How to Secure a Good Sod.

It is a matter of surprise to notice the waste of time and money by many people in their efforts to acquire a sod for a lawn, or filling up defective parts of it, or even for a yard.

The expense of sodding these bare places, in buying, cutting, hauling and putting down and watering, after the old style, would not have been less than fifteen dollars, while the cost of seeding and rolling, as nothing else was done to it, was about one dollar and twenty-five cents all told.

Of Interest to Soldiers.

The following has been sent us for publication: To the Ex-Union Prisoners of War of the State of Pennsylvania.

Those laborers be confidently hopes will be willingly shared by all the ex-union prisoners of war now residing within the boundaries of our State.

In order that the efficiency and influence of our organization may be developed and properly exercised by the ex-union prisoners throughout the State.

First.—That all persons presenting evidence of having been prisoners of war, upon application giving rank, regiment and company, the time of their capture, place of confinement, date and place of their release, and who submit themselves to be governed by the rules of the Association, shall be eligible to become members.

Second.—The object of the Association is to strengthen the ties of fraternal fellowship and sympathy formed by companionship in arms during the war for the Union, among the survivors of rebel military prisons; to perpetuate the name and fame of those who have fallen in the prison pens of the South and in the line of duty; to bind together in the closest ties the survivors of those prisons, by joint action of its members, in any direction which will secure justice to the living and honor to the dead.

One reason of the highest interest and importance for prompt action on the part of all ex-union prisoners of Pennsylvania in uniting themselves with the Association, will not, it is hoped, fail to arrest their attention, and particularly at this time.

Majority, ten out of fifteen, of the House of the Committee of Congress, have decided to report favorably the bill introduced by General Robison, of Ohio, granting pensions to all ex-union prisoners of war; which bill was unanimously adopted by the National Association of Ex-Prisoners of War, at its annual meeting, September 19 and 20, 1883, and known as "H. R. Bill, No. 1189."

This righteous measure which contemplates a long-neglected and grateful recognition of the unparalleled sufferings and patriotic sacrifices of the men who so heroically endured the nameless and numberless tortures of Southern military prisons, it is confidently believed enlists the sympathy and approval of the loyal people, and will, it is hoped, receive the cordial support of Representative and Senators in Congress without party division.

It is therefore of supreme importance that the survivors of Rebel prisons throughout the State should at once unite with our Association, in order that the hands of those advocates of the bill in both branches of Congress may be upheld and encouraged, by showing that the ex-prisoners are themselves united and gratefully appreciate and applaud their patriotic efforts.

By the terms of our Constitution and By-Laws, any ten comrades, who are ex-union prisoners and properly recommended, are entitled to have issued to them, from these Headquarters, a charter for the organization of local associations within the State, and immediate steps with this very necessary object in view are most earnestly recommended.

Aside from the consideration above enumerated, the social advantage and pleasure that must be afforded re-unions between the men who shared alike the dangers of the field and the privation of Southern prisons in the stirring days of the historic and memorable past constitute abundant reasons for the institution of a society under whose auspices immeasurable good can be accomplished and happy meetings inaugurated.

In due acknowledgement of the efficient and devoted services of Comrade Alex. F. Nicholas, who has performed the laborious duties of Secretary since the formation of the Association, that comrade has been re-appointed to fill the same office for the current term.

The following named comrades have been chosen to represent our State Association at the meeting of the National Association, to be held at Detroit, on the 13th and 14th of August next.
