Too numerous to mention—the tramp. The bakers have reduced the price of their loaves two cents.

The cold wave reached us last week, and still lingers with us.

There was a hop at the Brockerhoff House on last Friday night.

The ice houses are being filled with an excellent quality of ice.

Ground Hog day and Valentine day and soon we will reach Decoration day.

The Phoenix plating mill has commenced operations on full time 10 hours.

Mrs. Mabel Shaffer, of Nittany Hall, is visiting her brother Lewis, on Spring St.

Mrs. John H. Kreamer, of Millheim, was on the sick list of that little borough last week.

Mountain Pink in which Miss Belle Moore is the leading star seems to be all the rage.

Hon. Judge Furst held his first court in Huntingdon county last week, it being argument court.

Local Institutes throughout the state are becoming quite a feature, and it is hoped for great good.

Miss Mollie Dowling, one of the typos of the Republican has been on the sick list the past week.

Mrs. Joe W. Furey, who has been quite ill for the past two months, is rapidly recovering, we are happy to state.

Mrs. Wm. Love, of Spring township, gave the DEMOCRAT a pleasant call on Tuesday noon. Call again.

Mrs. J. E. Van Ormer, of Philadelphia, who came home to attend the funeral of her mother returned on Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Kyle McFarlane took the train Saturday evening for Lock Haven the former home of Mrs. McFarlane.

The body of Maj. Chas. Brady who committed suicide at St. Louis was cremated at Lancaster on last Thursday the 15th, inst.

The days are lengthening. I thought so remarked a young man, I noticed, the nights growing shorter which necessarily hastens my departure.

If Mr. Robert Stewart of Clearfield county lives until March he will celebrate his 104th birthday. His mental faculties are said to be very good.

Mr. S. M. Buck formerly of this place, at present in business in the great inland metropolis of the west Chicago, is visiting his many friends in this section of the county.

The wedding of Miss Jennie Reynolds to Mr. Pierpoint is said to have been a very elaborate affair, as we were not present, we are unable to give any particulars.

The pleasant countenance of our friend Walter Bayard of Philadelphia was visible on our streets last week. Walter will locate with us some time in the near future.

Finkbinder the Photographer has taken a very fine photograph of the bridge across the creek above the depot, and also one of the piles that are driven for the new bridge at the same place.

What is the difference between twiddle-dee and twiddle-dum, and what is the use of getting the heart disease arguing about such a difference?—Valley Sentinel.

Why the twiddle-dee and the twiddle-dum.

Clinton county has a silver mine which promises to be as rich as any in Colorado. It is situated near Chattam's Run Clinton Co. Pa. and has recently been sold to Haslett & Co. of Denver Colorado.

The pleasant and affable gentleman Mr. W. Rook of Philadelphia paid his respects to the DEMOCRAT on Saturdays Mr. R. makes a trip to our town about once a month in the interest of his business.

Master Charley Noll, will please accept our thanks for those large apples recently brought from Mercer county, Charley the little ladies out there are pretty generous, but don't forget those in Bellefonte.

During the absence of Mr. J. A. Swavely our right hand bower we were afraid we were going to be left for a foreman. With the aptness of Master Frank Van Ormer, we are being rowed through by a small, but efficient oarsman.

We are in receipt of a sample copy of a new Magazine entitled "Baby hood" which is devoted to the care and training of children, and is a most excellent magazine for the family. It is ably edited and published at 18 Spruce street New York.

Next week court begins. Local subject—the weather.

Subscribe for the CENTRE DEMOCRAT. Centre Hall is up with the Times.

A hack now runs from the hotel to the depot.

There will be a local institute held at Unionville sometime in February, and possibly one at Romoia.

Snow on Thursday rain on Friday and cold and stormy on Saturday were a few of the freaks of the weather last week.

Mr. James Kelly, of Coleville, we are sorry to state is now at present very ill at the home of his parents.

Mr. J. A. Fiedler city editor of the Daily Sun and Banner of Williamsport paid his respect to the DEMOCRAT on Wednesday.

D. F. Taylor of Lemont returned from the great State of Kansas, He has purchased a large quantity of land near the line of Indian territory.

A sermon was preached in the Methodist church on last Sunday eve., by the Rev. K. Foster, to one of the largest congregations this year.

The death of Mrs. Martha Goodward, daughter of Mr. Peter Eppers, died at her home in Snow Shoe, on Saturday the 17th, inst. The deceased was about 21 years old.

A word to our minister in different parts of the county. Please send us as early as possible all the marriage and death notices you may know of in your respective localities.

The next attraction at the rink will not be Sullivan nor Paddy Ryan of Chicago, but an orange race. The contestants will skate after a rolling California orange on Friday night.

Mr. Frank Wan one of our first class farmers below town gave the DEMOCRAT a business call on Saturday, and took a stroll through the office from sanctum to pressroom—come again Frank.

"Little Ben" we mean Mr. Benj. Barnes the accommodating expressman is always ready to furnish you with kindling wood, do any hauling you may have to do, and at reasonable rates. Give Ben a trial.

The argument court last week before Judge Cummin of Williamsport, resulted in dissolving the injunction restraining the building of the R. E. bridge across the creek above the depot. Work will be resumed now.

It is said that Mr. Long has begun work on his new hotel at the Cave below Centre Hall. It is to be 50 by 30 ft. and three stories high. Good sheds for horses will be erected. A hotel will greatly add to this already popular resort.

The year 1884 has been a rather remarkable one in many respects. The scarcity of eggs, the plentifulness of chickens, and the numerous resignations of ministers, are a few of the noticeable features. The death and marriage roll unusually large.

In Huntingdon county they are questioning the correctness of the commissioners report, and seem to think it won't hold water very well. Why don't you fellows have good honest square commissioners like we have, and save the auditors unnecessary trouble.

James P. Harris is digging away the hill back of his new building in order to erect a large ware room in connection with the store room which he expects to occupy with the hardware store of Harris & Co. Mr. Jesse Stewart is the contractor for this, as well as the brickwork of the new building.

Master Rich McClain, son of Register James A. McClain whose leg was broken about four weeks ago casting; was able to be out of bed on Saturday, for the first time since the accident.

Rich will be obliged to use wooden legs placed under his arms for some time. But only for a short time we hope.

On last Tuesday, Dr. Lee, of Madisonburg, successfully removed a tumor of considerable size and of many years standing from the back part of Mr. George Spayd's head. The doctor was assisted in this tedious job by his wife and Mr. S. B. Shafer. Mr. Spayd lost a large quantity of blood during the operation, but at present is doing remarkably well.—Millheim Journal.

A musical convention will be held in the Reformed church in Jacksonsville commencing February 2nd 1885 and closing with a grand concert on Saturday evening February 6th. There will be two sessions daily. Prof. J. A. Weaver of Pine Grove Mills Pa. whose reputation as a musical director is well and favorably known to the people of the county, will conduct the exercise during the entire week.

Some of the ministers who at first bitterly opposed the skating rinks are becoming expert skaters. In Saubury during the week the rink is used for the healthful exercise, while on Sunday it is converted into a house of worship and the ministers preach to a much larger audience than in the churches. Between 7 and 8 hundred people assemble at the rink on Sunday, and the ministers are pleased with their work, and believe in the truth that "out of evil comes good."

PENN HALL.

Mr. Jno. Smith, from Nittany Valley will move on the farm now occupied by Wm. Neise at this place, this spring. J. B. Fisher, our enterprising merchant, has been to Harrisburg and Reading on a business trip, last week. Miss Barbra Allison from Nittany, Clinton Co., is visiting her sister, Mrs. Jonathan Condo at Spring Mills, she also gave our town a short and pleasant call. Mr. J. Wells Evans lost another horse last week, being the second one he lost by death in a short time. One of Spring Mills old lads came to our town last week to see if there was law to prohibit parties from indulging in a social game of state cards, he received the law, to be sure.—John P. Condo has concluded to stay in our midst another year, and gave up the notion of moving to Lock Haven.—Rev. Hettlinger from York Co., preached in the St. Paul Lutheran church at this place, last Sabbath afternoon.—Calvin and Elmer Weaver, the former salesman at the Penn Hall store gave our town a pleasant call on Saturday afternoon and evening.—The concert on Saturday evening in the Hall was well attended under the leadership of Prof. Philip Myers, the singing consisted of Anthems, Glee, Quartets, Solos and conical song, by Prof. Lowell, M. Myers.—The wedding which were to take place at Penn Hall was a fiasco. Prophet look in the Almanac and guess again if you wish to be called by that title.—Mr. J. C. Condo is again able to be around and at work, after being laid up a few weeks with Rheumatism.

M. B. in "Spring Mills News" thinks the "Mountain Boy" behind the times, as regard to the Post Office, M. B. you should have noted the change sooner and then we would have known it. Yes, we were talking of the applicants, now it is the change of the office. Please report when it changes.

MOUNTAIN BOY.

On last Saturday the New Officers of Spring Mills Grange, No. 158 P. of H., were installed by the retiring master, W. A. Krise. The officers are as follows: Jas. A. McClintic, w. m.; Wm. Goodhart, Overseer; P. S. Dale, Lecturer; J. P. Grove, Stewart; W. H. Bloom, Asst. Steward; R. Smith, Chaplain; W. F. Rarick, Treasurer; M. L. Rishel, Secretary; Benj. Smith, Gate-keeper; Sister S. C. Dale, Ceres; Sister N. E. Krise, Pomona; Sister E. McClintic, Flora; Sister S. J. Rarick, Lady Asst. Steward; V. F. Rarick was elected purchasing agent, and also re-elected Fire Insurance agent. This Grange is in a flourishing condition applications for membership coming in at every meeting.

On last Friday a grand child of David Borree died after a few hours sickness. A number of children in and around Spring Mills are sick, and one of the schools has been closed.

On Sabbath Ev. Shaw of Clearfield reached for the Presbyterians.

LEMONT.

Mr. J. H. Wasson has removed his marble works from Stormstown to this place.

Our population is fast increasing, being now composed of Italians, Greeks, Hungarians and Poles.

Mr. James Runkle, of the Loop, has been visiting his friends and relatives at and near this place.

Mr. John M. Coble, the boss shoemaker of this place, has put out about seventy-five pair of boots and shoes during the past three months.

Mr. Harry Armstrong, book-keeper for Wm. Thompson, Jr., & Co.'s store, is at present visiting friends in England.

A debating society has been organized here. The question last week was, "Resolved, That strong drink is more injurious to man than war." John Murray was on the affirmative and Mr. Calvin Runkle the negative. The society was opened with a duet by Miss Emma Schreck and Miss Bryan. Essays and declamations of an interesting character followed.

Mr. Wm. Thompson is going to erect a hardware store here in the spring.

By the time this reaches you the rail road will be completed to Lemont. Then we will have direct communication with Philadelphia and other important eastern cities.

Mr. George Malony sprained his leg by falling on the ice last week.

The trial of Curtin McClain, who murdered William Smearman of Huntingdon at the Juniata Valley Camp-meeting last August began on last Tuesday and closed on Friday at noon. The jury brought in a verdict on Saturday night at eleven o'clock, of guilty of murder in the first degree. Application for a new trial, has been made, but it is the authoritative opinion of the Attorneys and others that there are no grounds upon which to base a new trial. Argument court will be held next week to consider the same.

The fourth Quarterly Meeting for the present conference year, of Half-Moon charge, will be held in Storms town on Saturday and Sunday, Jan. 24, 25. Quarterly Conference, Saturday at 2:30 P. M. The Presiding Elder, Rev. J. H. McGarrish, is expected. Every body cordially invited.

W. R. WITNEY PASTOR.

Miss Emma Crothwaite a compositor in the Watchman office for a number of years, and a very estimable lady in every respect, was married on last Thursday the 16, to Mr. Charles Schreyer of Lock Haven. Mr. Schreyer was formerly from this town and both parties have the best wishes of their friends, and congratulations of the editors, as we are especially anxious to see the printers when they make this kind of a change do well, for their fate before, is not an enviable one.

Mr. James Potter, of the firm of J. P. Harris & Co. met with an accident on last Wednesday by being thrown out of his buggy at Centre Hall station is improving slowly. The accident while very painful is not as serious as was first reported. The cap of his knee being broken in three places and his body being somewhat bruised. We understand it was the whistling of the engine that frightened his horse, which suddenly capsize the buggy, but did not get away from James.

Mr. Ira Garman of Coatsville Pa. who is now visiting his friends and parents in this place, "was left." He was attempting to get into his buggy in front of Dr. H. K. Hoy's office, when the horse started for the stable before Mr. Garman had time to get hold of the lines. The horse made all the turns very nicely and lost no time in doing so. He ran directly to the stable and into the stall leaving the buggy turned up side down in the stable; not with care, but in a rather delapidated condition.

The conclusion of the trial of the brutal murder perpetrated by Curtin McClain had not yet been reached, before the intelligence of another horrible crime in that section of the country is recorded. John Gardener was arrested for the murder of his father-in-law George Warle. They lived together with their wives in a remote recess, called Diamond Valley in Tussey mountain Huntingdon county, and had some family quarrel, when Gardener struck his father-in-law with a stove stick killing him almost instantly.

The race at the rink between Mr. Ellis Snyder and Stewart Laird was decided a draw. To have given any other decision would have been unjust; in as much as the contestants were equally matched, as any one not swayed prejudice will admit. Mr. Snyder's skate came off, and Mr. Laird lost a roller. Each contestant shoved the other which was foul, but instead of claiming a draw, they got even by pushing one another. The only proper way to test the speed and endurance of these gentlemen, is to skate separate, and on time.

Mr. Will Spear an operator in the Williamsport Telephone Exchange, arrived home on Saturday, and after greeting his friends and especially his "dear girl" departed again on Tuesday. Will is giving very good satisfaction in his new position. He however finds some fault with the town on account of there being no large hills one which to coast. This is the general complaint of the Bellefonte boys; as tumbling and coasting down the hills soon becomes a second nature to the youth of this town, and there are no better coasters in the state than we have here.

Just what a property owner makes in leaving his house stand idle for a year or more, and only because he can't get the rental price which he asks for it, and in the meantime pays taxes on it, we fall to see. There are property owners in our town who ask nine dollars a month for a house that is hardly worth the payment of five dollars per month, and instead of accepting the latter, will allow the house to stand untenanted and at the same time pay the taxes thereon—but not uncompensatingly. Such a class of people should be taxed to the utmost farthing.—Huntingdon Monitor.

That is the way they are taxed here, yet they stand it and the house stands it too. Oaly empty.

WHEREAS.—It has pleased the Omni-potent Commander of all armies to transfer from earthly service and fellowship, Comrade John Calderwood, member of Wm. T. Furst, Post, No. 419, Grand Army of the Republic, of Pa., late of Co. E. 45th Reg't Pa. Vol., in the 62nd year of his age, therefore,

Resolved First.—That we are hereby reminded that our transfer will also come sure and soon

Second.—That we strive to be obedient, good, and true, so that our discharge be "honorable" in sight of the Great Ruler.

Third.—That we hereby tender our sympathies to the bereaved widow and family of our deceased comrade, in this hour of their deep sorrow.

Fourth.—That this preamble and resolutions be entered on our minutes and a copy of the same be sent to the family of our late comrade.

Submitted in F. C. and L. W. B. Witney, Simon Sellers, W. G. Bigelow, Mathias Rider, Committee.

The above was unanimously adopted at a regular meeting of Post 419, Grand Army of the Republic of Pa. in Stormstown Pa. Jan. 17, 1885.

The Y. M. C. A. are having a new book case put in their library.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellis L. Orvis, visited their relatives in Williamsport last week.

The Borough council met on Monday evening and transacted some business.

In the New York state Senatoral contest Everts wins. The vote being 61 for Mr. Everts and 21 for Morton.

Mr. James Ryman, of Missoula, Montana Territory, is visiting friends and relatives at his former home in Milesburg, this county.

We acknowledge the editorial assistance of Col S. T. Shugert this week in the absence of our Senior editor to the "Sunny South."

The portly form and beaming countenance of Mr. Chas. Scott, the school book agent of Williamsport graced our streets again on last Tuesday.

Messrs. Oscar Miles and James Noll of Milesburg are now visiting friends and relatives in and about Millfin.

We wish the boys a good time in general.

Mr. Scott Swyers of Pittsburg is visiting his parents in Milesburg during the strike in that city. We hope you may have a very pleasant time during your stay.

Tommy M. and J. S., of Milesburg are experts, not only on rollers, but well, boy, we won't give it away this time. We suppose you got him on the time of "Jay Eye See."

Rev. Charles M. Stock, of Bedford Penna. Chaplain of 5th, Regt., of N. Y. will preach in the Lutheran Church of this place on the morning and evening of Sunday next.

The jovial crowd of boys who work on the wreck train were called out at 3 o'clock Tuesday morning to clear up the debris of a wreck at Julian, caused by the breaking of a car wheel on the midnight freight.

Over ten thousand people assembled at Madison Square Garden on Monday night last to witness the great glove contest between John L. Sullivan and Paddy Ryan. The police interfered before the close of the first round and stopped the pelmeing.

The Lemont band was at the rink on Tuesday night and seemed to give very good satisfaction. Their tunes are new from the fact that they have not been heard as often as those we have been listening to from the other band. This band will be in attendance regularly twice each week.

Mr. Samuel Brooks recently the collector for the Daily News and Republican, has returned from a visit to Troy Ohio. Sam is always on the go whether in search of a wife or health, we are unable to say, possibly both as one of his girls has discarded him, which no doubt would effect his health somewhat. We understand he will try Harrisburg for a week.

A telegram from Supt. S. S. Blair of Tyzone, was received in Bellefonte on Tuesday, to the effect that Liberty Bell enroute for New Orleans would pass through Tyzone by special train on Friday the 22d, inst., and that the train would stop 5 minute to give an opportunity to see it. We would suggest, to those who have never had the pleasure of seeing this old bell, as it hangs in Independence hall Philadelphia to go and see it.

Prof. Thos. N. Magee and family, after visiting Mrs. Magee's parents, Rev. J. K. Bricker and family, of Elysburg, where they attended the wedding of Mrs. Magee's youngest brother, and after spending a few days with the family of Mr. Joseph Paul, will this afternoon leave for their new home in Bellefonte. Center Co. Pa. Mr. Magee has resided in this county for eight years and was twice chosen superintendent of the county schools. During his term in office he materially raised the standing of the schools. We cheerfully commend him and his family to the good people of Bellefonte.—Lock Haven Democrat.

Work on the following houses in town is being rapidly pushed, in order that they may be occupied by the first of April. Rev. Woodcock's, on Linn street, which is tasty but rather odd in design. Rev. M. K. Foster's on the same street which, while not presenting a very handsome or modern appearance out side, is said to be one of the best arranged houses on the street that has been erected during the winter, excepting Maj. Reynolds' palatial mansion on the corner of Linn and Allegheny streets, which perhaps surpasses, anything erected in Bellefonte. Mr. Benj. Bradley's house on Spring street is another which for room and inside design is all that could be desired. Mr. Hoover's two houses on Curtin street, are very small and will not be very serviceable or rentable for any other but a small family. Our young legal friend Mr. Charles Hewes expects to have his house on Howard street ready to occupy by the first of April. We presume the tasteful designed of this house, is Charley's, and of course is not to be questioned. To say it is very conveniently arranged in side would only cause Charley to smile contemptuously at you, and doubt the truth of your assertion.

Old papers for sale at this office, at 25 cents per hundred or 2 1/2 cents per pound.

Mr. Al. Haupt's ability as a hotel clerk is fully appreciated by the proprietor of the Potter House, Philadelphia, as he has been re-engaged to fill that position.

Our readers will be pleased to learn that Mr. J. A. Wentzel of Beech Creek, has been selected, by Sheriff May, of Clinton Co., Deputy Sheriff of that county. Mr. Wentzel is an honest, upright gentleman fully capable of discharging the duties of his office, and will no doubt make it lively for Clinton county's criminals.

The Irvin House, Lock Haven, is one of the best hotels in the State, and our citizens visiting Lock Haven will do well to make this their stopping place. Hon. S. Woods Caldwell, the affable, courteous and accommodating proprietor, always looks to the comforts of his guests, and while the outer man is not neglected the inner man is bountifully cared for, as the well spread tables testify. Mr. Caldwell enjoys and deserves the patronage of the traveling public. Success.

There will be a meeting of the Centre county Agricultural society, in the Court House in Bellefonte, on next Tuesday evening January 27th 1885, beginning at half past seven o'clock at which time there will be a discussion by eminent agriculturalists pro. & con. on the subject of Commercial Fertilizers. There will also be an election of officers of the society for the ensuing year. Farmers are especially invited to attend.
