CHICAGO, June 11 .- Outward trains for the East were heavily loaded this afternoon, nearly all the eastern march ing organizations taking their leave The"Americus" and "Randall" Clubs, of Philadelphia, paraded the streets before taking their leave, bearing in addition to their club banners one inscribed with the name "Cleveland." The Tammany braves, six hundred strong, took a special train at 5 o'clock. Many of the Tammany members feel that they have encountered personal defeat. A number of opinions are printed as coming from John Kelly, but he declares positively that he has not conversed with any newspaper man, and that he has noexpressed any opinion upon the situat tion, and is snot responsible for any gentleman's name. statesments coming from others.

Mr. Manning and a majority of the New York delegation are jubilant, but moderate in speech. Mr. Manning says Cleveland will surely carry New York "By what majority?" "I shall not predict majorities, but we shall carry New York beyond a doubt. If the other Democratic States do their duty, Cleve land will occupy the White House. After next March the party at large in the State will give him as earnest support as it did Tilden. I am safe in promising victory in New York State. There were great crowds outside the convention hall to hear the result of the balloting and heavy cheers followed the announcement of the result. Cannons on the Lake Shore took up the refrain, and one hundred shots were fired in rapid succession.

FIXING UP TIE TICKET.

CHICAGO, July 11 .- At the conference of the leading friends of Cleveland and other prominent members of the convention, to the number of fifty, which took place during the recess this afternoon the merits of the various candidates for Vice President were discussed, and it was agreed, if possible, to nominate Thomas A. Hendrick for that place The choice narrowed down before the final decision to Thomas A. Hendrick and ex-Senator Henry G. Davis, of West present, having left the hall just pre-Virgina. Mr. Davis was sent for, but | viously. gave so many reasons why he should not be placed upon the ticket, and wby Hendrick should be, that the latter was at length decided upon. Among the mere prominent members of the conference were Messrs. Barnum; Cleveland, of New Jersy; Smith M. W. Weed, of New York : Manning, of New York; Watterson, of Kentucky; Cox dricks. This renewed the cheering, of Penn'a; Scott of Penn'a; Burke, of Louisana; Kernan, of New York, Hay, of Penn'a; Gorman, of Maryland; Con. verse, of Ohio, and Kelly, of New York.

The committee to notify candidates of their nomination met this evening and appointed a sub-committee, with Col. Wm. F. Villas, Chairman, to draft en address, and adjourned to meet in New York on the 28th inst. There and cheering lustily, while they waved was a ratification meeting in Convention fans, hats and handkerchiefs. The Hall to-night, at which General Francis Siegal was the principal orator.

AN OUTBURST FOR HENDRICKS.

Here then suddonly Broke out a scene of wild, general, and enthusiastic cheering, waving of hats, fane, and handkerchiefs. It was impossible for the Chair to suppress it, although he tried. Most of the delegates and spectators took part in it. It was the first exhibition of genuine entl usiasm in the Convention. It was renewed again and again, and finally the band joined in the demonstratian with "Hail Columbia" and other patriotic airs. Umbrel'as were also brought into requistion, and banners were earried around : in fact the Blaine demostration of five weeks ago was repeated can amere. The interruption of proceedings must have occupied fifteen minutes. Hendricks himself was not

At the end of a quarter of an hour and while the uproar was at its height. Voorhees mounted the platform and announced that at the request of the Indiana delegation he withdrew the name of Joseph E. The question was then put on Menzie's motion to make the nomination unanimous, and it was carried triumphantly. Then the mammoth oil paint ing representation of Cleveland's head and bust was carried to the front of the speaker's stand and exhibited to the enthusiastic spectators, who greeted it with cheers and whistling, and the waving of everything that could be put into requisition for that purpose, while the band was playing "Marching through Geoagis," "The Red, White and Blue," and other airs. After order was restored the Chair announced that the motion to make the nomination unanimous having been carried, Grover Clevelend was declared the nominee of the National Democracy for the next Presidency of the United States. (Cheers) A dispatch was read from Governor Hoadly, congratulating the Convention, the Democracy and the country on the wise thing done, and promising a Democratic victory in Ohio in October and November next.

The Convention at 1,25 took a recess until 5 p. m.

THE VICE PRESIDENCY.

CRICAGO, July 11 .- It was half past five before the evening session was called to order, and the first business done was the adoption of a resolution electing Vilas, the Chairman of the convention, as Chairman of the committee to notify nominees of their selection as candidates. A telegram was red from the President of the New York Produce Exchange stating that the business men of New York were solid for Cleveland. A delegate from Louisiana offered a resolution providing that in case of a vacancy on the ticket for the office of President or Vice President a majority of the National Committee shall have power to fill the vacancy. There was so much opposition made to the resolution that it was withdrawn. A delegate from Texas offered a resolution declaring that the Democratic party in convention assembled endorse the Morrison bill for a reduction of war taxes. There was a storm of opposition to the resolution and the Chairman ruled that it must be referred to the Committee on Resolutions.

GEN. ROSECRANS NOMINATED.

The convention then proceeded to a call of the roll for the nomination of candidate for Vice President, Mr. Searles, of California, came to the platform. He said that California was a loving mother to her children, and they in turn were devoted to her. On her behalf and as a representative of the represented for their suffrage a man who had been eminent among his fel nations had been pre-eminent; who had led their soldiers to battle; who had achieved victories; who had assisted in upholding the banner of the country. He presented the honored name of Gen. Wm. S. Rosecrans, the hero of Stone River, the faithful soldier, the grand old commander, whose immage was impressed on the hearts of all men who served under him. (Cheers for Rose-

MCDONALD AND BLACK NAMED. Mr. Branch, of Colorado, nominated Joseph E. McDonald.

Mr. Bacon, of Georgia, said he was commissoned by his delegation to present the name of a man eminent in war and in peace, a distinguished commoner a gallant soldier-Gen. Jno. C. Black, of Illinois. (Cheers for Black.)

Judge Black expressed his appreciation of the high and unmerited compliment paid him. It was almost absolutely a surprise to him but he had come here as the spokesmen and representative of another citizen of the Republic. He had put his hand in the hand of Joseph E. Senator Wallace, of Pennsylvania said that he nominated as candidate for Vice President a man conversant with public affairs throughout his whole life. an honored statesman, a pure and upright citizen, a victim of the grossest fraud ever perpetrated on the American people-Thomas A. Hendricks. (cheers.)

Mr. Waller, of Connecticut, seconded the nomination of Hendricks and said that the Democrat party would in defiance of fraud and in accordiance with law, place him in the chair of the Vice President.

NOMINATED BY ACCLAMATION. Mr. Wallace' said that Hendricks had been once chosen Vice President and had been despoiled of the office. The Democracy of the Republic demaned of him again his name as a candidate, and they would not take "no" for an answer. He moved to suspend rules and nominate Thomas A. Hendricks as the candidate for Vice President by acclamation. (cheers.)

Mr. Harris of Virginia, said the united vote of Virginia is with that of the Keystone State. (cheers.)

Mr. Searles, of California, withdrew the nomination of Rosecraps. The other nominees were all withdrawn one by one, so that Hendricks' name alone remained before the convention. Mr. Hubbord, of Texas, made a spirited speech in favor of giving to Hendricks the office out of which he had been Grover Cleveland.

A BRIEF BIOGRAPHY OF THE DEMOCRATIC CANDIDATE.

Grover Cleveland was born in the little obscure town of Caldwell, Essex county, N. J., and there still stands the duty nobly, and will ever be held in little two and one-half story white house in which he first saw the light in the year 1837. His father was a Presbyterian minister with a large family and a small salary. When Grover was but in any sense his rival for any position, three years old the father removed to and he therefore respectfully declined | Eayetteville, N. Y., then the most sraggling of country villages. Here Grover Mr. Mann, of Illinnois, hoped that had the benefit of the village school, out of orden the motion to make the the declination would not be received. which, at fourteen years of age, he had vote unanimous until after the result He paid a high compliment to General outgrown. They employed him at $3 a week to do some copying, and An Oregan deligate said the united for the four years succeeding he walked every day from Black Rock to Buffalo doing his clerical work and studying his law books during the day and doing his incle's work at night. It is related of him that for two winters he was without an overcoat and part of the time his shoes were very old and broken, but he trudged his four miles a day through the snows of winter all the same, and won thereby the title to be called a lawyer. In 1863 he was appointed Assistant District Attorney of Erie county, and served in the position faithfully for three years. In 1866 he was nominated by the Democrats for District Attorney but was beaten. In 1869 he was elected Sheriff of the county, and at the expiration of his term returned to the practice of his profession. He formed a partnership with Wilson S. Bissell and George J. Secord, and here he won distinction as a lawyer second to none in that section of the State.. In 1881 he was chosen Mayor of Buffalo.

In this position he won for himself the attention of the people of the whole country by the undevisting honesty and unrelenting vigor of his course. The city offices had been dens of thieves. He made them clean and pure. In a veto of an iniquitous street cleaning contract he said :

"This is a time for plain speech, and my objection to your action shall be plainly stated. I regard it as the culmination of a most bare-faced, impudent and shameless scheme to betray the interests of the people and to worse than squander the public money. We are fast gaining positions in the grades of public stewardship. There is no middle ground. Those who are not for the people, either in or out of your honora-ble body, are against them and should be treated accordingly.

He never minced matters. He talked plain English and spared none who trifled with the interest of the people His record as Mayor made him Govern. or. His record as Governor will make him President. It was not his vote to put on record the unanimous vote for Mayor that gave him his present position. It is not his vote for Governor that has turned so many men to him as the man best fitted for the chief magistracy of the nation. It is his devotion to the sentiment embodied in the following sentence from his pen: "I believe in open and sturdy partisanship, which secures the legimate advantage of party supremacy; but parties were made for the people, and I am unwilling, knowingly, to give my assent to measures purely partisan, which will acrifice or endanger their interests.'

He has shown himself a Democrat in all that sound Democracy implies at all times subordinating the wishes of individuals of whatever party to the good of the whole people.

Thomas A. Hendricks.

The pomination of Thomas A. Hendricks for the Vice Presidency by a unanimity upsralleled in political conventions, was the logical sequence of the convention's declaration in its platform that Gov. Tilden's physical disabilities and wishes prevented "placing in his hands the leadership of the Democratic hosts." No such reason exists as to Mr. Hendricks, and in his person the temporary chairman, permanent the American people will right the foul wrong perpetrated in 1876 by placing him in the exalted position to which he was chosen eight years ago by a popular majority of 260,000. It was a their accurate and impartial reports of happy inspiration that induced Senator the proceedings. The Chairman on his Wallace to seize the golden opportunity

With Cleveland for President, a follower in the same school of wise and honest statesmanship that Tilden illustrated, and with Tilden's lieutenant and 'associate on the ticket eight years ago, for Vice President, the American Democracy will march to assured victory. New York and Indians are certain for this glorious ticket, and with them we will carry other Northern States, Conpecticut, New Jersey, Ohio, Nevada and California. Illinois, too, in all probability, and very likely Wisconsin
