G. S. T. H. & B. Try Harper & Weakly's cheese. Camel, hair underwear at Garman's. Buttons, fringes and Gimps at Garman's. They now have a telephone at Fowler. Ladies' linen collars and cuffs at Garman's. Good goods for little money at Harper & Weakly. There is solid comfort in Harper & Weakly's bet cigars. Mr. Oscar McEntire, returned from Washington D. C. to vote. A fine line of velvet carpet rockers just received at J. Brachbill's Sons. Read "what the people say" on the upper right hand corner of the 4th page. Ladies' plush garments ready made and to order a specialty at the Bee Hive. Lap robes of plush and fur, also horse blankets cheapest in the state at the Bee Hive. Mr. Will Confer, and Samuel C. Brickley both of Howard gave our office a friendly call. Our Black Silks at 75c, $1.00, $1.10 $1.25, are the best value ever offered at the Bee Hive one price store. G. S. T. H. & B. stands for Green's Syrup of Tar, Honey and Bloodroot, the best cough remedy in the world. Several bears have been seen in the vicinity of Fillmore. One in Matlock Kephart's garden, and one on the farm where Mr. Bray resides. A roving band of gypsies with their usual store of earthly collections, passed through town one day last week, they had one very fine wagon and a number of horses. Rev. A. D. Witz who is now preaching as well as teaching in Houtzdale came home to cast his vote, and immediately returned to the above place to resume his work. Dr. L. M. Houser, of Houserville who is attending the Medical Department of the University of Philadelphia returned to vote and departed on the evening train on Tuesday for the city. Mr. Frank Cunningham, who was brought home from the South several weeks ago, very low with chills and southern fever, is steadily regaining his former strength, and we trust will soon be able to be around. Mr. Enoch Hugg of Unionville has bought the property lately owned by Mrs. Barr at Fillmore, and intends moving there in the spring, and open a store, wagon, and blacksmith shop. On Monday crowds, and groups of men could be seen on the streets busily engaged in discussing the political issues. On Tuesday however was the day matters were to be settled, and when one man's vote counted as much as another. Mr. Amos Garbrick, of this place cast his vote on Tuesday, and then departed on the 5 p. m. train for Gallion, Sandusky and other points in the old Buckeye state. He will remain two or three weeks in the state that is round at each end, and "at" in the middle. A combination band was visible on our streets last week. An Italian with a bag pipe two drums, triangle, cymbals and a bell all arranged on his back, and operated with his foot to the time of the music on the bag pipe. We could however, distinguish but one tune and he made good use of that. We are in receipt of Root & Tinkers newly published plate entitled Representatives of Professional Base Ball in America." This will prove interesting to sporting men, as it shows the faces of the players whose names are familiar to the lovers of pastime, To the League and American Association is due much of the present good repute of the National game. These plates can be had by addressing P. Lovillard, Jersey City N. J. We can safely say that the Zion Cornet Band is the best band in the county, and are not flustering or exaggerating when we say they have no superior in the central part of the state. Their selections comprise the latest pieces played by the city bands, and each individual member possessing some knowledge of harmony, and time. There is not that usual amount of discord that generally rates upon the ear. We in justice to all cannot comment anyone especially but must say that the bass horn has a fellow behind it, "what can make her too." Then piccolo is an accession not commonly found in country bands. Again this band deserves credit for the disadvantage it labors under in meeting to practice. A large number of the members have several miles to come to attend their meeting, yet their faithfulness is being rewarded, and we hope to see this band retain the reputation they now justly have.

Smyrna rugs at Garman's. Columbia Yarns at Garman's. Elder Down flannel at Garman's. Polo and skating caps at Garman's. Cloth stitched hats at Garman's. White linen thread, all numbers at Garman's. Zephyrs, Saxons and crewels at Garman's. The senior editor cast his 54th annual Democratic vote on Tuesday. Children's carpet and perforated seat chairs, fine splint rockers at R. B. Spangler & Co. Mr. Finley Shugert of Washington, D. C., has been visiting his friends and relations in this place. There are six hundred and seventy men in Elk county who own themselves. Here's our hand gentlemen. Dr. H. K. Hoy, of this place, is quite ill, and has been for several weeks. At this writing we are pleased to say there is hope of his convalescence. Centre county owes a debt of gratitude to Elk, which she will some day repay. Little Elk has Hall-ed off into the Republican camp for repairs. Gov. Curtin's majority in the district is 1345 and a telegram received by him from A. P. Gorman just before going to press says the Republicans conceded the State by 1700, which of course insures Cleveland's election. The next attractive feature at the roller rink after the Jubilee Singers on Saturday night, is the May pole dance on rollers. They are practicing now and will perform the same some evening next week. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Evert, of Houserville, returned to Centre after an absence of nearly one year, during which time Mr. Evert visited Kansas and other western States, his wife remaining with friends and relatives in Cleveland, Akron and other towns on the "Western Reserve."

One of the largest reduction sales of general merchandise, and where an opportunity to purchase standard goods cheap is now being had at the store of M. E. Holmes, at Nittany. This sale will last only until the 15 inst., and all should avail themselves of this chance. Read the large posters and see the numerous articles and the price for which they are selling. The skating rink has been wainscoted, and two stoves placed in the same which makes it very comfortable. On Saturday night when the "University Jubilee Singers" make their first appearance in this place, a stage will be erected and seats arranged to accommodate all who desire to witness a good entertainment. This company is first class in every respect and the best of order and decorum will be preserved. Mr. Ellis orvis, returned Saturday last from an extended trip of several months through the western states and Territories, having visited the Yellow Stone Park, Washington Territory California, and many other interesting points. The trip was both pleasant and profitable in as much as his health is greatly improved, and his route was through the most picturesque and interesting portion of this country. "I am for Blaine," "Hurrah for Blaine," are the sentences which one of our young lady teachers placed on the black board for her pupils to copy. If the lady in question has any politics at all, the school room is not the place to air them. The tax-payers of Bellefonte are not sending their children to the public schools to be taught partisan politics. If the lady teacher is "for Blaine" and desires to "hurrah for Blaine" she has a perfect right to do so but let it be on the street and not in the school room. Messrs. J. C. and J. P. Condo, and J. W. Barges, and Samuel Ulrich, all of Penn Hall, bolted into our sanctum on Wednesday night laughing and feeling good in general, we said boys "why is this thus," and "what is the reason of this thusness." They said they were straight Democrats and the old war Gov. was elected so here is our subscription for the Centre Democrat and our word for a dozen more new subscribers, we must cheer for Curtin. All right boys we are with you. Mr. J. C. Condo who is an A No. 1 wagon-maker thinks he can turn out more, work better work, and cheaper than ever, since the election of a Democratic President.

The following obituary notice sent us from Howard will prove interesting to many of our readers.

GONE BUT NOT FORGOTTEN. Our community was suddenly shocked on the morning of the 22nd., by the receipt of a telegram to our neighbor Wistar announcing the death of Mrs. Clara Heverly Hall, wife of John D. Hall Tyrone Pa. Mr. Wister repaired at once to that place, taking passage on the Local Freight west by permission of S. S. Blair, Supt. Arriving there about 12.20 P. M. he found the fact too true, and relating the sad particulars to our correspondent as follows:—Mr. Jno. D. Hall (in the P. R. R. Co's service as baggage master on the Clearfield road,) left his wife in good spirit on the evening of the 21st. for duty. On his return the morning following, repaired at once to his home, finding all the doors well fastened and receiving no reply to his several calls and wraps he entered the house by raising a window which had not been secured, he now attempted to open the stair door but finding it secured on the opposite side, he wrapped again and again, finally awaking his little boy Ellis, (about 2 1/2 yrs. old) The little fellow appeared to have become sensible of the situation, and advanced to the top of the stairway asking the question "Is that you papa?" to which Mr. Hall replied in his usual manner "It is papa," whereupon the little fellow replied, "mamma sick, mamma sick," at the same time descending the stairway to the door but found himself too short to rise the bolt Mr. Hall thereupon procured a chisel and pried open the door quickly ascending to his room finding Clara lying on the floor along side of her bed, with her feet suspended in the bed clothes. Rising her quickly into the bed, he called in Physician and neighbors, but all to no purpose, the Physician pronouncing her dead. Messrs J. H. Burley and Bro. (undertaker, of Tyrone) took charge of the remains preparing it for burial by furnishing a handsome burial casket, and on the Thursday morning train, east, was brought to the place of her childhood and taken to the home of Geo. Wistar (her brother-in-law with whose family the deceased and her family have been extremely intimate since the death of her father (Jas. Heverly) in August, 1879. By proper care and preservation the body was kept in an excellent condition until the hour of burial 11 o'clock A. M. 24th, inst. at which hour it was placed to its last resting place in the Howard Cemetery. Religious services being held in the M. E. Church, Revs. N. J. Mitchell and Owen Hicks officiating; large number of neighbors and friends taking their last view of the remains. Mrs. Clara Heverly Hall was the youngest daughter of Jas. Heverly, (a much respected citizen of this place and who had died about 5 yrs. ago.) She was born in Howard, on the 26th, day of April, 1858, when about 13 or 14 years of age she was baptised and admitted in the Christian Church by the Rev. N. J. Mitchell, and was up to her death a good christian and dear neighbor and friend. Although her physical infirmity during the last few years of her lifetime prevented her from going to the house of God. She was much beloved by all who had the pleasure to make her acquaintance, and will be much missed by those with whom she had become mostly endeared. She was in her 26th, year. She leaves a husband and a bright 2 1/2 yr. old boy. "Dear husband, and loved ones, cease your weeping. My weary spirit is at rest. I am not dead, but only sleeping. On my loving Savior's breast. All my sorrows now are ended. Life and all its works are done, And with angel's hands attending Jesus bids us to come home. Dear beloved ones cease your weeping. That I so soon have passed away. Think what joy there is in meeting. In that land more bright than day. Though my voice is silent to you, And my face you see no more. But in Heaven I'll wait to meet you. Where all parting scenes are o'er. Yes, wait and go, dear husband, And wherever you may be. When at home you all will gather. Then dear husband think of me. Oh I tender and sweet was the Savior's voice. As he lovingly called to me, Come over the line, 'tis only a step, I am waiting my child for thee."

Don't imagine, Mr. Editor, that you have a new correspondent. Our maiden name was Spring Mills but we are married now and have a new name. How do you like it? We don't like it very well and consequently remonstrated against it. The Penna. Railroad Co. which sometimes assumes such aldermanic proportions that it imagines it is the legislature and the supreme court both say you must have a new name. If you don't like the one we gave, select another one. The probability is the name will be changed to Duncan, On Monday, the 3d inst, the 10, o'clock train commenced running to Oak Hall. The evening train will not run any further than the place until the road is completed to Bellefonte. The men are busy putting up the telegraph to Oak Hall. The Rising Springs schools are in operations with Messrs. Hosterman, Krise and Miss Maggie Hanna as teachers. Dame Rumor says that another store will be opened here soon in the Duncan store room. The Granger Store room is still for rent. This is a good room and very suitable for a hardware or implement store or a furniture room. J. J. Grenoble bought five lots at the railroad crossing at Centre Hall, and will erect a grain house this fall. A store will also be put there next summer. More anon.

A great reduction in clothing, hats, caps, neck-ties and under ware at Lewin's Philadelphia Branch Store. Men's suits from $5.50 up to $22.00. Men's overcoats from $5.50 up to $16. Youth's suits from $7 up to $12. Youth's overcoats from $4.50 to $6. Boys' suits from $7.75 to $14. Children's suits as low as $1.75 up to $6. Spring overcoats at all prices. Hats, caps, under ware as low as 50 cents per suit. All other goods correspondingly low in price. In winter when the snow and ice are upon the ground, and nature is cold and cheerless, a sweet singing canary in a cage among plants in the window is most cheerful and inviting. Go to Zeller's drug store and take your choice among the many, all singers, too. Elegant Turkoman 'curtains at Garman's. Best in the world, is the HIGH ARM OF OSCILLATING SINGER Sewing MACHINE, for sale at The Singer Office, Bellefonte, Pa. B. B. GILBERT, Manager. New dried and evaporated fruits at Harper & Weakly's. Reuben Spangler, of R. B. Spangler & Co., is selling the meanest shabbiest and rockiest furniture in five counties. We cannot understand why people should continue to haul way loads and piles of this furniture. They know it will hardly last over night, and yet why is, it the people will try it. Then he sells it for little or nothing. Some he gives away. Reuben must be either breaking up or getting crazy. We were in his store the other night and we saw walnut suits that cost from $60, $180, all for less than it is said they cost at wholesale. While Reuben is in this mode, why don't you go for his odd chairs, the biggest lot ever brought to town. Go see him. Levring's coffee takes the lead. Don't use any other. All wool factory blankets in white and colored from $400, upward at the Bee Hive. Look out for the cheap horse blankets advertised at 70 and 75 cents to $1. Farmers, these blankets are not worth anything. I would ask the public to examine my large stock of horse blankets and lap robes, buffalo robes, 100 strings of sleigh bells, all of which must be sold. I have on hand a fine assortment of light and heavy harness at reduced prices. Ointment and liniment for horses etc., at JAMES SCOFIELD'S. Children's and Misses coats from $1.50, up at the Bee Hive. Parlor and bedroom suits at Brachbill's Sons' 10 per cent. less than elsewhere. The latest novelty at J. Brachbill's Sons' furniture store is a sofa-bed. Do not fail to see it. WOODWARD ITEMS. Farmers are done husking corn and are busy thrashing their grain. Noah Weaver, the boss farmer of our town, lost a very large hog last week. Mr. H. Goodman, the boss nimrod, is the happiest man in the hiner eck. He shot the biggest and the fastest deer that ever was shot in the vicinity. The Modock coon oand have caught and killed fourteen coons this season, with Josh the leader in chief. Pedro has taken rooms at the St. Elmo Hotel and is sleeping in a spare bed No 1. W. Etting had the misfortune last week to cut his foot badly, but is improving rapidly. Miss Ida Miller, from Spring Mills, has taken charge of the Millinery store of this place and is selling lot of hats bonnets, etc. Bob, the counter hopper at the People's Store, is kept very busy selling the new stock of goods just received from the eastern cities. J. C. Motz has his new saw mill nearly ready to run. After it is done it will be one of the best Mills at this end of the county. Joe Niles was off last Sunday eve, some rifle to get married.
