Fancy silk cords at Garman's. Black Escurial laces at Garman's. 10 shades of plushes at Garman's. Camel's hair underwear at Garman's. Chestnut season is on the decline. Buttons, fringes and Gimps at Garman's. The base ball season closed on Saturday. Ladies' linen collars and cuffs at Garman's. A new pavement now surrounds the Court House. A fine line of velvet carpet rockers just received at J. Brachbill's Sons. The Zion cornet band attends the rink every Tuesday and Friday night. A young lady fell at the Altoona Skating Rink last week and broke her arm. Parlor and bedroom suits at Brachbill's Sons' 10 per cent less than elsewhere. Mrs Reynolds new stone mansion is now being put up and will soon be ready for the roof. The latest novelty at J. Brachbill's Sons' furniture store is a sofa-bed. Do not fail to see it. Democrats do not forget your county ticket and that every man on it is worthy of your suffrages. Velvet, carpet and wool-terry lounges and sponge silk couches at Spangler & Co's. The Lutheran congregation of Centre Hall will soon begin the erection of a new church in that place. Ex Gov. Curtin and the people vs. Alphabetical Hall and the corporations, which will you have? Jack Frost is on the stump this fall for Curtin. He will make it rather slippery for (H) all the other orators. The county fairs are about over for this year. Exchange. So is ours, and for some falls to come. The foundation wall of Mr. James P. Harris' new building on the corner of High and Water streets is nearing completion. Five wild turkeys were killed last week out at Marsh Creek. They are said to be plentiful in the vicinity of Romalo. Mr. S. A. Stover, of the Bellefonte marble works, has recently finished a very fine tombstone which he will take to Williamsport to mark the resting-place of the late William D. Bailey. Brother Bemiller of the Millheim Journal is not very accurate in his arithmetic. "Two out side pages, and two inside pages would make four pages," a paper the size of the Journal and instead we have eight pages. J. W. Newson, proprietor of the Opera House Saloon and Oyster Bay, has one of the finest places in town. The rooms have been newly papered and other necessary improvements made which now makes it neat, clean, and cosy. Oysters served in all styles and a first class meal at all hours. We understand that H. T. Harvey of Lock Haven is anxious to have a nomination from the Republicans, and thinks he can slip into Congress through the proverbial "unpleasantness". Try it, Mr. H., it is a good chance to find out just how strong you are. A number of communications advocating the claims of the different candidates on the county ticket are crowded out for the want of space this week. There is not one candidate on the Democratic ticket who should not have the support of the people and you want to vote the straight ticket through and through from Cleveland, Curtin, down to Peck. Judge Hoy is in Huntingdon county this week. We have no doubt but that he will receive the full Democratic vote there as he will in Centre. Put Judge Hoy down for 1200 to 1400 majority. Home made men always receive the support of Centre county's voters. Judge Hoy was born and raised among the people of Centre county. Mr. Furst is a gentleman from Clinton county and would run better there than here. On Friday the 17th inst. Mr. Wendlin Werstein, father-in-law of Mr. F. X. Lehman of this place, died of dropsy. He was in feeble health for some time and his death was not unexpected. His remains were interred in the Catholic graveyard on Monday. The following party bears conveyed the body to the church where High Mass and the sermon was conducted by father McArdle, Messrs. John Hazel, Jacob Repp, John Sands, N. Bowers, John Anderson, and A. Dussling. One of the grandest receptions ever given to a man in this part of the state was tendered Gov. Curtin in Lock Haven on Monday night. The lumber city fairly out did herself in her tribute to the next Congressman. Gov. Curtin made one of his best speeches and the crowd cheered until it was hoarse. No free trains, and free whisky are needed to get the people out to hear their champion. Their enthusiasm swells up from the heart. It is not made for the occasion nor is it drawn from a bottle. Plate glass mirrors at Garman's. 50c walnut curtain poles. Garman's. Muslins, calicoes and gingham at Garman's. German table linens and napkins at Garman's. State College has a fair representation of students this term. John A. Woodward our candidate for the Legislature was in town on Tuesday. Mr. James P. Coburn Esq., drove his elegant matched team through town Tuesday last. A few more Hall meetings like that held in Renovo the other day would knock splinterines out of the alphabet. The mountains are arrayed in their usual lovely fall robe, and present a picture magnificently grand. Sir Richard Peale, the great English nobleman, now residing in Lock Haven, wants to send a miniature "Dude" to Congress. But one more week and victory will perch on the Democratic banner, look to your armor Democrats get every voter to the polls. Mr. Henry Brockerhoff sprained his left ankle by jumping from a carriage in Lock Haven on Monday. He now goes on crutches. C. A. McDougall, manager of the rink, went to Lock Haven yesterday to witness a lady professional skater give an exhibition on the rollers. Nuet Bailey says "taffy" parties are now in order. We really dont know when they are out of order with Nuet as he has been giving "taffy" all summer and yet he repines. To-night another interesting and amusing barrel race will take place at the rink. The barrels will be suspended from the ceiling, and the contestants are com, pelled to get through a barrel each lap. A vote against Curtin is a vote in favor of the great land grabbing corporations that struck down the old Roman Allen G. Thurman. Curtin and the people, Hall corporations and corruption, which will you have? The Democratic meeting held at Rock Forge on Tuesday night was well attended and the speeches well received. The house was filled with both Democrats and Republicans who signified their intention to vote for ex-Gov. Curtin, for Congress. We have a warm feeling for our noble mutton chop friend Sir Richard, but just at this time can not help him in his political aspirations, call on us again and we will see you through in any event the conferees of Centre will be for Mr. Peale. In the issue of the 21st inst., the Daily News publishes a communication from Howard signed "Voter" in which he, under the cover of Voter, works very hard to make an untruthful statement seem plausible. It is hardly worth noticing for no one will be likely to give it any credence whatever. Try something else. The circulation of the vile tirade of Hon. (?) T. J. Baker against ex-Gov. Curtin will make as many votes for alphabetical little Hall in Centre county as would the circulation of the koran among christians. We say to the Hon. T. J. Baker that the Hall Democrats can be counted on the fingers of a one armed man in this county. The same crowd of public thieves, land grabbers and railroad monopolists that defeated the greatest American statesman of the present day, ex-Senator Thurman of Ohio, for the senate have conspired to defeat Governor Curtin. This the same old fight, Curtin and the people on one side and Hall and the monopolists on the other. Which will ye choose? Mrs. Conter, whose death we announced this week, was unable to walk for over twenty years. She bore her sad affliction with patience and christian resignation. She was a member of the Evangelical Church for over 40 years. The deceased leaves five children, two brothers, three sisters and a large circle of friends to mourn her loss. Our loss, but her gain. The Cleveland and Hendricks, and Blaine and Logan Clubs of Renovo, joined hands and received ex-Gov. Curtin last evening. This is another evidence that the people want ex-Gov. Curtin to represent them. The other ambitious politicians might as well "Hall" off, for the voice of the people now speaks. Governor Cleveland was assaulted in front of the Medical College, Albany, on Monday morning by Samuel Boone, of Chemung county, who was ejected from the executive chamber last week for creating a disturbance while seeking a pardon. The Governor warded off the blow which was aimed at him by Boone, and the latter then ran for a stone, but was arrested before he could do any further damage. Boone's brother-in-law is serving a term in the penitentiary, and the assault was the result of Governor Cleveland's refusal to pardon him. Last evening at 5 o'clock Mr. J. H. Bauland, formerly of this place but now of Chicago, was united in marriage to Miss Rosina Grauer at the residence of Mr. Adolph Loeb on spring street. A large number of guests were present. The occasion was one of elegance and grandeur in the least. The Collation was prepared under the supervision of Mr. C. G. McMillen proprietor of the Brockerhoff House assisted by Mr. Burton. The Ceremonies were performed by Rev. Warzel of Williamsport. Mr. Bauland and wife departed for the eastern cities and ultimately for Chicago. Accept our congratulations. Gov. Cleveland will visit Newark, N. J., October 27 as the guest of the Essex County Democratic club. Rev. Furst the Lutheran minister of this place has tendered his resignation as pastor. It is hoped that arrangements will be made to retain him. Among the new arrivals in town last Tuesday evening was a young son at the residence of Mr. James McClain on Curtin street. Curtin McClaine would be a very suitable name Jim. More than half the furnaces in the great Lehigh valley are out of blast. What better evidence do the people want of the blighting effects of the Republican tariff policy? My! what prosperous times these are. To-night at 7 o'clock the marriage ceremonies of Mr. Isaac Baney, and Miss Maggie Scanlon will be performed by Father McArdle at his residence. For about seven years have the public been vainly looking for the consummation of this event. The contracting parties have our congratulations and best wishes. Hon. Henry J. McAteer of Huntingdon county should be the next senator from that district. Mr. McAteer has had experience in legislation, having served in the house of representatives with acceptability to his constituents. He is an excellent business man, thoroughly honest and in every way capable of filling the senatorial office. The nomination of Hon. Adam Hoy of Bellefonte for President Judge of the district composed of the counties of Centre and Huntingdon should commend itself to the voters of that district without distinction of party. Judge Hoy has made an able and impartial judge. Careful, painstaking and conscientious he is a man who ought to be kept on the bench as long as he can be persuaded to remain there. Harrisburg Patriot. Personal. Col. D. H. Hasting's brother is now visiting in Bellefonte. Mr. Andrew Brockerhoff is tarrying in Reynoldsville this week. Hon. Fred Kurtz, editor and proprietor of the Centre Hall Reporter, was in town Monday. Mrs. Chas. McCoy, and family of Millheim are visiting their friends and relatives in this place. S. I. Frain, another strong advocate of Curtin and Democratic principles was among our callers, last week. J. W. Swab of Linden Hall, gave the DEMOCRAT a call and reports things solid for Curtin and the county ticket. Mr. John Bullock, is now attending to his duties in Montgomery Co.'s store, after a pleasant trip to Philadelphia. Mrs. Jerome Bell departed on the 9:45 a. m. train Monday for Camden, N. J. to attend the wedding of Mr. Harry Schroyer. Mr. George Scholl formerly of this place but one of Houserville's successful farmers was visible on our streets on Saturday. Our friend Mr. Jno. R. Bartruff has been on the sick list for over a week but at present writing is improving, we are pleased to state. Miss Mary McBride accompanied by Miss Nannie Ammerman left on the early train on Monday for New York and Philadelphia to purchase her stock of millinery goods. W. T. Bair, editor of the Phillipsburg Journal, occupied a seat on the 9:45 train, Tuesday morning, enroute for Lock Haven. It was the first friendly grip we have had from him for four years. Mrs. F. Montgomery, who has been visiting her friends in Philadelphia for several weeks past is expected home this week. Her worthy husband departed on the 5 p. m. train, Saturday for the city and will return with her. Mr. J. P. Condo of Penn Hall, passed through town on his way home from Philadelphia, where he was attending to the wants of his customers at the firm of Smith, Foster & Co. Mr. Condo has represented this firm for a number of years and makes a wise-awake agent for them. Mr. Samuel Young, editor of the Connoquessing Valley News, Zellenople, Pa., in company with Mr. W. H. Taylor of this place, called upon the DEMOCRAT on Friday last. Mr. Young is a veteran newspaper man, and conducts one of the liveliest papers in the western part of the state. Mr. E. J. Swavely, who has been traveling through the west for eight or ten weeks, is now tarrying in town for several days. His family are yet visiting in the western part of this state. Erve is enroute for Washington and other eastern points and will not return to Bellefonte before the holidays. Our friend, Mr. John C. Bechdel of Eagleville, who for the past eight weeks, has been traveling through the west, arrived in town last Saturday evening on his way home. His trip was quite an extensive one, going as far west as Denver and the Indian Territory, stopping in Kansas City, Chicago, and other important places on his way east. John is the picture of health, and we conclude the trip did him good. Only don't get the western fever. Gov. Cleveland had the extreme pleasure of kicking a dirty scamp down the capitol steps at Albany, the other day metaphorically speaking he will assist James G. Blaine down another pair of steps in November.

Gov. Cleveland will visit Newark, N. J., October 27 as the guest of the Essex County Democratic club. Rev. Furst the Lutheran minister of this place has tendered his resignation as pastor. Obituary.

Obituary—Mr. Joseph Baker, whose death occurred on the 2d inst., of organic heart disease, was born and raised at Howard, this county. He learned the carpenter trade when quite young and worked at the same for over thirty-four years. He married Miss Sara Kobel in 1835, and in 1838 they moved to Oak Hall. He farmed for 19 years, and during that time was elected to five different offices of public trust in that township. He served as guardian in about thirty different cases and during his declining years has refused to accept the offices tendered to him. His prolonged and intensified sufferings were endured with christian resignation. He had no wish or will in himself, but the will of God, in which he acquiesced with the fortitude of a martyr till God perfected His work in him. He connected himself with the Reformed church at the age of twenty, in which relation he stood an active member until 1845, when he united with the Evangelical church, thus being enrolled in church-fellowship for over 57 years and faithfully carried out the principles of the Holy Religion of Christ. In short his life was uniform and consistent from the cradle to the grave, and he will be missed by all who knew him. We have just learned that Prof. Alfred Armstrong died at Washington city, D. C., on Tuesday last. Mr. Armstrong was for many years the principal of the Academy in this place, greatly esteemed as a man of culture and refinement, and a cherished member of the Presbyterian church. He was over 80 years old and has been for several years employed in one of the Departments at Washington. The funeral took place yesterday at Harrisburg. Democratic Meeting.—A good turnout of the Democracy was the result of the meeting held at Linden Hall, Wednesday evening Oct. 15. The assembly was called to order by Fergus Potter, after which P. H. Meyer, was chosen President, and J. W. Swabb Secretary. Jno. A. Woodward, Esq., one of the nominees for assembly, was the first speaker. He made a very effective little address. Mr. Woodward was ably followed by J. L. Spangler, whose ability is well known. The meeting pleasantly closed and all the Democrats happy. A HORRIBLE DEATH.—A man working on the viaduct on the B. C. C. & S. W. R. R., this side of Peal one day last week fell off and received injuries that resulted in his death about eight hours after the accident happened. The height of this immense structure is 95 feet, and in falling the unfortunate man struck a heavy plank 20 from the top, breaking it in two at that point. He was the thinnest kind of lath. Twenty feet farther down he encountered another plank with the same result as the first, and fell the remaining 45 feet an insensible mass of broken bones. He was terribly mangled up and presented a horrible appearance. We failed to learn anything pertaining to the man further than that he was from the State of New York, to which place the body was taken. Phillipsburg Journal. Democratic Meetings.
