Fashion notes—greenbacks. 'Twasn't the wind, 'twas Billy Jones. The Phillipsburg Ledger has been enlarged. Feather fans take precedence over all other kind. For the finest pictures go to Pinkbinder's Gallery. Some elegant photos are displayed at Pinkbinder's Gallery. Pinkbinder's Gallery, 17 Allegheny street, over Lyon & Co.'s store. Our business houses with only a few exceptions close promptly at 8 o'clock. The legal draught is upon us. At least that is what Charlie Hewes says. Secure your seats for the Arion Glee Club to-night. Reserved seats at Sourbeck's. The judicial pot is boiling and "there's music in the air," especially in the Republican ranks. Why are colored waiters preferred? Because whatever is said at the table they always "keep dark." Seafoss & Mayer are building an A. No. 1 new oven, and when completed will be quite a convenience. The very best talent in the country compose the Glee Club. Don't miss hearing them to-night. Permanent buildings are being erected and for the next ten years the State fair will be held at Philadelphia. The jury list was drawn on Monday, but for want of space it will not appear in the DEMOCRAT until next week. Pinkbinder's photos are of a highly artistic character, easy and graceful in pose, pleasing in expression and exquisite in finish. The DEMOCRAT was favored with a call from Messrs. Nathaniel Bierly, A. B. Kiesel and Dr. Grove, of Milesburg, Saturday last. The activity evinced by some of the numerous candidates for political honors proves there is considerable racket among the "unterrified." The Centre Hall base ball club through a misunderstanding of some kind, did not play their match game with the Spring Mills club on Saturday last. It is rumored that the employes at the depot furnish Bailey with all the funny local news which appear in the News. There is no question about the boys being cute. It is announced that we are to have a new depot, as soon as the citizens of this place contribute enough money to purchase, all Cheapside, and present to the company as an endowment. Two professional gentlemen of this place had quite an adventure a few days since in the ridges back of Milesburg. We refer you to our County Treasurer for full particulars. The Rev. Mr. Freeman of Huntington occupied the pulpit of the Presbyterian church last Sunday and preached to a large and attentive audience. He is certainly a fluent, earnest and efficient speaker. Our townsman, Mr. H. Yeager, has received the contract to build the handsome stone mansion for Maj. W. F. Reynolds, corner Allegheny and Linn streets. He also secured the contract for the building of the Catholic church at this place. The Roland cornet band enlivened our town with a few beautiful melodies on Saturday evening. This band has only been organized for a comparatively short time and are progressing quite rapidly. We tender our thanks for the honor of a serenade. James Hammill returned from Ann Arbor, Mich., Saturday evening. We understand he marched right over to Green's drug store and began agitating the base ball question at once, and signified his willingness to join the nine. We hope the latter report is correct. The Resolutes of Renovo defeated the Lock Haven club on Saturday by a score of 3 to 1. A defeat of this kind is almost equivalent to a victory and the citizens of our sister city ought to be censured for giving the club a cool reception upon their arrival home. A meeting of the clerks of Bellefonte was held at the Court House on Tuesday evening to perfect arrangements for a grand jubilee and parade for Friday night, June 21st, in honor of the eight o'clock closing system. A subscription paper to collect the funds necessary to carry it on is now being circulated. Mrs. Cecelia Montgomery Bullock, whose death occurred on Monday afternoon, was a daughter of Mrs. John Montgomery of this place, and was born in Columbia county, Pa., in 1835. Her parents came to this place when she was only two years of age and she lived here ever since. In 1862 she was married to Mr. C. R. Bullock, of Delaware county, whose death occurred about fourteen years ago, leaving in her charge three children, two boys and one girl, all of whom are still living. She has been ailing for some time past, and in February her final sickness began which ended in death. The funeral took place yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock.

Do not forget to attend the Arion Glee Club at the Opera House to-night. The Bellefonte base ball club were again defeated by the College club on the grounds of the latter by a score of 15 to 14. We regret to announce the death of Frank, youngest son of ex-Sheriff Shaffer, which took place on Monday afternoon, June 16th, at half-past two o'clock. His age was 15 years, and his illness dated back to some time in February last. The interment took place Wednesday, A. M., in the Snydertown burying grounds. A grand promenade concert is to be held by the Y. M. C. A. on the 26th, 27th and 28th of this month. This is an entirely new and novel feature in this vicinity and will no doubt furnish an unlimited amount of pleasure to those who attend. The proceeds are to be used in furnishing the rooms of the Association with new Brussels carpet. The committee in charge are wide-awake and everything undertaken by them is bound to be a success. We inadvertently omitted in our last issue to mention the fact that our young and talented friend, Chas. P. Hewes, Esq., was admitted into partnership in the practice of law with his preceptor, J. L. Spangler, Esq. The firm name will be known as Spangler & Hewes. Mr. Hewes also received from the Governor the appointment of Notary Public. We wish the new firm success. Among the big events on the 4th of July is the grand celebration to be held at Millheim. Mr. S. T. Frain, the popular proprietor of the National Hotel, has been making extensive preparations for some time past to make that little village "howl" on that day. Several bands will be present and among the attractions are balloon ascensions, tub, wheelbarrow and sack races, glass ball shooting, and at night a grand display of fire works. When Mr. Frain puts his shoulders to the wheel something is going to happen, and this will be no exception. Whoop'er up, 'Liza Jane. Old Centre is just more than booming at present, and it looks as if it is to be kept up until after the "4th." Among the attractions this week are the Arion Glee Club at the Opera House to-night, and on Friday and Saturday evenings the Milesburg Cornet band expect to hold a grand fair and festival. For some time past Mr. D. I. Kunes and Mr. A. C. Moore have been in a friendly contest for a beautiful gold watch offered as a prize by the above named band. As both these gentlemen are popular and have a host of friends the proceeds will no doubt be quite large. The presentation will take place on Saturday evening. Col. D. H. Hastings and J. L. Spangler, Esq., will be present and deliver addresses, and a lively and pleasant time may be expected. Everybody is cordially invited to attend. A member of a prominent musical firm of this place was perhaps one of the most disappointed men of any since the nomination at Chicago. The establishment was tendered a serenade by the Roland cornet band on Saturday evening. Our friend took a prominent position in front of the store but he scarcely heard a bar of the music. In his mind he was rehearsing a speech, and expected to deliver it in a sublimely beautiful and minor key. The music ceased in an exquisitely fine diminuendo. The band seemed to realize what the sequel would be, perhaps some of the members of the band were interviewed by a sewing machine man or an organ dealer before, and while our would-be orator stood there apparently lost in thought, through a knowing wink from the leader the boys "folded their tents and silently stole away." A round of applause awoke him from his reverie, in which he joined heartily. We were informed afterwards by one of the members of the band that their hearts were more than Aiken's to hear that speech, but were afraid to risk the consequences. Have you noticed the broad grin displayed on the countenance of our friend J. Will Hile? The nomination of the "Plumed Knight" would lead many to suppose it was that, but it isn't. He don't straddle that kind of a pole, and that occurrence is quite insignificant in his mind when compared with the real cause. But we are nearing the brink and must come to the point. We are too awful bashful and hate to tell, but we have concluded to conquer our bashfulness this time or die in the attempt. He is the happy father of— P. S. We have concluded to die. We could never say a bouncing pair of twins—never. The mere thought makes us shudder, especially since the lot preceding this last installment were twins also. It would be advisable for Billy to start a small Union of his own on top of Eggtown hill. Editor Swavely hired three small boys to carry his strawberries home last evening.—News. Mistake. Each of them were largely over the "jokes" of the News. They were not boys but guards armed to the teeth. It was necessary to pass Mr. Bailey's house and knowing his propensities for strawberries we took this extra precaution to insure their safe delivery. WANTS.—A position by a girl fourteen years old as nurse-girl. Address "Nurse" care this office. A young lady with a fair education to learn type setting. Apply (by letter) to THE CENTRE DEMOCRAT.

Personal. Jno. P. Harris, Esq., returned from his trip to the great West Saturday. Ex-county Commissioner, Jacob Dunkle, Esq., of Walker township, was in town Saturday. Mr. Jno. Wensel, one of Curtin township's solid men, was in town Wednesday. Mr. J. W. Swab and A. G. Roop, of Linden Hall, gave us a pleasant short call on Saturday last. Come again, gents. Miss Laura, the handsome daughter of Col. Burrows of Williamsport, is the guest of Mrs. Fountain Crider on Linn street. Miss Emma Harris, a very charming young lady and daughter of our townsman, Jno. P. Harris, Esq., is at home spending her summer vacation. Mrs. E. Whitman returned to her home at Clintondale Wednesday. She was the guest of her niece, Mrs. E. J. Swavely, while visiting at this place. Miss Annie M., daughter of ex-Judge Orvis, returned Saturday from Clifton Springs, New York, at which place she has been attending school. Mr. Thomas Burnside returned to his home in Missouri Monday evening. Mrs. Brockerhoff accompanied him and will spend several weeks visiting among friends in that state. Miss Lillie Aikens, one of Bellefonte's most charming and agreeable young ladies returned from school at Birmingham and will spend the summer vacation at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Aikens, corner of Allegheny and Bishop streets. Judge Krebs and wife of Clearfield spent a few days at his old home with his mother near Pine Grove Mills, having been called there to attend the funeral of his brother Levi's wife, which sad and unexpected event took place last Saturday. The Judge looks well. OBITUARY.—At her home near Pine Grove Mills, Centre county, Pa., June 18, 1884, Mrs. Margaret Krebs, wife of Levi Krebs, of paralysis of the heart, in the 47th year of her age. It is our sad duty to chronicle the death of our much esteemed friend and neighbor, Mrs. Levi Krebs, which occurred on Friday, June 13th, at 11 o'clock, A. M., at her residence. The announcement of her sudden and unexpected death caused universal sorrow in the hearts of our people. The deceased was in her usual health but complaining of a pain in her head that morning, but nothing serious was thought of it. After attending to her morning work about the house she went to work in the garden. After a short time she returned to the house and said to one of the children that she had a pain in her head and laid down on the lounge. Mr. Krebs having been to a neighbors house on an errand, and when he returned and noticed her on the lounge, as he thought, taking a rest, as she seemed to be sleeping, but in trying to rouse her up soon found she was insensible and not able to speak. Dr. Woods was immediately called in and all that medical skill and kind hands could do was done to bring about her recovery. But the fond anticipations of the family were blighted when the Dr. announced that her end had come, and in a few more seconds her spirit fled to him who gave it—to that home beyond the skies. And thus has passed away a loving mother, a true and faithful wife, a kind sister and good neighbor. The mother's death is the first break in the home circle, and the motto, "What is home without a mother," its meaning now will be fully realized. Her maiden name was Goss, eldest daughter of Henry Goss, deceased, of Baileyville, this county, where she was born and raised, and thereafter married Mr. Krebs Dec. 3, 1857. The result of this union was nine children, the oldest having died in its infancy. Six sons and two daughters survive her. She had but one sister, Mrs. Guthrie, of Kansas, and three brothers, two living in Armstrong county, this State, and Cyrus Goss, near Pine Grove. The deceased consecrated herself to the service of her Master whilst quite young, and when health permitted was a regular attendant at the house of worship, and it is sad to think that her chair at home and her pew in the sanctuary are forever vacated by one just in the prime of life. The funeral took place from her residence on Saturday afternoon at 4 o'clock, services being conducted by her pastor, Rev. J. A. Koser, of the Lutheran congregation. The remains were interred in the Pine Grove cemetery, and further services were conducted in the church, which was filled with a large circle of deeply moved friends and neighbors, services being very solemn and impressive. Words of the text are found in James 4-14. The bereaved family have the heartfelt sympathy in this sad hour of bereavement. Trusting to Him who knows what is best and does what is best; making all things together for good to those who love Him and do His commands. W. NO TICK NO PAY.—Watches and clocks rightly repaired at Frank Galbraith's jewelry store, Bush House Block, Bellefonte, Pa. A full line of jewelry, watches, clocks and silverware always on hand. Everything warranted as represented. We were informed by our friend Mr. Sternberg that one of the dishes for his dinner on Sunday last was new potatoes out of his own garden and of his own raising. "Sternie" is always bound to keep just a little ahead of any one else, both in gardening, etc. We take it back. Perhaps Abe Baum is a little ahead in the "etc's."

ROLAND BAND TO WHOOP 'ER UP.—The Eagle Cornet Band of Roland contemplates holding a grand outdoor fair and festival in a shady nook at Curtin's Iron Works, Saturday June 28th, to continue during the day and evening. It is to be one of the grandest affairs ever known in that vicinity, and a large attendance and good time in general may be expected. The band has been improving rapidly under the leadership of Mr. J. T. Harrison of Pleasant Gap, and we'll stake our bottom dollar the "Eagle" takes the cake for Centre county before many months. THE FISH AND GAME LAWS OF THE STATE.—Within the past few days the Sportsmen's Association have issued a card containing the game laws of the state. The association is large and influential, and is determined to prosecute all violators of the laws, which, with their recent modifications, are published below. GAME.—No person shall kill or pursue any wild deer, save only between the first of October and fifteenth of December, of any years under a penalty of $50. No person shall at any time kill any fawn when in his spotted coat, or have the fresh skin in his possession, under a penalty of $50. Dogs pursuing deer or fawns may be killed by any person, and the owner of such dog shall be liable to a penalty of $10 for each deer killed by such dog except in Centre, Clinton, Fayette, Lycoming, Luzern, Schuylkill, Union and Wyoming counties. No person shall kill, or have in possession after being killed, any grey, black, or fox squirrel, between January first and September first, penalty of $5 for each squirrel, hare or rabbit. Farmers are allowed toshoot at any time on their own grounds squirrels or rabbits, when destructive to crops; between January first and October fifteen, penalty of $10 for each upland or grass plover; woodcock between January one and July four, penalty of $10 for each woodcock, quail, or partridge between January one and October fifteen; penalty of $10 for each quail; ruffed grouse or pheasant between January one and October one, penalty of $10 for each pheasant. No person shall, at any time, kill or take any wild turkey, grouse, pheasant, quail, partridge or woodcock, by means of any blind trap, snare, net or device whatever, under penalty of $10 for each bird. No person shall hunt or permit the hunting of hares or rabbits with ferrets, under penalty of $10 for each rabbit caught or killed by such means. It is illegal to kill, trap, or expose for sale, or have in possession after being killed, any night hawk, whippoorwill, thrush, lark, flicker, martin, swallow, woodpecker, finch, robin, oriole, red bird, cedar bird, cat bird, blue bird, tanager or any other insectivorous bird, under a penalty of $5 for each bird. No person shall rob or destroy the eggs or nests of any wild birds whatsoever (only predatory birds, such as are destructive of game or insectivorous birds), under a penalty of $20. No person shall catch, kill or disturb wild pigeons while on nesting grounds, under penalty of $20. FISH.—It is made illegal to catch speckled trout, save only by rod, hook line, or place any set line, or nets across any stream inhabited by them, under a penalty of $25. No person shall kill, sell, or have in possession after being killed, any salmon or speckled trout, save only from first of April to first of August, under penalty of $10 for each fish. No person shall catch or kill, save only with rod, hook and line, outline or scroll at any time, and no person shall catch or sell, or have in possession after being killed, any bass, pickarel, pike, or Susquehanna salmon, between first of January and first of June, under penalty of $10 for each fish. No person shall kill or catch by placing any torpedo, giant-powder, nitroglycerine or other explosive substance in any of the streams of this Commonwealth, under penalty of $50. No person shall catch or destroy fish by shutting off or drawing off any of the waters of the State, or by dragging small nets or seines therein, when the waters are wholly or partly shut off, under penalty of $50. No person shall place any set net, eel wire, kiddie, brush or facine net, in any of the waters of this State, under a penalty of $25 for each offense. It shall not be lawful, at any time, to catch fish by means of the drawing of a seine or seines in any of the waters in this State, under a penalty of $25. LASTS FOREVER.—Go to S. A. Stover's, High street marble yard for grave stones, monuments, etc. The cheapest and best place in central Pennsylvania. Pickering. White Fish, Lake Shad, Lake Trout, Lake Herring, At Lewis, Humes Block.

LINDEN HALL NOTES.—Jno. Carper, our supervisor, has been making our roads in a good condition. D. F. Wieland has remodeled his barn, which looks quite handsome. G. H. Meyer has been putting up quite a lot of new fence, which makes a fine appearance. The summer school which is taught by Miss Ella Hoffer is prospering. The fine dwelling house which will soon be occupied by the Hon. W. K. Alexander is almost finished. We have occasionally the pleasure of appreciating the smiles of candidates. Wonder if Ben Butler will be next. The band members all seem to have enjoyed themselves at Centre Hall on Decoration day, especially the worthy flagman, who much admired the pleasant countenance of some of the young ladies. Dr. Jeremiah Tressler, late candidate for Sheriff, is one of the most successful farmers in this neck o' woods. Our Republican friends are already preparing themselves for the salt river expedition. 'Twill be not wise to predict who the next President will be until after the Democratic convention meets, which will be as satisfactory as the November election. The population here is fast increasing by new emigrants. They are mostly Greeks, Italians and Americans. The junior partner of the blacksmithing department has not been well since Decoration day. A change of pasture is said to be good for young ducks, but sometimes it seems 'tis not. Supervisors should not fail to keep that big hill in good walking order, or that certain young man who travels that way late on Saturday night will have to do it himself. A weekly visitor who drives a large bay in a two wheeled conveyance is much noticed by that young man who admires— Ex-Presto, correspondent for the Centre Reporter, says, "Does X, the correspondent of the CENTRE DEMOCRAT also want a gate on that other fence as he calls?" Go ahead and put it up, only don't be so long about doing it. The news of Lynch the negro presiding over the Republican convention at Chicago has struck hard on the Republicans here, and will no doubt end in their "flopping" over to the Democrats. X ZION AND VICINITY.—The crops are very promising, especially the corn crops, which is equally as promising as the Democracy of this place. David Solt, a leading Democrat, is one of the enterprising merchants of Zion. Dave also deals out the mails of Uncle Sam to the good people of this place. We remark that Jno. Dubbs understands, as much about successful farming as he does in making good roads. Our worthy supervisor, D. Lesch, believes in the golden rule, "Do unto others," etc., be more moderate and work as I am moderate. Well done, Dan. Samuel Dorman, one of our merchants, is doing an immense business. We noticed Sam out a few days since delivering goods to his customers with a speck-spangled new hyrax and wagon. Albert Shafer having made many experiences in farming during last year, concludes that "shoveling the plane" improves him more financially than "shoveling the plane." Mr. J. J. Garbrick invented a corn planter that is considered a gem. It distributes the corn in two rows at one time. Your correspondent is of the opinion that if you ask Joe about it he will tell you "it will husk and grind the corn and turn out a pan of mush at each revolution." We observed an imposing figure advancing towards us a few evenings since at a field marsh on a lightning express, but turned out to be that go-ahead young Democrat and our candidate for Assembly, P. S. Fisher. Johnathan Royer says if he was supervisor he would remove all obstructions from the road. We advise our Republican friends to go for him at the next election. AWON. PENN HALL HULLS.—Miss Allison from Cedar Springs visited at J. P. Condo's on Saturday and Sunday. Jno. F. Heckman's barn was raised last Tuesday. Everything passed off lovely. It will soon be completed by the expert carpenter, Mr. Loose. J. B. Fisher, our enterprising merchant, has been absent from home a few days. He was a juror on railroad appraisals in Bald Eagle valley. A new method of serenading took place in our village at a late hour a few nights ago. Music was furnished for the occasion with stone sledges breaking stone on the turn pipe. Lovers say it is very enjoying. Chas. Rooper returned home from Muncy last Saturday evening. Had been there as a guest sharing his kindness at a matrimonial scene. Chas. looks as well, as could be expected after enjoying himself and getting away with good cakes, etc. Rumor has it that mail carriers have been seen in our town delivering mail. Not behind the times, are we? Our telephone exchange that "Jack Plain" spoke of some time ago is still O. K., and many items of interest are telephoned and exchanged back and forth. The Hyers sisters, the great singers, were at Spring Mills Saturday evening. Some of our folks were to hear them and speak very highly of the great talents they possess. Mr. Samuel Kryder and lady from Nittany valley are visiting at J. G. Evans. Mr. Kryder is a brother of Mrs. Evans and is quite an aged man. Jno. P. Condo was sporting his silk hat on Sunday. That is right, J. P. Bob is still in the "tooten'" business and takes his walks on Sunday. Bob, take me along, won't you? MOUNTAIN BOY. —On Thursday of last week Mr. Woodward read before the State Board of Agriculture at its meeting in Lock Haven, an essay on "Country Roads; what they are and why; and what they should be, and how." This meeting of the Board of Agriculture was presided over by the Governor and was attended by the most thorough, practical and intelligent agriculturists in the State. Men who fully appreciate and understand what they are doing. After the reading of the essay one hour was consumed in discussing its subject matter, and in comparing the various local road laws in force in the State. After this was done the Board passed a resolution thanking Mr. Woodward for the able and instructive deliverance he had given on a subject in which everybody is interested, and requesting the different members of the Board to have the essay published in their county papers was adopted. Mr. Woodward's paper attracted much attention and elicited wider discussion than any other paper submitted for the consideration of the State Board of Agriculture at its late meeting. Mr. Woodward not only farms in the most intelligent and thorough system to which that great industry has been brought in recent years, but thoroughly investigates every new theory and subject that is advanced on the question of agriculture, and determines for himself whether it is or is not useful. —Since the nomination of the "Plumed Knight," our friend Mr. Strickland has felt very uneasy and began to build a boat the next day after the nomination was announced. He has been trying to palm it off as a bath tub for Capt. Snyder and Mr. Bailey, but we know better. It's a blasted thing to take them up Salt river next fall. —Following are the names of contributors of "Floral Decorations" on May 30th, 1884: BUNCH OF FLOWERS. DIED.—At her home in Altoona, Pa., on May 29th 1884, Bella Campbell, wife of George E. Campbell. Dear as thou wert, and justly dear, We will not weep for thee, One thought shall check the starting tear, It is, that thou art free. And thus shall faith's consoling power, The tears of love restrain; O, who shall see the parting hour, Could wish thee here again. Triumphant in thy closing eye The hope of glory shone, Joy triumphed in thy expiring sigh, To think the race was run. The passing spirit gently fled, Sustained by good friends; O, may such grace be thine, And make up end like thine. JOSEPH CAMPBELL. (Bellefonte papers please copy.) —Next Saturday will be the longest day.
