

Packed in a Trunk.

A VERY UNPLEASANT DISCOVERY MADE IN A ST. LOUIS HOTEL.

St. Louis, April 14.—A sensation was caused at the Southern hotel to-day by the discovery of the horribly mutilated body of a man packed in a trunk which was taken out of a room. The stench from the trunk caused the discovery. The hotel register shows that on March 30 a gentleman registered as Walter H. Lennox Maxwell, M. D., from London, and was assigned to that room. On opening the trunk it was found that the head of the man was severed from his body, and written on a paper inside the trunk were the words, "So perish all traitors to the great cause." The trunk and its contents were taken to the morgue.

Maxwell is described as a very girlish looking, blonde young man, wearing a dark woolly cutaway suit of English stuff. He was seen in company frequently with a dark looking gentleman, about five feet ten inches in height. This gentleman registered as C. Arthur Preller, London England. A telegram had previously been received from Preller, asking whether Maxwell was a guest at the house. He was answered in the affirmative and he soon came on. Both men occupied the same room. Maxwell left the hotel a week ago Sunday night, but he had paid his full weeks board promptly and it was supposed that he would return any day. No suspicion attached to his absence until the horrible smell called attention to his room and led to the opening of the trunk.

A second trunk was found to contain numerous articles, among which were Maxwell's London address, as 14 Paper building, Temple, London, and an envelope addressed in his hand writing to Rev. D. G. A. Lewis, B. A. curator of St. Pauls, Morley, Leeds, Yorkshire, England. He came over on the steamer Cephalonia from England. Preller has a Russian passport, vized by the ambassador in London in 1878, and a passport 1883 for Spain and Mexico, vized by the Spanish minister and signed Granville. Seven trunks, four valises and a hat box were left behind at the hotel, and the contents, consisting of clothing, etc., are valued at hundreds of dollars. This is believed to make the theory of a box unobtainable, and the belief is that the corpse is either that of Maxwell or Preller.

Murdered By A Mob.

THE BRUTAL KILLING OF A POLANDER IN LUZERNE COUNTY.

WILKESBARRE, Pa. April 13.—There have been five murders in Luzerne county within nine months, and two within the last week. The latest is that of a Poland named Andrew Comisky. Comisky, with a fellow countryman named Andrew Hudochi visited Charles McMame's saloon at Port Blanchard. During their stay in the saloon a quarrel ensued, the proprietor striking Comisky a terrible blow with an iron bar over the head. The wounded man and his companion then left the place followed by a half drunken mob of the friends of the saloon keeper. At a lonely spot on the road the two men were overtaken, when a terrible fight ensued. The clothing was almost torn off entirely from Comisky's back and he must have fought for life like a tiger. He was finally overpowered, however, and his dead body laid across the railroad track to hide the crime of the murderers. A passing locomotive picked up the remains. They were found to be horribly butchered. Two bullet holes in the head showed that he had been shot as well as clubbed to death. McMame has been arrested. Comisky's companion is still missing, and it is feared he has been foully dealt with too.

—On last Saturday evening James Brown and Samuel Eby, lads aged about 16 and 17 respectively, were taken before Squire Settle to answer the charge of aggravated assault and battery upon John E., aged about 11 years son of Joseph Limes, and were bailed for their appearance at court. It appears that yesterday a week Brown and Eby, with the assistance of Harry Snowden, colored, (the latter since running away) abused young Limes in a brutal manner, from the effects of which he (Limes) was obliged to take his bed upon reaching his home, and on Saturday evening his condition was such as to warrant his assailants arrest. On Monday young Limes had grown so much worse that his life was despaired of, and District Attorney Porter interviewed Squire Settle and demanded an increase of the bail. This should prove another warning to quarrelsome boys, and especially those of a brutal disposition, for should young Limes die they will likely pay well for their conduct. —Free Press.

AN ATTEMPTED OUTRAGE.—Shortly after 9 o'clock on Sunday evening a lady who resides on the east side of the city left the residence of her friend, where she had been calling, to go to her home. She was going out Sixth avenue and had got as far as Fourteenth street when she was passed by a man, who disappeared in the darkness, as she supposed. She had gone but a short distance further, when out of the gloom appeared the form of the same individual, who made an attempt to assault her. Although greatly frightened, the lady succeeded in giving the alarm by calling for the police as loudly as possible, and kept the shrieks up. Windows in the neighborhood were quickly raised and an assailant made off in the darkness as fast as he could go. The lady hurriedly returned to her friend's house and reported the attempted outrage. Several gentlemen immediately proceeded to investigate the locality, but the libel on a man had made good his escape. It is to be hoped that whoever he was he may yet be apprehended, and if he is, he should get the full benefit of the law. The lady described him as being a rather tall man and as wearing a slouch hat. —Albion Tribune.

SPRING MILLS.
Rev. John Evans and his bride are spending a short honeymoon, with his parents and friends at this place. For several years he has been laboring in Clarion Co. but last February accepted a call to a charge in Somerset county, near the Maryland line, the charge extending over into Maryland.
On last Thursday John Spiro better known to many by the name of cheap John died, and on Saturday his remains were interred in the burying ground at the Presbyterian church. Mr. Spiro was formerly a peddler who frequently visited this place, always stopping with Mr. George Miller, who kept the Spring Mills hotel. Later he has not been engaged in business. When Mr. Miller left the hotel he had become so attached to the family that he has made his home with them ever since.
The family of Mr. Wm. J. Alexander of this place has been terribly afflicted this winter. I told you in a former letter of the illness of the father and now the mother is confined to her bed.
From the articles on temperance and the hygiene law I learn that the equanimity of your judgement has been disturbed, don't feel uneasy about the matter brother Frank. Physiology has long been recognized as a common school branch by the school department, of the state, and county superintendents, and by many teachers. Cutter Hutchinson, and the numerous other authors of physiology will soon add a few chapters on temperance hygiene to their books, and the whole thing will settle down with scarcely a ripple on the surface.
Josiah Dale, son-in-law of Peter Hoffer, who lives on the top of Nitany mountain, is about to open a store at Farmer's Mill's.
E. C. Krumrine of the firm of Himelrich and Krumrine of Lewisburg, spent Sabbath with his parents.
James Crawford has severed his connection with Wm. B. Bartholemew and will soon be seen counter hopping in the new store at Farmers Mill's. We congratulate Mr. Dale in having secured a good salesman, James can't be beat. Howard R. Sman of Brush Valley is filling the place vacated by Mr. Crawford.
Prof. Hosterman's select school is flourishing. Miss Lide McElroy is teaching a select school also, and has a large number of pupils.
Spring Mills boasts of two number one music teachers Frank J. Rarick, and Miss Kate Runkle. Both have large classes, Miss Runkle is a daughter of the late Judge Runkle, and is a graduate of the celebrated musical College at Freeburg Pa.
You spoke in your last issue of the revival of the old Academies of our county, please don't use the name Academy the word is synonymous with antiquity and always suggests the "old education" call them Institutes, Normal schools "Quincy" schools, or any name that is suggestive of "the new education." The terms Academy, Seminary, and even College are names that have survived the wreck of time, but they grate harshly on the hear of the progressive teacher.

—A young man named Hookerman, of Millin, who was running as extra freight brakeman on the P. R. R., was killed on Allegheny street, at an early hour this morning. When the train reached Coal Sliding below town he was missed from his post of duty, but his lantern was standing on the bumper. The unfortunate man must have fallen off in front of the Mobus hotel as he was dragged down to the old Exchange, where he was discovered by Will Wilson who was awakened by his moaning. He was horribly mangled and only lived a short time. —Huntingdon Monitor.

Chronic Catarrh.
C. W. Mellier, of 406 South Fourth street, St. Louis, is twenty years of age, and has been a sufferer from chronic catarrh, which had become quite offensive. When he came to Dr. Hartman, two months ago, he was told it would take six months to cure him. But he has progressed beyond all expectations, and nearly all signs of the disease have disappeared. Before being treated he could not breathe out of the nose, and now he has perfect control of the nasal organ. PERUNA did the business.
James Dunn, of 1310 Gay street, St. Louis, has suffered from catarrh since 1870. The gentleman told the reporter the following straightforward story of his case. "I took the disease in Memphis. I commenced in my head and extended to my throat, and a bad cough followed. I went to a number of physicians, and they told me my trouble was liver disease, and one said it was palpitation of the heart that caused the cough. For the last year I have been practically worthless. I could not ascend a flight of stairs without suffering from shortness of breath and fast beating of the heart, and my appetite was very defective. After eating I often coughed so hard that I would throw up everything in my stomach. I could not walk any distance without panting. Five weeks ago I went under the care of Dr. Hartman, and now my cough has disappeared and I feel like a new man." PERUNA was his treatment.

Next came George Sauerbaum, residing at 1939 Carr street, St. Louis, who is an old patient of Dr. Hartman. He stated that he had suffered most intensely from chronic catarrh of the head and lungs, but is now almost cured, his lungs being entirely well and his head greatly improved. The gratitude of this gentleman was almost boundless, and he expressed it to the reporter in the strongest terms, saying "PERUNA will cure any disease."
I. P. Dukhart, of Cumberland, Md., superintendent B. & O. R. Co.'s Hotels (conductor on the Baltimore & Ohio Railroad for twenty-eight years, and previously a druggist), writes: "Dr. S. B. HARTMAN & Co., Columbus, O. I have used but one bottle of PERUNA between myself and son. He had diphtheric sore throat, and is now well. As for myself, it has entirely relieved the dullness in my head, which has been of long standing—the result of chronic malaria. I never took anything in my life that gave me such great satisfaction. My wife is now taking it also."
