Oh, women of Iowa! How en you keep silent when the politicians are today so cooly debating the repeal of our prohibitary law, that never had a fair chance for its enforcement; and all because they want money in their city treasuries. Which of your boys the heaven of your heart, and life, will you give in order that your city may be lighted with gas or brilliant with elec. Boy," I shall try and give you all the tric light? Which child can you spare news and happenings of our village a to help your city grade and pave its brief and prompt as heretofore-hoping, ereets? How long will you consent to however, you will not expect too much of tread on sidewalks that the blood of me as a beginner. One thing is sure, if souls has enabled your city to lay for items are not worthy of getting into print your convenience? How much will you there is a place for them, called "wast," ske for your boy? What is your fa- basket:" so, Mr. Editor, I suppose you ther, your brother worth to you? Will will put them there without a murmur of you without a protest give up your bus- a smile. Mr "Mountain Boy" may tel band, to enable the saloon keeper to you what he is doing som time; it is not put $500 or $1000, license into the treas. for me to tel'. ury of your city? "Lift up your voices like a trumpet," oh daughters of Iowa! "Cry aloud and spare not!" Make city, councils ashamed; make politicians afraid; make the iniquitous l'quor traffic tremble under the right-ous indignation of outraged womanhood, and swift condemnation of an awakened and determined people !- Mrs. Aldrick in the Cedar Rapids Republican.

Rev. Hugh Goldie, for nearly forty years a devoted English mission iv in West Africa, has written an impressive letter to the London Times, making strong ples that the great waterway of the Congo, may not be made a highway for the transportation of "fire water." He says that the legitimate commerce in strong drinks is as brutalizing as the slave trade, and that the importation of these liquors into the savage and half hove civilized communities of the world must become before long a question for the consideration of those claiming the name of Christian, and must lead to its prohibition. Will not such prohibition however, reflect with powerful emphasis upon Christian nations which tolerate and legitimize the traffic in their own boundaries, and allow it to prey upon and ruin the sons of Christian homes? Much as we want the Congo Basin kept sacred to a Christian civilization, there was never a more suitable time than now, to preach from the text "Charity begins at home."

Mrs. Thomas Holahan.

Mrs. ThomasH olahan, mother of T. B. Holahan, Esq., of this city; died from paralysis, at her home in Lock Haven, on Wednesday, in the seventy fifth year of her age. Her funeral will take place to-day. the Lock Haven Democrat has an extended obituary of facts are taken:

"Mrs. Holaban was a member of the Antes family who were amongst the very first and the very best settlers in this section of the state. They were of German origin. Philip Antes was a miller by trade, who, in a spirit of adventure' penetrated the forest from Carlisle as far as the Bald Eagle valley at a time when it was a hazardous undertaking. He located at the present site of Curtin's furnace in Centre county, and took up a large tract of land. He built the first grist mill in Bald Eagle Valley, and built the first Methodist church, having donated the ground upon which the church at Curtin now stands. He afterwards sold out his improvements to the Elder Roland Curtin-father of Governor Curtin who established the present iron works. After founding the of Gettysburg he was left on the the settlement in the Bald Eagle Valley he removed to Clearfiled county, erected nother mill and built another Methodist church, remaining in that locality until he died. Before the churches tou'd be completed services were held in the mill. In this way be established a large family of Methodists amongst his dearest lineal descendants, of which Jon. John Patton is among the most listinguished. A large portion of the leading citizens of Clearfield county are direct descendants of Mr. Antes. Philip Antes, his eldest son, remained on a farm near Curtin station and raised a large and useful family on the Antes homestead at that place. He was the father of Mrs. Dr. Canfield of Lock Haven; Mrs. Thomas Holahan, Mrs. John Holter, o! Curtin, and several sons. Another branch of the family settled at Jersey Shore, from which settlement we have the appellations of Antes Fort, Antes Creek, etc., which mark the places where they located,

The Mother of Mrs. Holahan was member of the extensive and influential Holt family which bore an equal pot in the work of progress and are today amongst the most intelligent and useful of the citizens of this section. PERFECTION OF RAILROAD MANAGEMENT. -Nothing so thoroughly exemplifies the perfection of railroad management as the manner in which the immense Miss Cora Holahan, who has fai hfully amount of travel to the inauguration was handled by the roads composing the Great Pennsylvania System. Never before in the bistory of this country has there been such a demand made upon transportation facilities, as during the four days immediately preceding and succeeding the 4th of March; yet, under its splendid organization, the vast travel was accommodated without the semblance of an accident, or more than trivial delay. Thousands came from the North. East, West, and South, aggregating a total of from 40 000 to College Preparatory and Normal 60.000 the lines of this one company alone, yet they were all accommodated without any apparent effort on the part of the Great Corporation, which justly TUITION, is acknowledged the leading railroad Moving time is at hand, so is the first of the world. This grand achievement is not due alone to the skill and experience of its oxicers and employes, but to its splendid switch and block signal system, which makes the handling of many additional trains as simple and easy as the movement of its regular service. Superiority of management and perfection of modern appliances were never befor so aptly shown, and the result accomplished is but another illustration of the fact that speed comfort, and perfect safety are always guaranteed when we journey over the lines of the Pennsylvania Railroad and its
