

ADDITIONAL LOCALS.

—Miss Shepard teaches the colored school.

—Dr. Swartz is building a new house on Penn street this fall.

—Aaron Williams tried to scare Fearon Mann's rabbits the other day, but failed.

—That "harbinger of spring," the organ grinder, is either out very late of he is entirely too previous.

—E. L. McCloskey, of Clearfield county, took in the sights of Bellefonte on Tuesday. Ed. is one of the solid business men of Karthaus.

—Curtin township is building a new school house this fall, and when completed, will have three of the finest school houses in the county.

—Pay your taxes—don't neglect this matter. No Democrat should lose his vote because of non-payment of taxes. It is a reproach on his Democracy.

—The Jersey Shore Herald entered on its twenty-third year with last week's issue. It is a live paper and deserves the patronage of Lycoming county Democrats.

—Cal. Harper is going into the pork business. Somebody gave him a small pig the other day. Raising pork is generally expensive, but this pig won't eat much, will he Cal?

—John McCloskey and David Brickley, two of Curtin township's staunch Democrats, spent Friday and Saturday in town on business connected with the Curtin school district.

—The bicyclist in town last week did not attract the attention of the Daily News, so the public was not informed as to whether his speed exceeded four miles an hour or not.

—Mr. Peter Keichline bought George Downing's billiard parlors last week. "Pete" has now two pool and two billiard tables and the finest segars, as attractions. If you are a lover of billiards or pool, give "Pete" a call. He will use you well.

—Maj. J. B. Fisher returned from a trip to Ohio on Friday last. The Maj. reports very little interest in the election in Ohio on the part of the Republicans of the western reserve—Garfield's district. He feels assured of the success of the Democratic ticket in Ohio.

—If Frank Wescott hadn't told us so himself, and didn't smoke the beautiful Meerschbaum given him by Mr. Munson in appreciation of his work, we would think the man crazy who told us that the handsome young fellow at the glass works was 33 years old. Well, for the sake of Democracy we wish you two more such birthdays, Frank, that will give you 99 you see.

—The forgerman, Wm. Miller's fall was not as heavy as at first represented, the distance being about 16 feet. He was engaged in painting the smoke stack. The tackle had accidentally become disarranged, though Geo. Tate's steady hands held it below, and the seat turning threw Mr. Miller to the ground. He was picked up in an insensible condition, but has since recovered and is now almost perfectly well.

—Now, as the cold weather draweth near the station loofer seeketh the sunny side of the station to welcome the incoming train, and as the shades of night obscure the bright orb of day the loofer huggeth the warm stove of the gentlemen's waiting room, or sneareth into the ladies room under cover of a "chance acquaintance," and annoyeth those present by his silly chatter. Verily, the station loofer is numerous in Bellefonte and should be abated.

—Our bright racy contemporary, the Phillipsburg Journal, criticizes young Vanderbilt for turning newspaper reporter, and condemns him for taking some poor man's place. Now, Mr. Bair, would you have him be a drone, a dude like too many rich young men—drive fast horses, insult modest girls and go to the devil generally? No, that thing will not do. The country is big enough and offers work enough not only for our 50 millions, but for 500 millions, and all honor to young Vanderbilt should he try to make an honorable living for himself, instead of sponging off his "pap."

held his religion, and is to-day the handsome, portly clergyman of Marion.

—Mr. Isaac Frain last fall planted a bushel and a half of "Martin Amber" wheat on one and one-ninth acres, as an experiment, which yielded this year something over forty-five bushels to the acre. Isaac didn't use phosphate.—The band boys were over at the picnic in Brush valley.—Jacob Macauley has a beautiful farm near Jacksonville. His wheat yield averages over 30 bushel per acre.—There is a move for a new post office below Jacksonville, near the Clinton county line. Gov. Curtin is likely to favor it.—Marion township may have a railroad after all. The development of ore all along the ridge—as for example on the Hoy property near Jacksonville—is turning the eyes of capitalists in this direction. A branch from the Nittany valley is talked of starting somewhere below the Clinton county line and going up to Jacksonville.—Michael Zeigler is making a beautiful farm property. Sorry he isn't in Centre county.—Henry Zeigler is making railroad ties as fast as possible for the Beech Creek railroad.

THE SOLDIER'S REUNION.—The quiet village of Logansville, and its still quieter surrounding valley, had a merry awakening in the happy greetings of old comradeship; in the loud fluster of the bands and the mimic pomp of war. The veterans of the late war, the old soldiers from Centre, Clinton and Union counties held their reunion there on Friday and Saturday last. The people of Sugar Valley gave them a generous open-handed welcome. There were at least 75 from Lock Haven, while the total was swelled to several hundred from the different sections. Five brass bands discoursed in pleasant rivalry their sweetest efforts. Saturday was the main gala day. The Rev. Mr. Swengel made the speech of welcome, which was responded to by Cap. Aust. Curtin and others. The orators of the day were Col. D. H. Hastings, of Bellefonte, and Gen. Jesse Merrill, of Lock Haven. Our handsome Colonel's speech is spoken of as an able effort and at times touchingly eloquent. They then one and all sat down along the long tables spread in Gen. Heckman's grove, and ate of the "milk and honey" of Sugar Valley. It is hardly necessary to dilate on this proceeding, the housewifery of Logansville is far too famed to need our eulogy. In the afternoon the boys arrayed themselves in two hostile lines and began a series of such well executed skirmishes and strategic movements that one could almost believe that he was in the wilderness, or that Lee's old veterans were raiding over the Pennsylvania border. But the old boys could not keep up a feigned hostility long, soon peace was restored, jokes were heard and tales of suffering and devotion told that brought each heart into closer fellowship. And thus it ended a day, one of the brightest in each man's memory.
