

The Centre Democrat.

Thursday Morning, March 13, 1885.

Geo. P. Bible, Local Editor and Business Manager.

Advertisements containing important news, solicited from any part of the county, no communications inserted unless accompanied by the real name of the writer.

Local Department.

Notice.—Our office is now in Harris' new building opposite the Bush Arcade.

- March 12th.
—Get ready to fish.
—President Cleveland.
—A Democratic President.
—Public sales are numerous.
—The Spring month is here.
—Winter holds on pretty well.
—St. Patrick's Day—March 17th.
—Wednesday was a regular spring day.
—Wanted—an applicant for the post-office.
—Mr. Geo. B. Weaver is quite ill at present.
—Wilkinson's China Hall is a place of beauty.
—Winter still lingers with us, so do the tramp.
—All our exchanges seem to be ready for spring.
—Get out your smoked glass on Monday next.
—Quite a lot of hay is being brought to town now.
—All the new shades in working cotton at Garman's.
—The Undine Hose Company expect to reorganize.
—Chairs at Brachbill's Sons at $3.50 to $25, per set.
—Don't forget to call and see us. You are always welcome.
—The new drug store will be opened in about two weeks.
—Dauphin county was a century old on last Saturday.
—Will the Base Ball Association of this place be re-organized?
—The best and largest assortment of furniture at J. Brachbill's Sons.
—Go to the rink to-night and witness the largest combination ever there.
—The farmers don't consider this weather very favorable for plowing.
—In the absence of Ed. Garman, his brother, Will, has an eye to business.
—For your Spring suits go to Fleming, the tailor. A perfect fit is guaranteed.
—Monday March 16th, at 11:38 a. m. an eclipse of the sun will take place.
—The New Orleans Exposition will award a gold medal to the "ground hog."
—We will not miss an issue, as we do first thought we were obliged to do.
—A new telephone line from Lock Haven to Beech Creek is now complete.
—Excavations for the ware house, to the rear of Harris' new building are going on rapidly.
—Mr. Andrew Curtin, Jr., has had the telephone put into his new residence on Curtin street.
—A full car load of Bedroom suits just received at Brachbill's Sons, from $200 down to $16.50.
—Plate glass windows in what Maj. Reynolds will look through when he occupies his palatial new residence.
—The death of the well known author and publisher, T. S. Arthur, occurred on the 5th inst., in Philadelphia, Pa.
—The members of the Lutheran congregation realized $120 from Rev. Chas. F. Steck's lecture on Friday evening.
—Some of the Johnstown boys found that a free pass to the inauguration under Col. Hastings did not include a free drink.
—The members of the G. A. R. will occupy the upper floor of James F. Harris' new building for their quarters in the future.
—We are indebted to our friend Mr. John Fox of Renovo, for two handsomely and neatly arranged blotting pads, John is a mechanic of real merit.
—A petition for the establishment of a Soldiers' Home to be located somewhere in the state, will soon be presented to the Legislature of this state.
—It is whispered that a few small rentable houses will be erected during the coming summer. This will be good news to the man with a moderate income.
—The following Bellefonters attended the inauguration: Maj. Sechler, Aaron Williams, Hon. P. Gray Meek, W. F. Reber, J. W. Gephart, Mr. and Mrs. Aiken and Company "B."
—Diphtheria is prevalent along Buffalo Run—a little 5-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. Rhone having died with it, and Miss Annie Fogleman is at present ill with the same disease.
—Those who have to move have our sympathy. We have had our share of the former, and but little of the latter. However, a little of the former goes farther than a large quantity of the latter. We are moved.
—A number of fellows complaining of hard times got beastly drunk on Saturday night and found times somewhat harder by the time they got out of the row they kicked up. Black eyes and bloody faces were the result.

—The skating race in New York was won by Donovan, who skated a distance of 1,092 miles.
—The rails are laid as far as Lemont on the Pennsylvania road. The train however only runs as far as Oak Hall.
—W. C. T. U. will give an oyster supper in the Y. M. C. A. rooms to-night. Ice cream, cake, oysters and coffee will be served.
—Mrs. Baer, of Philadelphia, Walls, of Lock Haven, Hibler and Harris of this place, removed an ovarian tumor from Mrs. Fred Schlenker, of this borough.
—The Central Minstrel Troupe gave an entertainment in Humes Hall on Monday night. The house was not packed to suffocation, but if the boys don't have to buy the Hall they will have three or four dollars left.
—The hardest studying the school teachers have during the winter is done in the months of March and April, when the Algebraic problem of "What shall we do until next winter?" puzzles them.
—Mrs. Hunt the temperance lecturer, lectured in Lewistown, and lecturers in Clearfield on the 13th inst. She has been omitting the political portion of her lecture which is a very commendable feature.
—We understand that the first day of May will witness another wedding, to be celebrated in the Episcopal church.—Daily News. Modesty forbids further mention—the contracting party it is said, is Mr. Newton Bailey, editor of the Daily News.
—A bill has been introduced in the State Legislature requiring County uniformity in the text-books in the common schools; another prohibiting the manufacture of deadly toy weapons, and also a bill to elect assessors for a term of three years.
—W. G. Brown, who came here about two months ago from York, Pa., to write up the business interests of the town and county, has been unable to do so on account of sickness. Another gentleman has taken hold of the same and has begun the work of writing up the industries, &c.
—Mr. Jacob Keller, who resided at the toll gate between this place and Milesburg, died on Thursday the 5th, inst. He was employed at Morris lime kiln for a number of years—was about 45 years old, and leaves a wife and six children to mourn his death.
—On last Saturday, a valuable horse belonging to Mr. Michael Grove while hitched in front of one of the stores at Lemont became frightened and in its efforts to get loose, jumped astride the hitching post injuring itself so severely that they were obliged to shoot the animal to end its suffering.
—The absurd practice of patronizing Normal Schools and Colleges at a distance is, and always will be indulged in. In looking over our exchanges we see personal mention of a number of parties who expect to attend the Valparaiso Normal, a widely advertised school in Indiana which from personal knowledge, does not equal our State Normals, and is a private institution at which you can complete a course in a very short time and get a sheep skin.
—Mr. Emanuel Garbrick, from near Jacksonville, Centre county, attempted to cross the Bald Eagle Valley Railroad track yesterday at Mill Hall, when his horse took fright, emptied his load of corn in the road, throwing out Mr. Garbrick and severely cutting his head and badly bruising his right leg above the knee. His wounds were dressed at the house of Miss Bressler, and he started home later in the day.—L. H. Express.
—It is not boast or idle fancy, when we say the Zion band is the best in the county, and is equalled by but few in the State having the same number of members. All the professional skaters without an exception, who have given exhibitions all over the country, and have had ample opportunity of hearing and judging, say the Zion band furnishes better skating music than any they have had to skate to. This is not an undeserved compliment, but applied to where it justly belongs. Their street serenades are fully appreciated, and they have our thanks for one on Saturday evening. Come up inside and we will give you a large room to try your instruments and plenty of electric light.
—A quiet, but very elaborate affair at 6 o'clock on Thursday evening the 5th inst. was the wedding of our young and enterprising merchant Edward Garman to Miss Emma G. Lingle daughter of Ex-Sheriff J. J. Lingle of this place. The ceremony was performed at the residence of the brides parents on Spring street, by Rev. John Hewitt of the Episcopal church, in the presence of over an hundred invited guests. The presents were costly, and exceedingly numerous. The Crescent Skating Club, (of which Mr. Garman is a member,) very generously remembered him upon this occasion; while the bride was especially well provided with presents from her numerous friends. The 9 o'clock train conveyed the party eastward, Philadelphia and New York being their destination. Congratulations and good wishes of all their friends are copiously bestowed.

Personal.
Prof. Jno. Hamilton, of State College, tarried in town on Monday.
Superintendent D. M. Wolf was visible on our streets on Monday.
Miss Switzer, of Phillipsburg, attended Mr. Ed. Garman's wedding.
Mr. Bumiller, editor of the Millheim Journal, will consider our hat off.
Mr. Fergus Petter, of Linden Hall, paid his respects to the DEMOCRAT.
Miss May Barrett is learning telephone operating at the Bellefonte exchange.
Centre Hall was represented at the lecture by Rev. Fisher, Messrs. Whitmer, Wolf, Smith and Lee.
Mr. Jno. P. Ludwig, of Pittsburgh brother of our fellow townsman, Wm. Ludwig, was in town on Monday.
Mr. John Waite of the firm of Waite Bro's of Tyrone was in town on Monday looking after his business interests.
Miss Cordie Mineker, after a two weeks visit among friends in Beech Creek and Eagleville, returned home last week.
Prof. Jno. W. Heston, Principal of the preparatory department of the Pennsylvania State College, paid us a short visit in our new location.
Mr. J. N. Van Ormer, who is now engaged in business in Phillipsburg, came home on Saturday and returned to the above "city" on Monday.
Mr. Henry Stam, of Donovan, Ill. after an absence of twenty-three years, visited his mother who resides with her son-in-law, Mr. John Grove, about three miles east of this place.
Mr. Isaac L. Smith, who has been visiting his parents and friends in Milesburg and this place for the past two months, returned to Ridgeway last week where he is engaged in the merchant tailoring business.
—On last Friday evening a large and appreciative audience gathered in the Court House to listen to Rev. Steck, at one time pastor of the Second Lutheran Church, of Altoona, delivered his popular lecture, entitled: "Hero Recognized and Unrecognized," for the benefit of the Lutheran Church of this place. The exercises were opened with a duet by Messrs. Lew Shaffer and C. E. Schaefer, entitled: "Lar Board Watch." Another song by the above named gentlemen and Mr. John Musser was rendered with pleasant effect. Just before the lecture a song, entitled: "Come Where the Lillies Bloom," by Misses Bradley and Messrs. John Musser, Lew Shaffer and C. E. Schaefer, elicited much attention and appreciation. The lecturer was introduced by Mr. H. Y. Stitzer, and held the closest attention of his hearers throughout the evening. He is an orator in the true sense of the word; a thorough and accomplished scholar, and portrays his characters with a vividness that seem to render it almost real. His lecture is first-class and needs to be heard to be appreciated.
—The exhibition given at the rink on Friday and Saturday evenings by Profs. C. O. Fuller and E. L. Burnham was witnessed by a large audience. The former gentlemen as a fancy trick and graceful skater, has not been surpassed if equalled by any that have ever appeared at the rink. Burnham on his 7 1/2 inch rollers in his various personations of character, was especially fine. The skates are original, the Professor having made them himself, spending three months time and much patience in perfecting them. Messrs. Fishel Bros. always provide the very best attractions for their patrons, and to-night they have secured the Pressey & Lester Star Combination, consisting of five performing members; Walsh and Gilmore in their famous burlesque acts. Fred L. Walsh in his fancy trick skating in fine costumes. Chas. Greenmore, the smallest man skater in the world, being 25 years of age and only 36 inches high. Frank Nicholas in his great triple act on the horizontal bar attached to Star Bicycles, while the machines are under full speed. Expert bicyclists and other attractions are with the company. The same will be witnessed by a large crowd.
—The G. A. R. Post, of Bellefonte, will have the finest quarters of any Post in central Pennsylvania. They are already getting the paraphernalia in order, and the room for the "William goat," that mythical quadruped of all secret societies, will be elegantly furnished. And then the "Vets" are so close to the DEMOCRAT that a great many will be converted to Democracy.
—The legislature of North Carolina passed a bill incorporating "The Pamlico Improvement Company." The company is composed in part of Bellefonte gentlemen, who have purchased one hundred and twenty thousand acres of fine timber and farming lands in Hyde county, N. C. This is the second charter granted within the last two weeks to Northern corporations.
—Those who contemplate attending an Academy in the Spring will do well to write to Prof. T. C. Houtz, Pine Grove Mills, Pa. The reputation of this school in former years, is sufficient guarantee of its present worth.

At a meeting of Progress Grange held at Centre Hall Pa., February 28, 1885. the following preamble and resolutions were adopted by a unanimous vote.
WHEREAS there is a bill now pending before the State Legislature to appropriate $8000, a year to the State College under pretense of an experimental station And Whereas the State College has been already magnificently endowed and received large appropriations from the State ample to make it a first class Technical School in Agricultural and Mechanic Arts as contemplated by its original founders and incorporators, and had the revision of its management submitted by the government of the Commonwealth, and the superintendent of Public Instruction been adopted at the meeting of the Trustees held in Bellefonte last April, the Experimental Farmers College would now be in full equipment and doing the work with out further appropriations from the State at a time when its Treasury is depleted, at the same time it was provided with sufficient funds to do the full work of a Technical school in Agriculture and Mechanic Arts.
WHEREAS at the late session of Court of Common Pleas of Centre Co., the Court declared in favor of the erection of a new Court House and
WHEREAS it is comparatively only a few years since it was rebuilt and remodeled and is still in good condition and ample for all the necessities of the Court. Therefore be it
Resolved. By the members of Progress Grange and citizens of Potter township that we enter our protest against the assumption of so unwarrantable an action on the part of the Court at a time when every department of trade and industry is prostrated, and under the circumstances an outrage upon the labor and industries of the county, which we call upon all good citizens of the county to protest against. Therefore be it
Resolved. That we enter our protest as members of Progress Grange and citizens of Centre County, against the contemplated appropriations of $8000, a year to said institution as provided in bill now pending before the State Legislature.
James B. Neff. Carrie E. Osman.
Master. Secretary.
—AN EBENSBERG MILITIAN DISGRACED.—A member of the Ebensburg Militia Company got very drunk in Washington last Tuesday afternoon, and conducted himself in so objectionable a manner that Colonel Hastings ordered him stripped of every particle of Government clothing which he wore, and put him into the street with no other apparel than boots, drawers, vest, shirt and hat. The members of the company became indignant at the treatment of one of their number, and threatened to keep out of the parade on the following day unless the man was given his clothing. The Colonel remained firm, however, and said the whole company would have to make its own way home as best it could if it did not turn up for duty at the appointed time. A subscription was subsequently taken up among the the Ebensburgers and the disgraced soldier provided with a suit of citizen's clothing.—Johnstown Tribune.
The Ebensburg fellow is evidently not personally acquainted with the Col. of the 5th Regt. or he would have kept "shady." Col. Hastings was right. The reputation of Pennsylvania's soldiery should not be sullied by even one drunken man, and its discipline must be maintained to preserve its efficiency. Col. Hastings would have stripped the whole Ebensburg company and turned them out to grass if it had been necessary to preserve the moral of his regiment. It's lucky for the fellow that he didn't have Government shoes and underwear on.
—Our ex Bachelor friend Aaron Williams who fell a victim to the wiles of a beautiful and accomplished young lady, some time ago, has returned to town. The happy fellow thinks he was the Aaron who led the hosts of Israel out of the wilderness into the promised land. It may be so but, like Moses he was about forty years getting there. We extend our hand in sympathy to his better half, and would whisper in her ear, this admonition, never argue a question with the lord of the manor, as he is always "wound up," and no woman has ever yet "got the last word" with him.
—From the Houtzdale Observer: "Last week Manager Wheatley, of the Duncanville rolling mills, discharged fifteen employes for drunkenness. Such action in business of all kinds would do more to stop the drinking and neglect of wives and families by workmen than all the sermons that ever were delivered. So long as men can hold their jobs and take a spree when they feel like it, so long will they continue to drink; but let them know that drinking will result in their discharge and those having good sense will make a wise choice."
—The musical convention in the M. E. Church, of Milesburg, under the leadership of Prof. L. T. Eddy, which closed on Friday evening, was largely attended, and was somewhat a departure from the usual programmes. Recitations and other interesting features being introduced. Music by the Citizens' Cornet Band added to make the concert a success.
—Commissioner J. C. Henderson will make sale of his farming implements, stock, etc., on his farm in Patton township, on which Mr. George W. Summers' resides, March 15th.
—The first installment of Spring Creek "suckers" made its appearance on Wednesday. We mean funny suckers.

SPRING MILLS.
On last Sabbath Rev. Sarvis preached his farewell sermon at Spring Mills. He reported 125 conversions during the year at Millheim, Spruce town and Centre Hall. He also reported having collected more missionary money than any of his predecessors for several years, but he also reported a shortage of $40 at this point in his salary. "Why is this thus?" For shame, brethren; don't let such a thing exist any longer. Go down deep into your pockets and bring forth from its deep hidden recess the ready "rhino" and pay off your pastor. The scripture saith that they that preach the gospel shall live by the gospel, and the Reverend Sarvis is certainly worthy of his hire. He has, as the instrument of the Lord, converted more souls during the past year than all the other ministers of every denomination in the valley. Pay him up!
Mrs. Mollie Soetjing, nee Korman, whose application for a divorce appeared in the county papers a few weeks before the January court, was not deterred by her former matrimonial experience from again having the matrimonial knot tied. The groom this time is Mr. Mathias Wegley, for several years the trusted employe of Wm. M. Allison. Rev. D. M. Wolf tied the knot. So saith the Millheim Journal. Success attend them.
John H. Bibby, mine host of the Spring Mills House, and Nathaniel Brown, member of the National Guard, represented Spring Mills at the inauguration.
William Alexander, whose illness I noticed in my last communication, is some better. His son Amos is very low with typhoid fever.
On Monday morning Mrs. C. Knarr, daughter of John Dauberman, near Centre Hill, died very unexpectedly. She had been ailing for several months. G.
JACKSONVILLE.
Miss Lizzie F. Miller of this place died on the 1st inst., aged 19 years and 10 months. She was buried the following Wednesday on the Reformed church of this place, of which she had been a faithful member. The funeral was the largest known in this community for years.
On the 7th inst., the widow of the late Samuel Yearick, of Zion, died at the residence of her son-in-law, Andrew Dunkel, of this place, and was buried by the side of the remains of her husband in the Reformed cemetery at Mt. Bethel, Clinton county, the following Monday.
D. E. Shoemaker, a former teacher of one of our schools, but since last fall a student at one of the Baltimore colleges, and H. P. Shoemaker, employed in the cabinet making and undertaking establishment of R. S. Aucker, of Shamokin, and their sister, Mrs. S. K. Kerlin, with her husband, Rev. J. F. Kerlin, of Hanbyville, Luzerne county, have been enjoying the hospitalities of their father, the Reformed pastor of this place. Rev. Kerlin is on his way to the conference of the M. E. church, which convenes at Huntingdon, of which he is a member. He preached in his father-in-law's pulpit at this place on Sunday evening. B.
KARTHHAUS.
C. F. Thompson closes Central Post school term of four months.
Amount of logs put in Mosquito creek, 13,000,000 feet by Charles Ardell; 1,500,000 by Bear & Coudriet.
There are only three rafts of timber put in at Karthaus this season, and they are on the Centre county side.
The mines have been running every day for the past few weeks and about three nights out of the week. John Loyd is the boss, and Alex. Long bookkeeper and general manager of the store.
The town of Karthaus numbers about sixty houses, three hotels, three general merchandise stores, kept by Gilliland & Heckendorf, Whitehead & Co., and Potter & Potter; one pool room, one shoe store, one blacksmith shop, one saw mill, managed by Capt. Walls. The mill is running every day and has plenty of orders.—Raftsmen's Journal.

FARMERS' INSTITUTE—The following is the program of the Farmers' Institute to be held in Centre Hall, Friday and Saturday, March 13 and 14, to which all agriculturists are invited:
Friday, March 13, 2:30 p. m., Prof. Jordan: The purchase and use of fertilizers.
7 p. m. Prof. Jordan: The development of the dairy interests of Centre Co.
Saturday, March 14, 9 a. m., Prof. Jordan: The principles of cattle feeding.
10:30 a. m., Prof. Buckhout. Subject, Ornamental Decorating and Planting for Farmers.
Opportunity will be given for questions and discussion after each lecture in which all are cordially invited to take part. 24
Judge Butler filed an opinion in the United States Circuit Court yesterday granting to Clarence Whitman a preliminary injunction restraining Frank Leake from infringing upon the complainant's patent design for the manufacture of "ferry" cloth.
The Norfolk and Western and Shenandoah Valley Railroads have issued a handsome pamphlet, with illustrations of scenery or their routes. The illustrations represent views on the upper Potomac, the Hall of the Giants the Luray Caverns, mountain cascades and other interesting bits of scenery.
—When a man is elected to an office in his township and then moves into another, he forfeits all claim to that office, and the Court, Commissioners or other proper authorities upon petition of the citizen of said township appoints his successor.
