_"Arrest.

-Endless variety of weather. -What is meant by "The Arrest"? -Our merchants report business "pick.

ing up. Mr. John I. Irvin and family have moved to Altoona.

-Mr. C. E. Burchfield, of Philips burg, was in town Saturday last.

-The Supreme Court at Philadeldhia is holding its regular sessions this week.

-Remember, the CENTRE DEMOCRAT office is the place to get your printing done.

-Scarcely any snow is now visible on the south side of our hills and mountains-

-Tony Bash lost quite a number of empty beer kegs by the recent flood at Beech Creek.

-Interesting exercises are held in the grammar school at Eagleville Friday afternoons of each week. Misses Annie E. Feidler and Mazie

Rober, of Madisonburg, spent Tuesday au i Wednesday in Bellefonte. -The new disease, "Azoturia," killed several horses in Philadelphia. The animals are first attacked with palalysis.

-The logs carried in the fields and on the roads along Beech Creek are being hauled to the creek by Mr. David Mullen.

-Mr. J. L. Spangler is fitting the room in the basement of his building, corner Alleghery and Bishop streets, for a barber shop

-Letter heads, bill heads, wedding cards, dodgers, posters, sales bills, and printing of every description, at he CENTRE DEMO CRAT office.

-Harry Bidwell is happyand is worth just $1,000 more this week than last. Its a boy and that is what a good boy is worth.

-What is meant by "The Arrest?" Why, we refer to the beautiful oil painting called "The Arrest," to be chanced off. Have you secured a chance?

-M. Ellis L. Orvis returned from Clifton Springs, N. Y., on Thursday evening last. He will probably return to that place again in a short time.

-Messrs. Henry Fiedler, Thos. Wal ker and Newton Brumgard, three of Brush valley's jolliest and best citizens, 'took in'' the county seat this week.

-Rev. J. B. Hummel, pastor of the U B. church of Bellefonte, received at the hands of James Reed, of Coleville, on las, Friday, a watch, from the citizens of Belle fonte and vicinity. He desires us to preent his thanks.

-Carpenters are already at work in the Opera House store room lately occupied by M. Levi & Co., putting it in order for R. B. Syangler & Co's. extensive furniture establishment. They will occupy it as soon as in order, we are informed.

-The following parties started for the great west on Tuesday afternoon David Shafer and family, R. K. Roush and wife, Samuel Zeigler and family, Isaiah Fiedler and family, Mr. Thomas Leter and S. M. Spangler and family.

-Gov. Pattison came to Beilefonte Tu s lay evening on the 8:55 train, and was immediately driven to the State College, where a banquette was in wait iny. He was expected on the 10 A. M t ain, but through some mistake did not rive until the late train in the even i d.

As Mr. Ed. Brown, Sr., was driving a ang on Allegheny street a few days since, estenisting in his mind how many pounds of beef he would have to sell to make him a millionsire, the hind part of his wagon addenly went down towards China, on ac-

-Referring to our abstract of Court proceedings, we are informed that an impression prevals in some quarters that Mrs. Sarah W. Smith obtained a judgment against Daniel Hall, Esq., of Unionville, by reason of some debt or default of his own. This is a mistake. The facts are that Mrs. Smith held a mortgage against her deceased husband, Wm, D. Smith. which her counsel thought had best be reduced to judgment. Mrs. Smith and Mr Hall were administrators of Mr. Smith's estate, and as Mrs. Smith was plaintiff, the action was brought against Mr. Hall, the other administrator, alone, solely in his capacity as representative of Wm. D. Smith's estate. The sum and substance of the matter is that the Court and jury find that Mrs. Smith is entitled to receive from her husband's estate $1,596, for money of her separate estate loaned him in his lifetime, and Mr. Hall's name appears only as a matter of form, just as Mr. Malone's does in the suit of Mrs. Riddle against the estate of Matthew Riddle, deceased.

However, all these facts cannot bespread upon the brief minute usually made of cases, but we mention these facts at length that no injustice be done either of the estimable gentlemen above named.

OBITUARY .- We regret to record the death of Mrs. Jackson H. Booth, of State College, who expired on Monday night, Feb. 11th, 1884, after a long and serious illness of almost five months. The deceased was in her 65th year. She leaves a husband and five children to mourn her loss all of whom are married and reside in this county, except one daughter, who resides in the State of New York. The deceased was an estimable old lady in every respect, and will be greatly missed by her many friends. She was always willing to lend a helping hand to those in distress. Mrs. B. was a member of the Baptist church for more than forty years. She left evidence that she was going to a better land, where for her a new life has opened. I'er funeral was largely attended, and he remains were laid to rest in the M. E. cemetery at Pine Hall on the following Thursday. М. CHURCH DEDICATION .- The new M. E.

church at Fillmore, six miles west of Bellefonte, on Buffalo Run, will be open for divine worship on Sabbath, February 24th, 1884. Rev. E. J. Gray, D. D., President of Williamsport Dickinson Seminary, Rev. Geo. D. Penepacker, of Bellefonte Rev. J. S. Bever, of Sinnemahoning, Pa. and others are expected. Everybody is most cordially invited to come and enjoy a good day. Preaching on Saturday evening at 7 o'clock. W. R. WHITNEY, Tastor.

SHOOTING FOR HEALTH .--- There is no recreation that will benefit invalids so much as shooting at target. There is something about it that strengthens the nerves and builds a man up, and with the low price of rifles, shot guns, pistols &c., it is the cheapest medicine. Send for our illustrated catalogue; it is free. Address, Great Western Gun Works, Pittsburg. Pa.

PENN HALL ITEMS.-Scarce-items. Mr. Charles Smith, from Pine Grove, is doing the trimming at the the Penn Hall earriage shops.

J. W. Bartges made a business trip to Clearfield and adjoining towns last week. Spring Mills has two barber shops.

David Miller and wife, from Sugar Valey, visited friends at this place last week. Mr. John Haines, an aged man, died at the residence of F. P. Hosterman last Monday, Feb. 11th. His remains were taken to Freebung, Snyder county, Feb. 14th, for burial. Age of the deceased, 81 rears. Mr. Haines was the father of Mrs. Hosterman, and had his home with them for a number of years. Mr. Haines was highly respected by all who knew him.

Fashionable weddings are all the go at present. Cards are out for another one. Remember, this is Leap Year. But all right; the "Mountain Boy" will be there.

Jack Plain, let us have a shake of your

ZION HAPPENINGS .- The railroad sur veyors again passed through this part of the valley on Friday last.

Mr. J. V. Twitmeyer and mother-in-law, Mrs. McCalmont, of Dakota, Ill., who spent several months here with friends and relatives, have again returned to Illinois The snow is about all gone and everything seems dull without the merry ringng of the bells. The singing class conducted by Prof. J

W. Keller, of Centre Hall, is one of the largest classes raised here for some years. It numbers nearly seventy scholars.

It seems sales are all the go this spring We notice in the post-office no less than twenty sales bills.

Mr. Joel Pontius, of Kan., who has been here for nearly a year, returned to his western home on the 19th, inst., accompanied by J. S. Royer.

Joel R. will be very much missed by all the young folks, but more so by the cornet band, who will lose a faithful member.

Miss Mollie Gates is getting along nicely with her school. She spent Saturday and Sunday at her home in Snydertown.

Mr. James Miller, another member of the cornet band is, we believe, going to acompany Mr. N. J. Stover to Kensas.

Last Wednesday night a little stranger came to the home of our intelligent sadler, Mr. Dunkle. Its a boy ; a real, living boy Mr. Harvey Shaffer has moved on the farm of the late Henry Dunkle, deceased. Miss Katie, the handsome and highly espected daughter of Lewis Zimmerman, Sr., spent several days at the residence of Miss Gertie, the accomplished daughter of our live merchant, David Solt. Mrs. Lucy Twitmver is at present visit ng her daughter, Mrs. Shaffer, at Boalsburg .- Mrs. Mary Garbrick is visiting at State College. Foster Sharer will soon move in a home all alone with his better half.

Dr. P. S. Fisher seems to be very much pleased. It seems his practice calls his at. tention night an d. "PHLOXIE."

MADISONBURG CHIPS .- The Democrats of Brush Valley are going to trot out D. F. Fortney as their candidate for President Judge at the next election ; and they will not be happy unless he is nominated.

The young men of our town are about rganizing a branch of the Y. M. C. A.

U. S. Shafer has been laid up with the rheumatism. He had better get well pretty soon, for the Miles township Democrat" are talking of running him for County Treasurer.

The rains and thaws of last week took off the ice from Klinefelter's mill dam without material damage to the town. It had been feared that a sudden break-up would make a general sweep of our town, but fortunately this loss has been averted thus far.

The cold snap moderated on Tuesday afernoon, much to the delight of everybody. By the way, Landlord Moyer tells a od story about General Clouse, the time he was wounded in the leg. I'ts very funny, and will amuse the ladies. They want to ask him about it. That pleasant fellow and excellent salesman, Major Pifer, of Philadelphia, whom everybody in this section knows and likes arrived in Madisonburg on Tuesday evening from Bellefonte. The Major does a good business and is always warmly welomed by many friends. By present appearances our town will e considerably larger by next fall, some ten or twelve houses going ud during the summer. Come along ; no better place in the State for employment. Mechanics of all kinds are greatly needed in our valley Some of our leading men will almost give you a building lot for nothing, so you put a small house on it. All poor peopla should avail themselves of this golden opportunity.

Madam Rumor says Geo. H. will get himself a helpmate ere long. Well, Geo., that is right ; and weadvise all good young men to follow suit.

Rumor says that an effort was made some

-It has been decided, but not officially announced as yet, that the next annual encampment of the National Guard of Pennsylvania will be held at Gettysbug, during the first week of August. Adjutant General Guthrie and General Hartranft have been in consultation with other prominent officers of the the Guard, and selected Get. tysburg, not alone for its historical con..ections, but also because the location possesses particular advantages for an encamp. ment. Last year the three brigades each held separate encampments, and the year before the whole division encamped at Lewistown; The general opinion is that a division encampment is productive of better results, than where each brigade encamps by itself.
