONDENCE, containing important news, a letter from any part of the county. No communication inserted unless accompanied by the real name of the writer.

Local Department.

—Look out for Wiggins' storm on Saturday or Sunday.

—A handsome piece of fancy work executed by Miss Mollie Becker, is on exhibition at the Bee Hive.

—The regular monthly meeting of the Y. M. C. A. on Sunday was the best attended of any yet held. Gen. Beaver led.

—A Huntington audience will listen to the lecture on "Russia" by Ex-Gov. Curtin, sometime about the middle of this month.

—Mr. Allen Schroyer and family removed from their late residence, on Tuesday, to the dwelling adjoining that of Col. Wm. Shortridge.

—Our senior editor, Hon. S. T. Shugert, has been confined to the house for nearly a week, and although nothing serious is wrong, he regrets being kept indoors.

—Does poultry pay?—Lowtown Free Press. Some varieties may, but Bellefonte is cursed with an over-supply of "croakers" who were never known to pay for anything.

—We are pleased to find that Charles Smith has been re-elected one of the Justices of the Peace for Bellefonte. Charles has proven one of the most efficient squires in the county.—Reporter.

—The dwelling house of Mr. John Watson, near Milesburg, a small frame structure was destroyed by fire at noon on Saturday. The house caught from the stove pipe which extended out through the roof. No insurance.

—Our enterprising, readable and bright little friend, the Lock Haven Evening Express entered its second volume, last in the Y. M. C. A. lecture room was well Thursday. We wish it a prosperous, long and happy life.

—The concert by the blind Shale sisters attended and gave entire satisfaction. Their singing was of such a character as to enlist for them the sympathy of all, and no doubt wherever they go they will be received with the open-armed cordiality their merit.

—When the Centre Hall Reporter says "the Commissioners feel disposed to do what is fair to Bellefonte as well as the tax-payers outside," it speaketh the words of a wise man. In no sense is the present board found fault with, so far as building bridges are concerned.

—Sad, indeed, was the death of Mr. Alexander Scott, of Brookville, Jefferson county, which occurred on Feb. 27, while he was helping fell trees. A falling limb struck him and he died in half an hour. Mrs. Samuel Rine, of this place, was a daughter of the unfortunate man.

—The resignation of Robert McKnight, Esq., was read at the last meeting of the council, to take effect April 1st. Just why this gentleman should desire to retire from the council, at this time, doth not appear, and should he care to state publicly what his reasons are, our columns are open.

—On Tuesday morning the family of Mr. Wm. Wolf, of Penn township, consisting of eight persons, accompanied by Miss Laura Breen, of the same locality, and Mr. Irvin Miller, of Haines township, boarded the western bound train en route for Illinois. May success attend them.

—The ladies of the Presbyterian Mite Society will hold an Ice Cream Festival, on Friday evening, March 9, in the room adjoining the Centre County Bank, commencing at four o'clock. We advise all our friends to go and get a plate of ice-cream and piece of cake. Tickets—15 cents.

—Next Tuesday evening Dr. Thos. R. Hayes will deliver Practical Talk, No. 3, before the Y. M. C. A. and its friends on "Our Eyes." This series of free lectures has already become very popular, and the interesting nature of the subject, chosen, and the acknowledged ability of Dr. Hayes, should attract a large audience.

—Rev. E. Edwards, of Milesburg, writes us "the ladies of the Baptist church, Milesburg, will hold a festival, Saturday, March 10th, afternoon and evening. Ice cream, cake, etc., will be served. It is hoped this festival will be liberally patronized." We can only add our wish to that of our clerical friend, that no want of public patronage may detract from the success of the occasion.

—The Methodist sociable was well attended at its last meeting, on Tuesday evening. It would add much to the pleasure of persons, who occupy seats in the rear of the room, if better order were preserved. Half grown boys and girls—that should be dressed in long white, tuckered dresses, and have persons to attend them as nurses, ought not to be allowed to annoy those who go to listen and learn.

—We learn with regret of the illness of our old friend, Mr. Jonathan Kreamer, of Millheim, who for a period of fifty years has been an active and useful citizen of our county. Mr. Kreamer has not been well for a long time, but latterly his physical troubles have been augmented. We hope the quiet of retired life, which he means to seek, April 1st, may restore him, and that for many years he may enjoy the rest so fully earned by a continued, close attention to business for a long time.

OLIVETTE.—The rendition of this deservedly popular opera at Reynold's hall (?) last Thursday evening was a decided success. The "Wilbur" is a strong combination, well supported and produces unquiverable hits in whatever it chooses to produce.

A CARD.—Any person desiring to expose their property to public sale, and needing an auctioneer for that purpose, will do well to employ JOHN H. LONG, of Curtin township. He has had nine years experience and is very moderate in his charges. His address is Longville, Centre county, n9-2w.

THE SAME OLD STORY.—A practical joker a long time ago announced that he had discovered a "burning mountain" near Woodward. The description, so vividly portrayed, must have lingered in the unfrequented labyrinths of some other brain and this letter to the New York Weekly Sun, was the result:

TO THE EDITOR OF THE WEEKLY SUN.—Sir: There is a place several feet square near the top of a steep hill in this vicinity, and over 100 feet above the level, where the snow melts as it falls, and where smoke or vapor can be seen rising in cold weather. When the mercury stood below zero in the open air, the temperature rose 40° above in this hole, as tested by a thermometer. The ground is of a loose slate gravel, and on top of the hill are shaly slate rocks. No water is near, and the ground is perfectly dry. Centre county, Pa. J. D. P.

HUBLERSBURG NOTES.—Miss Annie Smith of Jersey Shore, is visiting among relatives.

David Zimmerman, of McKeesport, Allegheny county, is paying a visit to his father, Lewis Zimmerman, Esq.

The happiest man in town is Courtney Carner who is rejoicing over a female visitor who calls him papa. [Do Hublersburg children talk so early in life?—Ed.]

Michael Hubler, proprietor of "The Eagle," is suffering with a boil on his face, which confined him to the house for a few days.

On Friday there was a brush-cutting frolic at William Shaffer's where about twenty-five participated and had a good time generally.

Soon the old barn on the John Dunkle farm will be replaced by a new structure.

Hymen is still at work as the eighth wedding came off a few days since the parties thereto being John Brown and a lady from Clinton county. John says he does not like the title of "old bachelor" so he just escaped the list. Uno.

SPRING MILL ITEMS.—Cold, windy, stormy March is here, and with it, bad roads, bad colds, and all the disagreeableness attendant upon this season of the year. Last week certainly deserves the name of sales week, as there were four large sales in the neighborhood of this place. One of these was Dr. J. B. Leitzel. The doctor and his son Charles will locate near Freeport, Illinois, where they will both continue the practice of medicine. What will Wallace Duncan do now? is the great query; for he and the young doctor were inseparable companions. Mrs. Nellie Kummer, relict of John Kummer, who died two years ago, fell a victim to that fell destroyer, consumption, and on last Saturday evening her spirit winged its flight across the dark river. On Tuesday her remains were committed to their last resting place. Rev. Adams, of the Methodist church, is holding a series of meetings at this place. Shannon Post G. A. R., at Centre Hall had a sermon preached by Rev. Fischer, of the Lutheran church, on last Saturday evening.

James A. Decker, of Potter's Mills has rented a building and will engage in the butchering business in the Spring.

A NEW YEAR FOR SUNDAY SCHOOLS.—A new year of The American Sunday-school Union, the society I serve in Northern Pennsylvania, begins to-day. I write now briefly in reference to the work yet to come.

After all that has been thus far accomplished, it is within the bounds of truth to say that there are thousands of precious souls "in the region round about" who are still without Sunday-school privileges, most if not all the time, as well as without a hope in the Savior. It is also certain that these thousands will not embrace the Christian religion or hardly lead a strictly moral life until they first become interested in the Gospel truth which is "the power of God unto salvation." To provide this Bible school instruction in the word of life for all the needy without distinction and to disseminate evangelical literature are among the prime objects for which we labor. A volume of interesting particulars on this subject might be written. The gratitude I feel cannot be expressed in words to the many friends who, in many ways, have encouraged me during the past year, darkly clouded in the death of my faithful wife on the day after Christmas. Entering upon the work of another year, we trustfully hope for the continued kindly co-operation of pastors and friends, expecting always as hitherto the blessing of God upon all we endeavor faithfully to do "in the name of the Lord" for the eternal welfare of immortal souls. B. CRITTENDEN.

Bellefonte, Pa., March 1st, 1883.

—Mr. Daniel Hosterman, one of the Democratic war horses of Penn township, dropped in to see us on Tuesday.

—Just got in a new stock of Chamber Suits, walnut, oak and ash. Call to see us. R. B. Spangler & Co.

—Have you been to the great bargain sale at the Bee Hive, if not get there as soon as you can. 101f.

—Look Haven is to have a coffee house and reading room, under direction of the W. C. T. U. Success to it.

—Miss Martha Hunter, of Buffalo Run, sister of Hon. B. F. Hunter, has been seriously ill for some time.

—Cast scrap iron wanted for the cash or in exchange for Hardware at H. K. HICKS' HARDWARE AND STOVE STORE, 1f.

—We would say—when we walked over here, but the Republican local puts it "exertion of pedestrianism induced perspiration."

—For one dime get a package of Diamond Dyes at the druggist's. They color anything the simplest and most desirable colors.

—Messrs Lyon & Co will soon announce their Spring opening, which is to eclipse any thing of the kind ever seen in Bellefonte.

—The best, biggest and nicest stock of carpets, oil cloths etc., kept in Centre county can now be found at the Bee Hive. 101f.

—R. B. Spangler & Co say they have sold Four thousand seven hundred chairs during the past six months. Reason is they have sold chairs at bottom prices.

—Mr. J. L. Crystal, of Philadelphia, agent for the "Pennsylvania State Gazetteer and Business Directory," published by R. L. Polk & Co, called upon us on Friday.

—Messrs. Smith & Eaton sold oranges on the streets last Saturday at 15 cents per dozen. Mr. David Parsons attracted the customers and succeeded in disposing of over 500 dozen.

—Mr. Foster Williams, who manages the clothing department at Lyon & Co's, last week received a nice little package from Houtzdale. As soon as he Repacked for it he knew his goose was cooked.

—Mr. Charles Rodgers, who was hurt at the nail works some time ago and confined to the house for quite a while, did not suffer any financial loss, he was paid the same as though he had been at work.

—The report of the Committee of the Senate, appointed to examine the affairs of the State College, will be found on our sixth page. Our townsman, Hon. C. T. Alexander, is chairman of the committee.

—The mercantile establishment of Messrs. Harper Bros., Spring street, has been connected with other places of business by telephone. These gentlemen are keeping pace with the march of improvement.

—The latest novelty at an unheard of sacrifice, changeable Ottoman Velvets in all shades at 50 cents per yard, cost $1.80 to import—at the One Price Bee Hive Stores. This bargain can positively never be duplicated. 101f.

—At the annual meeting of the Presbyterian Women's Foreign Missionary Society, held at Port Royal, Juniata county, Mrs. Nannie Orison, Mrs. W. P. Wilson, Mrs. J. C. Weaver and Mrs. Roberts attended as delegates from this place. Miss Alice Smith represented "Loring Band."

—The M. E. conference, of this district, will assemble at Chambersburg, March 14th. Rev. G. D. Penepacker, pastor of this charge, will probably return for the third and last year. Mr. Penepacker has done some good work for both his church and the community, and it is to be hoped that the rumor, to the effect he may not come back, should prove groundless.

—On Tuesday, of last week, Mrs. Michael Morrison, a resident of this place, was taken to the asylum at Danville. About six weeks ago she gave birth to a child since when her mind has wavered and her reason been partly dethroned. Her friends and acquaintances devoutly trust a short season of rest, quiet and kind treatment may restore her. Prior to her marriage she was known as Miss Luft.

—The Harrisburg Opera house was the scene of a gay and festive occasion on Wednesday evening, 28th ultimo, it being the time for holding the second annual Hebrew charity ball. Mr. Samuel Lewin, proprietor of the celebrated Philadelphia Branch Clothing Hall, of this place, was one of the floor managers and to his kindness a great many of the participants were indebted for their happiness. Mr. Lewin is always a favorite.

—A dutch clergyman was in the habit of giving out two lines of a hymn at a time, for the choir to sing. One dark rainy day, he could not see the words, and said: "Mine eyes ish dim, I cannot see, I left mine specks at home." The choir, supposing this to be the hymn struck up the tune of common metre. The old fellow bawled out: "Mein Gott, mein Gott, dat ish no hymn, I only said mine eyes vash dim." The choir sang these two lines, the old fellow saying: "I dink the debil's in you all. Vot vash no hymn to sing at all." Get your parlor suits at R. B. Spangler & Co, opposite Bush House.

OUR ORCHESTRA.—Bellefonte boasts of having one of the finest local musical organizations in Pennsylvania, composed of the following: First violin, Lemuel Bierly; second violin, Fred Reynolds; viola, Dr. A. Hibler; flute, Nathaniel Bierly; clarinet, Robert Bierly; cornet, E. M. Blanchard; trombone, William Berstine; violinello, F. Potts Green; bass violinello, Charles Smith; piano, Miss Onmacht.

THEY WANT TO LEAVE.—A portion of Philipsburg's citizens are desirous of forming a new county by taking parts of Centre, Clearfield and Blair and consolidating them, with Philipsburg as the county seat. This move is astutely opposed by others who object to the expense of erecting public buildings, supporting county officers and holding additional courts.

The matter should be carefully considered and if a majority of the voters within the district, directly interested, are determined to have a new county, it will be so ordered. We shall part with our friends under protest, however, and hope after fuller discussion the project may be abandoned.

CONSTITUTIONAL PROHIBITION.—The committee appointed to select a sub-committee for the various districts of the county, reports as follows: Howard borough, Wm. P. Lucas; Milesburg, D. B. Elise; Millheim, Jacob Gephart; Philipsburg, Mrs. Wm. V. Hughes; Unionville, Christian Burk; Benner, Jacob M. Wilson; Boggs, P. W. Barnhart, Esq.; Burnside, J. B. Newcomer; College, Wm. Thompson, Sr.; Curtin, J. W. Packer; Ferguson, Amos Clinson and Geo. Eckle; Gregg, Maj. J. B. Fisher; Haines, Thos. Yearick; Half moon, W. L. Wilson; Harris, Dr. John F. Woods; Howard township, J. N. Hall; Huston, Jno. W. Stewart; Liberty, Chas. A. Carter; Marion, I. S. Frain; Miles, Hon. Samuel Franck; Patton, P. B. Waddle; Penn, Samuel Ard and H. E. Duck, Esq.; Potter, Clevan Dinges and J. S. Houseman; Rush, Wm. Hays; Snow Shoe, Rev. W. A. Carter; Spring, Michael Weaver, George C. Miller and Thos. Bell; Taylor, Thos. Merriman; Union, R. L. Underwood; Walker, Hon. John Diven, and Worth, Rev. W. L. Stahl.

The following circular was issued:

BELLEFONTE, Pa., Mar. 3, 1883.
DEAR SIR: We send you a supply of "Amendment Petitions" for your township. If you are (as we believe you to be) a friend of the cause, no words of ours are needed to urge you to take an active part in this battle for the Right. Will you please select your own assistants and carefully canvass your township (district) for voters' signatures.

Read carefully and observe the printed instructions at the head of the petition and, when completed, forward as therein directed, to Hon. Francis Jordan, Harrisburg, Pa.

Yours, in the cause,
D. S. KELLER,
CLEMENS DALE,
J. R. VAN ORMER,
Committee.

THE SHAM AND THE REAL.—Every good thing has its hosts of imitators; every genuine article its counterfeiters. Bad manners and wicked habits have theirs also; but he who shams the bad never boasts of it, while they who ape the virtues of the good or stimulate the genuine never hesitate to place the counterfeit before the public in their most alluring tones. When these people imitate they always choose a pronounced type or popular subject, to copy from; and when they claim to be as good as "So-and-so," or to sell an article equal to "So-and-so," the public may depend upon it that Mr. "So-and-so" and his articles are always the best of the kind. Thus the sham is always proving the genuine merit of the thing it copies.

A firm of enterprising gentlemen produce and popularize an article of household use, such as the Royal Baking Powder, whose convenience, usefulness and real merit make for itself an immense and universal sale. A hundred imitators arise on every hand, and as they hold out their sham articles to the public, yelp in chorus, "Buy this; it's just as good as Royal, and much cheaper!" The Royal Baking powder is the standard of the world over, and its imitators in their cry that theirs is "as good as Royal" are all the time emphasizing this fact. In their laborious attempts to show by analysis and otherwise that the "Snowball" brand has as much raising power "as the Royal;" or that the "Resurrection" powder is as wholesome "as Royal;" or that the "Earthquake" brand is "as pure as the Royal," as well as by their contortive twistings of chemical certificates and labored efforts to obtain recognition from the Government chemists and prominent scientists who have certified the superiority of Royal over all others, they all admit the "Royal" to be the acme of perfection, which it is their highest ambition to imitate. But the difference between the real and these imitations, which copy only its general appearance, is as wide as that between the paste and the true diamond. The shamful pay homage to the "Royal!"

Our Borough Affairs.

The indebtedness of our Borough, as shown by the following statement of interest bearing bonds, is tremendous.

Act of 1863,	$10,000,	6 1/2 per cent.
" 1864,	5,000,	6 per cent.
" 1867,	10,000,	6 per cent.
" 1869,	50,000,	6 per cent.
" 1873,	25,000,	7 per cent.

the Act of 1873 authorized refunding all six per cents. at a rate not exceeding 8 per cent.

No increase of taxation can be legally laid now, and the first thing to be done is to pay the $1,400. of floating debt. It was a wise move to cease paying interest on outstanding borough orders, but if the authorities desire to stop the interest they should pay the orders.

After the floating indebtedness is liquidated a sinking fund to apply on the bonds should be started, and if only $1,000. per annum could be saved it would enable us to place our bonds at a much lower rate of interest.

Instead of the council agreeing to defray the balance of the cost of erecting the abutments for the new bridge, solicit subscriptions from private parties, most directly interested, and if judiciously managed, the borough can be relieved of additional obligations on that account.

FOR SALE.—Drafts on London, Austria-Hungarian, German and Italian postal remittances, Cabin, intermediate and steerage passage tickets between Antwerp and New York, Philadelphia or Baltimore, via "Red Star Line" steamers, and between Queenstown or Liverpool and Philadelphia, Baltimore or New York, via "American Line" steamers.

ADAM HOT, Agent,
for Peter Wright & Sons,
General Agents.

MILESBERG DOINGS.—Any man that wishes to become notorious in our borough must be the object of an obituary notice or be announced as a candidate. At the late election a biographical sketch of many of the candidates would reach to the head waters of Spring creek and back to Reopburg or the house above it. A brief sketch of a few will not be amiss: Our late municipal election was a stalwart success with an abundance of inconsistency. We have every respect for the party, but the teaching are judge not. I presume there is to be no demonstration at the inauguration as they are great on reform. The chief or mayor has openly asserted that he would sooner vote for the proprietor of Hades than for a Democrat. His principle aid or henchman in the contest, is a solid seventy Greenbacker and anti-Beaver Republican, did noble work to defeat a brother in friend, love and charity. Another a few years ago for derelict of duty in office was fined, judgment rendered and no suit of the same ever having been made was elected to the same honorable position we suppose for meritorious conduct while in office before. While another is varying. Go in there Chawley, the dogs might bite. The next in order is a quiet, inoffensive old gent, who is opposed to the free school system, and we will say nothing about what happened a few years ago but many of the taxpayers remember that the borough came near losing several hundred. One consolation we have, all the above are professors of — and we have no fear but they will live up to the golden rule, and besides this they are full of true Republican consistency.

Our town was greatly excited last week when a (we could not tell but what it might be Barnum's what is it) made his appearance among us. However we finally found it was only Nelson Lucas, whom the County Commissioners sent down to ask us to pay our State and county tax. Now Nelly if you are both detective and collector we advise you to post no more bills on our shade trees for we will not have them mutilated with such stuff. A word to the wise is sufficient. We do not care to see you but be careful how you approach us for we are native born and have a natural antipathy against foreigners, especially tax collectors.

Mr. J. M. Wagner's new roller mill arrived on last Saturday. It took a number of men and boys to transfer it from the depot to the mill, where nearly one half the end of the mill building had to be cut out in order to get the roller mill into it. In a few days Mr. Wagner will be able to compete with Reynolds & Co. in roller flour.

The boys are having a good time watching the bear through the crack in Mr. Borlean's stable.

Billy, the Breakfast Table man, did not get round with his papers last Saturday night. BOOMERANG.

—Overseer of the Poor Keichline thinks that he can run things cheaper than has hitherto been the case without detracting from the comforts of those under his charge.—Nes. There is no reasonable doubt to be entertained. He can and will run things a great deal "cheaper than has hitherto been the case." This is cold comfort, akin to the sort received by Job when As was in trouble, and will not tend to add to Mr. Bayard's complacency of mind. Save us from our friends and we'll take care of our enemies!

—Cast scrap iron wanted for the cash or in exchange for Hardware at H. K. HICKS' Hardware and Stove Store, 1f.

—Wilson, McFarlane & Co., call attention to the only reliable Ready Mixed Paint in the market. The Pioneer Prepared Paint is superior to any Ready Mixed Paint and rivals pure white lead in its smoothness in working and durability. This paint is guaranteed by the manufacturer not to crack or peel within three years. The guarantee is not only good for replacing the paint but it will be put on if it should crack or peel within the time specified. It will be to your interest to call and see Wilson, McFarlane & Co., before purchasing either white lead or any other Ready Mixed Paint.

NOTICE.—Persons having R. R. ties, fence posts and telegraph poles for sale, will please send a written proposal of the kind, quantity, price and point of delivery along the line of the B. C. & Southwestern R. R., within thirty days, to R. H. LAWRENCE, Jersey Shore, or W. W. RANKIN, Lock Haven.

—Suits made to your own measure for $15.00. Leave your orders to day. MONTGOMERY & Co., Tailors.

Salvo Register.

It is important that proper publicity be given public sales, and we shall announce in this column, free of charge those for which the bills have been printed at the DEMOCRAT office.

TUESDAY, MARCH 27.—At the residence of Michael Keister, 14 mile east of Bellefonte, on the Jacksonville road, horses, cows, lambs, wagons and other farming implement. Urish stove, Auctioneer, sale commencing at 2 o'clock P. M.

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 28.—At Mr. Eagle's, C. Bower, Esq., Auctioneer, sale at 2 o'clock P. M. of stock, wagons, farming implements, etc. Joe L. Nott, Auctioneer, sale at 2 o'clock P. M.

TUESDAY, MARCH 27.—At the residence of John Zick, by John Zick, Auctioneer, one mile west of Zick, by John Zick, Auctioneer, sale at 1 o'clock P. M.

TO PHYSICIANS.—We do not find fault, reproach or condemn the practice of any regular physician—this is not our mission—but we do claim if he were to add Verano to his prescriptions, as directed in our book on the "Life of Life" (and furnished gratuitously by all druggists), he would cure all his patients.

OSWAGO, Potter county, Pa.
DR. HARTMAN.—Dear Sir: The small blisters are all healed, and the two large ones are not more than half as large as they were. I am feeling very well. The people say your Verano and Manna are doing a miracle. I do not take nearly so much opium as I did before.

MRS. ELLEN MAYNARD.

WALNUT LEAF HAIR RESTORER.—It is entirely different from all others. It is as clear as water, and, as its name indicates, is a perfect Vegetable Hair Restorer. It will immediately free the head from the dandruff, restore gray hair to its natural color, and produce a new growth where it has fallen off. It does not in any manner affect the health, which Sulphur, Sugar of lead, and Nitrate of Silver preparations have done. It will change light or faded hair in a few days to a beautiful glossy brown. Ask your druggist for it. Each bottle is warranted. Smith, Kline & Co., Wholesale Agents, Philadelphia, and Hall & Ruckel, New York. 4-ly.

Bright's Disease of the Kidneys, Diabetes and other Diseases of the Kidneys and Liver, which you are being so frightened about, Hop Bitters is the only thing that will surely and permanently prevent and cure. All other pretended cures only relieve for a time and then make you many times worse.

MARRIAGE.

JAMES A. MCCLAIN, C. O. C.
Sheriff's Office, Bellefonte, Pa., March 7, 1883.
Attorney—T. J. DUNN, Sheriff of Centre County, Pa.

Notice.

To John Corman, late of the County of Centre and State of Pennsylvania.

You are hereby notified that on the 6th of March, 1883, rules upon you were granted by the Orphans' Court of Centre County aforesaid, commanding you to appear in said Court on the 6th day of April 1883, and show cause, if any you have, why the Orphans' Court Sales made to you by the administrators of Jacob Hoyer, deceased, with one tract of one hundred and seven acres, and fifty-four gardens, in Marion township, Centre County, sold to you Dec. 21, 1874, and the other tract of five acres and one hundred and seven gardens, in the 4th and 5th townships, Centre County, sold to you Dec. 21, 1874, should not be set aside by an order of non-compliance with the conditions of sale.

Witness my hand and the seal of said County, at Centre, Pa., this 6th day of March, 1883.

T. J. DUNN, Sheriff of Centre County, Pa.
