Mr. R. A. Beck will continue his early morning concerts in various parts of town, during the summer. Admission free.
Ex-Squire, H. H. Corman, of Rebersburg, was busily engaged attending to business in town on Monday. He is a good fellow.
Read the advertisement of the Bee Hive and resolve to attend the grand opening and secure some of the bargains so lavishly offered.
Mr. L. A. Schaefer has forsaken Blackstone and Chitty for the more entertaining head work of trying to catch fish. Hope he may succeed.
Mrs. Ed. Bates, of Snow Shoe, and Mrs. "Hud" Crissman, of Phillipsburg, are with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. B. Weaver, of this place.
Mrs. Joe. W. Furey is visiting relatives at Osceola. During her absence the genial local of the Watchman will be a little more furious (?) than ever.
Consumers of groceries have reason to thank dealers in those necessary goods for the extremely low prices offered as inducements—the result of cutting.
The Lewistown Democrat and Sentinel resurrects the following bit of good advice from obscurity. Don't forget the old rule: Stick to your flannels until they stick to you.
The bridge across Spring creek will be built by the Columbia Bridge Company, of Dayton, Ohio. It will be 64 feet long and will cost $3,456, exclusive of the abutments.
If any member of the town council from the South ward proposes to resign, let him do so immediately and thus save the extra expense of an election of his successor.
Dr. P. T. Musser, Hon. J. G. Meyer, Prof. W. T. Meyer, of Aaronsburg, Dr. D. H. Mingle, of Millheim, and Mr. George Miller, of Spring Mills, were in town this week.
Mr. W. A. Tobias, of Millheim, was in town on Tuesday. The brave and gallant political champion looks, feels and dresses well, and weighs something less than 300 pounds.

Mr. A. J. Shreffler, of Boalsburg, dropped into the business office of the Democrat on Tuesday. We were glad to see him and trust during future visits to the city he may not forget to call again.
J. L. Spangler, Esq., has turned his attention to the practice of medicine, and it is now either "your money or your life." He has been experimenting some upon himself, after mastering the intricacies of materia medica.
Mr. George R. Ellert has severed his connection with the Evening Express of Lock Haven. He had for some time very acceptably filled the city editor's chair of our new exchange, and will be missed by his late employers.
In the Republican's article, "Pay or Resist," the deft little hand of one of our most handsome attorneys is plainly visible. It may be just too lovely to resist, and we hope the affair may not terminate with love's labor lost as a result. Let the dance go on and joy be unconfined!
On the 29th ultimo Mr. Crist. Geiring, of the Butts house, was married by Father Koch, at Lock Haven, to Miss Mary Danneker, of that city. Mr. and Mrs. Geiring start life with bright prospects and a happy future in store for them. May their fondest desires be abundantly gratified.
The Portable Electric Light Company of No. 22 Water street, Boston, is pronounced a fraud, and the Postoffice Department has instructed the postmaster of that city not to deliver to the firm money orders and registered letters. As we published a circular for this company we now give this caution to any who might be deceived.
Mrs. Dr. Kreider, formerly of Millheim, this county, but now a resident of Bucyrus, Ohio, is enjoying the courtesy of the hospitable family of our townsman, Mr. Frank Stover, of High street, her brother. She was called to the bed-side of her father, the lamented Saml. H. Stover, of Boalsburg, and is now on her way home. An interesting little daughter accompanies her.

AN AGED PRIEST DEAD.—The Rev. James Bradley, pastor of St. Patrick's Roman Catholic church of Newry, Blair county, died on Friday evening last, aged ninety years. He was a native of Ireland and came to this country in 1825, and was much esteemed through a long and useful life.
PHILIPSBURG ENTERPRISE.—Messrs. S. D. Smith & Co. have opened a first class bakery in Phillipsburg, corner Front and Spruce streets, opposite Passmore House, and are prepared to accommodate the good people of that busy burg in a number one style. While the quality of bread will be the best, the prices will always be found lowest. No better recommendation can be given the gentlemen than to point to their successful and increasing business operations here in Bellefonte. Mr. Saml. D. Smith, of the Phillipsburg branch, will be found a most reliable, trustworthy and honorable young man.
PAUSE AND REFLECT.—We hear of men paying $50.00 for a suit of clothes. We can sell one for $3. Now it matters not how much difference there may be in the quality of the two, reflect on the wear you would get out of sixteen $5. suits, which can be bought for the price of one. Then we have them at $4.50 up to $25.00, the last being just as good as any merchant tailor can make and are guaranteed. Our guarantee means that if on any account goods are found different from what they were represented to be you can return them and we will make it satisfactory or return your money. LEWIN & CO., Philadelphia Branch.
THE COUNCIL.—On Monday evening at the regular meeting, Councilman C. T. Gerberich, of the West ward, resigned. His resignation was accepted. An election will follow.
The pay of the clerk was increased from $100. to $150.
If the citizens who have been earnestly requesting extended water privileges on Curtin street will agree to pay the expense, by taxation, within a reasonable time, the pipes will be laid.
Specifications of the abutments of High street bridge are completed and proposals will be received.
FROM SPRING MILLS.—We have received from Mr. Nash the following communication for publication. The matter hereafter will interest but few of our readers and we advise the wrestling giants to "make up."
SPRING MILLS, Pa., April 12, 1883.
EDITORS DEMOCRAT.—Gentlemen: In reply to your Spring Mills correspondent I do most positively deny that the shanty was cleaned out from cellar to attic by Sheriff Dunkle, he was there with a revolvon on the 2nd to get certain goods claimed by Mr. Grenoble which he had put in the house, and among them two articles belonging to me, but the sheriff is responsible for my goods and I am satisfied. The boys had fun carrying out Grenoble's cork sacks, chairs, tables and stoves, and yet I was able to accommodate a number of guests from your city for dinner and supper and they informed me that the fare was equal to the best. Now to prove the unreliability of your correspondent, I will say to him—Invite Messrs. Beaver & Geppert, Alexander & Bower, "Squire Smith, Chief-of-Police Montgomery, a representative of each paper, Textler and MILLER to dinner and lodging, and if I can't accommodate them with good table and good beds, (hair and spring mattresses and every other comfort of a first class house—and I will not bring a single thing into the house that has not been here since last June,) then it shall be at my cost, but if his statement, which he dares me to deny is untrue he must pay the same and the amount will be given to the poor of Gregg township. Secondly, he is wrong in his statement as to the race. I left the Spring Mills House for Messrs. Beaven & Gerhart's office, went there and returned without seeing the honest face of "Squire Smith, or his office. I was informed that Grenoble, Kline, Rarick and Bloom followed, as is the privilege of any one in this county.
If he puts up let me know, and if not he should shut up until he gets the truth—but I am told by the most respectable citizens of Spring Mills that it is no fault of his but a family disease.
Fair play is what I expect. He assaults and dares me to deny, which I do with the strongest proof, the old flag still floats and when the law says take it down I shall do so. With respect,
GEO. B. NASH, Spring Mills House.
—During the past winter Mr. E. J. Warner, of Nittany, taught school No. 3, known as "Sellers," located in Patton township, Lycoming county, forty miles from his home. This distance he walked each way every week, during five months, including an extra trip occasionally, 1070 miles. This, during cold, disagreeable weather.—Gas & Bul. The above sentiments are so difficult to believe that we would be pleased to hear from Mr. W. in explanation.—News.
THE DEMOCRAT last week gave publicity to the above, and although we did not say Patton township, Centre county, should have so stated. Mr. Warner is in robust health and just as able to properly conduct a school as to walk any reasonable distance.
—the death of Mrs. William McKean, of Liberty township, occurred on Friday last and was the result of a sad chain of circumstances. Owing to domestic infelicity, she had become quite melancholy, and doubtless reason was temporarily dethroned. About two weeks ago another event occurred to agitate her mind, and in a fit of despair, we are informed, she put coal oil upon her clothing and set fire to them. The members of her family endeavored to extinguish the flames but were unable to do so before severe injuries were inflicted which resulted in her death. Five or six children survive to lament the sad event. Republican.

—The second reunion of the friends of the venerable and highly respected Mrs. Julia A. E. Hess, was held at the residence of H. Y. Stitzer, Esq., East High street, on Monday. The occasion was the 87th anniversary of Mrs. Hess's birthday, and was a most pleasant one. The following persons were present: Rev. W. H. Grob, lady and daughter; Rev. W. F. Roeder, lady and child; Mr. Adam Hess, lady and four children; Mr. John Hess and lady; H. A. McKee, lady, child and mother, and Mrs. W. A. Page. The day was spent with pleasure and profit to all participating and its joys will linger long in the minds of them all as a souvenir of the very high esteem in which Mrs. Hess is held by all who know her. We bespeak for them many recurring seasons of the same kind of gladness.
—Eli Perkins will lecture here on the 28th inst. In the matter of entertaining humor he has no equal. Read the announcement: "Eli Perkins at large! Admit the bearer or wife, his own wife, to Eli Perkins' lecture, anywhere in the world, for years and years. The lecturer will commence at 8 o'clock sharp, and continue till somebody requests him to stop. In case of an accident to the lecturer, or if he should die or be hung before the evening of the disturbance, this ticket will admit the bearer to a front seat at the funeral, where he can sit and enjoy himself the same as at the lecture. The highest priced seats, those nearest the door are reserved for the particular friends of the speaker." Full particulars next week.
—A number of Italians, variously estimated at from 70 to 140 arrived in town yesterday and were immediately transported to the scene of active operation on the B. & B. R. railway. Many of our citizens viewed and tried to interview the sons of sunny Italy, greatly amused. It was with considerable difficulty that we succeeded in preventing W. F. Heber, Esq., and Dr. Hoy from going with them—something congenial seemed to attract our professional friends.
—Do not forget the "Piano Fund" concert to-night, in the Association lecture room. Holders of season tickets should turn out en masse, and others, to a limited extent, can be accommodated at the Genl. Secretary's office, at nominal rates. These concerts have established a reputation for the Bellefonte Orchestra of which we, and all other citizens, of this place, are proud. To-night, the full orchestra will participate.
—Prominent among the recent graduates of the Medical Department of University of Pennsylvania we notice the name of Geo. P. Risher, Bellefonte. Since his examination he has been taking a course in more important studies. He will locate here as the special partner of Dr. T. R. Hayes, and we have no doubt will be competent to discharge any duties devolving upon him in a highly creditable manner.
—No more cigars to be sold on Sunday. Chief Burgess Fleming has ordered all places of business within the borough limits closed on the day of rest. Our friend, Mr. Miles Walker anticipating the scarcity of the weed on next Sunday, yesterday ordered five cents worth of fragrant Havanas for the use of himself and personal friends.
—On Saturday Dr. Hoy removed two sebaceous tumors from the head of Mr. J. N. Van Ormer and the same number from the head of Mrs. J. H. Kreamer. The operations, though neither difficult nor dangerous, were performed with skill and dexterity indicative of Dr. Hoy's thorough knowledge of delicate surgery.
—On Monday the remains of Mr. Michael All were interred at the Snydertown burial ground. They were brought from Williamsport. He was a native of Germany, emigrated to this country in 1831 and settled at Huhlersburg, where he resided until recently. He was 88 years old and much respected.
—Miss Esther, sister of our friend, E. T. Tuten, Esq., of the Republican, returned from New Hampshire on Monday, accompanied by her brother, Mr. Robt. P. Tuten, of Hancock, Mich. The latter is well known here and will be warmly welcomed by his many friends.
—It affords us real pleasure to announce that an effort is being made to organize a new Building and Loan Association in this place. A preliminary meeting will be held at the Logan House on Saturday evening at 7-30 o'clock, to which all favorably interested are cordially invited.
—the clothing store of M. Levi & Co. in the room lately occupied by D. M. Wagner, was opened for business last Wednesday evening, and is meeting with the success the character and magnitude the elegant stock merit.
—Brown & Ely's planing mill at Lock Haven was destroyed by fire on Saturday. The loss though heavy is nearly covered by insurance. It is supposed the fire had its origin in the boiler room.
—the annual man of Cole's circus claims Lallah Rorkh and Sampson, two of the show's elephants, are respectively 75 and 100 years of age.
—Hoods, scarfs, ribbons and any fancy articles can be made any color wanted with the Diamond Dyes. All the popular colors.

REQUIESCAT IN PACE.

SCHROYER.—On Sunday evening at his residence, Thomas street, Mr. Allen Schroyer, aged 73 years and 7 months.
Mr. Schroyer was born in Berks county and when seven years of age moved to Milton, and for 34 years was intimately connected with the business and social interests of that town. From 1850 to 1871 he resided in Lock Haven, and from the latter date to the time of his decease lived here. Few men were more respected. He was twice married, five children—Mrs. Henry Hoffman, Mrs. Danl. Garman and Mrs. Jonathan Harper, of Bellefonte, and Mrs. Evans of Milton, are still living,—were the result of the first marriage. Four sons, Messrs. Charles, Benjamin, Hayes and Harry, all of whom survive him and are doing well, were given him after his marriage the second time. For some time prior to his death he had been subject to "weak spells," we believe by his physician termed heart disease, and at times was very low, yet generally enjoyed rather good health. The interment took place yesterday, a great many people attended.
STURGIS.—At Lewisburg, Saturday morning, April 14, 1883, of pneumonia, Mrs. Bolla M. Sturgis, aged 22 years.
This brief and impressive announcement will be a message laden with grief and sadness to the many whose pleasure it was to know Mrs. Sturgis intimately. The departure of one so good and true always robs death of its terror and dispels the gloom surrounding the tomb, verifying the truth of the assertion that the fairest flowers are the soonest plucked. We shall not trespass upon the sanctity of that hallowed resting place in having her as one of those around it, but our close relations permitted us often to note the calm, cheerful, lady like bearing, the true, unfeigned interest she always manifested in the welfare of the other members of the family, and the noble spirit that ever succeeded in keeping her feet from treading forbidden paths.
Eyes, not frequently moistened in sympathy with dear ones who have been called upon to suffer during the process of transmission from mortal to eternal life, will drop a tear in memory of her who claimed each of the many members of the entire circle of her acquaintance as a cherished friend; the remembrance of having associated with her will ever afford those, whose privilege it was, the keenest enjoyment, and whenever recollection recalls the sweet influence of her companionship here it will inspire nothing but contentment for this life and a firm resolve to so live that when like her pilgrimage is ended we shall be summoned to enjoy forever the felicity of existence in that beautiful land where sorrow and death are unknown.
The deceased was a daughter of Daniel A. Musser, Esq., of Millheim, was married about four years ago to Mr. Charles A. Sturgis, of Lewisburg, and was the mother of a dear little girl that can have no higher aim in life than to emulate the chaste and faultless walk and conversation of the lamented dead.
The funeral services were conducted by Rev. Adams, of the Methodist church, assisted by Revs. Tomlinson and Hengst, of the Lutheran and Evangelical churches, at Millheim, on Monday afternoon, and were attended by a large number of friends. Requiescat in Pace.
—Geo. Alfred Townsend in his Sunday letter to the New York Tribune writes as follows of the shad which, practical people are aware, now sells at from fifty cents apiece upward. No housewife scrapping the scales of the odorous fish could ever have imagined there was a poem in it. Mr. Townsend who has done more eating of the fish than cleaning of it writes thus: In an old country shad would come in with a fete day. The world has not their equal for fineness, indescribable freshness like a winter cress, and delicacy, yet with satisfying potency. One shad is the measure of the representative family. The father's partiality is shown where he gives most of the roe. From birth to bones the shad's epic is like a silver spirit; noiseless, translucent, unresisting, like the passage of the moon through the rivers and the sea. Migratory, but with childhood memories of locality, fruitful religiously, and even in the dream of young children and large gentle families, they seem like the spring lambs of the water, grazing the in, finite fields of sheen. What dangers they pass through, going and returning, the innocents in the time of Herod never had. Provided with nothing to make battle, with tiny teeth and miniature fins, they course the ocean like the silver galleon of old days beset by pirates and protected by saints. Although the royal guest at feasts and poor men's tables, they are, like all enduring nobility, peasant born. The martyred menhaden is their cousin, the herring is their step-brother. To see them caught is like seeing angels fall; so peacefully, so flashingly and in the butcher's shambly they carry upon their delicate armor the light of skies.
—Mr. Geo. W. Eaton has disposed of his confectionery and fruit establishment to Mr. Jno. D. Sourbeck. We regret to part with Mr. Eaton, for he was considered one of Bellefonte's most prosperous and promising business men, and wish him success in whatever his fancy or judgment may dictate as a proper course to pursue in the future.

—Ex-Governor Curtin attended the funeral of the late Postmaster-General Howe.

—A. A. Stevens, Esq., of Tyrone, is dangerously ill with scrofula of the throat.
—Zellers' drug store is connected with the outside world by telephone. Good idea.
—We heartily extend congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Magee. The little one is a girl.
—House-cleaning and garden-making are now in order. They who survive the former can assist with the other.
—Rev. D. O. Shoemaker is holding a series of meetings in the Huhlersburg Reformed church to be concluded on Sunday next.
—Clean up should be the most important item of work about every well regulated house. Cellars, back yards and other places where decaying matter is to be found should be scrupulously looked after and put in readiness for warm weather.
—The Bishop street gentleman who proposed to a friend that they go into the newspaper business, remarking that he would put in the brains and his friend the capital, knew whereof he affirmed when he said "neither of us can lose anything."
—Mr. L. T. Eddy and wife, of Millersburg, spent Sunday in the city, the guests of Mr. Ira C. Eddy. His assistance in Trinity choir and Sunday school was highly appreciated. That full, round voice, will add richness and sweetness to any musical effort.—Lock Haven Express.

FAREWELL, MOTHER.

Farewell mother I bid farewell,
The time part draws near,
I shall not see thy loving face
For many a weary year.
I wish would spare thee this sad news,
I know it will give thee pain,
To know the boy you loved so well,
Must in a convent cell remain.
I am thinking of the day mother,
When at thy tender side,
You watched the dawning of my youth,
And kissed me in my pride.
The future looked so fair and bright,
It filled my heart with joy,
And your bright fancy honored mine,
To deck my pathing boy.
Your memory recalls those days again,
When but an idle youth,
As I listened to thy gentle voice,
As you taught me words of truth,
Those were bright and happy days,
Then innocence was mine,
I had no fears of the future,
Bliss with a love like thine.
Those days are gone they seem to me
But bright dreams of the past,
Dreams that cheer my clouded life,
Some gleams of sunshine cast,
No friendly face is near me now,
No words of friendship dear,
As I speak now in kindly tones,
A sinking soul to cheer.
When I think of thee mother,
Tears from my eyes will start,
I cannot forget, for thine image
Is given too deep in my heart.
As I sit with my lonely cell,
With hopes that are cheerless and few,
Forsaken by friends I deemed so true,
I have none left but you.
Wm. J. SWANEY,
Bellefonte Jail.

WONDERFUL.—This thing of buying a complete boy's suit for $1.75, or if you prefer to pay more and you want to you can go as high as $8.00, is not an old custom. These suits are all well made, of the best quality of goods and are real bargains, whether you take the low or higher priced goods. The little fellow just out of kilt suits can buy his first pair of pants just as well as his father, and be in no danger of imposition. Our salesmen are instructed to pay special attention to young customers. LEWIN & CO., Phila. Branch.

Wilson, McFarlane & Co., call attention to the only reliable Ready Mixed Paint in the market. The Pioneer Prepared Paint is not only superior to any Ready Mixed Paint sold but rivals pure white lead in its smoothness in working and durability. This paint is guaranteed by the manufacturers not to crack or peel within three years. The guarantee is not only good for repainting the paint but it will be put on if it should crack or peel within the time specified. It will be to your interest to call and see Wilson, McFarlane & Co., before purchasing either white lead or any other Ready Mixed Paint.

Those ladies who have been wearing Reynolds Bros. fine shoes will be rejoiced to hear that they can be had and are on sale at Doll & Mingle's shoe store. These goods need no recommendation, as they are one of the oldest and best established line of fine goods in America. 16-31.

THE ROYAL BAKER AND PASTRY COOK.—A Royal addition to the kitchen library. It contains over seven hundred receipts pertaining to every branch of the culinary department, including baking, roasting, preserving, soups, cakes, jellies, pastry, and all kinds of sweetmeats, including receipts for the most delicious candies, cordials, beverages, and all other necessary knowledge for the chef de cuisine of the most exacting epicure, as well as for the more modest housewife, who desires to prepare for her lord and master a repast that shall be both wholesome and economical. With each receipt is given full and explicit directions for putting together, manipulating, shaping, baking, and kind of utensil to be used, so that a novice can go through the operation with success; while a special and important feature is made of the mode of preparing all kinds made of food and delicacies for the sick. The book has been prepared under the direction of Prof. Rudmani, late chef of the New York Cooking School, and is the most valuable of the recent editions upon the subject of cookery that has come to our notice. It is gotten up in the highest style of the printer's art, on tinted paper, with elaborately illuminated covers, etc. We are assured that every can of the "Royal Baking Powder" contains an order for one of these valuable books.
