The Centre Democrat.

Thursday Morning, August 16, 1883. CORRESPONDENCE, containing important news, solicit ed from any part of the county. No communication ed from any part of the county. No communications inserted unless accompanied by the real name of the writer.

Local Department.

-Are you going to Camp?

-B. McClain expects a car load of peaches from Delaware.

-If "its only a pansy blossom," why make such a fuss about it?

-What has become of the new depot Don't smother it in committee" again.

-"'Miles" sent in his resignation as advance agent of the "Grisette and Student Dramatic Co."

-The Nile is up. So are the Austrians and Spaniards. Butter and eggs are-but they are always up. -A party of sixteen or seventeen Bellefonters with their friends were spending Tuesday pic-nicing at Penn's cave.

-When General Tobias "comes marching home again," let everybody turn out to meet him. 'Rah for General Tobias. -There will be no services in the Episcopal church next Sabbath, owing to the absence of the rector, Rev. John Hewitt.

-What do you think of the Demo cratic convention of Tuesday for an "off year ?" There is no uncertain ring in the resolutions

-Oats harvest is nearly over. Now fatten up that lean quadruped-put more horse on the frame, and the harness will hang better.

--- When our Republicans want to know how to run a convention we advise them to drop into a Democratic convention and take notes.

-Mr. Van Tries, of Spring street, who has been quite ill is now recovering. We hope he will soon be restored to his accustomed health.

-And now our genial friend Balser Weber sits in his easy chair, and the other fellow-well, the other fellow, calls in to see Balser and congratulates him on his success.

-Oscar Wild arrived in New York on the 11th, minus long hair, knee breeches and the asthetic sun flower. Now girls cut your hair short, ---- and discard the sun flower.

-His Honor, Jno. H. Orvis and J. C. Harper, Esq., indulged in the luxury of a bass fish on Friday and Saturday of last week. Now boys, look out for Cal's big fish stories.

-Charles E. Schroeder, Esq., of Read ing, late of our town, went to the war with "Co. B," and the heart of a certain damsel goes kerthump. Don't all speak at once. It's a Reading girl.

-Mr. Charles McCafferty has sold his house on Allegheny street to W. F. Reeder, Esq., and will soon commence the erection of a fine stone residence on the corner of Curtin and Spring streets.

-"Chet" is out in the Yellowston park, "looking after things" at a salary of about one hundred and thirty-seven dollars per day and found. Suppose he should become asphyxiated away out there, wouldn't it be awful?

-Miss Wayland is the guest of Mr Abraham Valentine. The young lady is a gifted vocalist having won reputation i the Phila. Concerts. She is not only gifted but generous, and has delighted her many friends in town with her charming music

-Mrs. Frances Hewes, of this place died at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. Hutchinson, on Spring street, Monday morning. The funeral took place from Mrs. Hutchinson's residence at 8 A. M., on Wednesday. Interment at Sprucetown cemetery.

rise and fall. Croquet flourished; our boys and girls played it, quarrelled over it and courted over it, but it in time became passe. Archery, though more ephemeral, had its hour of favor : last year riding satisfied our young people's craving for physical exercise, now Lawn Tennis is the social game par excellence, it is de-

-Young man, catch on to something

Bellefonte. He does not bear the asthetic

the sweat of your brow, and not as too

--- The M. E. church, at Pleasant Gap.

which is now we understand entirely free of God on Sunday, August 26, the dedicatory service to be held at 10.30 A. M., known as the most famous church dedica-of this place, and Rev. Mattern will also assist. The occasion will be very interesting and all are invited to attend. A ser-rice will also be held in the church in the evening at 72 o'clock. In this connection, we desire to express the gratitude of the ongregation to many persons at Pleasant

Gap and in Bellefonte who so kindly aided n defraying the debt which at one time eemed to be a burden beneath which they

-Now that a night operator at the Telephone Exchange is a fixed fact there hould be a telephone placed in each of the Hose houses and a watchman kept there at night. There should be an alarm bell on one or both houses; a great many of our firemen live on the outskirts of town and the bells on the carriages cannot be heard by them. With telephonic communica" tion all over our town, the watchman at the hose house would hear instantly from the exchange, of the fire and its location.

He would immediately ring the alarm and in a few moments the companies would be on the ground. This is an important mat-

-The Edison Electric Light Co., held ter to our growing town and one that is firemen. Think over it!

earns your living.

would succumb.

further.

-Games like empires have had their at this place, was a complete successboth as to attendance and finance. The band thereby realizing the handsome sum of $360. The refreshment were just excellent, and consisted of cakes and ice cream of all kinds and flavor, and while servedly popular from its social qualities, much is due to all who contributed the and has intrinsic merits, it really giving cakes, there is also much of the same permore varied and needed exercise, especialsonally due to Mrs. Irvin Chessman, for ly for our young ladies, than any other the very fine ice-cream served up-that out-door or in-door sport. We congratudepartment having been placed under her late our young ladies and gentlemen upon entire management. The beautifully decthe zeal with which they have taken up so orated tables, furnished by the good-look good a game, and the personal prowess, ing young ladies (of which this neighborwhich so many exhibit. Last Saturday hood can boast,) added much to the gene ral taste of the grounds selected for the two Altoona players of considerable merit Mr. Thomas and Mr. Thayer played our occasion, and which had been comfortably Bellefonte men, they came here only to eated, and handsomely decorated by the many friends of the band-two large flags bite the dust. As Clif. is a mighty good follow and as we claim him still for Bellehaving been thrown to the breeze made everything complete. The writer, with fonte we will not write up the matter friends on entering the grounds, came in HOWARD, PA., Aug. 18, 1883.

The festival given by the Howard Cornet Band, on last Friday and Saturday

contact with a beautiful stand, bearing down in weight, with evergreens and as soon as you can or you will be left. If flowers, and everything in fact, that had a you can't make the front car of the train tendency to make it look conspicuous and catch on to the rear car but catch on some beautiful; for on this stand was a cake place. There is no room for loafers on our fully a foot and one-half high, containing street corners although some may think a gold ring, and prepared especially for o. The Dude is out of his element in this occasion, by Miss Flora Schenck, (one of Howard's prettiest and best cake bakname of Dude, even though he may be ers.) This beautiful cake was sold by called by gentle-mannered people "a well chances, and brought the nice little sum of iressed loafer." Are you poor? go to $21-Howard A. Moore being the lucky work. Catch on to the plow, or pick. one. A rich and beautiful gold necklac Honest industry will be rewarded. Are and locket was next in order, it being an you rich ? go to work. Act upon the item of contest for the past three weeks criptural injunction-earn your bread by between Miss Lula Hensyl (daughter of Dr. L. R. Hensyl, of this place,) and Miss many do, by the sweat of some other fel-Alice Kunes, (daughter of Jos. Kune, of ow's brow. Don't attempt to live by Eagleville.) Both parties worked vigiyour wits ; it would be starvation to you. lantly, and the sum of $118 was realized, Catch on young man, catch on. If you Miss Hensyl carrying off the handsome can't de any better get married and let prize. But, owing to the interest taken your wife earn your living for you; you and labor given by her opponent (Miss can at least claim that your better-half Kune), the band saw proper to reward her also; consequently a second necklace and locket were purchased, and presented to her-the presentation being made amid from debt, will be dedicated to the service the cheers and applause of the large assemblage, who apprecisted this act on the part of the band, which was truly a noteworthy one. Next in order was a contest Rev. 'E. J. Gray, D. D., President of for a beautiful easy chair, purchased of R. Dickinson Seminary at Williamsport, and B. Spangler & Co., of your town. The contestants for this chair, were Balser tor in this part of the State, has consented Weber, and Wm. R. Hopkins, both of to be present. Rev. Geo. D. Pennepacker, Howard ; Balser Weber carrying off the prize and the sum of $85 realized for the

> Owing to the disappointment in the Eagle Cornet band not attending, the music for the oceasion, had to be furnished by the band itself. Music having been special ly selected by the instructor, Prof. W. O. Stewart, a young man of fine manners and bearing, and who has become quite popular among the people, and who is much enwrapped in the welfare of the band. The best of order was preserved and the system of management of the whole affair could not have been better, it having been placed in the hands of three ladies and three gentlemen headed by our popular Abe. 1.1

-The "Adelphic" Orchestra organized on Monday night, and elected the following officers : Leader, Cooper Dare ; Musical Director, Mr. Gumfort, formerly of Pottsville. The Adelphic is now ready for engagements and the boys should certainly be encouraged in their efforts by the patronage of our community. For a young amature organization they play exeedingly well. We listened to the sweet worthy the attention of our council and strains as they came through the open windows of the club room and concluded that music on the Rialto of Venice wasn't a meeting on Monday evening at the office of Adam Hoy, Esq., and adopted the Edi-Venice. -Janitor Galbraith with a full corps of experienced house cleaners laid violen-"Park," in that borough, and complains This company proposes lighting public hands on the Temple of Justice last week of the "tintinabulations" of the cow-bells, buildings and private houses, and will and gave it a thorough cleaning. Of ity of the votes, was declared duly nomi- township. A half dozen or more young furnish a better light than gas and as course the temple would not need anything cheap or cheaper than gas. This will be of the kind at the hands of Mr. Galbraith a great boon to our citizens. With our and his associates, but the Goddess of Jusstreets lighted by electricity by the Elec- tice is blind and the poor girl don't know tric Light Steam Heating and Steam Mo- when her house is dirty, and the Goddess tor Co., and our public buildings and of Liberty is too lazy, or is occupied in private residences by the Edison Company, keeping down the British lion. Any dust on either side of the scales of justice impairs their usefulness. Everything is bright and new, thanks to the venerable ianitor.

Democratic County Convention.

The delegates to the Democratic County Convention assembled at the Court House n Bellefonte, on Tuesday last at 2 o'clock, . M. The Hon. CYRUS T. ALEXANDER was chosen Chairman of the Convention, who returned his thanks for the honor in a neat and appropriate speech. On motion of R. G. Brett, of Ferguson, James A. McClain, of Bellefonte, M. I. Gardner, of Howard, and D. K. Miller, of Marion, were elected Secretaries. The list of delegates from the several districts were then called by Secretary McClain, and answer ed to their names as follows

6d to their names as follows: Bellefonte, S. W.—Geo, W. Eaton, Jac. L. Runkle, William Ludwig. Bellefonte, N. W—James A. McClain, John M. Keichline, Belefonte, W.W—Frank Wescott. Millesburg—E. D. Noll. Millheim—D. Zeigler, C. W. Hartman, J. H. Reifsnyder. University. Duriel Hell

-Daniel Hall.

Donordie – W. J. Gardner, Poilipsburg, 1st W-Geo. McGaffey. Philipsburg, 2nd W-J. N. Cassnova, r. Loraine. Loraine

From, Richard Armbruster, Saml. Harter, W. A. Krise, Gregg, E P--Walliam Weaver, Haines, E P--Heines, W P--William Bright, Ed.

Half Moon-James S. Cross. Harris-Michael Hess, G. W. Williams

Harris-Michael Hess, C James Swabb. Howard-Judge Dopp. Histon-John Q. Miles. Libercy-W. I. Harter. Marion-James Beck, D Wire Served Front

Marion-James Beck, Daniel Miller. Miles-Samuel Faust, Jno. Hosterman, B. Hazel, Joel Morris, J. R. Brungart.

-A. J. Campbell, A. T. Zerby, P.

Penn-A, J. Campbell, A. T. Zerby, P.
 H. Stover.
 Potter, N P-Jacob Wagner, Witmer
 Wolf, John Grove.
 Potter, S P-Adam Krumrine, Wm.
 Farner, Michael Deckert, Jacob Meese.
 Rush-J. B. Long, J. F. Everly.
 Spring-C. T. Alexander, John Barnhart, Henry Rothrock, Gotlleb Haag.
 Snow Shoe-John Uzzle, James Redding, E. A. Nolan.
 Taylor-Samuel Hoover.
 Union-James T. Eckley.
 Walker-Ed. Peck, J. L. Walkley, Ed.
 Twitmire, A. G. Creamer.
 Worth-M. H. Lewis, Lovi Reese.
 At this point the following letter was

At this point the following letter

BELLEFONTE, Aug. 14, 1883

TO THE DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION-ir : With the permission of the member f the convention, I herewith request that ny name be withdrawn from the list o my name be withdrawn from the lift of candidates now before said body, for the nomination of Associate Judge, thanking the people of Centre county for support and kindness shown through the campaign. Yours truly, H. R. SMITH. On motion, J. M. Keichline, af Belleonte, E. Twitmire, of Walker, George McGaffey, of Philipsburg, R. G. Brett, of Ferguson, and Witmer Wolf, of Potter, were appeinted a committee on resolutions The first business in order was receiving nominations for Associate Judge, when John Rishel, of Potter, Dr. J. R. Smith, of Ferguson, were named by their respective friends, and the convention proeeded to ballot, with the following resalt when on motion, the nomination of Dr. Smith was made unanimous, and the convention proceeded to the choosing of a Heinle, by acclamation.

The namination for County Surveyor being then in order, Horace Hering, Geo. Ellis L Orvis were respectively named, and the convention proceeded to vote, with the following result. :

aken in all measures of reform have fur-hished abundant evidence that their con-trol will be extended to other abuses and irregularities that have become enormities trol will be extended to other abuses and irregularities that have become enormities under Republican administration. Resolved, That the position of the Re-publican party, that the position of the Re-for distribution among the states should be for distribution among the states should not escape universal denunciation, but we believe that import duties should be so ad-justed as to render unequal burdens im-possible; to give encouragement to home h industries; to render just and reasonable v compensation to labor, but in no wise to not absolutely necessary for the econom-ical management of the government, and w converting a so-called "surplus fund" into a palpable corruption fund for the part of the nominations made by the lat Democratic State Convention, Capitain a Robert Taggart, of Warren county, for Auditor General and Hon. Joseph Powell, son and his followers, by unwearied efforts form as an honest and farless uiterance of the fundamental principles bequeathed to Ma and protected by the illustrious Jeffor-gor in the followers, by unwearied efforts for the election of the Democratic State for the election of the Democratic State for m head his followers, by unwearied efforts gen and his followers, by unwearied efforts gen and his followers, by unwearied efforts gen fundamental principles bequeathed to ma and protected by the illustrious Jefforts for the election of the Democratic State and County ticket of the present cam-paign.

Dr. Loraine.
Dr. Loraine.
Philip. burg, 2nd W-A. V. Carpenter.
Benner-Jerry Roan, H. Hoy.
Roggs-A. Kohlbecker, Ed. Johnston,
Hi L. Barnhart, G. H. Leyman.
Burnside-Henry Meeker.
College-William Collums, Wm. Mokle.
Curtin-N. J. McCloskey.
Ferguson, N P-J. H Miller.
Gregg, S. P.-James Condo, W. R.
From, Richard Armbruster, Saml. Harter,
W. A. Krise.

son and his followers, by unwearied efforts for the cleation of the Democratic State in the camp, or boarding and lodging eith to have quarters assigned their paign.
The Hon. P. Gray Meek was then unanimously chosen Chairman of the County College-Williams.
Forguson, N P-J. H Miller.
Gregg, S. P.-James Condo, W. R.
From, Richard Armbruster, Saml. Harter,
W. A. Krise.
Son and his followers, by unwearied efforts for the cleation of the Democratic State in the camp, or boarding and lodging eith to have quarters assigned their pairs.
The Hon. P. Gray Meek was then unanimously chosen Chairman of the County ticket of the present campairs.
The Hon. P. Gray Meek was then unanimously chosen Chairman of the County Committee, and the convention proceeded to the election of delegates to the next State Convention, with the following result:
Substance County and the proceeding of the present campairs.
Fortney.
W. A. Krise.
On the proceeding of the present campairs.
Fortney.
We and the convention of delegates to the next state Convention, with the following result:
D. J. McBenald.
D. F. Fortney.
D. F. Fortney.
D. P. Chamedar Armbruster, Saml. Harter, B. J. McBenald.
D. F. Fortney.
D. S. McBenald.
D. Commetar and the convention of the only reliable Ready. Million to the only reli the votes, was declared only elected.

Resolved, That bereafter the chairman of the County Committee be the member of the State Committee.

the West Ward, starts out brilliantly as a Paint. politician. The Democrats of his ward were well represented, and showed their -We have just received our new Fall appreciation of the stranger who has made and Winter Woolens. Call and leave spreciation of the stranger who has made his home among them and by his gentle-Montgomeny & Co., Tailors. manly conduct won their confidence and respect.

in time " Nels " after this.

J. Witmer Wolf one of the Editors of Thoughts and Events " was a delegate

"Jack " Greist had on his Sunday dude but left his war paint at home.

Dr. J. O. Lorain was one of the Philipsburg delegation. This is the Drs. first appearance in politics. Seventy-seven delegates attended the convention, only three less than the whole number. How is that for an off year. ? Will Ludwig wants a muzzle put on George Eaton and "Jake" Eunkle the next time they attend a Convention. The Delegation to our next State Convention is A, No. 1., and reflects credit on the Convention that appointed them. For a solid Democratic family give us the M'Closkey family of Curtin twp. They candidate for District Attorney which re- are always on hand at the delegate election, sulted in the nomination, of William C. and N. J. M'Closkey rather than allow his people to be unrepresented in the Convention walked all the way from Curtin twp. to Bellefonte. Mr. M. Closkey miss D. Johnson, John H. Reifsnyder, and ed the early train and having a good pair of pedal extremities footed it.

Sheriff Foust, Miles and Caldron took in the Convention.

the above, as no charge is made for tents. Tents can also be had in suitable places in the camp for cooking purposes for all who may wish to furnish their own provisions and do their own cooking. Very many take their families there and remain in come living in tests deviced.

and er Republican administration.
 Resolved, That the poolie should be taxed unnecessarily to raise a surplus fund for distribution among the states should for distribution among the states should be or adjusted as to render unequal burdens impossible; to give encouragement to home industries; to render just and reasonable compensation to labor, but in no wise to foster monopolies. We protest against burdening the people with taxes that are not absolutely necessary for the economical management of the government, and converting a so-called "surplus fund" into a palpable corruption fund for the furtherance of party Interests.
 Resolved, That we signify our endorsement of the nominations made by the late the sufficient of the fundamental principles bequeated to the Grand Army or not, can but as an honest and fearless utterance of the Grand Army or not, can but a protected by the illustrices for the election of the Democratic State Convention, Captain for mas an honest and fearless utterance of the Grand Army or not, can buy a ticket this year. There are no reastive do not allow the principal R. R. stations in the State, but for Bellefonte and Spring Mills-Bellefonte, Scio 2, Spring Mills soid only at Bellefonte and Spring Mills-Bellefonte, Scio 2, Spring Mills soid only at Bellefonte and Spring Mills-Bellefonte, Scio 2, Spring Mills soid only at Bellefonte and Spring Mills and County ticket of the present can brief the camp, or boarding and lodging eithand County ticket of the present campaign.
 The Hon. P. Gray Meek was then unantimously chosen Chairman of the County will:

Committee

 --Wilson, McFarlane & Co., call atten

 D. F. Fortnay
 22

 D. S. Gasmora
 15

 D. S. Gasmora
 15

 Migh McGan
 17

 Migh McGan
 15

 Migh McGan
 15

 Means 16

 Messrs
 McDonald, Fortney, McCann

 and Shaffer, having received a majority of main time specified.

 the votes, was declared duly elected.
 Resolved, That hereafter the chairman of the County Committee be the member only good for repincing the paint but it of the State Committee.

 Mr. Wescott of

 CONVENTION NOTES.--Mr. Wescott of Farlane & Co., before purchasing either white lead or any other Ready Mixed Paint.

A DANGEROUS COUNTERFEIT .- There respect. The Convention was one of the best held in our county and was free from all personal bickering and spites. The South Ward boys covered them-selves with glory, but "Goorge" had hard work to get in his resolution. Ellis will invest in a new pair of over-alls. Don't shake hands with the boy, has a terrible grip. Nelson A. Lucas of Spring made a good run for delegate to the State Convention, but he came out at the eleventh hour, start on time "Nels" after this.

-When you want a first class job of tinware done go to Jas. Harris & Co.'s Hardware Store and have Wolf do it. Best stock, first class mechanics. 2t.

Bellefonte Grain Market.

BELLEFONTE, August 16, 1883 Corrected weekly by T. R. Reynolds & Co

Wheat-white, per bush	bel	1
Wheat, No. 2		0
Corn-ears, per bushel.
" shelled, per bush		6
Oats, per bushel		4
Barley, per bushel, rye	weight,	÷
Rye		1
Clover Seed, per pound.
Flour, wholesale, per bl	d., Rollet 6	0
" per eack.		2

Provision Market.

Corrected weekly by Harper Brothers.
Apples.dried, per pound
Therries, dried, per pound, seeded Beans per quart
Fresh butter per pound
Thickens per pound
Sheese per pound
Country hams per pound
Hams, sugar cured
Bacon
Lard per pound
Eggs per doz
Potatoes per bushel
bried beef

WANTED .- A grocery salesman entre and Clearfield Cos. Only those ad of the above Counties, need ap ply eferances to FRANCIS JORDAN & SONS, Wholesale gro 209 North over the dilapidated condition of the the arrangements and commence work. heard in the "we sma' hours." Have courage, man, turn the cows into the park and say nothing about it.

Philadelphia

-We confess Joe, we were a little bit too "previous" last week, but that local was like your obituary notice which we have ready to set up on short notice made to order. But gewhillikens, man, you'll never see that you've got to peg out first. Its a choice bit of literature, and will fit you like a glove.

-H. A. McKee, Esq., had the impudence to gobble up Howard township on instructions for District Attorney. Of course, Mac was not a candidate, but if somebody does not take charge of the young man he will quietly capture the next Democratic National convention and make himself President.

-Mr. and Mrs. Fisher, of Richmond, Ind., are visiting at the residence of Mr. Harry Teats, on Howard street. Mrs. Fisher is a sister of Mrs. Teats and the mother of Miss Jennie Fisher, so well known in our town. They formerly resided in Penns Valley, but have lived in the west a number of years.

-The thistles, burdocks and weeds of various kinds now growing in many places in our town will soon scatter their seeds and thus pollute every nook and corner. If the Nuisance Committee desires to discharge its duty toward the town it will endeavor to compel property owners to rid switch was turned into the quarry throwtheir premises of these obnoxious species of vegetation. The beauty of the town track. The engineer, Mr. William Temwould be greatly enhanced thereby to say would be greatly enhanced thereby to say pie, jumped from the end of the first of the annoyance from which its jurying his left arm. The 6.40 train did Monday. Their father has been employed at the glass works for the last year.

-The Philipsburg Journal man is sick son Plant. They are about ready to close Bellefonte will assume the airs of a city, Both these enterprises should be encour. aged.

-Eight or ten coffee colored followers of the Great Mahomet, men, women and children, with a small menagerie paraded our streets on Friday last to the great delight of the children, big and little. Two bears, a monkey, mule, horse and pony constituted the stock in trade of the organization. Two dirty little children straped on either side of a poor (but respectable) Indian pony, gave an eastern character to the caravan. We paused and took it in, and our mind reverted to the sunny days of our childhood when we, too, had been strapped on the back-but those days have gone and the subject is painful. Why revert ?

-Quite a serious accident occurred on the Snow Shoe branch of the Pennsylvania railroad at a point between Benjamin Walker's residence and the stone quarry on Monday morning last. It is said the ing the engine and one lumber car off the ple, jumped from the engine, painfully in--Efforts are being made by several prominent gentlemen of our town to secure the right of way for the Nittany Valley railroad through Walker township, and thus far have been successful. The interests of our town and of the lower end of Nittany Valley demand that this road be built. Let us all work for the success of this project and the growth of our town will surprise the "oldest inhabitant."

SNOW SHOE, PENNA., Aug. 31, 1883. EDITOR CENTRE DEMOCRAT.-Dear Sir Please find shipment of coal sent over B. & S. S. Branch of Tyrone Division for week ending Ang. 11, 1883 :

Week 4,511 4,834 Previously 150,963 139,170 In 1883 In 1882 160,474 144,044 16,793 16,47 323 Yours truly, THOS. MCCANN, Weighmaster. Lumber 15 cars. Other freight 1 car.

-Master Thomas Gouch and sister from Aristego, France, arrived here last nated for County Surveyor.

which were unanimously adopted :

ortionment in accordance with the consti state, and rights of the people of the State, and condemn the action of the Re-publican members of the Legislature for endeavoring to maintain the present un-just apportionment, and for refusing to accede to the propositions made them, by the Democrats for a fair and equal repre-

-Miss Ida Shock, a recent graduate of Lutherville Seminary, is spending a few ladies of the town spent Wednesday last The committee on resolutions being at Miss Musser's home and report a very ing accompanied by their respective BELLEFONTE ACADEMY. . ready to report submitted the following, pleasant day. They returned in the even which were unanimously adopted: The Democratic of Centre county in general convention assembled, hail with pleasure the promises and evidences of unity in the ranks of the party, and ten-der congratulations to the people of Penn-sylvania, upon the return to the tried and be mecratic party. Resolved. That by the election of Hon. Robt. E. Pattison, Governor of Pennsyl-vania, the people of the Keystone State, have placed their rights and liberties in the hands of an executive, who has proven himself fearless to mete out justice to all, unrestrained by prejudice, and untram-meled by party pledges. Resolved. That we endorse the action of the Democeatic Senators and Representa-tives in demanding a just and honest ap-portionment in accordance with the consti-tition.

a bycicle, and arrived here at 3 o'clock, a distance of 30 miles. He would have arrived earlier in the day, only that they were repairing the road which somewhat retarded his progress.

Accede to the propositions made them, by related his progress. The Democrate for a fair and equal repre-sentation. Resolved, That we heartily approve of the course of our representatives, Hon-neary Meyer and Hon. B. F. Hunter, Renolved, That the Democratic members of the Senate and Horse of Representa-tives of Pennsylvania, and the Governor, Hon. Robert E. Pattieon, merits our warm est commendation for their dautiess couse in abolishing needless offices and that by the unequivocal stitude they have Ellis L. Orvis having received a major- weeks with Miss Eva Musser, of Spring PARDON NOTICE, - Notice is hereby given that application for the pardon of Chambers, now confined in the Western penite s y, will be made to the Board of Pardons at the nd in August 1883. D. F. FORTNEY, Solicitor.

p32.2m

This Institution will open it next Regular Session on Monday, Sept. 3, 1883.

The same corps'of teachers, who gave so much satisfaction last year to the patrons and friends of the Academy in regard to Discipline and the Methods of Instructions will use the Principal in conduction will assist the Principal in conducting the school the ensuing year.

INSTRUCTORS

MRS. E. M. ROBERTS. Teacher of the Primary Department.

MISS JULIA L. REED, Principal of the Young Ladies' Room and Teacher in Higher English and Sciences.

MISS SENNIE M. GEHRET, "Teacher of Latin

The Principal will take charge of the Young Gentlemen's Room and give instruction in Greek and Mathematics.

Pupils will be prepared Carefully and Thoroughly for Business or for College. Special attention will be given by the In-structors to the Moral and Religious Cul-

Boarders, either young ladies or young gentlemen, will be charged for boarding and tuition $5 per week. This includes all ordinary expenses except washing. J. P. HUGHES.