M. —Mr. "Berny" McClain has leased the room lately occupied by Yocum & Harshberger and will buy produce, etc., and pay cash for the same. —Mrs. C. A. Schaeffer, of Nittany, and Mr. Holmes, of the same place, wandered into the DEMOCRAT sanctum, piloted by "Jack" Spangler, Esq. —Water street, between High street and the water works, has been graded and is now quite passable, thanks to Thomas O'Shaughnessy, Esq., street commissioner. —The National View and Photo-Copying Co., of Tyrone, J. See him before buying. —The Cumberland Valley Editorial Association will enjoy their third annual excursion on July 5th, 6th and 7th. The route will take in a great many places of prominence. —The report that Recorder Bible intends to engage in the confectionary trade is evidently without foundation. If he pays the price he paid last Thursday, he had better not.

—The Lutheran church will be closed the first four Sundays of July, regular services will be resumed Sunday, July 29. For over 4 1/2 years, the pastor has been on duty every Sunday, except two, one year ago. During this period he has performed far more extra official labor away from home than usually falls to the lot of any one clergyman. The streams of substantial presents flowing into the parsonage during these years have been continuous—at the last monthly meeting of the sociable a complete Encyclopedia including finely executed maps brought down to 1883, bound in leather, was presented to the pastor with a list of the names of donors including a number of members of churches of other denominations.

—A propos the proposed introduction of the Electric light in Bellefonte, a Linin street lady remarked the other evening, as the piercing rays of a neighboring street-lamp shone fairly in her face, "I don't know that I shall throw the weight of my influence in favor of it." In answer to the interrogation of a friend as to why she was doubting, she said "Why, you see, all attempts to so arrange the pesky thing that it may be turned way down low have failed, and of course," stamping her little foot excitedly, "I can't countenance the adoption of any such affair." We know at least one gentleman who will take no stock.

—Mr. James S. Hoy, one of a number of brothers, formerly residents of this State, now located at Fremont, Neb., on Monday started from this place for Europe, where he expects to purchase Norman stallions and deal in that celebrated line of blooded stock. The Messrs. Hoy are among the heaviest and most important stock dealers of the great West. This one, James, served one term as Territorial Senator, and in common with the other members of the firm, has met with phenomenal success in the land of the setting sun.

—Among other matters engaging the attention of council at its regular meeting on Monday evening was the resignation of Mr. Bateman, engineer at the water works, with the request that it be accepted at once, which was done. Mr. B. had a "hard row to hoe" and his efforts were not duly appreciated. He was a most competent man. In resigning he has done well. They may go much farther and do a great deal worse in choosing his successor.

—Next Sunday morning, June 24th, the Sacraments of Baptism and the Lord's Supper will be administered in the Lutheran church. Confirmation services and admission to church membership by certificate will also take place at the same time. Preparatory services will be held on Saturday beginning at 2 P. M., which will be followed with a meeting of the Women's Home and Foreign Missionary Society.

—The preparations for Howard's 4th of July celebration are progressing finely. Mr. Wm. Hopkins, who was selected to secure funds by subscription, has thus far been successful. The expenses for fire works and other supplies will be heavy and the public should give unsparringly. The Howard Cornet Band will add the feature of good music to the other attractions.

—The death of Mr. David M. Wagner, which occurred on Tuesday morning removes another of the links connecting Bellefonte of to-day with that of 40 years ago. He was for many years one of our most prominent merchants. Deceased was about 62 years of age, and leaves a wife and five children. Funeral this afternoon at 4 o'clock, at the house.

—Mr. Aaron Williams on Friday, introduced Mr. Jos. F. Williams, of Martha, and Mr. Geo. Williams, of Waucong, Ill. The latter gentleman was a resident of this county until 1853, when he moved to what was known as the "far West." He is about 80 years of age and as spry as many much younger men.

—An ugly and disgraceful altercation occurred on the Diamond on Monday between a white and a colored man. They fought long and well, affording amusement for a large number of persons, some of whom should have stepped in and parted the foolish combatants long before they did.

—Miss Annie Orvis has returned from Clifton Springs, N. Y., Miss Edith Harris from Mass., Miss Julia Valentine from Baltimore and Miss Ida Gerberick from Lutherville, where they have been attending school. We wish them a pleasant vacation.

—Two concerts in Reynolds' Hall, tonight for the benefit of the M. E. church and to-morrow night for the benefit of the Y. M. C. A. The support asked for is most deserving and we sincerely hope large audiences will attend both evenings. Admission at usual rates.

—On Thursday last we were most agreeably surprised by Miss Marion Contner, of Milroy, who favored us with her presence for a few moments. Miss Contner is a sister of Mrs. S. D. Musser, of Millheim, and a most amiable and pleasant young lady.

—Landlord Spangler is beautifying the corner property in which this office is located. Nothing like judicious enterprise and Jack thoroughly understands that principle.

THE SHOW.—O'Brien's show spread its canvass over a very considerable portion of the fair grounds last Thursday. The parade was rather disappointing both in general appearance and length of line, but the performances, which are said to have been quite creditable, were attended by large crowds both afternoon and evening. The trouble with this and nearly all other shows is that its managers appear indifferent to the presence of a lot of sharks, who follow it up and try to impose upon all with whom they are thrown in contact. All in all, O'Brien's compares very favorably with the rest of them, pays its bills promptly and deserves to be patronized so long as the public will insist upon attending entertainments of this kind.

—We believe the local papers have, thus far failed to chronicle the death of Mr. John Yearick, a former resident of Marion township, which occurred at his home on the 5th instant. He was a highly respected man, aged about 50 years and a member of the Evangelical church.

—Mt. Lake Park S. S. Assembly, or, as it is coming to be known, the "Southern Chautauqua," has within a few years assumed proportions which are attracting national attention. The excellence of the programmes of past years has made attendants so enthusiastic that this year the problem will be how to accommodate the crowd expected. Bishop Andrews, Dr. Lyman Abbott, Prof. Young, of Princeton, Prof. Harris, of John Hopkins University (formerly of Cambridge University, England), Dr. C. H. Payne, Prof. Cumstock, Rev. J. B. Young, and Dr. E. D. Huntley are Special Lecturers. A Normal Course of ten days will be pursued. A class in Botany and other attractions are named. The place is as attractive as the programme. The Park is more than a mile square, picturesque and beautiful, on the summit of the Alleghenies, almost 3000 feet above the sea level, where every breath is a delight, adorned with handsome cottages, walks and drives, as charming as an Eden. It is directly on the main line of the B. & O. R. R., and easily reached by our national highways of travel, and the excursion for the Assembly renders the trip one of the cheapest that can be made for the distance. Excellent hotel and other accommodations are afforded. For particulars, address W. M. Fry-singer, Sec'y M. L. P. Assembly Ass'n, 174 McCulloch, St., Baltimore, Md.

—Mrs. Joe. Furey is entertaining Miss Mary Jones, of Osceola. During her short stay here the young lady has been called upon by a great many of the young ladies of town, appearing to be a favorite with them all.

—On Sunday Rev. Wm. Laurie, of the Presbyterian church, will be at Bedford to declare a pulpit vacant, and Mr. J. H. Orbin, a recent graduate of Princeton college, will officiate at the morning service in Mr. Laurie's stead.

—New stock of lace parasols and sun umbrellas at the Bee Hive. 2t.

—The uncalled-for length of the present legislative session has suggested the following appeal: Oh father, dear father, come home to us now, The farm it is going to pot, The hired men loaf 'neath the shade of the trees, And to labor they say it's too hot. Come home! come home! Oh father, dear father, come home.

—The Philadelphia Branch is holding its own and gaining new friends every day. The clothing bought there can be relied upon.

Correspondence.

PENNS VALLEY ITEMS.—On last Sunday Rev. W. K. Foster held communion services at the Sinking Creek (Centre Hill) church. Quite a number were admitted to membership, some by certificate and others on profession of faith. It was also the anniversary of Mr. Foster's first year of work, and he is to be congratulated on the success he has already achieved.—Dr. G. W. Kline has located at Potter's Mills and has his single hanging out of the office of the late Dr. Weaver. Dr. Kline has been practicing in Half Moon since his graduation; he has already established a lucrative practice. We hope he may succeed.—Mr. Cherry, engineer on the train that lies over night at Spring Mills, owns a fast-going nag, which he takes great delight in sporting. The other evening while he and Mrs. C. were out driving, past the store of Mr. I. J. Grenoble, a little dog ran out and barked at the horse, which so frightened him that he upset the buggy and then took French leave. Result, a demolished buggy, injured horse and a broken arm for Mrs. Cherry.—Mrs. Robert Duncan is visiting at Spring Mills.

MISSIONARY SOCIETY.—The June meeting of the Ladies' Missionary Society of the Presbyterian churches of Centre Hill and Spring Mills was held at the house of Mrs. W. A. Kries, near the latter place, on the 14th, some eighteen or twenty members being present. This society was organized through the efforts of Rev. Marr, the former pastor, and has been holding regular monthly meetings ever since. The membership has been gradually increasing since its formation. At the last meeting four applicants were admitted to membership, namely: Mrs. Jamison, Mrs. Van Valzah and Mrs. Hannah Forster, of Spring Mills, and Mrs. James P. Coburn, of Aaronburg. The meetings are opened with devotional exercises, after which all male persons present retire and the ladies then proceed with the regular work of the society. Literary exercises, such as select readings, essays, and original dialogues, all relating to Missionary work, form part of the program for each meeting. Mrs. Mollie Ross is the president and Miss Ada Lingle, the secretary. Both are indefatigable workers in their efforts to make the society a success. The next meeting will be held at the house of Mrs. M. Elroy at Potter's Mills.

SNOW SHOE, PENNA., JUNE 18, 1883. EDITOR CENTRE DEMOCRAT.—Dear Sir: Please find shipment of coal sent over B. & S. S. Branch of Tyrone Division for week ending June 16, 1883.

Table with 4 columns: Week, Previously, Total, Increase/Decrease. Rows for 1883 and 1882.

—Mr. Joe. Furey is entertaining Miss Mary Jones, of Osceola. During her short stay here the young lady has been called upon by a great many of the young ladies of town, appearing to be a favorite with them all.

ROLAND.—The festival, given by the Eagle Cornet Band at Curtin's, was, owing to the weather only a partial success. The receipts Friday evening were quite satisfactory, and would have been, too, Saturday evening had the weather been pleasant. The festival was held out doors in the first evening under a canvass and in the company store-room the next evening. The Howard band was present Saturday evening until train time and left just after the arrival of the Milesburg band. The latter staid until the throng was about over and were given two handsome cakes.

PLEASANT GAP JOTTINGS.—On Thursday evening after the show in Bellefonte, when the citizens of "pious corner" arrived at home from the show there was considerable excitement at the residence of Judge Larimer. During the absence of himself and family, his favorite dog, Fritz, and a whiffet made a raid on the poultry, which the judge was very proud of, and killed thirty-one thorough-bred Plymouth Rock pullets which were about six or seven weeks old, and of fine indagation. In his wrath he proceeded to inflict capital punishment on the whiffet, believing him to be the instigator of the attack, and if "the little devil of a dog" had not dodged his head to one side the hatchet would have done the work, but instead a bruised thumb was the result; the second blow did the work to his full satisfaction. We shall say nothing of epithets, except to remark that they were not of the mildest sort. We presume he was justified in taking the law in his own hand for he was judge, jury and executioner. The only fault we can find is that he refused the culprit trial by grand jury, but the judge knows the law and we can have nothing to say.—In a few days we will be able to send verbal messages to all points as the telephone is almost completed, the office will be in the store of the Messrs. Noll.—Friend Stine and lady returned home on Friday. Stine says Kansas is a fine country only a little too blowy for him. He is well pleased with his visit.

—Capt. Hunkle is taking of starting a corn-broom manufactory. Hope he will be able to do as did the ancients, sweep before their own doors.—Jos. Ross had quite a pleasant trip to Jefferson county, he says everything looks natural, especially around the Wild-geese hotel.—It appears that the correspondent of the Watchman is anxious about Shin Bone and others, we don't know who the "others" are, but for Shin Bone he need not concern himself; if he, in his next article, will report the proceedings of a bush meeting that was held in the grove near Harrisonville about four years ago, it will be about as interesting to the public as the harangue that he gave of the decoration of soldiers graves a month after it happened; then it makes people feel so melancholy when our cranky friend gets off his early piety, poor soul! he is not strictly accountable for what he says; let him alone. SHIN BONE.

MILESBURO ITEMS.—Everything now being quiet, the citizens have enjoyed a comparative rest for seven or eight days, but the rest is doomed to be of short duration, as the members of G. L. P. Post, G. A. R. are making grand preparations for a festival. The members of the post are making the arrangements, having purchased a large circus tent and seats; they will be able to give one of the finest entertainments that has yet been given in this part of the State. Milesburg is bound to lead, for few places, if any, of its size, are able to sport a tent capable of holding many thousand of our worthy veterans, who fought in the late war. We expect a lively time. Come one, come all, ye patriots with well filled wallets and help to make this a grand success.—If our town council would give a portion of their precious time to the opening of sewers and gutters, our town would not look so much like an old frog-pond; it is disgusting, to say nothing of the inconvenience of having our streets covered with waste water and filth, all for want of a few days work, when so many hands are longing to turn an honest penny. Will our Burgess see to this, a word to the wise is sufficient.—Among the distinguished visitors of the past week were Judge Larimer and A. J. Swartz, they were the guests of E. D. Noll, and were superintending the work of a corps of engineers trying to establish the original boundary lines of some of the townships which are now in dispute.—Our hand boys are jubilant, have a liberal supply of the needful and the services of a first class instructor, Mr. Guth, a German graduate, who is giving the boys a thorough course; both teacher and pupils seem to have a deep interest in their work, and ere long we will have a first class set of musicians.—The Methodist church and parsonage have been newly painted, which adds greatly to the outward appearance of the buildings.—The Evangelical church is nearing completion.—Our enterprising townsman, Miles Green, is making some repairs in his axe factory. Looks as if something was going to be done in that direction.—Our Chief of Police is ever on the lookout for violators of the law. He is anxiously looking for the coming festival, when he will duly appreciate the ice cream and cake. BOOMERANG.

THANKS.—A notice, thanking the ladies and all others, who in any way helped at our festival, was crowded out of last week's issue. Those kind friends who gave us so much assistance will please consider us under many obligations to them.

CITIZEN'S CORNET BAND, Milesburg.—Special sale of ladies muslin underwear, slightly soiled, at a surprising reduction at the Bee Hive. 2t.

NEW ATTRACTIONS AT CAPE MAY.—It will be welcome news to the lovers of seaside life to know that Cape May, always progressive in everything that could tend to the attraction, amusement, and entertainment of the public, promises her guests of the present season a round of pleasing features far grander in their scope and by large odds the most fascinating ever instituted on the Atlantic coast. On the beautiful lawn which surrounds the Stockton House, a handsome pavilion, capable of accommodating an orchestra of one hundred musicians, with a portable extension for seating five hundred chorists, is now in process of erection, and an extension of the porch, made by flooring over eight thousand feet of the lawn adjoining, will provide a grand dancing hall and auditorium superior to that possessed by any seaside city.

Operatic, oratorio, and promenade concerts and balls instituted on a scale of magnificence never before attempted, and given at stated intervals throughout the season, will add new zest to the happy life of the sojourner at the Cape. On Saturday, June 30th, the festivities commence with a visit of the famous State Fencibles, of Philadelphia, accompanied by full band and drum corps. Dress parade of the Fencibles Saturday evening. There will be a grand concert in the new pavilion during the afternoon, and at night a hop complimentary to the Fencibles, with a lawn concert alternating.

On Sunday, July 1st, there will be a battalion drill with exhibitions of loading and firing, closing with dress parade, a sacred concert by the afternoon, and in the evening a sacred concert by the combined orchestra and military band. Other attractions have been arranged for every afternoon and evening during the week following, commencing on Monday afternoon with a concert by a grand military band. Although not entirely perfected, the arrangements will likely include a great and novel display of fireworks on the 4th, with concerts and other features.

HOW A WOMAN'S LIFE WAS SAVED.—After she had tested the skill of all the best doctors in Western Pennsylvania and New York, and had paid over $1,000 without receiving any permanent good, the limbs became affected with even tenfold greater virulence, not only eating away the flesh, but attacking the bones beneath. It also affected her head and face, making her almost blind and deaf, reduced to a mere skeleton, weighing but 50 pounds, the doctors pronounced her at death's door. Freese was then given her, as stated, and with the result given on page 24 in Dr. Hartman's "Hills of Life." She took no other medicine and is perfectly well. 23-2t.

A DANGEROUS COUNTERFEIT.—There are dangerous counterfeits in circulation purporting to be "Walnut Leaf Hair Restorer." The strongest evidence of its great value is the fact that parties knowing its great efficacy try to imitate it. Each bottle of the genuine has a fac simile of a Green Leaf on the outside wrapper, and a Green Leaf on the inside wrapper. The "Restorer" is as hair-restoring as water, while it possesses all the properties necessary to restore life, vigor, growth and color to the hair. Purchase only from responsible parties. Ask your druggist for it. Each bottle is warranted. Johnston, Holloway & Co., Philadelphia, and Hall & Ruckel, New York, Wholesale Agents. 4-ly
