CHARRFIELD COUNTY.

Mrs. M. M. Mitchell and her daughter Aerie last week locked up the house and went on a visit to Philipsburg. On Sunday some person passing the house heard the rushing of water inside, and upon investigation it was found that the water pipe had burst and flooded the whole of one side of the house, and water stood in the cellar to the depth of a foot or more. Of course the property is damaged by its inundation but there will probably be no serious loss.—Refman Journal.

Prof. Youngman last week dismissed the high school class, owing to the serious illness of two of his children, with scarlet fever, and he has not yet resumed. We hope for the speedy recovery of his little ones.—Refman Journal.

The Mansion House team ran from Riverview to town, a distance of three miles, on Sunday last, and reached home without having damaged themselves or the sleigh. F. M. Cardon and Maurice Hoffer had been to Curwensville and got out of the sleigh to water the horses, when they ran away.

The people of Bigler and vicinity have engaged Thomas H. Murray, Esq., to deliver his lecture, "How to Grow," at that place on Friday evening, February 13, and Hon. Thomas M. Taylor, of New York, for Saturday evening, February 14. They should and no doubt will be well patronized.

Officer Jordan had a lively scuffle on the streets Wednesday night with a prisoner bound for Fort Shaw. After some foot-racing, Woods overhauled his man and brought him to terms, landing himself in the prison all whole.

A report gained circulation on the streets last Thursday, that a prominent citizen of this place had suddenly died. The report was contradicted when the gentleman made his appearance. How anything like this could have started we are unable to say.

The Loafers' Union, of Philipsburg, were to meet last Sunday to elect officers for the ensuing year. They are in advance of the Union in this place. They are compelled to wait until the ice and snow leaves the Court House steps before they effect an organization.—Republican

HUNTINGDON.

The Cambria county commissioners have decided to renew the reward for the capture of Mickey Smith, the escaped murderer. Guess no persons will break their necks to find him, without compensation, in order to have the law vindicated.

From "Jason's pen": "Caesar loved grapes, Demosthenes chewed pebbles, Napoleon had a passion for figs, Grant is equally fond of tobacco, old Senator Tabor, of Colorado, it is said, has a passion for parched corn, but Judge Furst—Huntingdon and Centre counties' prodigy—who, may be said to combine many of the best traits of these five great men—Judge Furst we say, is never so happy as when he smokes the mild cigar which cheers but does not inebriate."—Huntingdon Monitor. He smokes the "Curtin brand."

A Huntingdon county correspondent reports a man down that way as having thrown up a mill. What a "stomach" that fellow must have, anyway says Traugh, of the Standard. But then nothing should astonish the world at large that happens in Huntingdon or Bedford county.—Monitor. Oh pshaw! That's nothing, a man in Bloomsburg purchased a farm in this county, and "threw it up, and it was immediately purchased by another: It may be a heavy weight upon the party of the second part, from the fact that the party of the first, part was obliged to part with it.

Death of William C. Davis:

We are pained to announce the death of Mr. William C. Davis which occurred last Thursday morning at his residence, on South Front street. Mr. D. was a well-known and highly respected citizen, and the news of his death will be received with a deep feeling of regret by his large circle of friends and acquaintances. He was a saddler and harnessmaker by trade, and has for a number of years been employed by our townsman, Mr. Robert Hudson, and his aptness and trustworthiness as a workman, won for him the highest regard of his employer. Some three or four months ago he was taken ill with what was supposed to be rheumatism but which developed into a serious ailment, and which resulted in his death. He has been confined to his bed for some time and has suffered intensely. He leaves a wife and several children to mourn his demise and to the bereaved family we extend our deepest sympathy.—Philipsburg Journal

Valuable ore, said to contain gold, platinum, silver and other metals, has been discovered in Huntingdon County.

The loss from hog cholera in Nebraska last year is estimated at two million dollars

Twenty-five ex-Confederate officers are in the United States Senate and more than fifty in the House.

Dr. Carver was pretty badly strained by his recent shooting feat, but he cleared by it about $20,000. It is reported.

A girl only thirteen years of age and a widower of fifty were united in matrimony in Habersham County, Ga. a few days ago.

The anthracite coal companies' meeting resolved to increase the product for the year to 31,000,000 tons. The Pennsylvania Railroad again refuses to join the combination.

It took fourteen solid columns of the St. Louis Globe Democrat to enumerate by counties the federal officers and the number of Democratic applicants for these places in Illinois.

It is said that the sudden and violent changes in temperature this winter have destroyed all the peach buds in the Hudson valley, and that no crop will be gathered there next summer.

A number of the members of the Coke Producers, of the Associate in the Connellville coke region have signed an agreement to continue the pooling arrangements for another year from April 1st.

Ex-Governor Stanford, says the Alta California, has a Helstein cow on his Vina ranch that in thirty-one days gave 1637 pounds of milk, several pounds more than the gross weight of the cow.

The wire mill of Oliver & Roberts, on the South Side, Pittsburg, has been closed indefinitely and the employes have been advised to secure work elsewhere. No cause is given for the suspension.

Jefferson Davis has written a letter for publication, in which he claims to have declined to send Confederate troops into Kentucky when suggested to him, on account of his respect for states rights.

Lumber Operations.

The Renovo Record says: The lumbermen operating on Youngwoman's creek will all finish up their jobs by the first of the coming month. Mr. James Dougherty estimates the crop at about twenty-two million feet, of which about one-half is pine and oak and the remainder hemlock. Gamble, White & Co., on Paddy's run, are about completing their winter's work. The jobs on different runs along the West Branch are also nearing completion. The output of pine and square timber will not be near so large as last year.

Grant Condoles with Mrs. Colfax.

SOUTH BEND, Ind., Jan. 30.—A letter was received to-day from Ex-President Grant by Mrs. Colfax. After mentioning his health as improving from a disabling attack of sore throat, Gen. Grant says: "Mr. Colfax and I were personal from the day of our association on the same ticket for the two highest offices in the gift of the nation up to his untimely and unexpected death. I was always his defender against what I believed to be the most unjust charges." The letter abounds with expressions of heartfelt sympathy of Mrs. Grant and himself with Mrs. Colfax and her son in their sudden and great loss, and closes with additional words of eulogy of the character of Mr. Colfax. President Arthur also sends a letter expressing feelings of the deepest sorrow at the death of Mr. Colfax.

On Saturday morning a series of terrific explosions of natural gas occurred in Pittsburg, injuring many people and destroying much property. The explosion occurred in three buildings, the Iron City Hotel, a saloon and another small building at what is known as "forks of roads" on thirty fourth street. The first explosion occurred in a cellar in which gas had collected from a leak in the main pipe, and a young lady upon entering struck a match which instantly caused the explosion and the house was almost shaken apart before people recovered their self-possession there was another terrible explosion. This time it was in the cellar of the saloon which was badly wrecked. The saloon was crowded and men and beer glasses were thrown in all directions. In this place several were badly injured two little girls were covered with the debris and burned beyond recovery. When the third explosion occurred a passenger car on the citizens line was passing. A beer keg was blown from one of the saloons, and struck the conductor, knocking him senseless, about twenty two persons were injured. The gas pipes for a long time have been in a very bad condition and the company have been requested frequently to repair them. The citizens are very indignant and unless some favorable action is taken they will tear them out in the vicinity in which the explosion occurred.

Among Our Exchanges.

Mr. Jacob Stahlsmith, an old resident of this city, fell on the pavement this morning in front of C. G. Weidman's residence on Water street and dislocated his left arm in two places. He was taken to Dr. Hayse's office for treatment.—Lock Haven Express.

Chicken thieves visited the coop belonging to William Corey one night last week and stole all the chickens on the roost, among which was some of the finest games in this section. There was also a couple of sick chickens taken which Will hopes the thief will eat.—Milton Economist.

Considerable excitement was caused along the route of the "old bell" last week on its way from Philadelphia to New Orleans. Clearfield has plenty of "old bells" and yet whenever they go away from home there is not the least particle of fuss made over them.—Clearfield Republican. Yes and there is more fuss made over it, than old "Belle"—fonte

It is passing strange the number of divorces asked for and granted in hundreds of instances, daily, in all parts of the country. If youngsters would learn that love is very blind, such would perhaps not be the case. Huntingdon Monitor. Yes "love is blind", but we notice that it catches the old as easily as the youngsters.

Mr. Samuel Khale, of Clintondale, was in this city Tuesday. He says the township there is overburdened with people in want. One family of eleven is dependent entirely upon public charity for the necessities of life. Improvement on the part of the sufferers themselves is mostly the cause of their condition.—Clinton Republican.

The movement against the tramp nuisance in our country was not a success. The county had to pay for the keeping of thirteen of the nomads for ten days or more, and the district attorney secured a fee out of the indictment of each of them and then the tramps were sent on their way rejoicing. Evidently the present tramp law doesn't fill the bill, and the great problem as to how to relieve communities of these great nuisances is still unsolved.—Democrat & Sentinel.

Three maidens ladies, living in a neighboring hamlet, formed a circle for secret prayer about a year ago. Their prayers were based upon faith being the substance of things hoped for, and the most ardent desires of their hearts was a man for each of them. They met in an upper room in the home of one of the "circle" and their devotions were most earnest, so much so that sometimes their meals had to be carried to them. But their prayers were heard and answered. Two of them are already married and the third one is engaged and the happy day named. Persons who profess to have no belief in faith cures can now lay aside their doubts, and unmarried ladies, of every age, may take courage, from "circles" and be happy.—Lock Haven Journal.

How rents are paid and life maintained by a large percentage of the working population of this section is an enigma beyond public solution and to which grasping landlords give little if any thought, and that not in the way of commiseration.

Hog cholera is prevailing in Upper Berks to an alarming extent. Some farmers have lost as high as eighteen head.

Our total exports of merchandise for the 12 months which ended December 31st, 1884 exceeded the imports in value by $120,076,072.

Excommunicated.

MT. VERNON, O., January 30.—In connection with the settlement of the civil-rights suits against the proprietors of the Pavilion Skating Rink, and the benefit derived by the African M. E. church by the terms of the settlement, the hostility of Rev. Father Lane, of St. Vincent de Paul's Catholic church, is evidence of the difference of opinion in regard to skating rinks as a proper place of amusement. The members of one church sue the proprietors of the rink for damages on account of being refused admission and the money paid in settlement of the suits is turned over to the church, while the pastor of St. Vincent de Paul's Catholic Church publicly declares the rink a nuisance and prohibits any member of its church from attending it. Three young girls who disobeyed the Father's command were on last Sunday made to do public penance for their disobedience. Two of them responded to the call, and during the service knelt in front of the chancel rail, the observed of all observers. The third refused to do penance, and was excommunicated from the church. Her father and mother were held responsible for her actions, and suffered the same penalty with her.
