—May 1st. —Don't shed your flannel yet. —Frog concerts are now in order. —Advertise your business. It will pay. —See that your collars are kept dry and pure. —Waynesboro's bonded debt is only $5,000. —The largest thing on a new bonnet—the price. —Don't sign a paper presented by a stranger. —Chas. J. Armes, at the Court House to-night. —Attend the lecture in the Court House to-night. —A few serious cases of spring fever have been reported. —Buy from home merchants and thus avoid being swindled. —Allegheny street was literally blocked with wagons on Saturday. —Oh! all right. Then you'll call next week and settle for sure, will you? —Up to the time of going to press nothing new has occurred in railroad circles. —While at court don't forget to settle that little account with the DEMOCRAT. —Those who prophesied rain on Tuesday night for the next day were slightly off. —Our Senior spent the Sabbath in Philipsburg, returning on Monday evening. —Alice Oates at the Opera House Thursday evening May 8th. Don't forget to secure seats early. —Messrs. J. C. Miller & Co. are selling their entire stock at auction. Parties desiring bargains should attend. —The laying of the rails of the Lewistown & Tyrone railroad toward Centre Hall is still in progress. —Alice Oates will appear at the Opera House on Thursday evening May 8th. This entertainment is first-class and will please every one. —The Beech Creek, Clearfield and Southwestern railroad will commence moving coal eastward from Mill Hall between the first and fifteenth of May. —Mr. Abe Baum, our popular liveryman, sold a very fine horse to Mr. J. A. McOmber, of Philipsburg, last Tuesday, receiving therefor a very snug and round price. —The sweet scented smell of burning hoopskirts, brush, tomato cans, old boots, imprudent cats, etc., that found its way upon the old dirt pile in the back yard, now fills the air. —Searching for the trailing arbutus is now the excuse which the lads and lassies offer for rambling off together on the mountain sides to enjoy the influence of pleasant company amid delightful scenery. —Bear in mind, that S. A. Stover has a larger stock and better facilities for putting up a tomb stone or monument than any other dealer in Centre county. Don't fail to call and examine prices before purchasing elsewhere. —The grand spring opening of Bellefonte's curb market took place on last Saturday, and there was an extraordinary large amount of room—to be taken up. In fact, had it not been for the one or two wagons in attendance, all the room around the Court House would have been taken up—in your mind. —Mr. D. Garman started for Montreal and other parts of Canada, on Monday last, for the purpose of purchasing a car load of horses. We promised to not say anything about it and wouldn't have you tell it, no not for anything, for if—but there, some one hurled a brick at our head and we dare not finish that sentence. —A Sunday game of base ball was indulged in by a number of our boys (some of them nearly young men) on Reservoir Hill last Sunday. They played until the ball was "busted" and then spent the balance of the afternoon in playing eucher. Would it not be a good idea for some one to send missionaries to this place next Sunday and induce these young men to spend their time in a more honorable and profitable manner? —We are informed by Mr. Samuel T. Frain of Millheim that the citizens of that place contemplate holding commemorative services on May 30th and also a grand 4th of July Celebration, the largest that has ever been held in that vicinity. All the bands and militiamen east of the mountain, has been invited, and will attend. In the evening there will also be a grand display of fireworks. Some of them being very costly. No doubt that place will howl at that time.

—The very plain spring suits worn by our ladies this spring, are neat and pretty. —The Hope Hose company of Lock Haven will apply for a charter at the next term of court. —Postmasters are required by the Department to make post mark on letters, legible hereafter. —H. K. Hicks will have from time to time vehicles of almost any description for sale, of John S. Fisher's make, at Rebersburg, Pa. —It was the golden egg that bought the Easter bonnet this year.—E. And the gold like ball the son-of-it that gave him the pain, we fear. —The Free Press gives the astonishing fact that a house—yes, sir; real dwelling house, has been built in that town within the past year. —The Bee Hive Stores have just been neatly painted and papered and look very neat and pretty. The work was done by Lonberger & Irvin, who are regular professionals in this line. —The Daily News asks, "Who'll give the first strawberry festival?" Well, since strawberries are only selling at fifty dollars a box we suppose it will fall upon the Bellefonte editorial staff. —The funeral of Mr. Peter Wan, who died yesterday, will take place tomorrow (Friday) from his late residence on Beaver's farm, at 10 o'clock A. M. Interment at Pleasant Gap. Deceased was fifty years old, and leaves a wife and ten children. —In our last week's article on the B. C. & B. R. railroad, the compositor made us say "the bond has been fully identified," instead of "the bond has been fully undemanded," and escaped our notice in reading the proof. —Mickey Smith, one of the condemned murderers in our county jail, had a severe attack of cramps on Saturday evening, and for a time it was thought he would not survive.—Cambria Freeman. The next attack will probably be a little higher up and one that he will not survive. —The officers of the Beech Creek, Clearfield and Southwestern railroad will make the first run over their road on Tuesday. They will start at Jersey Shore. The road is completed for a distance of forty miles—extending to within eight miles of Snow Shoe.—Jersey Shore Herald. —A surprise party of 36 couple visited the residence of Mrs. Mary Powers on East Allegheny street, on Tuesday evening, taking them completely by surprise. Dancing, and games, were indulged in after which refreshments were served. It was indeed a very enjoyable affair and all present, were very much pleased. —The Logan boys gave another of their select Hops at the Hose House on Friday evening of last week. About fifty couple were present and participated. The music was furnished by Prof. Snyder's orchestra, and was good. Of course the good looking Superintendent of the Water Works did the directing, assisted by Mr. — Oh, well, you all know him. It's the fellow with the pretty blonde mustache, Mr. Jubilicious, we believe. —In a few days Mr. H. K. Hicks will offer for sale six fine Dexter-Queen, Timpkin & Champion top buggies, all built in the best workmanlike manner and guaranteed to be first-class goods—not the kind of buggies that are usually peddled around this county. They will be offered for one day only, and are made by John S. Fisher, of Rebersburg, Pa. Now is the time to take advantage of an opportunity which is seldom offered in this county. —A case of real absent-mindedness occurred to Mr. Charles Valentine on Tuesday evening. After finishing his duties at the store he started right for home, as all dutiful sons are wont to do. He walked in the direction of Curtin street until he reached the school house, when a happy thought suddenly struck him, and the way he "lit out" for the forge was a caution indeed. He don't live where he does now, He moved. —Mr. Walter Agar of Lock Haven, spent part of this week in Bellefonte and had a regular picnic with the boys on checkers, getting away with all of 'em, excepting the "local" of this paper, who didn't feel like playing at all. We believe "Squire Smith did the best playing against Mr. Agar, actually getting one draw. In consideration of the feelings of the others we forbear giving the result of their games. —Mr. Isaac Frain, of Walker, and President of the P. of H. Insurance Co., called upon us last Saturday and informed us the rumor that the insurance policy on the building of Dr. Chas. Smith of Porter township, had expired just a few days previous to the fire, was incorrect. The policy was burned with the building, but a duplicate was sent for and found to be in force until July 23d. The claim was adjusted, and an order for $1,775 granted him on the Treasurer for the above amount. —We are sorry to announce the burning of the large steam saw mill of Hoover, Hughes & Co., located about three miles west of Snow Shoe, which occurred on Monday afternoon. The mill, together with 1,500,000 feet of lumber, about eight dwelling houses, the boarding house and store building were entirely consumed by the devouring element. The fire originated through some burning slabs, it is thought. About sixty employes are thrown out of employment. The insurance is $17,000, in companies represented by Messrs. J. A. Rankin & Son, and Bond Valentine of this place, but does not cover the loss.

Personal. —Mr. D. H. Fye, of Pine Grove Mills, was in town Saturday. —Mr. Cook Condo and J. R. Burd, of Rebersburg, were among the visitors to the DEMOCRAT this week. —Mr. Geo. Walker, one of Rebersburg's best residents, came to Bellefonte on business on Friday, returning next day. —Mr. J. C. Dorr, is "crying," the sale at J. C. Miller & Co's, and goes about it like an old veteran at the business. —Mr. Abram Fike, who now resides at Pleasant Valley, Blair county, Pa., spent several days at his old home at Roland last week. —Mr. C. Long, the well known Miller at Howard, met with the misfortune of breaking one of his limbs on Sunday morning. —Miss Sarah Bradley one of the ladies at the Telephone Exchange, returned from an extended visit to Philadelphia, and other places on Tuesday. —Mr. George Hoffer, of Boalsburg called upon the DEMOCRAT last Wednesday and informed us it was his intention to enter into the race for the nomination for Sheriff. —Mr. A. L. Ballinger, of Philadelphia, Pa., has succeeded Mr. Kline as clerk at Zeller's drug store. Mr. Ballinger is a graduate, and has had four years experience in the drug business. —Mr. J. K. Barnhart, who succeeded ex-Sheriff Woodring as clerk for Prothonotary Cal. Harper, is very much pleased with his new employment, and fills that position very acceptably. —Mr. Robert Cook, of Howard, favored the sanctum of the DEMOCRAT with a pleasant short call on Monday. "Bob" is a staunch Republican, and one of that little burg's most successful and enterprising citizens. —Mr. J. A. McOmber, mine host of the Potter House at Philipsburg, delighted his many friends with his presence in Bellefonte Tuesday. Mac reports business first class at the Potter, and we do not see how it could be otherwise with so good natured and genial landlord as is Charlie. —Mr. Harry C. Williams, the beautiful and rosy-cheeked red-robed [The Compositor: Please don't set it red-robed] night blooming, serio-comical, junior and funny editor of that sprightly sheet known as the Philipsburg Ledger, was transplanted for a few days this week to the beautiful Isle where dwells the lovely and accomplished Bellefonte Blue Bell. The climate where dwells the Blue Bell was not healthy for our friend, and unfolding his beautiful wings he flew to the home of the beautiful Centre street Hollyhock, and is now perching in the front street millinery shop. Before doing so, however, he bloomed awhile in the sanctum of the DEMOCRAT. Ya "local" was out, and regrets very much his absence. P. S.—We want to be out the next time, too. —The house of Jacob Brickley took fire on last Wednesday noon through a defective flue and burned to the ground, together with nearly all the furniture and household goods. Some very valuable papers were also burned. Over $75.00 in gold and silver went through the fire. The gold was again recovered and in good condition, the silver, however, was almost melted into a solid mass. Mr. Brickley's son David was badly burned in attempting to secure the papers and money. Through the almost super-human efforts of the neighbors the barn was saved, even in the face of a heavy gale that blew in the direction of the barn. Mr. Brickley loses all in this fire, having had no insurance whatever upon the property. —Miss Jane Coombs played to a fair and appreciative audience at the Opera House on Monday evening. The acting of Miss Coombs and Mr. Mitchell was very fine indeed. That of her support, however, was very ordinary, yet the leading parts were carried through so well by Miss Coombs and Mr. Mitchell that the inferior acting of the others was overlooked, and the audience departed very much pleased. One of the deplorable features in an entertainment of this kind is the total absence of an orchestra. Had their been good music in attendance it would have relieved the monotony and added greatly to the play. —"Squire Reifnyder, Millheim's heavy weight Justice of the Peace, stepped into our sanctum for a few moments on Monday. During his brief stay we asked if the rumor to the effect that he would be a candidate for a certain office this fall was correct. He replied promptly that it was not, and that he had no desire whatever to be one; and would not exchange his business for any office the county could offer. He slid down out of our presence by way of our fire escape before we had time to make any further interrogatories. —We are in receipt of a communication from the Manager of the Harrisburg Eye and Ear Hospital and Infirmary, of Harrisburg, Pa., requesting this paper to call the attention of the public to the fact that a Free Dispensary has been attached to that institution for the Gratuitous Treatment of the poor, who are unable to bear the heavy expense necessarily incurred in undergoing treatment for the various affections of the eye and ear, and those afflicted in this manner will do well to bear this announcement in mind. —We endeavor to get the very best brands of goods in the market. HARPER & WEALEY, No 11 Humes Block.

McClellan-Haupt. —Mr. Charles McClellan, of Allegheny street, and Miss Mina Haupt, daughter of Mr. Isaac Haupt, all of this place, were married last Thursday evening at 7 o'clock at Huhlersburg, by Rev. Schriest, of the Lutheran church. The happy young folks went to that place to have the ceremony performed in fulfillment of a promise made by the groom to a near lady friend of his father's family—Mrs. Celia Berkstresser, daughter of the late Charles Callahan—that when he married it would be in the town in which she resides. An incident attended the wedding which was a surprise to the bride and groom. Before starting they neglected to acquaint their Bellefonte relatives with all the particulars attending the proposed event, but an elder brother of the groom was on the alert. So as soon as they had started he, in company with a lady member of the family, followed after them at a safe distance to escape recognition. Well, they reached the residence in which the wedding was to occur before that event was solemnized, and of course the contracting parties were greatly surprised at the presence of unexpected guests. The ceremony was performed in a very happy manner, after which all parties partook of a sumptuous wedding supper at the residence of Mrs. Berkstresser. The bride and groom anticipated an escape from the usual calthumpian serenade, but in this were disappointed, as the young folks in Huhlersburg understand how to tender these serenades with as much noise and discord as possible, and did not slight the wedding party on this occasion. They returned to Bellefonte on Friday afternoon. The groom is a worthy young gentleman and an excellent tailor, working regularly at his trade. The bride is very pretty, accomplished and agreeable.—Daily News. —The DEMOCRAT joins in extending congratulations to the happy couple, and hope their lives may be one of peace, prosperity and happiness. —Fancy bordered handkerchiefs—Garman's. BREACH LOADING SHOT GUNS.—English and American, of all kinds, at less than manufacturers' prices. Special inducements for next 60 days. Send for our free catalogue, Great Western Gun Works, 169 Smithfield street, Pittsburgh, Pa. —Handsome lace for curtains at 20cents per yard, at Garman's. —A suspicion is abroad that the young man—be must be young—who so ably presides over the local columns of the Bellefonte News, has been smitten. Well, he is not the first man who has found Lock Haven female loveliness irresistible.—Evening Express. —We are informed by good authority that the "young man" above referred to positively received a proposal from "abroad," and infer it was from one of that city's fair daughters. —Yard wide black cashmere, strictly all wool, at 50 cents—Garman's. List of unclaimed letters remaining in the post-office at Bellefonte, Centre county, Pa., April 28, 1884. Nannie Armstrong, J. C. Anman, Z. W. Bathurst, Jennie Canfield, Augustus Churtz, Burg, W. W. Christie, Miss Lavina E. Campbell, Charles Ewing, T. N. Farnsworth & Co., Mrs. Richard Gummelin, Rev. H. H. W. Hibman, Jacob Haupt, Wm. Hallabaugh, Josiah Harnock, Miss Annie Jenks, J. Williams, II B. Wilson, J. Frank Wilson. Persons inquiring for letters in the above list will please say they are advertised. Jno. T. JOHNSTON, P. M. —It will be to the advantage of all to call and examine our new stock of groceries and provisions. HARPER & WEALEY, No 11 Humes Block. —Orange Judd, editor of the American Agriculturist for some thirty years, but unconnected with its business management for a year or two past, has lately retired from its editorial department and located in the West. He desires to gather a complete "Postal-Card Album" of his old readers and friends, and requests them all to send him now a postal giving their present location and address, naming also, when convenient, the years in which they were his subscribers. Mr. Judd's address is Chicago, Illinois. —LEMONY NEWS.—Mr. Jacobs of Shingletown, is teaching the select school at this place and has over 30 scholars. A new Sunday School has been started in the Evangelical Church. —Mr. Peter Shultz has returned from his western trip, and is not pleased as well with the west as with Pennsylvania. —Mr. Schreck is the father of a bounding boy baby. Score an other democratic vote 21 years hence. —"TIMBUCK." —John Beizer still leads in furnishing choice fresh meats. Every thing nice and neat, and the cheapest shop in town. —Will Bellefonte celebrate the 4th?

Let Us Have a Base Ball Club. —Base ball clubs are being organized in all of our neighboring counties. Is Centre to be left out in the cold? So far, no positive action has been taken towards this end. Although a meeting for this purpose was called a few weeks since without accomplishing anything, on account of the small attendance and the little interest manifested. What we need is for the citizens as well as the players to interest themselves in this movement. Last year we had a club, but it organized so late and had so little practice, that it would have made a very poor showing against any club as an ordinary one. The Eureka's suits, bats, mask and gloves are still in good order, and it would cost very little to equip a nine at the beginning. As to the material Bellefonte is abundantly supplied, with the exception, perhaps, of a pitcher, as the following names will show, and who we believe have signified their willingness to play: For the battery, take for instance, Harry Johnston, L. DeWitt, Garrett, Jas. O'Connor, Linn Longwell, and Ellis L. Orvis, who are also good general players. For bases, DeWitt or Brouse 1st, Lingle or Skein 2nd and Johnston 3rd. As to catcher, Garrett probably can stand more pounding than any other man we have. O'Connor filled the position of short stop or centre field very acceptably last season. James Hammil will be here about the middle of May, and Hughes in June, who will probably play. There are other players in Bellefonte who are not known, and could perhaps be induced to play if a club was organized. We were informed, although not positively, that the meadow belonging to the Thomas estate, near the Steel Works could be obtained, provided a high fence was built around it. If these grounds could be procured, nothing better could be desired. Of course, to do all this money will be required, and no doubt can be obtained in due course of time. But no great amount can be raised until a club is organized and an explanation given as to what use it is expected to be put to. A good idea perhaps would be to call a meeting on Friday night of the players, or those who are willing to play, and call another or general meeting of both players and citizens for Saturday or Monday evening. Since writing the above, we learn "Squire Rankin has kindly offered the use of his office for the purpose of holding a meeting, which will be either Friday or Saturday evening, due notice of which will be given. —Court Proceedings. —Court called on Monday morning last at 10 o'clock, with His Honor Judge Hoy presiding, and Associates Smith and Munson on the bench. The forenoon session was taken up with the presentation of petitions, making of motions and issuing decrees and orders, etc. In the afternoon session proclamation was made that all persons summoned as Grand Jurors should answer to their names when called and come forward and take their seats in the box. Mr. John Bing of Unionville borough, ex-County Commissioner, was then made Foreman, after which the Grand Jurors were sworn and entered upon their duties. The Constables of the various boroughs and townships of the county made returns, and as a general thing reported the laws of the State well observed, and the peace and dignity of the Commonwealth well maintained. Forty-three Traverse Jurors answered to their names when called, out of forty-eight summoned. —The Grand Jurors returned the following list of indictments: Commonwealth vs. Wm. Pennington (colored) larceny. True bill. Prosecutor, V. J. Bauer. Defendant plead guilty. Sentenced to pay a fine of $1.00 and cost of prosecution and 45 days imprisonment in county jail. —Same vs. George Stewart, assault and battery. True bill. Prosecutor, Henry Fernberger. —Same vs. Thomas A. Miller, assault and battery. True bill. Prosecutor, J. C. P. Jones. Defendant plead guilty, and was sentenced to pay a fine of $1.00 and costs of prosecution. —Same vs. John Gilbert, larceny and receiving stolen goods. True bill. Prosecutor, Solomon Barlett. Defendant plead guilty. Sentenced to pay $1.00 fine, cost of prosecution, and imprisonment in county jail for six months. LICENSES. —The following licenses have been disposed of: Bellefonte, F. X. By virtue of a writ of Levari Facias issued out of the Court of Common Pleas of Centre county, and in me directed, will be exposed to public sale at the Court House, in the Borough of Bellefonte, on SATURDAY, APRIL 26, A. D. 1884, the following property, to-wit: All those two certain lots of ground situated in the Borough of Bellefonte, in the county of Centre and State of Pennsylvania, on the north side of Linn street, bounded and described as follows: On the south by Linn street, on the east by Allegheny street, on the north by an alley, and on the west by lot of Miss Marion Millikin, being lots numbered in the ground plan of said borough as lots 223 and 224, with the buildings thereon erected. Sealed, taken in execution, and to be sold at the property of James Asholt. T. J. DUNKLE, Sheriff. SHERIFF'S OFFICE, APRIL 18, 1884. TO THE SCHOOL DIRECTORS OF CENTRE COUNTY.—Gentlemen: In pursuance of the forty-third section of the Act of May 8th, 1884, you are hereby notified to meet in Convention, at the Court House, in Bellefonte, on the 2nd Tuesday in May, A. D. 1884, being the 6th day of the month, at 1 o'clock in the afternoon, and select, either by a majority of the whole number of Directors present, one person of literary and scientific attainments, and of skill and experience in the art of teaching, as County Superintendent for the three succeeding years; and certify the result to the State Superintendent at Harrisburg, as required by the thirty-third and fourth sections of said act. D. M. WOLF, April 14, '84-15-21. Co. Sup't of Centre Co.
