—What next? —Court this week. —Oh! yes, Valentines. —Our attorneys are busy. —Milesburg has a new bakery. —Institute at Rosoma Feb. 1st and 2d. —The comet is visible to the naked eye. —25 styles seersucker for dresses—Garman's. —Macrama cord, 10 cents per ball, at Garman's. —Won't the spring freshet be a whopper, though? —Our streets presented a busy aspect on Monday and Tuesday. —The balance of our gent's neck wear far below cost—Garman's. —Make your selection for a seersucker dress while the line is complete at Garman's. —Mr. Augustus Hoover, very much regret to say, is confined to his home on Spring street with inflammatory rheumatism. —Mr. J. C. Condo, of Penn Hall, gave us a pleasant short call on Saturday last. —The Lutheran church at Millheim will be dedicated Sunday, February 10th, 1884. Several eminent ministers from abroad will assist. —Jno. Rishel, Esq., of Potter township, will offer at public sale on February 29th, 1884, all his household goods, farming utensils and live stock. —The Centre county Pomona Grange will meet at Centre Hall, February 12th, 1884, and will hold three sessions, 10, A. M., 1:30 and 7, P. M. —Dr. Reber, of Madisonburg, who has been on the sick-list for some time past, we are glad to say, is again able to be about. —The electric light exhibition given on Thursday evening caused no little amusement to most of those who attended. But it was rather too "shocking" to some to be appreciated. We thought so, any way. —The Electric Light company will give another exhibition on Monday evening, February 4th. A light will be displayed in front of the Court House, and the Brockerhoff and Bush House will be lighted by electricity the same evening. —We call your attention to the real estate advertisement of Bond Valentine to be found on this page. This is a new departure, and any one wishing to dispose of their real estate will do well to consult Mr. Valentine. —There will be exposed at public outcry at the residence of the late John Lutz at near Zion, on February 28th, 1884, all the household property, farming utensils and live stock of the deceased. Don't forget to attend. —We regret to record the accident to "Billy" Hall, of Milesburg, on the 23d, inst. He was engaged in coupling cars and was caught by the shoulders, breaking his collar bone. His suffering has been intense. We wish him a speedy recovery. —The soldier comrades of Half Moon and Patton townships and adjoining community will meet in the Stormstown school house Tuesday evening, February 5th, 1884, to consider the feasibility of organizing a Post of the G. A. R. Comrade Austin Curtin is expected. Comrades of other Posts invited. —A very unusual occurrence took place in the court room on Monday afternoon. The list of Grand Jurors was called and twenty-four answered to their respective names. Only twenty-three being required, Michael Pletcher was released. —The room formerly occupied by Mess. Youm & Hastings, corner of Allegheny and High streets, is being remodeled and is to be used by our enterprising townsman, W. I. Fleming, Esq., as a merchant tailoring establishment. Mr. Fleming is a straightforward and wide-awake business man, and we commend him to any one in want of anything in the tailoring line. —Just now everybody is talking "rail-road," and the citizens of Pine Grove and vicinity are making strong efforts to have the Buffalo Run road extended to Pine Grove. A petition with a large number of signers is now being circulated for that purpose. —A telephone line is about to be erected from Bellefonte to Millroy, by way of Centre Hall and Potters Mills, down through the "Kisacoquillas" valley to Harrisburg, Pa. Well, we're glad of that. We are thinking of going to Harrisburg soon, and we will just go by way of telephone. —Two large sleds, besides several single sleds, of ladies and gentlemen were driven to the residence of Lewis Zimmerman, Sr., near Hubersburg on Friday evening, 26th, inst., and were sumptuously entertained by that hospitable family. The "merry making" was kept up till the "wee sma' hours," and the only regret felt when the hour of leaving had come was, that a night was not twenty-four hours long instead of only twelve.

Personal.

Mr. S. A. Stover, the tombstone man, has been on the sick list for the past week. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Glenn, of near Rrock Springs, celebrated their fiftieth anniversary of married life at their home on the 23d, ult. S. M. Buck and family departed for their home in Chicago Monday evening. Mr. Jacob and Emanuel Eisenhuth, of Millheim, favored our sanctum with their presence on Monday. Come again. We had a pleasant call from 'Squire Carlin, Cook Condo, F. P. Barker and Mr. Zeigler, of Rebersburg, on Monday. Mr. Jno. J. Marten, of Nittany Hall, favored us with a call on Friday last. Mr. Philip Carris, a pleasant gentleman of Miles town, was in town Monday. Ira E. Shaffer, of Madisonburg, "took in" our little city on Saturday last. Joe Miller, of Beech Creek, is again clerking for Geo. Blackford. Mr. Mark Mooney, of Millheim, is now located at Snooky, Pa. Mr. Henry Myers and wife, of Buffalo Run, paid a short visit to our little city Monday. Mr. W. H. Fry, a prominent citizen of Pine Grove, "peeped" in to see us Tuesday. Come again. —Mr. John C. Miller, of the firm of J. C. Miller & Co., of this place, received the appointment of book keeper at the nail works. Mr. Miller is a very clever and obliging gentleman, and we sincerely know whether to congratulate Johnny or the company upon this acquisition. —Mr. I. S. Frain, the gentlemanly landlord of the National Hotel, Millheim, Pa., we are glad to say, will remain at his old stand for at least another year. Mr. Frain has built up a very nice trade, and his hotel is quite popular. —Mr. H. S. Emerick, a former citizen of Walker township, but who has for the past nineteen years been located in the west, is engaged in the mercantile business at Freeport, Ill. Mr. Emerick clerked for the old firm of Messrs. Brown & Cooke, in Bellefonte, in 1862-3. An other brother, we believe, is located at Green Grove, Wis. A PLEASANT SURPRISE.—On Thursday evening, January 24, the Presbyterian congregation of Pine Grove Mills made a "raid" in force on the parsonage, taking the Rev. W. C. Kuhn and family completely by surprise. The hour of meeting was to have been 6 o'clock, P. M., but owing to the inclemency of the weather it was about an hour later before the people assembled, started for the Kuhn hunt. The ladies took baskets loaded full and running over with good things, and the necessary articles of life; and the gentlemen followed with flour, sacks of corn, oats, potatoes and apples, dried and canned fruits—even some of the real cash was found among the packages, and a handsome eight-day clock was placed upon the mantle. The extremely bad weather prevented many from attending, but have since sent in their donations. A few very appropriate remarks were made by the worthy pastor, thanking the donors very kindly for their generosity, and the spirit in which it was made. —An immense gathering assembled at the Brockerhoff House on Tuesday evening to attend the Grand Ball given by the Window Glass Workers' Association of this place. Every effort was put forth to make it a grand success, and their expectations were more than realized. The committee in charge were untiring in their efforts to make it pleasant for every one, and the "First Annual" will be remembered by many as one of the most enjoyable events that has ever taken place in our vicinity. The music furnished by the Adelphe orchestra was excellent. The "calling" by our good-natured friend, Samuel Ryan, was distinct and pleasing to the ear. REBERSBURG BREVITIES.—Mrs. Ellen Dubs, of Freeport, Ill., is paying a visit to her aged parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Mallory.—The protracted meeting is still in progress under the management of Rev. Widemeyer.—Rev. Weist, a traveling missionary for the Evangelical Association, delivered an able sermon on Wednesday evening.—Jona Auman is about to erect a steam portable saw mill in the east end of the valley.—Our town was enlightened this week by a number of salesmen.—And now our band has its uniforms and it looks fine. The boys were out serenading last week. I am sure we have one of the finest bands in the county. Parties wishing to engage a band should not overlook ours.—Cook Condo, our landlord, is doing a fine business. JACK FROST. A $20 BIBLICAL PRIZE.—The publishers of Rutledge's Monthly offer twelve valuable rewards in their Monthly for February, among which is the following: We will give $20.00 to the person telling us which is the longest verse in the Old Testament Scriptures by February 10th, 1884. Should two or more correct answers be received, the reward will be divided. The money will be forwarded to the winner February 15th, 1884. Persons trying for the reward must send 20 cents in silver (no postage stamps taken) with their answer, for which they will receive the March Monthly, in which the name and address of the winner of the reward and the correct answer will be published, and in which several more valuable rewards will be offered. Address Rutledge Publishing Company, Easton, Pa. —This week's arrivals—common and blue prints, dress and fine apron gingham, muslins, etc., at Garman's.

ZION AND SUBURBS.—22 degrees below zero last Saturday morning. Mrs. Rothrock, wife of the popular dentist, was quite ill last week. Mr. Edwin Twitmyer, after enjoying the holidays, has returned to Lancaster to finish his college course, which will end June next. The subject of local politics is being agitated and candidates for the various township offices are hard at work. It would be advantageous to both citizens of Bellefonte and Zion to have telephone line extended to this place. Prof. D. M. Wolf, in company with our efficient director, Dr. P. S. Fisher, visited the schools in the upper end of the township one day last week. Mr. Jacob Bottorf, of Lemont, accompanied by his lady, spent a day with friends at this place last week. Joseph Stoudt is now the happy father of a son. The DEMOCRAT, we are gratified to notice, has a larger circulation in this section than any other periodical. Our distinguished postmaster will substantiate these facts. Mr. Jerry V. Twitmyer, of Dakota, Ill., has been spending some weeks with his mother and friends at this place. He has fully recovered his health and is looking well. The funeral of our lamented citizen, Mr. John Lutz, who died on the 3rd inst. aged 58 years, was one of the largest ever held in the valley. Mr. L. stood high in the estimation of his friends. Mrs. Lizzie, wife of John Kiber, that fell destroyer, consumption, passed from earth to glory on the 24 inst. There is a rumor that John L. Shaffer will move on the farm lately belonging to Samuel Vonada in Marion township. The sermons delivered in the Reformed church at this place are excellent, but unfortunately the music is execrable. Michael Shaffer, Esq., one of our noted Justices and exemplary citizens, perchance may be a dark horse in the next presidential contest. The citizens of Walkers township have not abandoned all hopes as yet in getting a railroad through the valley. We trust their fond expectations may be realized. Prof. W. W. Rupert, one of the most diligent, faithful and competent teachers in the county, reports that the percentage of attendance in his school has thus far averaged 99. Can any other teacher in the county excel this? Harvey Shaffer rented the Henry Dunkle farm at Hecla and will occupy it in a few weeks. PENN'S VALLEY NOTES.—The excellent sleighing of the past three weeks has made our valley musical with the jingle of the sleighbells, and has also afforded our farmers the best opportunity for marketing their grain.—During the past two weeks thousands upon thousands have been bought and shipped off by the grain dealers of Spring Mills and Coburn. Some days a single grain horse at Spring Mills has taken in over two thousand bushels.—The extreme cold weather has stopped all building operations in our little railroad city.—The wall of the prospective Grange hall stands unfinished, a memorial of the dilatoriness of the mason who didn't push his work.—James Kennelly's prospective furniture emporium stands on posts—no wall under it and no roof over it.—McClintic & Barick's large double house was ready for the plasterers when the cold weather set in and it also stands "in statu quo."—Henry Richard disagreed with his employer. Bought a lot early one morning and before dinner bought a house at Farmers Mills, which he intends moving to Spring Mills.—John Long, living on one of the Allison farms, was upset a few days ago by a sheep and striking his side against a door post, received injuries which have confined him to bed ever since.—Jno. Calderon has received the contract to build two school houses, one at Farmers Mills, the other along the Brushvalley road, about a mile from the Penn's Creek caves.—Eliss Feteroff has sold his farm near Brush Mountain to Daniel Bartges for $90 per acre. A pretty big price for farm land, but then it gives Mr. Bartges three farms of excellent land in one block. Samuel Krape will be the tenant. Mr. Feteroff moves to Spring Mills, where he will live as a retired farmer.—Jno. Stover is learning the mysteries of the click of the telegraph in the office of D. Wallace Duncan.—Mr. R. H. Duncan is making his home at Milton.—More anon. * * MILLHEIM ITEMS.—All the go—sleighing parties. E. F. K. has some notion of learning milling. The protracted meeting in the Evangelical church is still in progress with good results. J. F. H. says he is no candidate for 'Squire. E. Bartholomew's house is nearing completion on Penn street. The scarlet rash is making its appearance among the children in and about town. Ed Frank, the counter jumper in the hardware store, thinks of going west in the spring. Ed must have struck a bonanza out there. How is it, Ed? The cards are out for a fashionable wedding on Main street. Cam R. thinks of taking the Star to the strait trols to Europe. Rumor has it that Grif's agent is about kicking the bucket. Perhaps news is getting scarce. Emma E., how about that party the other night? "Mother says I mustn't." Sam Clark has gone into the steplader business. There is some rumor of the Millheim band holding a singing convention. Hope they may prosper in their undertaking. The ladies of the U. B. church organized a society called the "U. B. B. Ladies' All Workers Society" with the following named officers: President, Miss Mary Straw; Vice President, Miss Mahala Stephens; Secretary, Miss Mary Lose; Treasurer, Miss Carrie Lyter. John Sher, from Laurelton, Union county, is visiting friends at Aaronsburg. John is still single. "PICK WICK" & "NEW YEAR," Muzed. INSTITUTE AT JACKSONVILLE.—Institute was called to order by County Superintendent Wolf. Mr. E. H. Zeigler was elected Secretary. Music. Prof. Wolf favored the audience with an interesting address on "School Poverty." Mr. Aaron Buck followed, speaking of "Teacher's Rights." Mr. Henry Yearick, John Hoy, Jr., and others spoke in favor of teachers being held responsible for school property. Rev. J. G. Shoemaker spoke of the old log school house, of the laws and regulations of the common school system. Music was again furnished by the choir. Institute then adjourned for the evening. Saturday morning, Jan. 26th, the session was called to order at 10 o'clock. Music by the choir. Mr. G. I. Barthart introduced the subject of teaching the decimal system to beginners, after which a class was formed and the method of teaching the system was illustrated. It was then thoroughly discussed by the teachers. Several other topics were discussed during the session. Afternoon Session.—County Superintendent opened the session, and after music Miss Maggie Shaffer read an essay on "Object Lessons." General discussion was engaged in by the teachers. Miss Shaffer again favored the audience with an essay on "Charity." R. J. G. Shoemaker delivered an excellent address, "Responsibilities and Duties of Parents and Teachers." Music by the choir. Prof. Wolf closed the Institute by thanking the citizens of Jacksonville for their hospitality to the visiting teachers. The members of the Institute were glad to welcome Prof. Keller of Bellefonte during a portion of the session. Clearfield county has a phenomena in the shape of a turtle. About eight weeks ago the head of it was severed from its body and up to Tuesday last it still showed signs of life. If touched upon any part of the body it withdraws its feet, moves its tail and withdraws its neck. Proceedings at Court. The regular January term of Court began at 10 o'clock on Monday morning. His Honor Judge Hoy presiding, with associate Judge Smith on the bench with him. Mr. L. A. Walters, of Millheim, was appointed foreman of the Grand Jury, and up to Wednesday noon, the following business had been dispatched: After the names of the Traverse Jury were called, the following Constables made return: Isaac Lose, Bellefonte borough; W. N. Niff, Howard borough; J. B. Stover, Jr., Millheim borough; G. W. Shene, Unionville; W. F. Olweine, Philipsburgh; Alexander Draucker, Milesburg; W. H. Clase, Benner; James Noll, Boggs; W. F. Loy, Burnside; James Ray, College; William Packer, Curtin; Peter Wolf, Ferguson; Reuben Kline, Gregg; William Meyers, Harris; H. A. Crosse, Haines; T. B. Sanders, Howard; D. J. Gates, Half Moon; Samuel Saxton, Huston; J. P. Linn, Liberty; W. H. Miller, Marion; Frank P. Baker, Miles; G. H. Hartstock, Patton; W. C. Hubler, Penn; M. M. Condo, Potter; Alexander Adams, Rush; Joseph Bilger, Spring; W. R. Haynes, Snow Shoe; Vinton Beckwith, Taylor; Geo. W. Bowman, Union; Wm. Cronoble, Walker; James Monks, Worth. Petitions for license to sell liquor were then taken up and disposed of as follows: Charles M. Heisler, saloon, Bellefonte, granted. Robert Taylor, Philipsburgh, tavern, granted. Cook Condo, tavern, Rebersburg, granted. James Redding, saloon, Snow Shoe, granted. A. E. Graham, saloon, Liberty, granted. Chas. B. Lique, saloon, Liberty, granted. Jas. I. Delong, tavern, Liberty, granted. S. H. Kunes, tavern, Liberty, granted. Remonstrances were presented against the following applicants: O. H. Brady, saloon, Philipsburgh, granted; F. P. McClosky, bottlers license, continued to April court; Peter Ashcroft, tavern, continued to April court; Mrs. Sarah Pearson, saloon, refused; Abe Baum, Wholesale, Bellefonte, refused; George Levy, wholesale, Bellefonte, refused; John Waller, wholesale, Bellefonte, refused; George Hazel, saloon, Snow Shoe, continued to April court. In the Court of Common Pleas.—Commission in luncacy. Commonwealth vs. Joseph Kelso. Commission enlarged and continued on application of D. S. Keller, Esq. On motion of C. Dale, Esq., judgment on Foreign attachment in cases of Stephen L. Heaton and wife vs. Harry C. Blair, and case of Oscar F. Furey vs. Henry Blair. Petitions presented by C. Dale, Esq., to declare Mary Snyder, feme sole Trader, Decree granted by the Court, January 25, 1884. On motion of Hon. J. H. Orris, leave is granted to Plaintiff to amend the form of action in the case of Geo. Noll vs. The Lebanon Mutual Insurance Co., by changing it from assumption of covenant. Petition presented by D. S. Keller, for subpoena in Divorce, A. V. M. in case of Mary Seitzinger vs. Franklin Seitzinger, granted by the Court. Petition presented by Hastings & Leoder, for subpoena in Divorce, A. V. M. in case of Sarah F. Wilson, by her next friend, Thomas Taylor vs. A. G. Wilson, granted by the Court. On motion of D. F. Fortney, Esq., rule granted to show cause why writ of execution should not be set aside and judgment opened and defendant let into a defense in the case of Gordon & Landis vs. Andrew J. Tressler. Rule granted by the Court, Returnable Saturday, Feb. 21, 1884. In the Court of Quarter Sessions.—Commonwealth vs. D. E. Sellers; Prosecutrix, Anna C. Roller. Case continued to next term, defendant giving bail in the sum of $300 for his appearance at April session. In the case of Commonwealth vs. George Stewart, defendant was discharged finally under Insolvent Law, after having served 3 months in the county jail. In the case of Commonwealth vs. Samuel B. Meyers, Jr., defendant made application for final discharge under insolvent law, but upon examination it was shown that he had before last August a note of $200 which the evidence showed he had given to his mother for no consideration whatever. The Court said it looked very much as if he had disposed of the note for the purpose of keeping the prosecutrix from getting any money and could not therefore be discharged under insolvent law. The Grand Jury has returned the following true bills: Commonwealth vs. George H. Davis. Felonious assault. Same vs. Thomas McCafferty and Alexander McCafferty. Furnishing liquor to men of intemperate habits. Defendants plead guilty. Sentence suspended. Same vs. James Potter. Disorderly house. Same vs. same. Bawdy house. Same vs. Bertie Shelly and Annie Kelley. Bawdy house. Same vs. Horace Clark, (colored). Felonious assault. Same vs. same. Carrying concealed weapons. Same vs. Edward Stoner. Assault and battery. Same vs. Franklin Kessinger. Aggravated assault and battery. Same vs. Zach Steel. Assault and battery. The trial of the case of Commonwealth vs. George H. Davis for shooting Alexander Miller at Sandy Ridge on the 8th of last December, was begun yesterday morning, but no verdict was reached at the time of going to press. In the Orphans Court: A petition was presented by Beaver & Gepphart in re estate of John Shope, late of Boggs township. Petition for an inquisition in partition. Whereupon the Court awarded an inquest as prayed for. In re estate of John T. Clark, late of Liberty township, deceased. Decree of Court filed for the specific performance of parcel contract with D.
