-Best Goods—Garman's. -Pleasant rain yesterday. -New moon last Monday. -"Is that the same horse?" -Additional local on 5th page. -Finkbinder has come to stay in Bellefonte. -New styles in Linen Collars—Garman's. -Were you "all broken up," Wednesday A. M. ? -As is the usual custom no paper will be issued from this office next week. -The Bellefonte clerks are the jolliest set of "boys" that can be scared up anywhere. -No admission will be charged for the promenade concert of the Y. M. C. A. this and to-morrow evening. -Attend the promenade concert of the Y. M. C. A. Thursday and Friday evenings, June 26th and 27th. -The literary society and meeting for young men will not be held this week on account of the festival on those two nights. -No services were held in the Episcopal church last Sunday, in consequence of the illness of the pastor Rev. Jno. Hewitt. -"Judges" Love and Furst both subscribed liberally to the Roland band. Of course the Boggs delegation will be equally divided. -New's article in regard to the Bellefonte nine challenging the New York League club on Tuesday, seems just a little mite sarcastic. -The clerk at the Hepburn House, Williamsport, says District Attorney Heinle's correspondence is larger than that of all the guests put together. -The candidate shaketh the "bony handed son of toll" by the hand vigorously. He kisseth the dirty faced baby and "settleh 'em up" for the "boys." -The Logans are still working like tigers to make the celebration on the "4th" the most glorious affair of any thing ever known in these "diggins." -The College Club and the Bellefonte nine will cross bats on Friday afternoon. This is expected to be a closely contested game. Ladies are cordially invited to attend. -"Vidi," the Port Matilda correspondent, boils over with indignation at the show that visited that thriving little town. We suspect "Vidi" was short just one "comp." -The photographs of the Logan Hose Co. No. 1 of our town on exhibition in Louis Doll's window show as handsome a lot of men as can be found any place. Go see the pictures, girls. -A. J. Shivery's new house on north Allegheny street is nearing completion, and Mr. Emanuel Noll's progresses finely. When completed they will be valuable additions to that part of town. -The Acme's took a jaunt to the College to play the College club No. 2 on Saturday. Only two innings were played, as the rain descended in such torrents as to stop the game. At the close the Acme's were far in the lead. -Mr. Wm. Tison, of Philipsburg, shook hands with his numerous friends on Saturday. Billy holds the position of secretary of the Philipsburg base ball club and is quite anxious to arrange a game with our nine for the coming 4th. -The parade of the Logan Hose company on the 4th will be one of the finest displays of the season. Seven companies from a distance have accepted their invitation and will be in line. See to it, boys, that the visitors do not carry off all the laurels. -Our old bachelor friend, Aaron Williams, is seriously troubled with the Legislative bee. If Aaron would agree to commit matrimony within the next twenty years we have no doubt but that the party would listen favorably to his "gentle whippers." -The News wants to know, "What has become of the Bellefonte Base Ball Association?" Have a little patience, News, or wait until after our nine scoops in the College club to-morrow. The fire is kindled, and you'll hear of a big blaze some of these days. -The Logan Hose Company presented to Mr. C. G. McMillen, mine host of the Brockerhoff House, a beautiful gilt frame containing the photographs of all the members of the Hose company. It is a fac simile of the one exhibited in the window of Louis Doll's shoe store. -Our worthy board of School Directors, including Prof's Lieb and Meyer, assembled at the residence of Mr. Henry Hoffman on Lamb street, by special invitation, on Tuesday evening and were entertained very pleasantly by Mr. Hoffman and his agreeable lady. Ice cream, cake and other refreshments were served and all together was a most enjoyable affair.

CLERKS' BANQUET

At the Bush House, June 24th, in Commemoration of the Early Closing System. The Clerks' Banquet held at the Bush House on Tuesday evening, June 24, was one that will long remain a pleasant memory to all who were fortunate enough to have been present. At about 9:15 o'clock, P. M., about sixty-five of ye hungry clerks formed in "battle array" and marched down to do honor to the sumptuous collation prepared for the occasion. After all were seated and order restored an address of welcome was delivered by Mr. C. U. Hoffer in behalf of the clerks, and then began the work of devouring the dainty dishes spread out so bountifully before them. The dining hall was brilliantly illuminated with the electric light, and the tables profusely and elegantly decorated with nearly all kinds of flowers and ferns imaginable. Its dazzling beauty and grandeur almost led one to believe that he was about to enter the "Celestials flowery kingdom." After doing ample justice to the many dishes, to enumerate which would be an almost useless attempt, J. L. Spangler Esq. arose and delivered an able and appropriate address, interspersed with wit, humor and solid common sense. He cited a number of cases where the solid business men of to-day were the clerks of yesterday, and in particular to one of the solid business men of Bellefonte to-day, who we believe forty-nine years ago carried a small grip sack of jewelry over the county and sold him—his first watch, (the very same watch referred to in the account of the Milesburg band festival. Jack was five then), and whose check could now be drawn for one hundred thousand—he said dollars, but like the statement in N. Y Herald that Curtin "would vote for Blaine" we are inclined to consider the matter. He also referred to others who were almost equally as successful, and in conclusion congratulated the clerks upon their "independence and tact in bringing about this movement." Mr. Newton S. Bailey, of the News was called upon and delivered an appropriate address right to the point. Several toasts were offered and responded to, after which the assemblage adjourned to the parlor and dancing hall and indulged in dancing, singing songs and general conversation, etc. One of the lamentable features of the evening seemed to be a misunderstanding between the clerks and business men, only a few of the latter being present, on account, it is alleged, of not having an invitation. In regard to this we are requested to state that while no printed form of invitations were issued, it was generally supposed and expected that the business men would be present. The clerks expressed great disappointment on account of their non presence. The occasion was enlivened by the presence of the Adelpic Orchestra. In conclusion we also add our testimonial and congratulate the clerks upon the happy manner in which every thing passed off. The affair was the most enjoyable one probably that ever occurred in Bellefonte, and much credit is due W. R. Teller, Esq. the genial host of the Bush House, for the excellent manner in which the Banquet was conducted. -A report comes to us from Milesburg of such a horrible and revolting nature that for the good of the community we decline to publish the particulars. The authorities should investigate this matter thoroughly and if the parties connected are guilty of this atrocious act, should be brought to justice and made to pay the full penalty prescribed by law for such a crime. -A most charming and pleasant affair took place at the residence of Mr. C. C. Taylor, at Pleasant Gap, on last Friday evening, it being the occasion of their daughter, Miss Carrie's—tenth birthday. (We were threatened great violence, and therefore must leave the readers to guess the number of summers. We don't fancy being laid up for 18 years.) A large delegation of young and fan-loving people from this place were driven to the scene of brilliancy by four of Abe Baum's spirited nags. The programme of the evening consisted of promenades, games, music and the tripping of the light fantastic toe. A sumptuous repast was served at about 12 o'clock, after which the gay festivities were again resumed and kept up until the "gray dawn" of morning warned them that it was time for leave taking. Every one seemed to have been in the best of spirits, and the guests departed wishing Miss Carrie the return of many, many happy birthdays. She was also the recipient of a number of handsome presents. The ladies were all attired in lovely white "Mother Hubbard" dresses and were almost covered with roses and other natural flowers, which certainly displayed their beauty in a most exquisite and charming manner. -There was an enjoyable dance at Curt Taylor's house at Boiling Springs on Friday evening. About twenty persons from Bellefonte were in attendance, among whom was Mr. George Noll, the blind musician.—News. -Must be some mistake, or the News is "slightly off". For full particulars of this affair please consult the columns of the DEMOCRAT. -The concert of the Princeton Glee Club on last Thursday evening drew a large and appreciative audience to the Opera House and those who attend were more than satisfied.

Personal.

Jno G Love, Esq., will deliver the address of welcome on the "4th." Our friend J. L. Spangler, Esq., registered at the Hepburn House, Williamsport, Tuesday. Maj. W. F. Reynolds, is entertaining his brother the Hon. Samuel Reynolds, of Lancaster Pa. Newton S. Bailey, Esq., of the News, made a raid on the Penna. State College Wednesday evening. Mrs. Jno. G. Love, spent Sunday in Lock Haven returning on the 5 o'clock train Monday evening. Miss Emma Bross, a very agreeable young lady of Harrisburg, is the guest of her friend Mrs. H. C. Weaver, Howard street. Prof. Meyer, teacher of the Bellefonte High School, has given up teaching and will devote all his time to the study of law. Mr. and Mrs. C. G. McMillen, accompanied by their daughter Roxie, returned from the "City of Brotherly Love" Monday. Mrs. Dr. Garman and daughter, of Coatesville, are visiting at the residence of Daniel Garman, Esq., corner of High and Spring streets. Miss Emma Saltman, one of Lock Haven's loveliest and most graceful young ladies, is the guest of Mrs. Col. D. H. Hastings on Linn street. Mr. Ed Garman, our wide-a-wake young merchant, took a short jaunt to Lock Haven Tuesday. His visits there are frequent of late. Must be some attraction. "7." Hon. Chas. Emory Smith of the Philadelphia Press, arrived in Bellefonte Tuesday morning and attended the commencement exercises at the College. Mr. Smith addressed the Alumni on Tuesday evening. Mrs. A. C. Moyer (nee Pruner), after spending several weeks visiting at the home of her mother and numerous friends in this place, returned to join her husband at Osceola Mills on Wednesday evening, 18th inst. Mr. Wm. Calder, son of ex-President of State College Jas. Calder, and sister, Mrs. Small of Harrisburg, arrived in Bellefonte on Monday and proceeded at once to the College to attend the commencement exercises. Miss Minnie, daughter of our townsman, S. R. Brew, Esq., returned from her tour to New Jersey at which place she has been visiting since last fall, and is delighting her many acquaintances with her presence among them. Mr. David Ballett is peculiarly unfortunate in the way of run-aways. It was only a short time since that he lost a horse through an accident of this kind and on last Friday morning his horses became frightened and ran away again. No serious damages were done, however. Wilmer Crow, Esq., general secretary of the Y. M. C. A., returned from Canada Saturday evening. Mr. Crow reports having had a most delightful time while absent and visited among other places Toronto, Niagara Falls and Meadville, Pa. Miss Maggie Jackson, who visited at the residence of Editor Joe. W. Furey, on Lamb st., for some time past, returned to her home at Osceola Mills, Wednesday. Miss Jackson's absence will be greatly regretted by her large circle of friends and acquaintances in this place. -Bargains—Garman's. -Our talented young friend, Dr. G. Rishel, whose marriage occurred on Wednesday, June 18th, to one of Maryland's fair daughters, arrived at the house of his parents, about three miles from Bellefonte, on the Boalsburg, pike on Friday evening and at which place a reception was held. About one hundred guests were present. -Mrs. Daniel Garman was, on Monday, June 23, the recipient of a present of several beautiful and valuable articles of silverware from the guests of the Garman House. Attached to them was a card with the following inscription: "To Mrs. Garman with the compliments of the guests of the Garman House." Mr. and Mrs. Garman and their family have just removed to their fine private residence on high street and the gift, at this particular time, is an expressive testimonial of the esteem in which Mrs. G. is held.—News. Y. M. C. A. FESTIVAL.—The festival announced to take place at the Association hall this week promises to be a grand affair. The ladies are co-operating with the Reception Committee, and nothing will be left undone to make it one of the most pleasant occasions in the history of the Association. There will be ice cream, lemonade, ice tea, water ice and other refreshments in season. A Japanese Bazar will be among the other attractions, as well as music, and whatever will add to the pleasure of the occasion. There has been some misconception as to the date, but there has been no change. The festival will positively be held on Thursday and Friday evenings of this week, June 26th and 27th. It has not been fully decided in what way the proceeds shall be used, but whatever will be for the best good of the young men will be done. Remember the date, and don't fail to attend.

-The Milesburg Band Festival was held on Saturday evening last in the large tent of G. L. Potter Post amid the glare of gasolene and coal oil lamps and the delightful music of brass bands. It was a grand success financially and socially. Ice cream, cake, lemonade and good things in abundance refreshed the innerman, and Milesburg's fair daughters lent an additional charm to the scene by their presence and ceaseless attention to the wants of the guests. The contest for the gold watch resulted in a victory for Mr. Kunes of Eagleville. The band realizing two hundred and fifty dollars clear on the watch alone. The feature of the evening was the presentation speech of Demonsthenese Hastings and the reply by Cicero Spangler. The speeches were in the usual good taste and rich humorous vein of the distinguished orators, and amused the vast audience that "thronged the spacious enclosure." Demonsthenese Hastings, in beautiful and chaste diction, and well rounded, but ponderous Greek periods, distributed "taffy" among his hearers, great quantities of which he applied to the bald head of the great Roman orator, Cicero Spangler. In order to allay any ill feeling between the friends of the contestants he proposed giving the watch to his venerable friend Cicero. A bright smile illuminated the classic features of the old Roman as the vision of a gold watch flashed in his mind. The dream of his life was about to be realized. The dumb watch of his boyhood's happy days was about to give place to a beautiful "gold tall winder," as Demonsthenese Hastings chasteily put it. But "alas, poor Yorick!" Mr. Kunes, the statue of despair, leaning against the tent pole, was too much for the cupidty of even Cicero Spangler, and with tears coursing down his cheeks like the muddy waters of his own glorious Tiber, he arose and in the choicest Latin of the Golden Age of Roman culture and oratory entered his solemn protest against the base, ignoble proposition of the tricky Greek. He openly charged the Greek with fraud, and said that Demonsthenese proposed to him the scheme of getting possession of the watch and selling it, Cicero to have one-third and Demonsthenese two-thirds of the spoils. The unequal division of "spoils" was revolting to honest Cicero. Half or nothing was his motto, and not getting half he turned the watch over to its rightful owner, and in bitter, scathing words of invective he poured out vial after vial of wrath on the devoted head of poor old Demonsthenese. "Taffy had ceased to be a virtue," and gall and wormwood were applied in allopathic doses. After Demonsthenese and Cicero had orated others were called upon but none cared to break the spell thrown over the crowd by the ancient orators. Altogether the occasion was very enjoyable for those present and added to the exchequer of the band the snug sum of $501.20. -Finest Dry Goods—Garman's. -On Saturday evening, June 21st, inst., Gregg Post, No. 95, G. A. R., was inspected by Assistant Inspector, Capt. Waldo C. Vanvalin, Post Commander of Post No. 263. The Post also mustered three new recruits on the same evening. The inspecting officer expressed himself highly pleased with the inspection of the Adjutant and Quartermasters department, as well as the Post generally; that the muster services were as well executed as in any Post he has had the pleasure of visiting in the State, and that the exemplification of the unwritten work was very commendable. No. 95 is a live Post, and the comrades are leaving nothing undone that will tend to making the G. A. R. Encampment to be held here in August a glorious success, and a pleasure to all who may have the good fortune to be present. -Don't you know that we sell Dry Goods cheaper than any store in Bellefonte—Garman's. -PENN HALL ITEMS.—J. B. Fisher is building a cable fence around his fields at the pike, which adds greatly to its appearance. -Many of our farmers commenced mowing on Saturday, and the rattling of mowers could be heard in every direction, and if weather permits a great deal of hay will be put away this week, as the crops are excellent. -Our young folks had a grand picnic on Saturday. There were twelve couples left this place in buggies and carriages, drove to Potters Mills, from there to the mountain road and down through the Seven mountains until a suitable place was reached, where the good cakes and vegetables were to be served, which were intended for the inner man. After the enjoyment of supper they prepared for the homeward trip, which was reached about nine o'clock, well pleased with their trip and scenery. -Samuel Harter's new barn was raised on Saturday. Mr. Harter will have a magnificent home when house and barn are completed. -Mr. Elmer Wolf and wife, from Tylersville, spent a few days in our village last week. -Messrs. Robert Bartgos and Fiedler have gone to Oak Hill to put in their time through haying and harvest. Success to you, boys. -Our village will no doubt produce a female painter and artist ere long. -It was supposed that we should have a boardwalk through town, but it appears it has all died out. MOUNTAIN BOY. -Stylish Dress Goods—Garman's.

CUPID AMONG OUR COLORED PEOPLE.—A brilliant wedding occurred at the A. M. E. church on Thursday evening last the contracting parties being Mr. Jackson McDonald, and Mrs. Thomazine Green, of this place. It was our misfortune to have been absent but the following account clipped from the News will prove that it was "done up brown." On Thursday evening the A. M. E. church of this place was filled with a very fine audience, about equally divided between the white and dark elements of Bellefonte's population. Among the Caucasians who were present were Messrs. E. C. Humes, Col. Tate, Wm. Humes, Jas. H. Rankin, George Harris and Judge Smith, most of whom were accompanied by the lady members of their households. Several of Bellefonte's lady school teachers were present eager to take lessons in the art of getting married. The occasion which called these people together was the marriage of Mr. Jackson McDonald to Mrs. Thomazine Green. When the hour of 8 o'clock arrived the wedding party entered the church. The bridesmaid, Miss Graham and the groomsmen, Mr. Nelson, moved first up the aisle, Miss Graham turning to the left and Mr. Nelson to the right. Then came the bride and groom. The entire party turned when near the pulpit and faced the audience. Rev. J. G. Clifton occupied a position in front of the contracting couple and solemnly repeated the long marriage service. The bride and groom joined hands with intense earnestness during the ceremony. The service of that church seems to be a very secure one and it is difficult to imagine how any persons united in such apparently indissoluble bonds can ever be severed. The bride was dressed in what we thought to be a cream-tinted costume but which a lady told us is a pure white. Any way it was very lovely and the lady who wore it with delicate orange blossom in her hair was indeed a charming bride. Jackson, the groom, was lost in an ecstasy of happiness, and so engrossed in each other were they that the happy ceremony was like a pleasant dream to them. The bridesmaid is quite a queenly lady and looked surpassingly beautiful in blue, while Mr. Nelson was manly and good-humored in black. After the ceremony many friends followed the party to the home of Mr. Graham, where the congratulations took place. We suppose, too, that supper was served, which was fit for a monarch's feast and that the presents were duly inspected and admired. With a profound courtesy we wish Mr. and Mrs. Jackson McDonald superabundant happiness and prosperity. PRESENTS RECEIVED. The happy couple received quite a large collection of presents as the following published list will attest: Mr. and Mrs. Dr. Harris, china set and one castor; Mr. R. H. Nelson, castor; Mesdames Hazel and Shields, washing set, each; Miss Katie Harris and Adeline Harris, one chromo, each; Miss MacManus, one fruit dish; Mrs. E. Hoover, one vase; Mrs. J. D. Emory, fruit dish; Mr. and Mrs. Carter, one set of china; Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Jackson, set of glassware; Mr. and Mrs. J. Williams, glass set; Mr. and Mrs. George Freeman, glass set; Mr. and Mrs. Mills, one fruit dish; Rev. Clift, card stand; Miss J. Reynolds, one sugar spoon; Melissa Graham, of Lock Haven, one fruit dish; Mr. and Mrs. C. Garner, 2 toilet covers; Mr. and Mrs. Butler, of Lock Haven, one-half doz. salts and one soup tureen; Mr. and Mrs. William Green, one-half doz. salts and one fruit dish; Mr. and Mrs. Bond, one castor, Mr. and Mrs. Taylor, one castor; Mr. Geo. Sims, one mantel ornament; Miss T. Graham, one mantel ornament; Mr. J. Lewis, 1 set vases; Mr. and Mrs. A. Brady, 1 set glassware; May Gilmore, 1 teapot, 2 cups, 2 saucers and 2 plates; Miss A. Lawson, napkins; K. Miller, 1 glass tray; Miss Ida Molson, 2 linen pieces; Mr. and Mrs. E. Molson, 1 linen piece; Mrs. M. Johnson, one-half doz. desert dishes and 2 pieces of linen; Mr. and Mrs. Graham, 1 bedspread and 1 set of lunch napkins; Mr. and Mrs. B. Williams, 2 towels; Katie and Adaline Harris, 2 lunch cloths; Mr. and Mrs. L. Penington, fancy match stand; Mr. E. C. Humes and son, 1 bedroom set. WOODWARD ITEMS.—Weather very warm -Farmers are making hay.—Hay will be plenty in this part of the county if the weather will be favorable for the farmers to make it.—Mr. William Guiswile has his new barn nearly finished.—Mr. E. Engard has his new house ready to move in.—Old Mrs. Smith had a stroke of palsy last week; one side of her body is paralyzed.—Fishing parties are all the go now—but very few are caught; but lots of Ebys Best is used, so much so that Sullivan and Mitchell had a regular knock down fight.—Mr. Muckle is now engaged in making bricks.—Thomas Motz, is making regular trips to the Hemick.—Communion service last Sunday by Rev. Hengst.—Singing school closed on last Saturday evening till after harvest.—Our Sunday School is in a flourishing condition with the exception of a few of the young ladies that cannot join it in the singing.—C. W. Hasterman's new house is plastered and ready for the carpenters to finish it. NEWS BOY.

MILLHEIM, Pa., June 23, 1884. EDITORS CENTRE DEMOCRAT: Dear Sirs—In this part of the county we daily here inquire made about who shall the Democracy of the county nominate as candidates for the Legislature. Every other man you meet expresses his fear for the success of the ticket if we shall follow our usual custom of giving two terms. There, no doubt, are good men in the county who would go to the Legislature if the people would ask them. These very men put their refusal to be candidates on the ground that they can not afford to get into a contest for the position. This is no doubt so, and is the very reason why the people should seek them out and give them, unthought, the nomination. Such men are fit to go to the Legislature. After the Democratic County Convention of 1882, the Democratic Watchman said: "John A. Woodward acted the part of a man and a patriot when he said that in case Mr. Hunter should be nominated first for Assembly, he would under no circumstances accept a second nomination, were it tendered him, because it would not be a good thing for the party to have both nominees on this side." When a number of his friends assured him that they believed his nomination could be made, he said: "No, gentlemen, it must not be done. I should positively decline such a nomination, because it would be a bad thing for the party to have both candidates on this side of the mountain." These were the words of a true Democrat, and they do Mr. Woodward great credit. By this it appears that Mr. Woodward was very considerate of the rights and wishes of the people of Penn's valley. We believe the time has come when the people of Penn's valley should consider their own rights and advantages. They cannot do so better than to determine that they will send Mr. Woodward to represent them in the next Legislature. The farmers complain very often that they are not fairly represented, that there are too many lawyers in the Legislature, etc. A more intelligent, thorough, complete and practical farmer can not be found in the county. Besides this, Mr. Woodward is an excellent writer, and has the power to make himself felt and heard in debate. D. M. -White Goods—Garman's. WALKER TOWNSHIP, June 19, '84. EDITORS CENTRE DEMOCRAT: Dear Sirs.—As the time of making choice to fill various county offices is drawing nigh, we deem it but just and proper to push forward the very best material. And we have that in Walker township, in the person of J. J. Gramley, who is a farmer by occupation, a hard working man at manual labor and also in the ranks of Democracy. We know him to be well qualified to fill the office of Treasurer from the fact that he has filled nearly all township offices to the satisfaction of his constituents by an honest and square performance of duty. The Gramley family was one of the first to settle in Miles township, and have always been hard working Democrats, and J. J. Gramley is the first to ask for a county office. We hope that all fair means may be employed in convention to make him the standard bearer for Treasurer. M. Corman, of Zion, Elias Tomada Thomas Leah, J. M. Reacock, of Zion, M.
