

CORRESPONDENCE, containing important news, solicited from any part of the county. No communications inserted unless accompanied by the real name of the writer.

Local Department.

—Beautiful weather, this. —The Watchman man has it bad. —Sleighting is as scarce as hen teeth. —D. L. Zerby, of Millheim, was in town on Monday. —Our new judge is presiding in Huntingdon's new court house. —Judge Orvis is trying an important case in Huntingdon this week. —Hiram Hoffer, Esq., of Philipsburg was in town Friday night and Saturday. —His honor, Judge Hoy, presides over the courts of Huntingdon county this week. —The New England tea party netted one hundred and fifty dollars. Excellent for the ladies. —The Bellefonte Natl Works will shortly shut down for repairs. They will also build a new puddling furnace. —Our street crossings were in a terrible muddy condition after the rain Friday night and Saturday morning. —We have obtained the services of Mr. E. J. Swavely as agent, and have authorized him to collect and take subscription. —Lyon & Co., the popular dry goods men, offer special bargains in all their departments this week. See their advertisements elsewhere. —Prothonotary Harper is hunting the American "bar" in the wilds of Snow Shoe. "Cal" is one of the most successful hunters in our county. —Geo. Downing, Esq., who has been visiting in the west for some time, returned home on Saturday night. George is "largely" pleased with the west. —"Nothing succeeds like success." J. R. Bartruff, our enterprising carriage builder, has just built another 25x30 foot addition to his blacksmith shop. —Jacob Smith, Bishop street, who has been confined to his bed with typhoid fever for several weeks past, we are glad to learn, is again able to resume work. —The crossing on the corner of Bishop and Allegheny streets has been left in a dangerous and unsafe condition by the Steam Heating Co., and should be repaired at once. —When President Mylin of the Senate adjourned that body he uttered a hearty "Thank God," and the people of Pennsylvania have been echoing that sentiment ever since. —Henry Ward Beecher lectures, we believe, on "The uses of wealth, luxury and beauty" on the 19th of this month. The Rev. gentleman no doubt knows all about his subject, as he is wealthy, lives luxuriously, and is an admirer of beauty. —A rumor was circulated that Harry Finburn, a Jew pedler, and well known in and about Bellefonte, had been murdered in Blair county last week. As Harry was seen on our streets on Saturday afternoon, the rumor must have been incorrect. —Aaron Williams and "Ad" McKee both arrived at home last week from the cattle ranches and silver mines of Colorado. Neither of them lost his scalp, although Aaron's hair does seem a little thin on top. We have not had the pleasure of a lengthy interview with either of the boys, but understand that they enjoyed themselves very much. —The Logan Hose Co. propose giving a grand masquerade ball on New Year's eve, in Armory hall, Bush's Arcade. The Logan boys have lately made a number of much needed repairs and improvements at their own expense on the Hose house. They are in need of funds, and give this ball to replenish their exchequer. The public should give them a hearty support. —The ladies of the Presbyterian Mt. Society desire to thank all who in any way aided them in their late entertainment, the "New England Tea Party." The receipts were very satisfactory, amounting to $197, which, after deducting expenses leaves a gratifying balance for the object, for which it was held. —Messrs. J. T. Lucas, Bell & Co., of this place, have purchased the photograph gallery of Charles Glenn, Esq., at Snow Shoe, and will put it in first class order for business by the 14th inst. They are first class fellows, and the people of Snow Shoe and vicinity will do well to patronize them. —Charley Hall (colored) is happy. It has always been his desire to own a real living horse, and now he is the happy possessor of one. After considerable "dickering" on Monday, he paid for one the enormous (?) sum of 200 cents on the following terms: One dollar and twenty-five cents cash down, (all the cash Charley had on hand) and a note for seventy-five cents at sixty days time. —In the absence of Prothonotary Cal. Harper ex-Sheriff Woodring administered the oath in court to one of the witnesses on Thursday afternoon last. The witness took the bible from the Prothonotary's desk and stood ready. The ex-Sheriff reached for the book, which was handed back to him. The witness was then sworn by the uplifted hand. The ex-Sheriff then handed him the bible, which was kissed with due solemnity. This double method of swearing caused considerable merriment in the court room. Even the ex-Sheriff smiled after he took in the situation.

—The following dispatch has been received by us from Hon. Samuel Gilliland, one of the committee sent by our people to meet the Directors of the Pennsylvania railroad, with regard to the completion of the Pennsylvania road: PHILADELPHIA, Dec. 11, 1883. CENTRE DEMOCRAT:—The P. R. R. Co. want $25,000. Then they will finish the road to Lemont. S. GILLILAND. FAIR AND FESTIVAL.—The ladies of the Episcopal church will hold a handsome fair and festival, for the benefit of the church, to-morrow afternoon and evening, in the room lately occupied by Berney McClain, right on the Diamond. Handsome things in fancy work for sale. Just the time to buy your Christmas presents. Refreshments will be furnished including ice cream, cake and coffee. Don't forget that it begins on Friday afternoon at two o'clock. All those sending fancy goods for sale at the fair will please leave them at the residence of Mrs. W. H. Wilkinson on Thursday. Not later, if possible. —The Harris-Van Tries wedding which occurred the day of our issue, was a really beautiful affair. Owing to the recent death of the bride's parents, the number of guests was small. The presents were particularly handsome. Mr. Harris is a wealthy gentleman from Philadelphia. Miss Lou has been prominent in Bellefonte society, and is an accomplished, christian woman. Her trousseau was superb. Mr. and Mrs. Harris are on their wedding journey. They will live in Philadelphia. —Dr Nesbit, of Lock Haven, preached in the Presbyterian church, morning and evening, in his usual eccentric but eloquent manner. His first theme, "What is Man?" he answered from several standpoints. Taking a well developed man, weighing 158 pounds, he dissected him, giving even his exact weight in chemical equivalents, then investigated man spiritually. The whole was a beautiful effort. His evening discourse was especially directed against passion, more particularly religious bigotry, and illustrated its worse effects by giving short and condensed accounts of the massacre of St. Bartholomew, the Gunpowder plot, the Irish massacre and the Spanish inquisition. Dr. Nesbit is particularly a master in metaphor and synonyms, piling the latter upon one another in such rapid and with such brilliant effects as to bring out in strongest light, even the hair lines of his pictures. —The following cases were disposed of last week, after we went to press: David Monigal, executor of, &c., of Stephen H. Monigal, dec'd., vs. Abraham Price and Samuel Milliken, now Jacob Van Pool substituted as defendant of record. Cause called and defendant in open court confessed judgment in favor of plaintiff, to be released upon payment of $50 and one-half the costs within ten days. Daniel J. Tresler vs. Isaac Reish and John E. Reish. Defendant confessed judgment in favor of plaintiff for $115. Centre county vs. Robert Kendall and J. H. Mitchell, Overseer of the Poor of College twp. Continued by agreement of parties. John B. Mattern vs. Moses Thomson and John I. Thomson. Continued until first week of next term. James W. Gussallus vs. James Masden, Sr. Verdict for plaintiff for $142 57. John Curtin, Andrew G. Curtin, Constant Curtin and others vs. Jno. P. Lucas. Defendant confessed judgment in favor of plaintiff for land described. Joseph Devling vs. Amos Hollinger. Cause reached Dec. 7. Jury called. Verdict for plaintiff. John Thomson vs. John Beans. Settled by parties; plaintiff to pay costs. Commonwealth of Pennsylvania ex rel Lawrence Fox and C. Dale, Jr., vs. Geo. M. Swartz and James C. Smith, executors of Henry G. Smith, dec'd. Verdict for plaintiff $1,000; for Lawrence Fox, $242. 87; for C. Dale, Jr., $217 27. Daniel Rhoads and John Irwin, Jr., vs. John Moran. Verdict for plaintiff for land described in writ to be released on payment of 721.17 within 30 days. MILESBURG ITEMS.—Mr. A. V. Lucas has resigned his school in Central City for more lucrative business. J. A. W. Rishel takes his place. Milesburg is still improving. Mr. Ed Elder is putting a pool table into the hall above his store, and we are to have another oyster bay across the creek. Soon we will have all sorts of improvements. The ladies of the band sociable have decided to have their fair on the Friday and Saturday evenings of the 21st and 22d of this month, and will display a fine lot of goods to be chanced off and sold; not only fancy goods, but articles of real value, and that will be desirable. —Messrs. Lewin & Co., on Allegheny street, have now on hand the largest and finest stock of men's and boys' overcoats in Centre county. Light weights, medium weights, heavy weights, in fact, any weight or color you want. You will do well to give them a call before purchasing elsewhere. —We were shown a very beautiful assortment of photograph albums at Lewin & Co's. Gent's furnishing store. They are selling them at a tremendously low price. Call early and get a bargain. —The Cascade flour for sale at Lewis's. —Whiteman's Philadelphia candy, at Lewis's.

THE BELLEFONTE WATER WORKS.—The question of a sufficient water supply is intimately connected with the rapid growth of our city. Should Bellefonte double, treble, or quintuple in size, would we have sufficient water to supply the corresponding demand? With some such thoughts in our mind, and with a further desire to have a five minutes talk with the gentlemanly superintendent of the works, Mr. Samuel Ryan, your correspondent struck for the "Beautiful Fountain." Sam was engaged in repainting the machinery, and was decorating it with beautiful stripes of green upon a black background; nevertheless, he found time to pause from his artistic labors to welcome us and give us the following data: The total flow from the ground is 11,024,000 gallons of water. The present consumption by our town is 456,000 gallons. In other words, the spring alone is able to supply a city twenty-four times as large as Bellefonte now is. "Well, Mr. Ryan, nature has been lavish enough, certainly, but haven't our works cost us a great deal, and are they not used to their utmost capacity?" Samuel smiled. "Well, I think we might supply a few more strangers yet. You see we have two ways to pump the water to the reservoir. First, we utilize the waste water. This runs an undershot wheel, which in turn runs two pumps, with a capacity of 9,000 gallons an hour. These pumps go the whole day. The engines supply the other 240,000 gallons necessary." "But, Sam, this does well enough now. But suppose the demand is doubled, how would you supply it?" "By running the engine longer. It goes less than four hours in twenty-four. By running it the whole day we could increase our flow 1,200,000 gallons, or give drink to twenty thousand." Sam then showed us an electric generator, and said he would do something to shock us, if we touched a certain knob. We touched, and were shocked with a vengeance. The average temperature of our beautiful spring is one degree higher in winter than in summer. Every thing seemed to be conducted economically. But about this time our kind escort was obliged to shovel coal into the furnace, and we bade him good bye. We noticed that the coal was mixed with about 40 per cent of shavings, and we are informed that a great saving in fuel is caused thereby. —Resolved, That we, the Common Council of the City of Lock Haven, exempt from taxation for ten years, any new manufacturing enterprise giving employment to twenty laborers and upwards, and erected and maintained within our city limits; said time of exemption to date from the time such enterprise commences operations.—Daily Journal. Evidently Lock Haven has become aroused at last. She finds that it doesn't do to repel new enterprises, or in the keen and awakened competition now in this section, she will be left—dried up, as it were. She thought that the new railroad would have to go through her, of course, and so big rights of way were asked and every one made ready to skin the railroad, but that corporation seemed so disinclined to submit to the skinning process that it went on the other side of the creek, and about a mile and a half from the business of the town. But the town council is at last on a level with that city's best interests, in encouraging manufacturing enterprises. We know of another town about twenty-six miles from Lock Haven, that might profit by their example. —The Danville Sun says the grades for a railroad across country from the North Branch of the Susquehanna at Danville to the West Branch at Lewisburg would not be over eighteen feet to the mile. It is between Lewisburg and Tyrone, we think, that heavy grades are to be encountered in building a railroad between Danville and Tyrone. The Sun is of opinion, however, if the Lewisburg and Tyrone road is to be built that the Danville link should be added, "so as to make a through connection from the coal mines in Luzerne to Pittsburg and the great West. Danville itself would be an extensive feeder to the road with its eight furnaces, three forges, and boiler shops, nail mills machine shops, foundries, etc., an iron town which we truthfully state is second only to Pittsburg in wealth and importance." —Lucas & Bro's. store at Howard was again burglarized on Thursday night. The burglars were captured in Lock Haven and on Friday evening lodged in jail in Bellefonte. This is expeditious work all round. One of the fellows it seems borrowed a winter overcoat from John P. Harris. It is mistaken charity to minister to the wants of the great majority of them; and you may feed or clothe the man who will in return murder you. —The greatest curiosity in Bellefonte at present is "The Beautiful Little Lady," now on exhibition in Sands's window on Allegheny street. "This Little Lady" is to be chanced off, and looks as if she had just arrived from Paris. "The Little Lady" is dressed in blue silk and a fur lined circular, with hat and muff to match, and is the handsomest dressed doll ever seen. It is a genuine French doll, and as large as a child of five or six years old. Don't fail to call and see it. Remember, for every one dollars worth of toys you buy, you will receive a chance.

—We took in the New England Tea Party, and was also taken in by it, but as we got there in time for "chicken" (gravy) we will not grumble. We would love to go back to the days of our great grandmothers, as far as the matter of dress is concerned. The dear old ladies certainly dressed with great taste and simplicity. And the young ladies, how neat and prim they must have looked. When we entered the room in which New England tea was being served, we were astonished at the number of great grandmothers we had, and our "sisters and our cousins and our aunts" were legion. We were afraid to ask for tea, as New England once made such a terrible fuss about that article, so we modestly asked for a cup of coffee. A dainty little New England maiden, who looked as though she had just landed from the puritanic "May Flower," brought our coffee (tea). We looked around us and on every hand the maids and matrons were serving hungry customers in the most approved style. It was certainly a most enjoyable occasion, and we imagine very successful financially. The New England kitchen, for admittance to which five cents was charged, was a pretty and taking idea. The big brick fire-place puzzled many an old lady, for it took sharp eyes to tell the painted paper from genuine bricks. Mr. George Boal was the artist. The majority of the relics were collected here, and two young gentlemen, dressed in immense white wigs, knee breeches, etc., kept guard over the fire-place. WOODWARD SPLINTERS.—Isiah Boob lost a valuable horse one day last week. Muckle and Schrauder have taken a contract to stock Barner's mill in Pine Creek hollow.—Samuel Kreamer, from Mockishin, Illinois, shot a large bear on last Thursday. The bear when dressed weighed three hundred and thirty pounds. Sam is a boss marksman. He only shot twenty-seven buck shot into the bear's head. Try it again, Samuel.—Fred says it only takes one week to get a letter from Bellefonte. Very anxious to hear sooner.—Charley is wanted at the blacksmith shop every day. —Miss Condo, the young lady that has been visiting at Woodward for the past seven weeks, has gone down East on a visit. Sorry to have her leave us. Jim Glayser says she will not stay long.—Michael Hess killed the boss porker on Friday. It weighed four hundred pounds.—Noah Weaver says he has two that will weigh eight hundred.—J. C. has his hands full until he gets the Christmas tree in shape. FRITZEY. ITEMS FROM HAINES TOWNSHIP.—Butchering is about over.—John J. so far, was unsuccessful in the deer hunt. John, you must hurry up, or hunting season will be over, and you will be minus any venison.—Dr. Bowersox is as busy as a beaver doctoring horses, etc. Doc. understands his business thoroughly.—Robert Smith, that "boss" carpenter, who for some time has been working for a party at Johnstown and Pittsburg, has again returned to his home to pass the winter. Always glad to have Robert come back.—Mr. H. G. Miller, wife and daughter, accompanied by Miss Jennie Stahlmecker, left to visit friends in Michigan and Ohio. Hope the party may have a safe journey and a pleasant time.—The Junior band was out on a serenading trip on Saturday night, and we are informed made excellent music. Each of the members performed his part very well.—Geo. Erhard, the teacher of St. Paul's school, is counter jumper at the Farmers' store on Saturday, while through the week he handles the rod, if necessary. ITEMS FROM MILES.—Butchering is about over, and we live happy.—Our doctors are both exceedingly busy. "Miles" feels like congratulating District Attorney Heinle, especially being it is a boy.—Our teachers are anxious to know whether there will be a Teachers' Institute this year, or not. Let County Superintendent Wolf speak.—Our distinguished townsman, Hon. H. Meyer, is at home to stay. Of course he took his pay; so would we all.—By the way, Mr. Editor, will we call another extra session.—Our new landlord, Mr. C. Condo, improved the hotel property considerably, and has already quite an active support from the traveling public. That's right, Cook; make things boom.—A musical convention is to be held in the Lutheran church during holiday week, and will undoubtedly be a treat to all music loving people, who feel like attending it. The committee promise to board all singers free during the week. We trust a number will avail themselves of this opportunity. The convention will be under the instruction of Prof. I. B. Sechrist, assisted by his son and daughter, all of Hagerstown, Md. Concerts Friday and Saturday evenings, Dec. 28 and 29. MILES. —John R. Bartruff, the popular carriage builder of this place, will have finished another of those fine covered wagons by Saturday next. This wagon is being built for Mr. James Lingle, the dairyman, and is one of the noblest wagons ever built in this section of the country. There's no use talking, Bartruff can't be outdone, and not only keeps up to the times, but ahead. His designs are new and original. Who else but Bartruff would have thought of trimming a wagon in the latest Japanese style? Every carriage or buggy Bartruff puts out speaks for itself, and this one certainly reflects great credit on Mr. Bartruff, and illustrates the fact that it is not necessary to send your orders to some other place to have a fine job of work done.

COMMISSIONERS' NOTICE.—The undersigned, a Commissioner appointed by the Court of Common Pleas of Centre county, to take testimony as to the satisfaction of mortgage of Philip Haag to William Lickoff, hereby gives notice that he will be in his office at the Court House on Saturday December 23d, 1883, at 10 o'clock, A. M., when and where you can be present if you see proper. FRANK E. BIBLE, Commissioner. NOTICE TO CONSUMERS OF GAS.—At a meeting of the Board of Directors of the Bellefonte Gas Company, the following resolution was passed: "Resolved, That on and after the first day of January next (1884) the price of gas to consumers shall be reduced to two dollars per thousand feet, instead of three dollars per thousand feet as at present, and that the Secretary be directed to give public notice of this reduction." By order of the Board, E. M. BLANCHARD, Secretary.

MARRIAGES. CHIL—GETTIO—Dec. 6th, 1883, at the Reformed parsonage of Bellefonte, by Rev. J. F. DeLong, Mr. Jno. Henry Uhl to Miss Emma Lucinda Gettich, both of Bellefonte, Pa. Brown, of Bellefonte, and Elizabeth A. Shaffer, of Madisonburg, Centre Co., Penna. MARKE—EBERHART—At the same place by the same, September 6, 1883, David M. Marke and Sarah H. Eberhart, of Bellefonte. —Wilson, McFarlane & Co., call attention to the only reliable Ready Mixed Paint in the market. The Pioneer Prepared Paint is not only superior to any Ready Mixed Paint sold but rivals pure white lead in its smoothness in working and durability. This paint is guaranteed by the manufacturers not to crack or peel within three years. The guarantee is not only good for repainting the paint but it will be put on if it should crack or peel within the time specified. It will be to your interest to call and see Wilson, McFarlane & Co., before purchasing either white lead or any other Ready Mixed Paint. A DANGEROUS COUNTERFEIT.—There are dangerous counterfeits in circulation purporting to be "Walnut Leaf Hair Restorer." The strongest evidence of its great value is the fact that parties knowing its great efficacy try to imitate it. Each bottle of the genuine has a fac simile of a walnut leaf—blown in the glass; and a Green Leaf on the outside wrapper. The "Restorer" is as harmless as water, while it possesses all the properties necessary to restore life, vigor, growth and color to the hair. Purchase only from responsible parties. Ask your druggist for it. Each bottle is warranted. Johnston, Holloway & Co., Philadelphia, and Hall & Buckel, New York, Wholesale Agents. 4-ly. TO PHYSICIANS.—We do not find fault, reproach or condemn the practice of any regular physician—this is not our mission—but we do claim if he were to add Ferris to his prescriptions as directed in our book on the "Use of Life" (and furnished gratuitously by all druggists), he would cure all his patients. OSWEGO, Potter county, Pa. DR. HARTMAN—Dear Sir: The small ulcers are all healed, and the large ones are not more than half as large as they were. I am feeling quite well. The people say your Ferris is doing a miracle. I do not take nearly so much opium as I did before. 48-25. MRS. E. MAYNARD. —We have just received our new Fall and Winter Woolens.
