Oysters at Harper & Weakly's. New canned goods at Harper & Weakly's. Granulated corn meal at Harper & Weakly's. Mr. Michael Shafer and son of Zion, were among our callers on Friday last. The weather has been exceedingly fine—the finest we have had for twenty four years. Guenheimer's sale of silk handkerchiefs will astonish you don't fail to give them an inspection. Mr. David Houser and George Keller of Houserville were among our callers. Come again gentlemen. Mr. E. W. Kline, one of Howard township's active and successful teachers was in town on Saturday. Mr. M. L. Beck of Nitany realizing the fact that printers ink, paper, and labor require money, paid his subscription in advance. The remains of Mrs. Margaret Love, an aged lady who departed this life on last Thursday, were brought to this place for burial on Sunday. We want to congratulate Mr. John Ardell, and well—really we don't know how to get about, but it's too sweet for any thing—a boy? no indeed it's a little girl. Mr. George Robby, whose young, yet tall and commanding appearance attracts attention, left his school-room at Walker on Friday, and came to town to see us jubilate. Dr. H. K. Hoy, Mr. Jonathan Harper and Mr. Frank Cunningham all of whom have been seriously ill for several weeks are now recovering, to the great and happy surprise of all who know them. The May Pole Dance on roller skates on last Thursday night was a success, and was highly appreciated by the large audience assembled. The burlesque on the same by the boys club was exceedingly funny and was well received. On last Thursday and Friday the 16th annual Sabbath school convention of Centre county met and held its reunion in the Presbyterian church at Port Matilda. It was largely attended, by members of the different churches throughout the county, and was a decided success in every respect. Mr. G. W. Thomas, who was engaged with the late Thomas Burnside in the governmental position which he held in Missouri, accompanied the remains to this place, and will return to the West after a visit of several weeks in his native town and County. We listened with pleasure to his interesting description of the great West. In Mr. Finkbinder's show case are displayed some very handsome photographs among others we noticed a little boy and girl, children of Mr. Harry Hicks, taken cabinet size. They are natural and life-like, and reflect credit upon the talented artist Mr. Finkbinder, and show his skill in the art posing. The three mile skating race at the roller rink on Tuesday night last between Mr. James E. Westbrook, the champion amateur skater of Lock Haven and Mr. Stewart Laird of this place, was won by the later by 1 1/2 laps. The race was skated in 13 minutes and 17 seconds. The prize consisting of a pair of nickel-plated skates, was presented to Mr. Laird by Mr. Malen one of the judges. Mr. Martin Storer, who resides with his father on Mr. Valentines farm, near the Springs, and who besides being a clever sort of a chap, is quite a tobacco grower, brought into our office on Saturday, two cigars: Cleveland, and Hendricks, respectively, as he termed them. One was 18 inches long, and the other 26. The filling in the large one was four years old, being cured when Garfield was elected. Mart said he was going to keep it until a Democratic President was elected, and then put the wrapper on. On Tuesday morning about 1 o'clock a fire broke out in the Bush Arcade. But the prompt response of the fire companies the flames were soon under control. The fire originated in the garret stairway leading from the Armory Hall and was not discovered until it had burned through the ceiling. The falling of the plastering awoke the occupants in the building. The fact that the Armory and the door leading to the garret was locked and no possible chance of fire to originate there through any carelessness, the conclusion reached is that it was the work of an incendiary or the rats may have carried matches there and did the mischief. It would just be mean enough for a rat to do so. The damped by water is considerable, as the ceiling in the Armory Hall is thoroughly soaked, and the papering on the walls more or less damaged.

Hon. S. T. Shugert the veteran editor of the CENTRE DEMOCRAT retires from the editorial chair this week, from the regret of his many friends and patrons. Yet his usefulness will long be remembered. He has not only endeared himself to those who knew him, by his indulgent and genial disposition, but his life long faithfulness to the true principals of the Democratic party in the county, state and nation. But years are creeping on apace and the once dark hair is now snowy white; the bright eyes, requires the glasses, and the quick and elastic step given away to less active tread. Realizing this and seeing that his efforts in again restoring his great party to power, are this year crowned with triumphant success and glory, he willingly yields up the pen, and accepts the release from the pressing duties and responsibilities of his much coveted trade and profession. Yet his love for the principles he espoused, and his exceedingly good health at this time will still find him taking an active part with us; and we trust he may live to see his bright hopes fully realized in his last enterprise the CENTRE DEMOCRAT. On last Sunday evening the fifteenth anniversary of the Young Men's Christian Association was held in the Presbyterian church in this place. An invitation is always extended to the different religious denominations and their ministers and members alike respond by abandoning services at their respective churches and attend the union meeting. Rev. S. E. Furst opened the services by reading a few passages from the Scriptures, after which Rev. M. K. Foster led in prayer. Rev. DeLong made some very able remarks. The annual address of the retiring President, Dr. Rhone was read by Rev. Furst. Washington Reese read the report of the reception committee prepared by Ed. Garman; Library committee, by George Potter; Lecture committee by Mr. S. Zellers, and the Treasurer's report by Mr. J. W. Gephart; General Secretary Wilmer Crow then read his report. The most important was the finance committee's report which was read by General James A. Beaver. General Beaver's remarks were, as they always are on any occasion, sound and had the true christian ring that characterizes this active christian worker. The benediction was pronounced by Rev. Woodcock. The Democrats in this vicinity are exceedingly impudent since Cleveland's election. We know of one Democrat who turned a colored man from his employ because said colored man voted for Furst, and a colored man of this borough was knocked down and injured on Saturday evening because he burrahed for Blaine. The assaulter was sued to-day and we hope he will be punished. Daily News It is not many years since Democrats were compelled to keep off the streets, when a radical meeting was in progress and Democratic speakers had to go armed to Democratic meetings in order to protect themselves from Republican mobs, yes, verily, in the grammatical language of Joe Logan, "things is changed." Both parties can shout for whom they please. If you don't believe it ask the Republicans of Boalsburg, who tried to break up the Democratic jubilee at that place last Saturday. RATIFICATION MEETING AT SPRING MILLS—On Monday evening the untiring democracy of Central Penn's Valley held their jubilee in honor of the triumph of right over wrong. All afternoon boys and men were engaged in collecting material for a huge bonfire on Egg Hill. Long before dark the sons of toil began pouring into our village. From hill and vale, from far and near, on every side, they came flocking in, some on horseback, some in wagons, and some on foot. On the arrival of the Farmer's Mills band the parade formed and marched from the Spring Mills, House to the Spring Mills Hotel and back again to Mr. Grenoble's store. The meeting was called to order and W. A. Krise was chosen chairman, who after a few remarks introduced Mr. Heinle, who delivered a masterly speech to the vast multitude assembled in front of the store. After Mr. Heinle had closed his speech cries of "Spangler," "Spangler," from hundreds of hoarse throats, brought that stalwart Democrat on the stand who entertained the audience for a while longer with one of his characteristic speeches. He offered some very consoling words and also some very good advice to our Republican neighbors who for the next four years will be compelled to fill the position of "outs." At the close of his speech loud calls were made for George W. Koch of Potter township, who mounting the box on the store porch, from which the others had spoken, made some timely remarks. G. e. is one of the "boys in blue" and a Grand Army man, but he has no love for the Republicans whose boasted love for the soldiers too often turned out to be empty promises. He closed his speech by denying the assertion of our opponents that the soldiers were all Republicans. He said that he knew of, at least two Democrats in the army; viz, George B. McClellan and George W. Koch. After the speeches were over a grand pyrotechnic exhibition took place, after which the vast multitude gave three hearty cheers for Cleveland and Hendricks, and then dispersed to their homes, there to dream of good times to come. GRAND JUBILEE.

An Impending Display made by the Successful Democratic Party.

Friday evening was the time set to ratify the glorious and triumphant success of the Democratic party to power. During the day all were as busy as bees decorating and making necessary preparations for a grand display in the evening. Early in the afternoon delegations and brass bands began arriving, and by 7 o'clock fully 1000 people, with torch and calcium lights and ten bands heading the different delegations, formed in line, and paraded the principal streets of our city. Mr. Hammon Sechler was chosen chief marshal and his skill in the same was fully shown by the successful arrangement of the various delegations. His aids were W. C. Heinle, Fred Reynolds, Jas. A. McClellan, Jos. Brockerhoff J. L. Spangler, L. T. Munson, Jas. B. Lane and M. Walker. The parade formed on Allegheny street in front of the Court House yard and marched down High street to Spring, Spring to Howard thence to Allegheny, north on Allegheny to Linn, west on Linn to Spring, south on Spring to Bishop, counter marched on Bishop to Allegheny thence to diamond. The Walker delegation under command of W. C. Heinle was headed by the Zion cornet band. L. F. Munson had charge of the Loop delegation with the Broom band at the head. William B. Mingle with the Potter delegation came next. The Handcock Legion under Aid Wm. Ludwig made a fine appearance. The Howard band headed the Bald Eagle delegation, the Pleasant Gap band, the Spring township delegation which turned out in wagons, reapers carts and on horseback. The Washington band, Pine Grove Mills cornet band, the Roland, Mileburg, Snow Shoe and a number of other bands, were present discoursing excellent and patriotic music all along the route. The Cleveland "kids" with a glass band formed a conspicuous part of the procession; but the most interesting and amusing feature in the entire parade was the Belva Lockwood fantastic delegation. About 50 men arrayed in female attire (not nearly so well as some fitting rather "too soon" with uncle Sam with his red, white, and blue suit, driving an old plug" (the lively men will please excuse the term this time) hitched to the chariot that contained the dear little woman, who upon this occasion displayed more taste for fashionable bonnets and underware than for a seal skin sacque. Dear Belva was indeed happy; and followed as she was by a corps of economical "dressers." She has reason not only to be happy but to congratulate herself upon the reform she has introduced in dress. All along the line of the parade the houses were brilliantly illuminated, and exquisitely decorated with bunting flags Chinese lanterns, etc. The Lane residence and their large yard was one mass of lanterns of different colors and presented a lovely picture. The Court yard and jail were handsomely illuminated, a flag was floating to the November breeze from almost every window of the Brockerhoff House and Garman Hotel. Mr. Lehman's Hotel was handsomely illuminated and decorated. His large flag was stretched across the street to the office of the CENTRE DEMOCRAT from the hotel and the Chinese lanterns and other bright lights adorned Strichline corner. Space will not permit mention of all the houses that were handsomely illuminated and decorated. The electric jets on top of the Watchman Office was novel and attractive. They were arranged in front of a white banner so as to form the word "victory;" upon the top of this was a rooster crowing victory. The following were some of the inscriptions on the banners and transparencies. "Grover Grover had a walk over." "God reigns and the government at Washington lives." "Right prevails after many days." "We have cooked the goose G. O. P." "Buy me a seal skin sacque." "Me and Jim is best" "JOHN A. LOGAN" and many others. All in all the decorations illuminations congratulations and jollifications were a grand success. RATIFICATION MEETING AT BOALS BURG.—At 2 o'clock on Saturday afternoon, the American flag bearing the names Cleveland and Hendricks was suspended fifty feet in the air, to the poles that were raised in 1880 in honor of Maj. General Hancock. After viewing it for a short time, as it calmly and proudly floated in the gentle breeze, we separated to convene at five o'clock to perfect the arrangements for the evening. Promptly at the appointed hour we again assembled and Geo. W. Williams was chosen Marshal and Isaac Woomer and Samuel Ishler assistant marshals, and designated 7 o'clock as the hour when the procession should be ready to start. Promptly at that hour the Linden Hall cornet band arrived, and the procession formed in front of J. N. Dinges store-room, where the banners, lamps and other equipments were deposited. After the procession had formed, headed by the band, and followed by a number of aged veterans, who have spent their three score and ten years in the service of the Democracy, and about one hundred others many of whom carried lamps and banners. At this juncture the anvils announced in thundering tones that the hour for starting had arrived. The procession then moved to the music of the band, up to the west end of Main street, and right and left counter marched and passed down the street eastward when a counter march was again ordered and the enthusiastic throng moved up what is commonly called Huckleberry street, then down and up Pine street and returned by the way of Church street to the diamond. The approach was announced by shooting anvils and firing of roman candles, etc. in front of Geo. Hoffers hotel. After three hearty cheers were given for Cleveland and Hendricks, and the band played a choice selection of music, Chairman Weber called the meeting to order, and announced that he awaited the pleasure of the meeting in the selection of a President. The name of Hon. W. A. Murry was presented, which received the approval of the audience. The gentleman there appeared upon the stand and in a brief but well chosen address stated the objects of the meeting and clearly defined the occasion of our great and enthusiastic rejoicing. At the conclusion of his remarks Messrs. J. Weber, Martin Grove Sr. Peter Kuhn, Christian Gurgich and Isaac Woomer were elected Vice President. The Chairman then introduced District Atty. W. C. Heinle, who made a very earnest and appreciative speech, which was frequently interrupted by hearty prolonged applause. At the close of his remarks the band again greeted us with a fine selection of music. The name of D. F. Fortney was loudly called for, and he being fully assured of the noble victory that has been achieved for the Democracy, promptly appeared and in his accustomed clear and distinct tones that could easily be heard above the ladies and "Kids Hurrah for Blaine"—portrayed how reluctantly our Republican friends release the power they have held with an iron grasp for twenty four years and the many frauds they have perpetrated upon the government and people. He also contrasted the natural rejoicing of those who had supported Cleveland and Hendricks in the anticipation of leaving a wise economical and just administration of our government. The address reflected credit and honor upon the speaker, and received the most hearty applause and the approbation of the audience. Thanks were returned to the speakers, and especially to the band for the most excellent music which was furnished. After which the meeting adjourned. We regret to say that the meeting was annoyed during the entire evening by a number of persons that should be denominated roughs, that belong to the tail end of the Republican party and who used all manner of indignities to the speakers and the meeting. In the name of common sense, why do the intelligent people of this community allow such conduct? For it not only occurs at political meetings but at church and every other meeting of any kind held in this place. They thereby not only bring reproach upon themselves, but upon the entire community. I trust the time is not far distant when the right thinking people will raise to the dignity of their manhood, and in the language of one of the speakers "give them some devilish good knocks" which might teach them a good lesson, or make them atone to the offended law. W. County Communications. MILLEHEIM. We celebrated the grand old victory of the Democratic party by a jollification meeting last week, some thought we were making a fuss too soon, but this week they have changed their minds, and yielded up the ghost. Mr. H. E. Dick and wife are now at home, after an extensive visit to the West. The ladies of the Lutheran mite society are going to have a big supper on Thanksgiving. The Devils Agent is in Millheim now, all those who wish Salt River tickets will please apply before next Sunday. John Garret must have been a wonderful man, or the man who told the story. He surely broke the Hotel man up. MADISONBURG. Miss Blanche Twitmyre of Pleasant Gap is visiting her friend Miss Annie Feidler, and is also taking music lessons from Miss Annie. Miss Jennie Ruhl of Highland, Kansas, is visiting Miss Ida Reber in this place. Madisonburg is to have a skating rink. Rebersburg where art thou?—A certain young lady has had her name changed to "Notoriety" because so many young men like to court Notoriety. One glass sometimes makes a tumbler, remarked the chap who found that a single drink of apple jack, twisted his legs into a bow knot. Mr. E. Shafer of Lewistown, and L. B. Roush of Lancaster, were home casting their votes for Cleveland and Hendricks, in fact the whole ticket. Mr. Geo. Hasel, has lately taken charge of the Speglemyer store in this place. Nevin left many warm friends. The tick are slowly improving. Gents knit jackets of all grades at GUENHEIMER'S. An immense variety of ties and silk handkerchiefs at GUENHEIMER'S. PENN HALL.

Here we are. Hurrah! for Cleveland, Hendricks and Curtin. Jack Plane, complains of certain parties using his name, Jack look it up. I would not stand infringement, upon good nature. J. B. Fisher, arrived home last Thursday from Pittsburgh with a car load of fine cattle, which are now being fed on the lower farm. The latest by word. "You won't be my darling any more" how is it B. The singing commenced on Monday evening with a fair attendance. The number of scholars being forty-four. Prof. P. H. Meyers has singing in charge. We were all glad to see Fred Heckman's smiling face on election day, coming a li way from Roopburg to vote for Rhode that was right. Fred come again. Mr. Wm. Heckman has bought the Vanvalza farm, near Centre Hall where he expects moving to this coming spring. J. C. Condo, had quite a circus with his pony a few days ago. John says he will not haul any more water. Some of our young men from this place returned home from hunting last Friday. They were successful in capturing two fine deer. We learn that Calvin Moyer, was one of the boys that made a good shot. Calvin Weaver, from Shamokin, gave our town a short call on Sunday last. Cal why not stay longer and see your friends. These three persons were respectively the only son, the widowed sister, and the wife of Abraham Hicks. How greatly and suddenly bereaved. IN MEMORIAM—Mrs. Mary J. H. Gill, widow of Col. Jas. Gilliland, near Linden, Montgomery Co. Md., departed this life on the 9th day of Nov., 1884. She entered into that "rest that remaineth to the people of God." She was one of God's suffering ones for nearly 26 years. Still her faith in Christ her Saviour never faltered. She bore with patience and resignation her long trial, sustained by the blessed hope of at last entering that home where "the inhabitants shall not say: I am sick." "She endured as seeing him who is invisible." She was a lady of unusual intelligence and literary attainments. But her chief glory was that she was a child of God. She was a member of the Presbyterian Church. She has left a devoted husband, one own daughter and four step children two sons and two daughters to mourn her loss, by whom her memory shall be long cherished in loving remembrance. "Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord." We shall meet her again. "Beyond the parting and the meeting We shall be soon: Beyond the farewell and the greeting Beyond the pulse's fever beating We shall be soon: Beyond the frost chain and the fever. We shall be soon: Beyond the rock-waste and the river Beyond the ever and the never, We shall be soon: Love, rest, and home Sweet home! Lord, tarry not, but come! W.
