A Remarkable Case.

MUSKIE, Ind., September 26.—By an explosion of a gun in April last, an iron breechpin, an inch and a half long, and weighing 615 grains, was blown into the brain of Emerson McCole, of this city. This heavy piece of iron and several pieces of bone and a piece of his felt hat were withdrawn from quite a distance in his head, and without trepanning the opening in the frontal bone, through which a half teaspoonful of brains oozed. The wound was healed, and the patient has been dismissed. He experienced no inconvenience except from the hot rays of the sun, and is as well as ever. The case is considered one of the most remarkable on record, and a portrait of McCole has just been completed for publication in the Medical Journal.

CANCER CURED.

No diseases have so thoroughly baffled the skill of the medical profession as cancerous affections and as they have always been considered incurable, it has been thought desirable to adopt their treatment as a specialty; and hence physicians have neglected their proper study. But of late years new and important discoveries have brought forth a course that now proves successful in any of its forms, with certainty, without the use of the knife or caustic plasters. We have a treatment that is comparatively mild. It is not poisonous, does not interfere with the healthy flesh, can be applied to any part of the body, even the tongue. We have nothing for our services until the cancer is cured. Address

Blaine as a Letter Buyer.

FISHER TELLS OF HIS ATTEMPT TO BUY THE MULLIGAN EPISTLES.

BOSTON, October 10.—In reference to Mr. Blaine's denial of the assertion of Warren Fisher that he (Blaine) had offered a sum of money for the Mulligan letters, Mr. Fisher in an interview says that at the request of Mr. Elisha Atkins and at the special request of Mr. Blaine, he went to New York in the spring of 1880, and met Mr. Blaine at the Fifth Avenue Hotel, that then and there Mr. Blaine made his request.

"Definitely stated, Mr. Fisher" what was Mr. Blaine's request?"

"To obtain for money or otherwise, from Jim Mulligan all letters, copies of letters, all the letter books, copies from letter books and memoranda of every name and nature in which Mr. Blaine was mentioned or had any interest."

"What was the amount to be paid for the delivery of these?"

"The amount to be paid was not limited. He was to pay $10,000 if I could not obtain them for less. Mr. Blaine further stated that Mr. John Cummings, the partner of Elisha Atkins & Co., could furnish all the money for the purchase of the letters, and he authorized me to confer with Mr. Cummings about the money to be paid to Mr. Mulligan if the letters could be purchased."

"Did Mr. Elisha Atkins know of the proposition?"

"Certainly. He knew of my progress from time to time about the purchase of the letters, and stated that his partner had all the funds required if the purchase was made, as his partner (Mr. Cummings) had recently sold all of Blaine's Little Rock and Fort Smith railroad stock about thirty dollar per share, which Mr. Atkins thought at the time was a foolish sale, as the stock afterward advanced reaching about $60."

Black Jack Logan.

BOORISHNESS FROM THE CARS AT HINTON, W. VA.

CHARLESTON, W. Va., October 9.—One of the most disgraceful of scenes occurred at Hinton, in Summers county, W. Va., on the Chesapeake and Ohio railroad, last Monday evening. When the special train containing the West Virginia division of the Blaine and Logan circus pulled into the depot, General Logan came on the platform of the car and was about to address the people who gathered around the car, when a gentleman in the crowd came forward and politely said: "Are you not the gentleman who raised the army in Illinois in order to go South and join the rebels?" when the General, in a terrible rage, called the man a liar and accompanied the word with a great mouthful of spittle, which he planted very accurately on the man's face. A riot was prevented by the friends of the unfortunate man carrying him from the scene. It was the most disgraceful conduct I ever saw and only such as you can see in a low den of bums. It has caused a great excitement at Hinton and the supporters of Mr. Logan are doing all they can to suppress it but it cannot be downed. I am acquainted with some of the Reception Committee who received the General at Ashland, Ky., and passed through the State of West Virginia, depositing him at Clifton Forge. One of the committee, A. Burlew, of this city, I had a conversation with to-day. Mr. Burlew does not approve of the conduct of the General nor the interruption of the individual who received the mouthful of Logan's spittle. If you desire you can publish this, as I think the people should know the material which composes the would be Vice President. Hurriedly yours,
C. W. F.

Some unscrupulous person has been circulating a report that Mr. Allison, the Republican candidate for the Legislature, indulges in the practice of loafing around the hotels and getting drunk. As a Democrat I ask my fellow Democrats in the name of that grand old party whose birth was co-equal with the birth of our nation, and whose end will be only when our nation ceases to exist, to frown down all attempts to make votes by resorting to falsehood. As a neighbor of Mr. Allison I know that the story is untrue. Some of the Republicans are circulating lies concerning Mr. Rhone, a man whose sterling worth and integrity are unquestionable but do not let us lower the honor of our party by retailing in the same way.

The following letter received from Mr. John Musser explains the false reports circulated in reference to our candidate Mr. Leonard Rhone:

FILMORE, Centre Co., Pa.

To the Democrat voters of Centre County:

The report circulated that Mr. Rhone had written to me asking my support for the Legislature on the ground that he was as much a Republican as ever, is without truth. He asked me to use my influence among my Democratic friends in Potter township, to help secure the nomination. He said his friends would be safe in his nomination—that if nominated and elected he would be true to the agricultural and labor interests of our state.

Very Respectfully Yours,
JOHN MUSSER.

To the Voters of the Twentieth Pennsylvania Congressional District.

Yielding to the request of many members of the National Greenback Labor party, I offer myself as a candidate for Congress in the Twentieth district. My platform is:

Increase the tariff until we do not import anything we can make;

Pay out the treasury surplus on the overdue bonds;

Repeal the rebate provision in the duty on bituminous coal.

Prevent the importation of contract or pauper labor;

Restore the American merchant marine, and thereby save over $100,000,000 now paid to foreigners for the ocean carrying trade.

Governmental assistance to build up the best sugar industry and thus save $100,000,000 now paid to foreigners for sugar;

Take the tax of the laboring man's tobacco;

Put all honorably discharged soldiers on the pension roll at equitable rates;

And by these means restore business and labor to prosperous conditions. These measures will set every idle man, every idle mine, and every idle manufactory in the United States at work at profitable wages and prices. Those who believe in these principles are asked to vote for me.

Sheriff of Centre County.

No amount of platitudes of the tattooed gentleman can now redeem the false promises that misled the impoverished workmen four years ago. The deceptual assurance of constant employment and good wages for voting the Republican ticket was a fraud then, and has been a fraud all the time since, and will be a fraud indefinitely continued, if the workmen can again be fooled in voting for their oppressors. But they know better now and are working up to the importance and necessity of change.
