An honest husband seek, And without reproach or fear. Now do not stop, but just you pop, The question of the year. Sprouting—candidates. Harvested—the ice crop. About off—sleighting parties. The days are growing longer. F.A.T. Subscribe for the CENTRE DEMOCRAT. The Nail Works are again in full operation. Extra copies of the DEMOCRAT for sale at this office. How to invite this year—"Yourself and gentleman, etc." No one appreciated the sleighting more this winter than the lumbermen. A "spirited nag," hitched to a spider, attracted considerable attention on our streets Saturday. The Reformed church choir of this place sang in the Reformed church at Zion last Sunday. When the hour of twenty-four has passed that day was just two minutes longer than the day subsequent. The "Ground Hog" saw his "shadow" Tuesday but John Wagner shot it before it went back to its hole again. Merchants complain of business being dull since the Holidays. "Advertise" is the name of the medicine to cure it. The lecture by Mr. Kimberly, of the Derwick Y. M. C. A., on "Literary Hash," has been postponed until Tuesday evening February 12th. A big auction sale is in progress at Nittany Hall and everything is selling very low. "Cheap Bob" is running it, and his name is very appropriate. Gov. Pattison has signed the death warrants of George Jones and Jesse Carter of Allegheny county. They will be hanged Friday, April 4th. The B. C. C. & S. W. railroad bridge, crossing the west branch of the Susquehanna about six and a half miles below Lock Haven, is about completed. If a man meets you upon the street, smiles upon you sweetly, and is over glad to see you, and if you don't owe him a small bill, beware of him. He's going to be a candidate, sure. The cards are out for a fashionable Hebrew wedding at Baltimore, in which one of Bellefonte's business men is involved. When the cake is passed around don't forget us, Sammy. The lecture on "That Neighbor of Mine," delivered in the Court House on last Friday evening, did not draw as large a house as the lecture merited. Scarcely one hundred spectators were present. An exchange pertinently remarks: "We like the merchant and man who believes in sticking to home enterprises. This way of sending off for things that can be purchased at home just as cheap is not the true policy." If you are troubled with a cough roast a lemon without burning it. When entirely hot, squeeze the juice into a cup on three ounces of finely powdered sugar. Take a teaspoonful whenever you cough. It rarely ever fails to cure the worst case. Huntingdon is getting rather high-toned. An effort in being made over there to raise $10,000 to organize a base ball club for 1884. All right; bring along your $10,000 club next summer and we'll knock you out with the Eureka. The new Presbyterian church at Milton, Pa., cost over $50,000. A debt of $10,000 still remains unpaid. Recently Col. Lawson proposed giving $500 in addition to his former subscription, if $9,500 was raised, thus wiping out the entire debt. $9,200 is now raised, leaving only $300 to make up. Marion township can boast of some of the best wheat producing farms in the State. The farm owned by Mr. Isaac Frain, near Walker, produced on an average 35 bushels to the acre, and the farm of Martin Biglow, just adjoining Mr. Frain's, produced an average of 36 bushels to the acre. Who can beat it? The Commissioners office presented a busy appearance on Thursday afternoon after the case of Geo. H. Davis was disposed of. About fifty witnesses rushed down stairs to get their "checks" cashed before the five o'clock train left for Tyrone. The way our worthy board of Commissioners bounced around would have done credit to younger lads indeed. We have received from Messrs. Walliser, Palliser & Co., of Bridgeport, Conn., a copy of their "Useful Details," being a comprehensive publication of useful and valuable designs in architecture art, and all kindred arts and mechanics. It is certainly a work of great merit, and must be very useful to builders and others. Leroy Warner, of Conesaut township, Erie county, recently sold "all his right, title and interest" in his little daughter Muggie, to Peter J. Wild, of Erie, Pa., for one dollar. The transaction was made in good faith by both parties and a bill of confirmation presented to court. The court was of a different opinion and refused to confirm the sale.

Personal. Christ Geiring is laid up with inflammatory rheumatism. Mr. D. B. Weaver, of Penn Hall, is attending court as a juror this week. Mr. Christ Decker, of Zion, is getting quite a reputation as a vocalist. Mr. Ellis Shaffer, of Madisonburg, is in Bellefonte this week as a witness. Mr. W. W. McCormick, of Potters Mills, gave us a friendly call on Tuesday. Mr. J. T. Lee, carriage maker of Centre Hall, stepped into our sanctuary on Friday. Joseph Brooks, of Pleasant Gap, is happy. Its a boy. A real, living boy, so it is. Mrs. C. G. McMillen returned home from her extended visit in Ohio Friday evening. Mr. Jno. Garbrick, one of Zion's prominent farmers, gave us an agreeable call on Monday. Mr. Geo. Delan, of this place, accompanied his brother William to Huston, Texas, Saturday. Mrs. Anna Seltzer and daughter, Miss Jennie, of Lock Haven, are guests at the Cummings House. Hon Wm. A. Wallace, of Clearfield, has been re-elected President of the B. C. C. & S. W. railroad. We noticed the presence of our corpulent friend, Mr. Jno. Dubbs, of Zion, on our streets Tuesday. Our good humored and corpulent friend Mr. Robert Taylor, of Philipsburg, was in town on business last week. Miss Sophia McEwen and Miss Anna Carner, two of Hublersburg's fair daughters, visited Jersey Shore last week. Miss Roxy, of Ohio, and Mrs. Geo. Welshons, of Pittsburg, are the guests of Mrs. C. G. McMillen, at the Brokerhoff. Mr. Ira C. Ohi and Wm. Harris, two of Walker township's good-looking farmers, came to Bellefonte on Monday last on business. Mr. Stephen Campbell, who moved from Roland to Barre Forge a few years ago, has again returned to the former place. Roland seems to have a charm for those who once lived there. Mr. J. C. Rossman, of Zion, has rented his father's farm in Brush Valley and will move there about March 1st. Now, we always supposed when a man once got to Zion he would prefer to remain. But such does not seem to be the fact in this case. Mr. Wm. Simmons, of Pleasant Gap, is again engaged in the huckstering business, and will furnish parties with fresh butter and eggs delivered right to your door. Mr. Simmons deals in nothing but first class articles. Col. James Gilliland, who for many years has resided near Washington city, is here visiting his numerous friends in this county. Col. Gilliland for forty years was a prominent citizen of Centre county, and few men possessed the faculty of attaching friends to a greater extent. They award him a most cordial welcome. GREGG POST ENTERTAINMENT.—To comrades and their friends, to other Posts of the G. A. R. in the county, and in other counties, Gregg Post extends a most earnest invitation to come and commemorate with them the birthday of the Father of our Country, February 22, inst. The Gregg Post Restaurant will be open Thursday evening, 21st, and will be kept open till Saturday night, February 23. On the 23d all persons can get their supper at the Post Restaurant, visit the Art Gallery in the Post Room, and go from there to Reynolds' Opera House to see the "Famous Tennesseans," for which reserved seat tickets can be had by application to any member of Gregg Post. The chart of the Opera House chairs (reserved) will be ready at Sourbeck's on February 15th, where persons holding tickets can get their seats marked and reserved, and those wishing tickets, can buy them. Lookout for the bills and hangers about the 15th. Henry Keller, Esq., a highly respected and well known citizen of Boalsburg, we regret to learn, has been stricken with paralysis and is in a very precarious state, and his life despaired of. His aged and estimable companion, Mrs. Keller, is also quite ill. We sincerely sympathize with them in their affliction. LATER.—Mr. Keller, we have since learned, as we are going to press, died on Wednesday and will be buried from his residence in Boalsburg on Friday morning at 10:30 o'clock. However afflictive the dispensation to his many friends which calls him away, it may be truly said of the deceased, that another good man has gone to receive the reward of a just and well spent life. A Banquet was given by the members of Walker Grange at the residence of Mr. Adam Decker, near Snydertown, on last Saturday evening. There were about one hundred guests present. It was magnificently gotten up, the table being loaded with all the substantial and delicious desired. Mr. Decker and his good and agreeable lady just know how to get up an affair like that. O. K. A grand entertainment will be given in the Buffalo Run Presbyterian church on Tuesday evening, February 12th. It will consist of grand scenic views, which will show nearly all the battles of the late war in colors on a mammoth canvas, also scenes in the Holy Land, and the famous statutory. The scenes will be interspersed with good music, and all will be delighted. The entertainment will be given for the benefit of the church, so let everybody come. Admission 15 and 25 cents.

—Good gingham, five cents per yard, at Garman's. —The Ball Masque at Beech Creek last week was well attended and a success. —The Lutheran sociaie was held in the Lutheran church last evening. —Wagons and buggies are now taking the places of sleighs and sleds in our burg. —Parties in want of sales bills or posters should not fail to call at the DEMOCRAT office. —If you are in want of a good, comfortable home-made boot or shoe, call at A. G. Noll's, near the passenger depot. —Pictures enlarged and copied at Boyer's Photograph Car, corner of Bishop and Penn streets, just below the Cummings. —The office of the B. C. C. & S. W. railroad, it is rumored, will be removed from Jersey Shore to Beech Creek before long. —Mr. Thos. Collins completed his contract last week of grading and tunneling on the J. S., B. C. & C. railroad near Snow Shoe. —Beech Creek isn't a very large place now, but wait until the car shops are located there. Won't things howl in Rome, though? —Mr. Wm. Keller, of Centre Hall, is conducting a semi-weekly singing class at Zion. Everybody is invited. Admission each session, 10 cents. —The new version of Rip Van Winkle, under the excellent management of Mr. Jno. M. Hickey, will be presented at Reynolds' Opera House Thursday evening, February 14th. This is one of the finest companies on the road. —We call your attention to the advertisement signed "Mechanic" for position as blacksmith. This is an excellent opportunity for some one to secure the services of a sober and industrious man. We are personally acquainted with him, and know whereof we speak. —Work is being pushed forward more rapidly between Bellefonte and Lemont on the L. & T. railroad than is generally known, and ere long we may expect to hear the shrill whistle of the "loco" resounding along the raging waters of the Logan. —Donavin's Famous Tennesseans, Colored Concerts, are the same that assisted in building Central College at Nashville, and are rarely gifted vocalists, will sing in Bellefonte Friday evening, February 22, 1884. They were the leading attraction at Chautauqua in 1875. —The First Annual Banquet of Nittany, Penn's and Kishacoquillas valleys will be held at Old Fort Thursday next. Sixty invitations have been extended, and parties in possession of same should make it a point to be present, as Mr. Odenkirk has been directed and will spare no pains in the get-up of the grandest supper ever given at his hotel. And he knows how to do it. —The expenses for keeping the poor of the borough of Bellefonte for the past month was $160. This includes clothing, fuel and provisions. J. M. KECHLINE, O. P. LITERARY HASH.—This will be the subject of a lecture to be delivered next Tuesday evening, February 12th, in Y. M. C. A. hall, by Mr. A. G. Kimberly, of Derwick. The lecture is purely literary, and is calculated to direct and stimulate useful reading. Everywhere Mr. Kimberly has appeared his lecture has been well received. The proceeds are to be used in the interest of the Boys' Branch, and this in itself should be sufficient reason for our citizens to attend, especially as the price of admission is only 25 cents. PENN HALL ITEMS.—Mr. Hosterman, the manager of Henry Feidler's store near Aaronsburg, was noticed in our village on Sunday last. It was thirty-one years the first of February that Maj. J. B. Fisher began doing business for himself, and has still some of the customers to this date that commenced dealing with him at that time. Mr. Rooker, from Muncy, is superintending the paint shop of J. C. Condo's coach works. Mr. Rooker is a first-class painter. The work speaks for itself. Robert Bariges is away to Sugar valley on a visit with his mother. Lost—the "News Boy." MOUNTAIN BOY. —There will be a local institute held at Unioville on Friday evening and Saturday, Feb. 15 and 16, and it is hoped that all the townships in the Bald Eagle valley from Taylor to Liberty, will be represented. Teachers and directors everywhere are invited to attend. An interesting and profitable time is anticipated. The programme not being completed, we can only give a few of the many good things now in preparation, viz: Mr. Frank McCoy, school government; Wm. P. Fisher, Jr., relation of parents to teachers; Miss Sallie Morley, a class drill in arithmetic. Reading and recitations by the child educationist, Miss Florence Cleaver, and others. G. W. Rumberger will give a talk on reading. Open discussion; Resolve that we favor a compulsory education law, opened on the affirmative by Dr. J. M. Blair, negative by Mr. A. J. Griest. The fact that County Superintendent Wolf will "hold the rudder" is a sufficient guarantee that it will be an event of interest and profit to teachers and citizens. Through the hospitality of our citizens the teachers will be kept free of board and lodging while attending the institute. Come one and all. By order of the Co. Supt. G. W. RUMBERGER.

HAIRNS TOWNSHIP ITEMS.—What has become of "News Boy?" Guess the ghost scared him out. We are informed that J. C. Muckel is getting up another sleighting party. J. C. knows how to go about it. One of Geo. B. Stover's horses was used up pretty bad the other night, but we are informed is some better again. Mr. John Neidigh is "apple king" now. John is just the man for it. Our friend, Geo. M. Bower, moves to Penn township till spring. Sorry to lose George, but hope our loss may be his gain. Doc. Bowersox moves on the farm lately bought of Mr. Echard who goes to Kansas with his family this month. John J. is back from court and still looks natural. READER. —Last Thursday, the 24th ult., was an exceedingly unpleasant day, but notwithstanding this the circumstances within doors at the Reformed parsonage in Aaronsburg were of a very pleasant and cheering nature. By previous arrangement it was agreed on the part of the people of the charge to surprise the pastor and his family in the way of a donation visit. The day, however, was unfavorable. A few from the country and most of those living in Aaronsburg and Millheim, numbering about twenty families, were represented. A few hours were pleasantly spent in social intercourse, after which our friends retired, leaving behind them tangible evidence of their kindness and good will, in the shape of articles of clothing, groceries, butter, fruit, horse feed and a purse of silver for the pastor's wife. We take pleasure in noting the fact that all the families in Aaronsburg, of the Presbyterian church, took a generous part in the act of kindness. For these and all other gifts frequently received from our kind people throughout the charge, we record our sincere thanks, and invoke upon them the blessing of heaven. For several days afterwards others continued to report themselves at the parsonage, and on the 29th several sleds arrived loaded with valuable tokens of regard from members of the Salem congregation. Besides this, boxes and packages prepared for the day first appointed, were here and there placed in the pastor's sleigh as he chanced to meet the kind donors whilst out in pursuit of his accustomed duties. There are happy hearts at the parsonage beside, and it is hoped that those who made them so are equally happy in the giving. Z. A. YEARRICK, EMMA YEARRICK. Proceedings of Court. THURSDAY.
