

A LUDICROUS instance of fighting the war over again has just happened in the colored high school of Baltimore. The pupils had been rehearsing an Easter entertainment in which a scene during the war is described. 'One wooded shore was blue with 'Yanks,' and one was gray with 'rebels.' In the Northern camp the soldiers are singing 'Yankee Doodle,' and in the Southern army 'Dixie.' At midnight the two camps are quiet, the soldiers sleeping. Suddenly a soldier begins to sing 'Home, Sweet Home,' and both camps, forgetting the surroundings, sing the sweet old song in unison. To make the recitation effective the pupils have been taught to sing 'Yankee Doodle' and 'Dixie' at the proper time, and to unite their voices on 'Home, Sweet Home.' Some of the pupils who said they had religious scruples against songs were excused from taking part in it, though they have been singing songs ever since they have been at the schools. But others who had to sing 'Dixie,' have written a remonstrance to Mayer Latrobe against 'the indignity heaped upon them by their teachers.' They said it humiliated them. This is a ridiculous imitation of Republican agitators who imagine an insult in every reference to the war, which they protest ended in the restoration of the Union.

The trial of the Lebanon, Pa., boy burglars, or 'Young Abe Buzzards,' as they delighted to style themselves, Jerome Ebricht, Robert Moyer and George Sarge, has ended, and they were sentenced to four years and six months in the Eastern Penitentiary. They are mere youths, but are familiar with crime. They belong to good families, and took their first lessons from recounting the exploits of house and store breakers, robbers, thieves, etc. Then they left their homes and established themselves in a shanty, and robbed numerous stores, dwellings, etc. With the aid of a young detective their capture was effected, and they were sent to jail, from which they escaped and committed more burglaries. After a fight with the officers they were again captured. They broke their prison bars a second time and were again taken, since which time they have been kept under the closest surveillance. The indictments against them were numerous, and when they learned of their impending fate they wept bitterly. The lawyers made a strong effort to save Ebricht, but to no purpose. The jury was out eight hours. — Agents' Herald.

Managers Proclamation.

CINCINNATI, O., JAN. 1, 1885.

To the Officers and Brethren of the Inventors Great American Propaganda Society.

By virtue of the authority vested in me by our Constitution and laws as President and Chief Manager, I hereby order and direct that the Brotherhood of American Propagators, together with all other Inventors and Patent Right men, meet in National Convention in the city of Columbus, Ohio, on the 22d day of April 1885, for the purpose of considering such matters as will conduce to the welfare and advancement of Inventors' interest and Brotherhood.

The fact that our society was instituted for the Protection of Inventors, Developing Inventions, Prosecuting and Detecting Infringements, obtaining valid Patents, to assist Inventors in business, and to relieve members in distress, makes it to the interest of all Inventors and Patent Right men to become members, and take part in the proceedings of the National Convention.

Distinguished speakers have been invited to attend the National Convention and hence the meeting will be of more than usual interest to Inventors—especially to those who are having litigations with regard to infringements.

Every Inventor realizes the necessity for a more thorough and complete organization, and it is hoped that all into whose hands this proclamation falls will use every effort in his power to have it published in all the newspapers in his locality, and to attend the National Convention.

It is a well-known fact that each and every Inventor who has taken an active part in our society from its earliest infancy, has been materially benefited. The Inventors Great American Propaganda Society has no affiliations with political tricksters or patent solicitors. That class of gentry is totally ignored by our society.

All Inventors and Patent Right men not members of the society, are requested to send for a copy of the Constitution and laws, prior to the assembling of the National Convention.

The forthcoming National Convention of Inventors promise to be one of the largest ever held on this continent. Therefore it would be well for all persons who contemplate attending, to notify the Chief Manager at once, so that he can arrange for proper hotel accommodations.

J. E. WOOLVERTON,
President and Chief Manager.

THE BELL TELEPHONE COMPANY has asked for permission in Boston to increase its capital to $30,000,000 for the purpose of engaging in the business of long-distance telephoning. The company proposes a system whereby a person in Boston, for instance, can obtain direct telephonic connection with one in Chicago, Pittsburg or Cincinnati, and it is simply for the protection of this through system of long-distance telephoning that the increase of capital is desired. The company has resolved to build a long-distance system between Boston and New York, Baltimore, Philadelphia, Springfield, Albany, Buffalo, Pittsburg, Chicago, Cincinnati, St. Louis and other principal cities, the first skeleton of the new plan to be 5,000 miles long, and to cost at the single copper wire, and to cost at the inside $13,500,000. No long distance patents have yet been offered. The company which it is a part of buying, but the right to purchase patents with stock is desired. The combined capital of all sub-companies operated under the bell patents is something like $50,000,000. An experimental line has already been built between Boston and New York, and has been worked so successfully that a whisper has been heard from one city to the other.

UNIONVILLE.
—Rev. A. W. Guyer, who has been assigned to the Circuit of which Unionville is a part, preached his second sermon here Sunday evening. The gentleman is an able preacher, and so far gives universal satisfaction.

Miss Jennie Martin of Houtzdale, who, for some time, was visiting her Aunt of this place, left on Monday evening to visit friends at Port Matilda and Tyrone.

Mr. Henry Kephart, manager of Wm. Resides store has returned from Eastern cities where he was purchasing a stock of spring and summer goods. These have already arrived and are conspicuous for their variety, quantity and quality. From this immense assortment one can be united in almost anything he wishes in that line of business.

Harry has been somewhat indisposed since his return, but we hope there will be no serious results.

J. C. Rumberger who has been confined to the house for about six weeks with inflammatory rheumatism, is once again perambulating our streets.

G. B. Taylor of town bid his friends good-by and hied away to Lewistown to clerk for B. F. Leather's.

Miss Lizzie Guyer, daughter of Rev. A. W. Guyer of Milesburg, spent Sunday in our town, stopping with Miss Martin.

Mrs. Dollie Kephart, while spending the afternoon with her mother, some time ago, was taken very sick, and several times during her sickness, the gravest apprehensions were manifested by her friends, lest she should not recover. We are glad to state, however, that she is convalescing.

Prof. Weaver of Fillmore, assisted by some ladies and gentleman of the same place, gave a musical entertainment in the Hall on Friday.

Mr. Frank McCoy, the gentleman who last fall took charge of the Central City public school and moved to that place, has finished his term and returned to town to occupy his former residence on Walnut street. We understand Frank made it a profitable term to those under his jurisdiction, and had no occasion to resort to the use of the rod.

PENN HALL.
One of the chief millwrights from Chambersburg arrived here on Saturday evening to commence work on the Roller mill for J. B. Fisher, at Farmers Mills.

Fred Moyer's blacksmith shop is completed and Mr. Wheeling his smith commenced working on Monday.

John P. Condo, has been on the war path assessing, John says he never wants to be assessor again. 'Why, John it pays $1.00 per day.'

Rev. J. M. Evans, from Kutztown, accompanied by his bride, is home with his parents. We congratulate the Rev. and both have our best wishes. May they have a happy and prosperous life.

Messrs. John S. Mills and Noah Khal from Sugar Valley were noticed in our town, one day last week.

The entertainment on Friday evening was well attended except by a few of our young men who think more of ten cents than they do of pleasure. The entertainment proved a success and was well conducted.

J. B. Fisher shipped a car load of fine fat cattle to the eastern markets last week, the average weight being little over 1,400.

The young man at Mr. George Millers known as cheap John, died last Thursday night and was buried at Spring Mills on Saturday afternoon. Rev. J. M. Evans conducted the services, we are not able to give particulars of the deceased but understand he had no relatives in this country, but a mother and one brother in the old country.

Rumor has it that Ben—is going to get himself an helpmate, well Ben you should tell your friends of the same if such is to be the case.

If you want a post-office, or government position of any kind, send at once for the latest greatest and best book published, containing lists and salaries of government offices in every state and country with full instructions how, and when to make application to secure an appointment.
