Among a number of exchanges advocating the charms of the prettiest baby in their towns, the Phillipsburg Journal says: "The prettiest baby in our town is—well, we don't need to go out of the journal office to find her."

"We make our bow and say 'good morning' to the Evening Journal, Vol. 1, No. 1, a young and welcome visitor among our exchanges. It is a new enterprise under the editor and proprietorship of our friend, Mr. W. T. Blair, of Phillipsburg. Success to the infant, and may it fatten on 'condensation'."

An interesting and amusing feature at the skating rink to-night will be the "barrel race," that is, the skaters will be obliged to crawl through barrels on the floor, and must go through a barrel each lap. There will be a hoghead among the barrels to accommodate fat men.

We learn from the Phillipsburg Journal that Mr. Robert P. Riley, of Lattimer has challenged Mr. Geo. Canton, of Phillipsburg, to run him a foot race of one mile for from $100 to $250 a side, the race to take place the 23d inst. at Hazleton, or at Phillipsburg. The Postville Chronicle of Hazleton Sentinel to hold the stakes.

On Tuesday afternoon a party gave F. P. Blair a friendly call at his store, shortly after the disappearance of the friendly callers Mr. Blair missed a valuable gold watch, he pursued the parties and upon searching them recovered the watch. For further particulars, call at the Tailoring establishment of W. I. Fleming.

Among our western exchanges we notice an interesting and pleasant event—the marriage ceremonies of our townsman Harry C. Valentine to Miss Sarah Thomas Bernside of Ironton, Missouri, took place on Sept. 30, 1884, at Ironton, by Rev. G. C. Betts. The wedding was a brilliant affair and was witnessed by a large circle of friends and relations. Mr. Valentine and wife will occupy the house recently erected by Mr. Bond Valentine on Curtin street. To Mrs. Valentine it will be home indeed, as she was formerly a resident of this place and her friends will gladly welcome her back. We assure Mr. and Mrs. Valentine have the congratulations and best wishes of their many friends in this place.

While in Reuben McGees' office one day this week we were shown two checks drawn by the Brooklyn Life Insurance Company on the Chemical National Bank of New York. One man was insured for $3000 and was killed. The check was drawn for the full amount in favor of his wife. The other died a natural death and his wife received $1000 which was paid within two hours after the premiums or dues were paid. The promptness with which each and every claim is met is the best evidence of the integrity and reliability of this company. R. M. McGee, Esq. is their manager for this State.

The two-mile skating race, as previously announced, took place Thursday evening at 9 o'clock at the rink in this place, between Mr. Harry Bush and Mr. Ellis Snyder. Mr. Johnson, the third contestant, from some cause did not participate in the race as was expected. The first prize consisted of a season ticket, which was won by Mr. Snyder. The second was a handsome silver cup, taken by Mr. Bush. The race was interesting and exciting, and both showed considerable skill in "manipulating" the rollers. The first mile was skated in five minutes and the second in 4 minutes and 20 seconds. In the start Mr. Bush had the lead until he was unfortunate enough to fall, when Mr. Snyder passed him and kept ahead until the close of the contest. Mr. Bush was only about ten feet behind when the last lap was made.

Plate glass mirrors at Garman's. The painting by Mr. Robert Hunter, now on exhibition at Frank P. Blair's store is attracting general admiration. It possesses merit seldom seen in a "still life" painting and to be fully appreciated requires more than a casual glance. The small wine glass contains water, while the large glass, wine, which is so transparent and true to nature that you are almost tempted to sip, that is, if you are of the sipping kind. The apple has the appearance of having been cut a few minutes, and beginning to wither, which is a true and correct representation, and corresponds to the original idea of the picture in as much as the apple was all eaten excepting the last quarter and the wine rather low in the glass. All in all the whole collection harmonizes and is a perfect little gem, and were the same placed on exhibition in some of our large cities, would no doubt sell for its full value. We would advise some of our art-loving people to secure this painting and have something in this line from a Centre county artist.

Flegant Turkoman curtains at Garman's. Again has death laid claim to one of our most highly esteemed and well known citizens of Centre county in the person of Joseph Baker, who departed this life on Thursday morning at 4 o'clock of heart disease. He was 80 years old and was a life-long resident of this county, owning and residing on a farm near Oak Hall, which from his constant labor in improving the same has become one of the most productive farms in the county. He took the greatest pains in growing all kind of fruits and always received the premium at our county fairs for almost every specimen in the fruit line. Mr. Baker was a devoted christian and belonged to the Evangelical church, which he faithfully attended at Houserville and Rock Hill. He leaves two sons and two daughters to mourn his death, his wife having died several years ago. Jacob Baker of Iowa, formerly of Howard, this county, is a brother. The remains were interred in the cemetery at Rock Hill on Saturday at 10 o'clock, the funeral being largely attended.

ELLISON—HARMON—A very quiet and happy affair was the wedding on Thursday evening last, when Mr. John M. Ellison of Ohio, and Miss Hallie, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Harmon of this place, were united in the holy bonds of wedlock. Promptly at eight o'clock Rev. S. E. Furst pronounced the words which united the happy couple for life, and after many good wishes the bride and groom, accompanied by several friends, were driven to Milesburg, at which place they took the train for Lock Haven, thence to Niagara Falls and before returning will take an extended trip through Ohio and other western states. Mr. Ellison is to be congratulated upon his selection of a life-long partner as he has secured a loving, kind and most estimable lady, and who is respected by all who know her. Miss Harmon was also fortunate in her selection, as she has obtained a noble and indulgent husband, and we predict for them a rosy path through life's journey. The wedding took place at the residence of the bride's parents. We extend our congratulations.

The conductors on the Pennsylvania Railroad will have to articulate very distinctly and emphasize the proper word or confound the passengers on account of the numerous "Halls" on that road. Passengers destined for Penn Hall should remember they get off at Spring Mills. Should they miss this they are hauled to Centre Hall, and should Centre be indistinct they will next find themselves at Linden Hall. If you are hard of hearing or the conductor should be busily engaged in explaining the beauties of the valley and mountain scenery to some young lady and neglect to pronounce Linden with the due amount of emphasis, you will be hauled to Oak Hall, the next station, and unless you get off at Lemont you will find yourself at Pine Hall, and by the time you reach White Hall, which is the last Hall on that road you will think you have had a "Hall" of a time in reaching the Hall you started for.

Bombardment of Fort Dunkel.

Wednesday night, October 2d, at 11 o'clock, the extensive preparations for the capture of Fort Dunkel were completed, and "Young America" in excellent training for the occasion. The army, under command of General C. G. McMillen, slowly marched up the hill and took a commanding position near the main entrance of the Fort. Capt. Cal. Meyer stationed his troops to the right and in rear of the main body. The word "ready" was then passed along the line and the battle began. The ring of bells, the tooting of the horns, the yelling and cheering of the men and boys soon told us that victory was within reach. The brave commander-in-chief and the little drummer boy were soon within the wide corridors of the Fort. Inspired by this bravery, the entire force made one dash and took possession. The white flag was hoisted as an evidence of surrender, and the army retreated to a point in front of the Fort. Sheriff Dunkel and his fair bride then came forth and in a few appropriate remarks congratulated them and surrendered. The Roland cornet band entered upon the scene at this point and discoursed some music, after which Capt. Calvin Meyer, in behalf of the Sheriff and his bride, thanked all present for their excellent conduct, etc., and requested all to repair to the Brockerhoff House, where they were treated to what was due a brave crew. During the bombardment, Generals Tuten and Bower occupied a position on a high rock to the rear and overlooking the army. The whole thing was a very enjoyable affair and was participated in by a goodly number.

SPRING MILLS, Centre Co., Pa., September 25, 1884.

Leonard Rhone, Esq.

DEAR SIR—The report is being circulated throughout this section of the country that if elected Representative to our Legislature you will vote for a law requiring stock of all kind be kept in enclosures—thus preventing poor people from pasturing their cattle on the mountains or unfenced lands of the country. We write to ascertain your intentions in this matter, and would be pleased to have your views on this subject plainly stated, and oblige, Yours, very resp'y, &c., J. B. HECKMAN, M. L. RISHEL, I. J. GRENOBLE, HENRY KRUMHOLTZ, CENTRE HALL, Pa., Sept. 29, 1884.

Messrs. J. B. Heckman, M. L. Rishel, I. J. Grenoble, Henry Krumholtz and to all whom it may concern: DEAR SIRS—Yours of the 26th inst. received stating that it is being circulated that if I was elected Representative to our State Legislature, I would urge a law requiring owners to keep all kinds of stock in enclosures. In my opinion such legislation would be objectionable to the majority of the people of Centre county, and would work a great hardship, as we have large commons in the county rich with natural pastures, which would be an entire waste could they not be utilized by pasturing. Even many of our farmers, besides poor people, pasture their cattle on them with out detriment to any one.

The laws of our State already provide that when cattle or other stock become dangerous or annoying to the public the owners must restrain them or be liable for all damages done by them.

If elected to the Legislature, I shall vote against and oppose to the best of my ability any law that directly or indirectly prevents our laboring men, farmers, or others, from pasturing their stock on the mountains or unfenced lands of the county. Very respectfully yours, LEONARD RHONE.

To the Voters of the Twentieth Pennsylvania Congressional District: Yielding to the request of many members of the National Greenback Labor party, I offer myself as a candidate for Congress in the Twentieth district. My platform is: Increase the tariff until we do not import anything we can make; Pay out the treasury surplus on the overdue bonds; Repeal the rebate provision in the duty on bituminous coal. Prevent the importation of contract or pauper labor; Restore the American merchant marine, and thereby save over $100,000,000 now paid to foreigners for the ocean carrying trade. Governmental assistance to build up the beet sugar industry and thus save $100,000,000 now paid to foreigners for sugar.

Take the tax of the laboring man's tobacco; Put all honorably discharged soldiers on the pension roll at equitable rates; And by these measures restore business and labor to prosperous conditions. Those who believe in these principles are asked to vote for me. THEODORE P. RYNDER, Milesburg Oct. 2, 1884.

MILLHEIM.

On last Saturday we had the extreme pleasure of attending a picnic at Pine Creek, and had the pleasure of meeting many of our old acquaintances. The picnic was well attended and the Millheim Cornet Band furnished excellent music for the occasion. A good many of our citizens had to Lewisburg fair last week. John and Fred were out on business on Sunday night as usual. Some of our young men ought not to drive too fast when they go out so that they can get back next day. Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Luse came back to Millheim again last week and expect to get to house keeping before long. The erection of a skating rink at Millheim is now talked of as a probability. Innocent parties are blamed for writing Millheim items. Be sure you are right, then go ahead. Another social party is expected, and in the county we belong, before leap year expires. M. G. H.
