Our "devil" dislikes old maids. Devils usually do. The "Wilbur" played Patience to a full house here on Tuesday evening. Mr. Wm. Irvin, of Marion township, paid the DEMOCRAT a visit on Tuesday. Mr. William Miller, of Millheim, died on Friday last, aged about 38 years. Maj. W. F. Reynolds celebrated his 70th birthday on Saturday last in regal style. Squire Reitsnyder and Jasper W. Stover, of Millheim, were kind enough to call some days ago. Mr. William Mitchell, of Scotia, and Miss Annie Irvin, of Oak Hill, were married last Thursday. Mr. S. A. Stover has purchased the marble works of Mr. Heisler and will continue the business at the old stand. A new post office building is agitating the Lock Haven mind. Better facilities are demanded and will be granted. Hon. J. P. Gephart had his house repainted and then came home to enjoy it. His is one of the most pleasant residences in town. Pine Station Campmeeting will commence August 23d. Applications for tents should be made to Jno. A. Robb, Lock Haven, Pa. The report that James Wakley, driver of Cowdick's team, had broken his arm is incorrect. A bad bruise was the only damage sustained. Mr. Agnew Sellers, Sr., of Fillmore, called on Friday, and had the pleasure of meeting Judge Larimer while here. Come again, gentlemen. Open this paper and see how many times you can find the name "D. Garman & Son," and then read carefully what they have to say to you. We can now call Mr. Edward Zerby conductor with perfect propriety, he having been put on the B. E. V. railroad trains as an "extra." Miss Nannie Schrock and Mr. R. B. Larimer, both of this office, spent Sunday out of town, the former at Lock Haven and the latter at Clearfield. The Eagle cornet band of Roland, will hold a festival on Friday and Saturday. Proceeds for the benefit of the band. Turn out and give the boys a boost. The season for "special examiners of the pension office" has arrived. Strange their work calls them to the country, principally, during the heated term. On Monday, Mr. J. Fearon Mann and his oldest daughter started on a western trip. Of course Mr. Mann will get to see our friend, Montgomery, before he returns. Mr. John Dutwiler, for many years a resident of Penn township, this county, after attaining the advanced age of 81 years, was called hence, on Wednesday of last week. It is reported that the editor of the Pittsburg Times will soon inaugurate, in that city, the practice of signing the names of authors of editorials that appear in his paper. Mr. Harry S. Sayre, bookkeeper and general business agent of Jno. Ardell, Esq., is now doing some surveying, in the interest of his firm, in the neighborhood of Port Matilda. Rev. Mr. Whitney, of Halfmoon, was treated to an increase of salary, lately, from $700 to $800. That is doing well and we shall be pleased to note that it has been raised to $1,000. Readers of the News need not come to the conclusion that the head of the department of public instruction, in this county, has taken up his abode in the sanctum of our contemporary. Our old friend, Mr. Andrew Martin, one of the solid citizens of Jacksonville, called on Friday last, and helped us along in a way a great many more could if they only would. We were glad to see Mr. Martin. The narrow escape of Mr. "Arty" Brown last week so scared that gentleman that now both he and his brother, Edward, carry $1000 accident insurance policies, secured through the agency of Bond Valentine, Esq. An enterprising shoe dealer, whose place of business is near a prominent hotel entrance, hung out a side of sole leather as a sign. One of our attorneys wondered if it was a specimen of the beefsteak served inside. This afternoon, Miss Nannie, one of the handsome and popular daughters of John P. Harris, Esq., cashier of the First National Bank, will be married to Mr. "Bow" Weaver, of Clearfield. May they enjoy life. Our good Democratic friend Mr. John J. Orndorf, of Haines, accompanied by a Mr. Hess, called on Tuesday. No better fellow in the world than John, and whenever he comes he will find the latch-string hanging out.

AT LOCK HAVEN.—Not long ago a representative of the DEMOCRAT visited our neighboring city and found the one day spent there altogether too long and too short. We pitched our tent on the Fallon House camp ground, and were astonished at the accommodations and attention given and paid guests. That jolly good fellow, "Judge" Schuyler, who is a brother of the proprietor, runs the place, and in hotel annals of Lock Haven, the Fallon stands alone. We had scarcely slung our attractive autograph upon the register, when His Honor, Judge Orvis loomed up and wanted to know what we wanted, and he was told, of course. Mr. Orvis is well known and highly esteemed by the people of Clinton county, his able and impartial rulings, as one of the presiding officers of the court, having gained for him the confidence and admiration of all. After dinner we called upon Hon. L. A. Mackey, ex-member of congress, and to our delight found that pleasant gentleman only a trifle changed, his hair being whiter but not rendering him any less handsome than in his palmist days. Few men have done as much work in a well spent life time and retained the bonny appearance of youth to such an extent. To our Pennsylvania, as well as other Centre county readers, we hereby tender their friend's best wishes. He is practicing his profession, that of the law, merely as a means of employing his time, and is in the full enjoyment of excellent health. From the office of Mr. Mackey to that of T. C. Hippie, Esq., is but a step, and as soon as that gentleman deciphered the hieroglyphics of our card he invited us to his private consultation room and gave us such greeting as only persons of warm, friendly disposition can. He is enjoying an extensive, remunerative practice and fully merits the large share of patronage that is rapidly winning him fame and fortune. It is to be hoped that Clinton county will not fail to recognize the eminent ability of Mr. Hippie, at no future day, and thus place him in a position to secure the State and National prominence he so richly deserves. And then, too, there are Hon. R. R. Bridges, a man of ideas of his own, with sufficient force of character to express them, who in the past ably served his city as Mayor, and to-day ought to be holding some office of trust and profit; E. P. Geary, a bright, young lawyer, whom it is a pleasure to know; E. A. Fancher, proprietor of one of the most extensive cigar manufactories in Central Pennsylvania, employing a large number of persons and doing an immense trade, which is altogether the result of his own untiring energy and "get up and dust" spirit; "Doc" Deviling, proprietor of the Custer House, and dealer in thoroughbred animals, a whole-souled, well fed person, who considered the DEMOCRAT necessary to insure his happiness, subscribed and paid for it, and our editorial friends, the Messrs. Kinsloe, of the Republican and Express, Grow, of the Journal and Theistic, of the Democrat, all of whom are doing well and manage papers that would be a credit to a city twice as large, they live peaceably and harmoniously together endeavoring to maintain friendly relations at all times. The religious and educational institutions of the town are numerous, well supported and growing. Among the latter is the Central State Normal school, managed by Prof. A. N. Raub, attended by a number of Centre county teachers, and honored as having on more occasion than one graduated the largest class of any similar seat of learning in the State. The lumber trade, which is virtually the life of the place, has been brisk this year. The boom has been well filled, prices good and the supply not greatly in excess of the demand. This interest alone is sufficient to insure a future for Lock Haven that should inspire business men with confidence and cause them to "go in and win." Late in the evening, after having mingled freely with the world's people and experiencing our share of the pleasures and vicissitudes of business efforts, we were about to retire, when fortunately we encountered that veteran journalist, H. L. Diefenbach, Esq., and a half hour passed in social converse before we knew it. Mr. Diefenbach is widely and favorably known, was deputy secretary of the Commonwealth, under William M. Heister, during Gov. Packer's administration, and ex-officio Supt. of Common Schools, until that department was made a separate bureau and the title changed to Supt. of Public Instruction. For a number of years he was engaged in editorial work and retired only to secure that rest needed by a person of his years after so long a period of continuous attention to a business very trying at best. He is a writer of great force, his presentation of current topics attracting much attention, and Democracy owes him a lasting debt of gratitude for the noble warfare he incessantly waged in her defense and in the promulgation of her doctrines. The present day needs more men of Mr. Diefenbach's unbending integrity and solid worth. The DEMOCRAT alluded briefly last week to the marriage of Mr. Harry Love, of Tyrone, to Miss Mary McKee, of this place, on Wednesday, 6th instant. Rev. Wm. Laurie performed the ceremony in the presence of quite a number of invited guests, all of whom speak of the affair as one of the most enjoyable and pleasant that ever occurred in Bellefonte. We congratulate the happy couple.

The State College commencement exercises will begin on Sunday, 24th instant, and continue until the 29th. A much more elaborate time is anticipated than has been the custom in the past. Governor Pattison has signified his willingness to attend, if possible, and if present will be accompanied by his staff. A large enclosure, to be erected for the purpose, will be used instead of the College hall which on previous occasions has proved entirely too small to accommodate the people in attendance. It will be a sort of scholastic amphitheater in which the educational gladiators can meet, cross intellectual swords and be crowned with the laurels of victory or acknowledge their inability to cope with a more powerful foe. Our friends, Emil Joseph, Ed. Powers and Dr. K., we think it begins that way and ends k, are, we have been told, seriously thinking of entering the matrimonial state. The first because he is rich, handsome and old enough to cause some pretty one to fall in love with him; Powers wants to because he thinks it will be considerably cheaper; and the latter because he experiences so much difficulty in getting his victuals properly cooked. Just why Aaron Williams wants to is immaterial. And there is John C. Miller, almost forgot him, well, he will surprise the natives sometime by settling down quietly and nicely. To all we extend the courtesies of the season and wish them even more happiness than their fertile brains can imagine possible. Here's lookin' at you! When a farmer farms rightly his soil is constantly growing better, his pastures thicker, his fields cleaner, his wife better looking and his own heart more tender. Production is not the only consideration that demands the attention of the farmer, he is also a consumer, and should pay particular attention to what comes in, how and whence. His grocery bill, during the year, is large and if he is as careful as he should be, he will buy them from Sechler & Co., Bush House block, Bellefonte. On Sunday morning, at a very early hour, the building occupied by Wm. Grauer & Co., "Dealers in Everything," at Snow Shoe, was discovered to be on fire and, despite all efforts to save it, was burned to the ground with all its contents, save about $4,000 worth. The loss is supposed to be about $85,000 on which was an insurance of $25,500. The fire is undoubtedly the work of an incendiary. Grauer's and Collin's stables and a dwelling owned by Mr. J. L. Sommerville were destroyed. The station house of the P. R. R. narrowly escaped. The examination of applicants for Bellefonte schools was held in the school building on Friday. Prof. Wolf conducted it, everything passed off pleasantly, and creditable certificates were granted the teachers. Miss Carrie Hames received a "professional" before the examination commenced, and was greatly pleased. Miss Carrie has fully merited this mark of appreciation at the hand of the powers that be, by her work as a successful, competent and conscientious instructor of the young. If possible, have the truck garden so arranged that the vegetables will be planted in the order in which they ripen. And, if possible, get to Lewin's Philadelphia Branch about the time you need a new suit of clothes. Prices there cover every possible condition of one's pocket-book. If you have been accustomed to paying merchant tailors high prices and want the quality for considerably less cost, go to Lewin. The chairman of the Republican county committee, like Senator Cooper—red-headed and hopeful, has issued a mandate ordering the members of his party to walk up to the political rack on July 3d, and eat the provender to be provided, whether they like it or not; in other words, they will go through the motions of holding a delegate election at the time specified. The sudden demise of the greatly lamented Lydia Pinkham compelled the News local to look elsewhere for a life companion, and we judge he has found one among the handsome milliners of town. We trust Providence may not be as kind to the milliner, whoever she may be, as he was to Lydia. Mr. D. I. Parsons, chairman of the committee of the Undine Hose company, having arrangements for our grand Fourth of July picnic, will call upon the families of town this week to solicit cakes and other necessaries needed to feed the immense number of visitors that will be here on that occasion. Use him well. Mr. William P. Humes, of the First National bank, has placed a handsome monument on the spot that marks the last, quiet sleeping place of his lamented wife. Our cemetery contains no neater token of affection than this, and it will stand there a memorial of the love and esteem entertained for the departed. The corner stone of the new M. E. church, at Rock, Pleasant Gap circuit, will be laid next Sabbath by Rev. John Hewitt and Rev. G. D. Pennepacker, of this place. Services at half past two (2) o'clock. Neighboring pastors and people are invited to attend. Mr. Galbraith has turned his attention to the court house yard and is keeping the grass cut short to the ground. Why not make hay and feed it to the party "houses" being so carefully groomed up there now.

GONE TO REST.—On Sunday last, at Coatesville, Pa., Mrs. Jane W. Hale, relict of Hon. James P. Hale, breathed her last. Her remains were brought to this place and interred in the cemetery here yesterday afternoon. Jon Work.—Neatly, promptly and cheaply executed at this office. Competent workmen, fast power presses, new type and good material. Fine book work a specialty. If you want nice work come to this office, corner Allegheny and Bishop streets. TO SUMMER TOURISTS.—The Pennsylvania railroad company, ever awake to the real interests of the public, has just issued in book form, a list of summer excursion routes, about 1,500 different ones being noted, and peculiar features of each given in detail. Persons contemplating a summer trip will find it all that can be desired. A beautifully colored map will add to the useful and attractive nature of the publication. No journey but will be accomplished more easily if this book is carried along. Copies can be had at the established agencies of the company, or by addressing Mr. Thos. E. Watt, No. 110 Fifth Avenue, Pittsburgh. Enclose 12 cents to pay postage. PUSH AND GRIT.—A visit to the Keystone Clothing House on Tuesday found us in the same condition the Queen of Sheba was when the full force of the glory and grandeur of Solomon burst upon her. We involuntarily exclaimed "the half has not been told us!" Mr. Levi, the proprietor, is a pleasant, shrewd gentleman, who devotes his time to his business and has laid in the biggest and most varied stock of clothing ever brought to this county. To make room for new goods a general mark down sale commenced on Saturday and will continue until July 9th. We predict for the Keystone a prosperous future and ask our friends to "look in" there before making purchases elsewhere. Terms of all sales strictly one price and that marked in plain figures. BASE BALL.—On Saturday the College team crossed bats with a Bellefonte nine picked up for the occasion, and laid them out so completely that "they scarcely knew what hurt them." It is due the Bellefonte boys to state that nothing of an organization existed and of course they could not expect to come out victors in a contest so uneven. The score: Innings 1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 Bellefonte 0 0 0 0 0 0 2—18 College 3 8 5 0 2—18 Bellefonte 0 0 2 0 0—2 The town boys who saved our time the discomfort of a complete "skunk" were Lingie and Garrett. This is not the best Bellefonte can do and without doubt before the close of the season the college nine will be made so sick that its members will think twice before challenging our boys once. THE "ROCKFORD".—Among the many different kinds of watches offered for sale to-day, the "Rockford" takes the lead. Frank P. Blair is the authorized agent for their sale in this county and all purchases must be made through him. Not long ago a man offered Mr. Blair a Rockford movement at a price so ridiculously low that he aroused that gentleman's suspicion and he offered the man $5 for it, which the fellow seemed glad to take. The person selling claimed he had bought it at Jersey Shore. Mr. Blair immediately advised the firm of the facts, giving the factory number of the watch, and upon investigation it was found that the watch had been sold by a local dealer to a man in Maryland, whose house had been entered and the time-piece stolen. He remitted $5 to Mr. Blair and received his watch. You can't buy a Rockford anywhere in Centre county save at Blair's, Bellefonte. VILLA ALBA.—This delightful suburban residence, formerly the home of Judge Orvis, eight or nine years of whose life were spent there, is now the property of Albert Owen, Esq., who has been sparing nothing in beautifying and improving it. The buildings and fences are white and surrounded by trees and lawns, the first impression created upon the mind of one seeing it for the first time is that of sweet quietness and rest so much enjoyed by persons whose business confines them to rooms eight by ten. On last Saturday, it being Mr. Owen's birthday, a few of his friends, some with their ladies, thought it a most appropriate time to extend to him assurances of the high esteem in which he is held by his neighbors and friends here. About half-past three o'clock all were invited to surmount an elegantly arranged table and partake of the kind hospitality of the host. After justice had been done the sumptuous repast, D. F. Fortney, Esq., in the happy manner peculiar to that gifted gentleman, on behalf of the visitors, presented to Mr. Owen a handsome, properly engraved gold-headed cane. The recipient responded in thankful, appropriate terms acknowledging the pleasure it gave him to receive the token of love, prompted by the regard entertained for him by his friends, neighbors and acquaintances. A proposition to name the home of Mr. Owen was made and "Villa Alba," a white country-seat, was agreed upon. A most appropriate title. Toward evening the company dispersed highly pleased with the treatment they had received.

Mr. Lyman Beck, son of our substantial citizen, Henry Beck, Esq., on Wednesday of last week started for Chicago, where, we believe, he intends to locate. He has our best wishes. On Thursday night Mr. C. A. Glenn's art gallery was entered and robbed of some valuable articles, besides doing considerable damage otherwise. An entrance was effected by cutting out a window pane in the rear end of the gallery. Messrs. Alexander & Bower, as solicitors for the company, have made application to the Governor for a charter incorporating the "Bellefonte Electric Light, Steam Heating and Steam Motive Power Company." Goodness, what a name! Mr. J. Harrison Holt, of Moshannon, called on Thursday last and informed us that lumber operations turned out to be very remunerative this season, the predictions of Republicans after the election last fall, to the contrary notwithstanding. Last Thursday, Dr. T. R. Hayes and lady left to be bound for Europe. They expected to embark at New York yesterday. We wish them bon voyage. During their absence Dr. J. L. Seibert, lately of Newport, Pa., will attend to the practice of Dr. Hayes. One day last week Messrs. Fred Kurtz, of the Reporter, and M. M. Condo, of Centre Hall, looked in upon us and were surprised to see the blonde old singer of the Bellefonte Republican enjoying himself as only a Republican scribe can in a Democrat's sanctum. W. H. Vanderbilt has bought and agreed to pay $252,000 for Bedford Springs. His offer was a couple of thousands higher than that of the capitalist of the Watchman, Mr. Farrey, and the latter missed the best chance of his life to enjoy "Nature's beverage." We are indebted to Mr. James M. Gephart, of Millheim, for an invitation to attend the Centennial Commencement of Dickinson College, at Carlisle, beginning June 24th. The list of exercises seems to insure a pleasant time, and if possible, we should be pleased to attend. Mr. Lyman Gerberick, of Mansfield, Ohio, nephew of our townsman, Mr. C. T. Gerberick, has been visiting his friends here for a week or two. He is a noted violinist and during his stay here, felicitous soirees have been in the order of things at Mr. Gerberick's residence. Mr. Simon Breidenbach, of Philadelphia, at one time employed as clerk by Mr. J. Gungelheimer, was married on Sunday, 3rd instant, to Miss Martha Lyon, also of Philadelphia, niece of Mr. Gungelheimer. The lady of the later attended the wedding which is said to have been a grand one. HOLIDAY ABSENCE.—The health of Rev. E. Edwards makes necessary a little rest and change. He will visit Wilkes-Barre for a fortnight, where he was formerly settled for four years. He hopes to be back by Sunday, July 1st, and on the morning of that day to preach in the Y. M. C. A. hall. We wish him a pleasant time. SNOW SHOE, PENNA., June 11, 1883. EDITOR CENTRE DEMOCRAT.—Dear Sir: Please find shipment of coal sent over by B. & S. Branch of Tyrone Division for week ending June 2d, 1883: Total 15,183 4.35 117,236 112,052 In 1882 4,200 96,192 100,392 Increase 10,983 21,044 Yours truly, THOS. McCANN, Weighmaster. Lumber 15 cars. Other freight 2 cars. MILLSBURG.—The festival held by the Citizens Cornet Band, of Millsburg, was the most successful affair of the kind held in this place for years. Everything and everybody seemed to work together to make the affair come off pleasantly. The weather was excellent both evenings with the exception of quite a hard rain storm on Saturday afternoon. The building used for the purpose was the best to be had, a large machine shop with a row of windows along each side and nicely decorated with festoons and arches of spruce, flowers and Chinese lanterns. There was an abundance of excellent cream and the finest lot of cake one would wish to see besides the other refreshments. Among the novelties connected with the festival was a ring cake. An elegant gold ring was baked into a cake and put up at ten cents a chance. There were something over one hundred chances sold. Mr. James Jones was the lucky man and last Sunday sported the ring on his watch guard. Several other fine cakes were handed out besides this. There was to have been a cake walk Saturday evening but it grew too late and the idea was given up. But the most interesting feature connected with the whole thing was the pipe which was up between Messrs. Stoner and Coover. A genuine meerscham pipe was contested for by the two named gentlemen; this also was ten cents a chance. Mr. Stoner came in when time was called with 603 votes and Coover 403, making $100.00. Afterwards enough more were brought in for Mr. Stoner to run it up to $103.20. There were 1000 votes cast both nights. The Eagle cornet band on Friday night did much credit to themselves and teacher. The Pleasant Gap Silver cornet band was present on Saturday night in full uniform and rendered some really fine, artistic music. The festival throughout was well conducted and the best of order prevailed. The chief of police with all his assistants were on hand, but no one was "obstrepuous." The total receipts were $257.00, expenses $24.83, leaving as a net $232.17.

Celebration at Howard. HEAD QUARTERS, GROVE BROOK, POST, NO. 262 DEPT., OF PA., G. A. R., HOWARD, Centre Co. Pa., June 12, '83. There will be a celebration of the coming 4th of July, at this place, under the auspices of the Grand Army of the Republic. All members of our order, all our comrades of the late rebellion and all patriotic citizens and societies are hereby invited to join with us in celebrating the Republic's natal day. Seventeen companies of our order are expected to be in line at 10 o'clock, A. M. on that day as well as Sunday schools and other like societies. In camp there will be speaking, music, camp fire, a soldiers' dinner for all and fire-works and balloon ascension in the evening. E. W. HARRY, Commandr. H. V. BUTLER, Adjutant. When they undertake to freeze Aaron Goldsmith out they had better make some allowance for a "royal." Champion and Osborne reaper and mower repairs at HICKS & GRIFFETH'S Foundry and Machine Shops. HOW A WOMAN'S LIFE WAS SAVED.—After she had tested the skill of all the best doctors in Western Pennsylvania and New York, and had paid over $1,000 without receiving any permanent good, the limbs became affected with even ten-fold greater violence, not only eating away the flesh, but attacking the bones beneath. It also affected her head and face, making her almost blind and deaf, reduced to a mere skeleton, weighing but 80 pounds, the doctors pronounced her at death's door. Penna. was then given her, as stated, and with the result given on page 24 in Dr. Hartman's "Ile of Life." She took no other medicine and is perfectly well. 23-24. One voice from all over the land goes up from mothers, that says, "My daughters are so feeble and sad, with no strength, all out of breath and life at the least exertion. What can we do for them?" The answer is simple and full of hope. One to four weeks' use of Hop Bitters will make them healthy, rosy, sprightly, and cheerful. 22-24. James Harris & Co. are sole agents in Bellefonte for the Centre Hall Corn Planters and Plows and their repairs. Wilson, McFarlane & Co., call attention to the only reliable Ready Mixed Paint in the market. The Pioneer Prepared Paint is not only superior to any Ready Mixed Paint sold but rivals pure white lead in its smoothness in working and durability. This paint is guaranteed by the manufacturers not to crack or peel within three years. The guarantee is not only good for replacing the paint but it will be put on if it should crack or peel within the time specified. It will be to your interest to call and see Wilson, McFarlane & Co., before purchasing another white lead or any other Ready Mixed Paint. Jas. Harris & Co. are the agents for the Centre Hall Corn Planters. Best planter made. A DANGEROUS COUNTERFEIT.—There are dangerous counterfeits in circulation purporting to be "Walnut Leaf Hair Restorer." The strongest evidence of its great value is the fact that parties knowing its great efficacy try to imitate it. Each bottle of the genuine has a face simile of a walnut leaf—blown in the glass; and a Green Leaf on the outside wrapper. The "Restorer" is as harmless as water, while it possesses all the properties necessary to restore life, vigor, growth and color to the hair. Purchase only from responsible parties. Ask your druggist for it. Each bottle is warranted. Johnston, Holloway & Co., Philadelphia, and Hall & Ruckel, New York, Wholesale Agents. 4-ly. Go to Harris Hardware Store for the Centre Hall Corn Planters and Plows and their repairs. FARMER TAKE NOTICE!—You now have an establishment to take your machinery to, to be repaired and made as good as new. Mowers, reapers, self-binders, threshing machines, horse powers and any other kind of machinery will be repaired at moderate prices at the "Bayard Foundry." HICKS & GRIFFETH, Proprietors, Bellefonte, Pa. Go to Harris Hardware Store for the Centre Hall Corn Planters and Plows and their repairs. The only place in Centre county that a self-binder or threshing machine can be knocked down and repaired in good shape at a moderate cost is at HICKS & GRIFFETH, Bellefonte, Pa. James Harris & Co. are sole agents in Bellefonte for the Centre Hall Corn Planters and Plows and their repairs. Mr. H. A. Getzler, who has the best reputation on agricultural machinery in this county is now employed by HICKS & GRIFFETH, Bellefonte, Pa. Suits made to your own measure for $15.00. Leave your orders to-day. MONTGOMERY & Co., Tailors. James Harris & Co. are the agents for the Centre Hall Corn Planters. Best planter made. NOTICE.—The first monthly meeting of the stock holders and directors of the Centre Building and Loan Association will be held in the office of Geo. L. Potter, Friday, June 15th, at 7:30 o'clock, P. M., at which time dues will be received and money loaned. Geo. L. POTTER, Secretary. Champion and Osborne reaper and mower repairs at HICKS & GRIFFETH'S Foundry and Machine Shops.
