Wet one day and cold (in your head) next. Weather prophets are 'hair nuts' now days. Have you heard anything of the new depot? Millheim has been afflicted with scarlet fever. Important railroad meeting to-night at the Court House. Phillipsburgers are complaining of an unusually dull season. Don't forget about the Logan Hose Ball on New Years Eve. Mrs. Colonel Hastings is spending the Holiday season in Philadelphia. We had just about enough snow to make us feel bad, on Monday morning. Our friend Deininger has moved into his new quarters at last. Success to you, Ben. You can't hunt deer now. We don't mean the pretty does of Bellefonte, though. J. S. Fisher, Esq., the boss carriage builder of Rebersburg, was in town Monday last. A. W. Rishel, Esq., of Milesburg, cut his hand very badly on some broken glass on Monday last. 'Jimnie,' the Italian murderer, was allowed all the time necessary to get away, so he 'slid out.' Mr. E. L. Garman has recovered and is now at his business stand. We offer our congratulations, Ed. District Attorney Heinle was out at Phillipsburg and Sandy Ridge on Thursday looking after the parties concerned in the riot at the latter place. The revival at Valentine's works is very interesting. Great interest is shown, and large numbers of mourners prove what good seed is being sown. Emanuel Brown, Esq., proprietor of the Cummings House, Bishop street, is doing a rushing business, and sets one of the best tables in the country. They say 'Squire Corman shot a wild cat. We know our friend is gifted, but this is the first time he has figured as a mighty nimrod, to our knowledge. Gen. Beaver delivered an able address last Thursday evening before the Young Men's Christian Association of Reading. An immense meeting greeted our fellow townsman. Geo. Wolfe, brother of Maj. John A. Wolfe, who lay ill so long at Garman's hotel, has so far recovered as to resume his position on the engineer corps, now surveying the line to Lemont. Our military friend, Col. Hastings, has been a 'wilder' for some time, Mrs. H. being away from home. Just think of a little fellow like Hastings all alone at night in a big house. We shudder. The ladies of Milesburg will give a grand fair in Carr's building on Friday and Saturday nights next, for the benefit of the Citizens' Cornet Band of that place. We wish them lots of success. Mr. J. H. Watzel, a former resident of Bellefonte, and who has been in Illinois and Washington Territory for some years past, returned on Saturday night, and will remain until after the holidays. Mr. Harry Yeager, who left here about a year ago for Youngstown, Ohio, is back on a visit, and will probably locate in Bellefonte again. Mr. Yeager is a capital fellow, and we should be glad to welcome him back. If the Legislature, after its little grab, had adjourned in sections it would have been a great relief to the people. This thing of turning two hundred and fifty statesmen (?) loose at once is too much of a strain on the nerves. We received highly interesting communications from Haines Township, Pennsylvan, and Madisonburg, just before going to press. We regret exceedingly that we were unable to print them as we welcome any contributions from our subscribers. The Episcopal festival was a fine success, the refreshments being of the best. The display of fancy work was fine, and was very creditable to the taste of our Bellefonte young ladies. The last three years has shown wonderful improvement in general art among our young ladies generally. For check commend us to the Penn'a. R. R. Co. The demand of that corporation for $25,000 additional to complete the road from Lemont to Spring Mills, is about as modest as the 'stand and deliver' proposition of the highwayman. Of course our friends in Pennsylvan will give that corporation all the money they need. $25,000 is a small sum to donate to so generous a corporation. Mr. S. Frank Van Ormer, our carrier-boy, will visit our patrons and people of Bellefonte in general, with his 'Christmas Greeting' on Monday morning. Frank has served his patrons well and faithfully during the past year and expects to 'do' Philadelphia the day after Christmas with the proceeds of his address, so don't be bashful in handing over your dimes and quarters. You know 'tis the Indian who give 'no quarters.

Rash Lucas will furnish, any one desiring them, Christmas trees on Monday morning. Mr. Frank Greist, the gentlemanly manager of Lewis' store, has the most artistic display of goods in Bellefonte. Frank is a genial good fellow, and knows just how to run a store successfully. Our genial and talented young friend, Dr. Geo. Rishel, formerly of Lemont, has located an office in Milesburg, where he expects to follow his profession. The Dr. has been prepared for the practice of medicine by the severest discipline at the schools, and by his natural talent. Success to you, George. The National Woman's Christian Temperance Union will celebrate its Tenth Anniversary Sabbath, December 23d. The officers of the Penn'a. W. C. T. U. earnestly urge the general observance of the occasion, not only by the local Unions, but also by the churches and Sunday-schools, with mass meetings, temperance sermons and children's meetings. The Lock Haven Journal no longer exists. Mr. A. S. Grow having sold the material to Philadelphia parties, is now contemplating a western journalistic enterprise, so dame Rumor has it. The Journal was an exceedingly well-managed paper, owing to Mr. Grow's personal ability. This demise leaves Lock Haven with but two dailies. Poor Lock Haven. Yet we are contented with but one, and wouldn't do anything to double our present felicity. Prof. Wagner, the eminent scientist of our town, and at present superintendent of coloric and light in the Centre County Bank and Presbyterian church, was demonstrating to a class of Court House officials the proposition, that a column of water of a certain height pressing on a barrel of water, would burst the barrel. The Prof. procured a keg, filled it with water, fixed a piece of gas pipe in the bung-hole, and poured water through the funnel into the pipe. The experiment demonstrated, 1st, that 'the goll-darned keg leaked'; 2nd, that Prof. Wagner was a little off on his science. The boys enjoyed the Prof's scientific discourse after the demonstration had failed to verify his proposition. Now, Prof., you had better leave hydrostatics alone, or 'bust' the 'keg' just a little bit, forehead. December 23, 1873, was the birthday of the ever memorable Woman's Crusade, a movement which had its inception in the prayers and consecrated labors of a band of christian women in Hillsboro, Ohio, and which from that point, as a nucleus, spread out in every direction, until twenty-one States directly felt the touch of its power, and the whole country was aroused as it never had been before on the great question of Temperance Reform. Among the grand results which were the direct outgrowth of this Crusade, is the organization of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union, a society with an organized center in every State and Territory in the Union, and which is universally recognized as the most efficient instrument in the suppression of the liquor traffic. It seems especially fitting that this Woman's Christian Temperance Union should honor the movement to which it owes its existence by appropriate services on Dec. 23, 1883. With this design in view, a Temperance Mass Meeting, under the auspices of the above named organization, will be held in the Court House, in Bellefonte, on Sunday Dec. 23d, at 3:30 o'clock, P. M., and a cordial and earnest invitation to be present is extended to every one. R. R. MEETING.—Three carriage loads of gentlemen started after dinner on Thursday afternoon to join in the meeting of the citizens of Howard. The meeting was called to canvas the securing of the rights of way down the Bald Eagle Valley for the connection of the Bellefonte and Buffalo Run railroad, with the Beech Creek, Clearfield and South Western. The attendance was large. J. Newlin Hall was elected President of the meeting, T. A. Long Secretary. D. G. Bush stated the object of the meeting. Many speeches favorable to the granting of way were made. Bernard Lauth was made Chairman of committee to secure rights of way. Baiser Weber Chairman of committee to raise fund-requisite for that purpose. BOROUGH DESPERADOES.—We are sorry to see, that when one of the printing corps of the Bellefonte Daily News turns public ruffian, that journal has nothing to say on the subject, further than to whine over 'bad whiskey.' If some one of those disgraced for life, by the wretch now in jail, had shot him down like a dog, 'bad whiskey' would have been punished at its desert. Bad whiskey did not seem to impair the cunning of this desperado, who first fortified himself with weapons. A BEAUTIFUL PICTURE.—Messrs. Bunnell & Aikens, the wide-awake music dealers, have on exhibition a very large steel engraving, framed in gold and plush, called 'THE NOBLE ARMY OF MARTYRS, AND THE GREAT CHAMPIONS OF PROTESTANT REFORMATION.' We cannot give description of this beautiful picture, but it is worth going miles to see. Nothing like it has ever been seen in Bellefonte before. They also have a regular Art Gallery connected with their store that cannot be equalled this side of Philadelphia or New York. Bargains at Garman's. No paper next week, as is customary during the Holidays.

Our Schools. We have heard much of late of the crowded condition of our public schools. Little rooms intended originally for recitation and cloak rooms, have been seated and are now crowded with fifty and sixty school children, as many as three, and in some instances four, being crowded on one seat. The health of the children must certainly be more or less endangered by the crowding of so many into such small and poorly ventilated rooms. When erected, the school building contained only eight rooms proper, and from the arrangement and plan of the building that is all the rooms it was ever intended to have. These rooms are not large, and can not be made to comfortably seat more than fifty pupils to a room. With the exception of the two highest grades, we believe every room now has over fifty pupils. We understand that the School Board has had the crowded condition of our schools under consideration for some time. They have concluded that something must be done for the relief of the schools; that the health and welfare of the children demand it. Just what to do is certainly no trifling question. The Board is hampered all the time by an enormous debt, contracted years ago in the construction of a building, intended for a town that never could or would increase in population. Two or three propositions have been made which it is hoped will afford the required relief. One is to rent a room and create another school of about the same grade as schools No. three and four, and take out of the schools now existing pupils enough for the new school. This would of course make it necessary to employ another teacher. Another proposition is to secure a large room capable of seating anywhere from seventy to one hundred pupils, with a convenient recitation room; furnish these rooms at the least possible cost, and then move the two schools of the highest grade out of the school building to this room. This school then to be under the immediate control of Professors Lieb and Myer. Prof. Lieb to give at least one-half of his time to schools remaining in the public building. This plan would leave two large rooms on the first floor, of the school building to be filled by the pupils now crowded into a couple of miserable little side rooms. The School Laws make it obligatory upon the Directors to establish a sufficient number of schools to educate every individual above the age of six and under twenty-one years in the district, who shall apply for admission. The law cannot be complied with without more room. The Directors owe it to themselves, as well as to the patrons of the school, to provide more commodious school rooms for a large number of pupils now crowded into inconvenient little rooms. There are more than one hundred pupils in the public school building now than it was ever intended to contain. We believe the second proposition to be the most practical, and in the end will be of far less cost to the community. To rent a room where you can only put forty or fifty pupils will give but temporary relief. To build, with the present great debt upon the district, is impossible. The very best thing, in our judgment, for the Board to do, is to secure room enough to give the required relief for four or five years to come. This can be done without the necessity of employing any additional teachers for the present. The community expects the Board to do their duty in this matter. OFFICERS ELECTED.—At the annual election, held always on the first meeting night in December, Dr. George L. Potter Post, No. 261, of Milesburg, elected the following officers: Commander, Austin Curtin (re-elected); S. V. C., Geo. Derr; J. V. Grassmyer; Outside Guard, Mrs. James Kreps. By request of the National President of the 'Woman's Relief Corps' (Mrs. Baker, of Boston, Mass.) MILLHEIM ON THE FLY.—Millheim is lively. Geo. Cummings, Frain's mixologist, is a good fellow, and in the right place. Cleve Hockman is doing a good business in enlarging pictures. Mrs. Roseman, widow, was robbed last week of $75 by some unknown party entering her house while absent. Mrs. Eta Miller has just opened a ladies' furnishing and millinery goods store in Zeigler's building. She has on hand a nice stock of worsted goods, and ladies' and gents' underwear. Millheim can boast of having the two best country hotels in Centre county, and the large run of custom on these hotels proves that fact. Di Demogrod is alphasd welcome doe helle. 'The Little Lady' is dressed in blue silk and a fur lined circular, with hat and muff to match, and is the handsomest dressed doll ever seen. It is a genuine French doll, and as large as a child of five or six years old. Don't fail to call and see it. Remember, for every one dollars worth of toys you buy, you will receive a chance. Messrs. John C. Miller & Co. have no time to write advertisements, but would just remind the citizens of Bellefonte and vicinity that, as usual, they are to the front with the most complete line of useful and beautiful Holiday goods in town, and everything is marked away down. Rock bottom prices is their motto. It will pay you to visit their store, if only to inspect the many pretty things on exhibition. You will not be asked to buy, and you will be waited upon by polite and obliging clerks. There is no store in Centre county that can present as fine a line of Christmas goods as this firm. The strongest evidence of its great value is the fact that parties knowing its great efficacy try to imitate it. Each bottle of the genuine has a fac simile of a walnut leaf—blown in the glass; and a Green Leaf on the outside wrapper. The 'Restorer' is as harmless as water, while it possesses all the properties necessary to restore life, vigor, growth and color to the hair. Purchase only from responsible parties.
