CANCER CURED.
No diseases have so thoroughly baffled the skill of the medical profession as cancerous affections and as they have always been considered incurable, it has been thought desirable to adopt their treatment as a specialty; and hence physicians have neglected their proper study. Of late years new and important discoveries have brought forth a course that now proves successful in any of its forms, with certainty, without the use of the knife or caustic plasters. We have a treatment that is comparatively mild. It is not poisonous, does not interfere with the healthy work, can be applied to any part of the body, even the tongue. We ask nothing for our services until the cancer is cured. Address

HOWARD.
David DeLong, Robert Ritchey and Captain Thomas Askey seem to have been the only residents of the present territory of Howard in 1784. In 1884 Howard has 315 taxable; 172,308 dollars real estate; 1000 dollars returned as money at interest; 158 horses, valued at 11,039 dollars; 196 cows at 3,962; it pays 799 dollars and 77 cents county tax, and its population in 1880 was 947. It pays 383 dollars and 88 cts. county tax and in 1880 had a population of 498.

LIBERTY.
There were surveys and small improvements in the territory of Liberty before the revolution, but the only person who returned in 1788 was John Magee, who lived on the south side of Bald Eagle creek a little above the mouth of Marsh Creek. John Holt and James Brown came in that year and did some improving there. In 1884 Liberty has 415 taxables; real estate valued at two hundred and ten thousand five hundred and sixteen dollars; money at interest eight thousand three hundred and thirty-seven dollars; horses, one hundred and fifty-one valued at eight thousand one hundred and sixty dollars; cows, one hundred and seventy-eight valued at three thousand six hundred dollars. It pays eight hundred and ninety-nine twenty-eight one hundredth dollars county tax and its population in 1880 was 1,284.

BENNER.
Surveys were made in the territory of Benner as early as 1770, along Buffalo run and Spring creek, but the greater portion and the best land was not taken up and surveyed until November 1784. It had no residents in 1784 except Isaac Connelly, who lived on the James Hamilton place, Connelly sold to John Meese in 1801 and moved to the western part of the State. General Benner came in and made his first improvements in May 1793. In 1884 Benner has 347 taxables; real estate valued at $454,470, money at interest, $2,600 horses, 295 valued at $16,360. cows 303 valued at $5,545; pays $1,919 13-100 county tax and its population in 1880 was 1,282.

SPRING.
Spring township had no resident settlers except perhaps Joseph Allender (who owned and lived on the old Waddle place, he died in 1792 and General Benner bought the place) and Captain Joshua Williams who had a saw mill on Spring creek. Improvements commenced properly in Spring township with laying out of Bellefonte by James Harris in 1795, and Dan Turner iron works at Ruppensburg in 1795. In 1884 its taxables number 620; its real estate is valued at $711,331; money at interest returned for tax $15,700, horses 319 valued at $16,537; cows, 171 valued at $4,183. Bellefonte within its bounds has in 1884 1,090 taxables; real estate valued at 909,323 dollars; money returned for taxation 182,528 dollars; horses, 138 valued at 10,250 dollars; cows 109 valued at 2,655 dollars. It pays 3,771 33-100 dollars county tax and its population in 1880 was 3,026.

MARION.
The first settler in Marion after the war was Thomas Wilson who began an improvement in the year 1785. William Swaney came into Nittany Valley in 1784, but his settlement is now on the Clinton county side. —The musical convention conducted by Prof. Weaver for the benefit of the Reformed church at Aaronsburg will be well attended. Free entertainment is given to all singers. It opens on Jan. 6. P. M.

—More extensive mention of the dissolution of the old firm of Alexander & Bower, and the formation of the firm of Orvis, Bower and Orvis, will be given in our next. Senator Alexander will occupy the offices of the old firm.

—The big Indian show now at Bellefonte Pa. will give performance every evening this week at the Opera House. They will give a matinee this afternoon and Saturday afternoon, for parents and their children. Doors open at one o'clock P. M.

A Week's Dead.
Bellefonte was visited during the week just past by the death angel, and four happy homes made desolate by his presence. In the midst of the festivities celebrating the nativity of the Savior of men, when "A Merry Christmas" was on the lips of the many who thronged our streets, and the cheerful shouts and laughter of the young cohorts rang out on the frosty air. Death enters a household and the gray haired matron the strong man and the beautiful girl are called to another world. Mrs. Martha G. Swartz, wife of Dr. Geo. M. Swartz, died on Tuesday afternoon, December 23. She was born in Centre county and was the second wife of Dr. Swartz, but a true mother to his family. She was buried at Potters Mills, Mrs. Swartz was about fifty-seven years old, a member of the M. E. church and an exemplary woman. Her death was very unexpected and leaves a vacant chair at the fireside which cannot be filled.

M. J. Dolan well known to our citizens, after an illness of a few weeks, yielded to the stern reaper, and is now numbered with the weeks dead. Mr. Dolan suffered excruciating pain during his illness, very few of his friends knew of his condition until his death was announced. He leaves a wife but we believe no children, poor Mike's life was not all sunshine for him. Little Berenice Harper, the bright little daughter of Mr. John Harper, died on Friday, December 26. Mr. Harper has suffered from typhoid fever for twelve weeks, and his life has been frequently despaired of. The strong man was spared in the wisdom of Divine Providence and gentle warm-hearted Berenice taken. She was about eleven years old, a general favorite with all. Her merry cheerful voice will be heard no longer about the house, but the knowledge that "He doeth all things well" will comfort the bereaved parents as only the consolations of religion can.

Mrs. Elizabeth Denny of Thomas street, a very fine old lady died during the week, she was very old and had lived by herself for many years.

The Altoona Call has removed to Harrisburg where it will reappear as the Harrisburg Call, an eight page paper, strong editorial force, it will be second to none in the Capital City.

Institute Notes.
The Principal of the Boalsburg schools, Prof. George W. Johnsonbaugh, manifested considerable interest in the various subjects presented at the late Teachers Institute.

—Mr. Bartram Galbraith cared for the well being and comfort of Institute in that way and manner which only long experience can give one.

—Miss Mary Waddle has not failed to win appreciation, and best wishes of Centre county teachers.

—The officers elected for the next ensuing year are as follows: Vice Presidents W. P. Hosterman, and Miss Carrie Humes. Secretary, C. L. Gramley, Assistant Secretary, Miss Kate Schaefer. Committee on Permanent certificate, Sallie A. Meek, W. G. Morrison, Sallie Barr, C. L. Gramley, R. E. Cambridge.

That Dr. Horne has had training in the art of keeping an audience in an attentive humor, his lecture on Thursday evening of Institute fully gave proof. On the topic "Recollections of the Far South" he gave a lecture that was highly pleasing to those assembled to hear it, for they remained with unwearied attention during an hour and a quarter, and in the frequent witty allusions provoked a spirit of good humor and hearty appreciation that will make him long to be remembered by Centre county teachers.

Our County Superintendent.
Not often indeed does an office find so worthy a man to fill it as Centre Co. has secured in her county superintendent. Thorough, accurate, and advanced in his scholarship, he comes to his office with a heart in love with the peculiar labors attaching to it, and a judgment ripened by many years of successful experience in the school room, and the college lecture room.

Besides, too, with so mixed and varied a population as resides in Centre, few men have those adaptive qualities that would enable them to represent each element, and yet be the chosen chief of all. Supt. D. M. Wolf is, as he has clearly demonstrated, the one man able, abundantly able, to meet every demand.

It is the boast of some of our Eastern counties that as long as an able man will retain this most important office in the gift of the people, so long should he be kept to fill it. That such a sentiment may possess the directors of Centre county we sincerely hope. For our Supt., is honest, faithful, conscientious in the discharge of his trust; a man who looks not "unto men, but unto Him who is the Judge of all men."

GLEN HARRIS ITEMS.—We have had good sleighing here this week.

Mr. Charles P. Reese left Glen Harris for a while to take charge of a large job of logs and ties for Hoover, Hughes & Co., of Snow Shoe.

Miss Bella Campbell of Milesburg, has been visiting Miss Emma Reese for a few days.

Mr. L. W. Crider of Bellefonte, has taken his old position here on the mill again.

Mr. David DeLong our foreman, is busy with his team and men.

Mr. Oscar Wetzel is talking of a two weeks vacation during the holidays.

Mr. Herman Crider and Edward Hush, ey took advantage of the good sleighing on last Sunday and visited Glen Harris. Come again, boys.

Mr. J. Cronmiller has taken his departure from this quiet little village. Better come back, Jack.

Mr. Wesley Tate is going to have a shooting match on next Saturday, two milk cows and a lot of chickens to be shot off, here is a chance for a cheap cow, try your luck, boys.

Some of the boys were made happy over some bad cider last week. Beware of the look-up; we have a strong police force and they will not shirk their duty.

Mr. J. B. Crider spent his Christmas in Lock Haven, his home.

We thank a certain Bellefonter for the pleasure his music affords us. Bellefonte is the place in which you find your lively boys.

Mr. William Hillbish was here one night.

We are sorry to say Mrs. Spicer, a widow lady living near here is lying very ill.

A number of interesting communications have been crowded out for want of space.

—Mr. F. L. Swartz of the village of Hubersburg, informs us that the Sabbath school of that place will have a jug breaking on next Wednesday evening. During the year the pupils of the various classes have been dropping their pennies into a jug termed, the "class jug," and they are getting full, so they break them and count the contents, and begin anew.

—Among the Centre county boys at the late teachers Institute, who are now teaching in Clearfield county, we mention Rev. A. D. Wirts, who is teaching in Houtzdale, and Ed McIntire who has charge of a school near Brisban, Pa.
