-We understand that Mr. Jacob Wagner, for a number of years employed in the grist mill at Rock Forge, will Mr. Thos. McCann, the R. R. agent take charge of Hon. Fred Kurtz's new steam grist mill at Centre Hall Station. Mr. Kurtz could not possibly have made a better selection. Mr. Wagner's reputation as a first class miller is well established, and his absence from the Rock Forge mills has been a source of regret upon the part of the patrons.

The M. E. Congregation is holding a revival with fine prospects for a very ood meeting.

Rev. Mr. Ague, whose health has been very poor during the past year, has so far recovered that he was able to preach in the M. E. Church last evening in place of Mr. Elliott, the regular pastor who was away on a visit to Al toons. Mr. Ague expects to remove to Milesburg in the spring where he will locate until he regains his health sufficiently to resume action work in his profession.

The Lutheran congregation also hopes to have another minister soon, to take the place of Rev. Koser who lately re' moved to Northumberland, Pa.

"Rumor says our town is to enjoy the benefits of a local Institute in the near future; but no definite time has as yet been set, neither has any part of the
