

The Centre Democrat.

Thursday Morning, May 7, 1885.

GEO. P. BIBLE, Local Editor and Business Manager.

Correspondence, containing important news, solicited from any part of the county. No communications accepted unless accompanied by the real name of the writer.

Local Department.

NOTICE.—Mr. George H. Knically, is our only authorized collector for the DEMOCRAT.

—How about base ball?
—Suicides are of daily occurrence.
—India Lawn from 8c up—Garman's.
—Pure worsted Jersey 98c.—Garman's.
—25c for our linen bosom shirts at—Garman's.
—Col. Geo. W. Bain at the Court House to-night.
—Men's nobby hats in Straws, Pearls and Nutria.—Garman's.
—Ellis Hosterman of Aaronburg attended court last week.
—The mountains are on fire in different parts of the country.
—The Juniata Valley, campmeeting will be held at Newton Hamilton.
—Hon. Judge Krebs of Clearfield presided at Court a few days this week.
—The Lock Haven up town rink is to be sold at Sheriff's sale on the 10th inst.
—In Bedford county, out of 36 applications for license, only two were refused.
—If the bill passes taxing the rinks $1000 a year, there will be but few rinks left to tax.
—At Forepaugh's Museum, in Philadelphia, a large number of crazy quilts are on exhibition.
—Sheriff Walker conveyed Frank Fike and Isaac Fields to the Danville asylum, on Friday last.
—The itinerant organ grinder was grinding out falsetto tones from his dilapidated organ on Saturday.
—Dr. Hafer is one of the best dentists in town, it is just fun to have an old tooth jerked out by him. Just try him.
—An exchange announces the death of Miss Hattie Gould, the skatorial wonder who appeared here some months ago.
—A young man in Bedford county, who is twenty two years old, saw the cars for the first time on Monday of last week.
—The Knights of Labor (2333) gave a grand ball in Bush's Hall on Friday night. It was well attended, considering the very disagreeable weather.
—On Wednesday night the tobacco shed belonging to P. B. Crider, on his farm near Eagleville, together with 20 tons of tobacco was destroyed by fire. No insurance.
—Pine Grove will be abundantly supplied with water. Two companies are organized, one has galvanized iron pipes already laid, and the other propose laying a French drain.
—Prof. H. S. Whiteman and two daughters, of Lock Haven, sang in the Catholic choir in this place, on Thursday morning, the occasion of Mr. Arthur Brown's wedding.
—The Sunday school convention for the fifth district comprising the counties of Cambria, Huntingdon, Blair, Fulton, Somerset and Bedford, will be held in Altoona on the 14th and 15th inst.
—The grand jury after examining the Court House, concluded that at the present it was not an absolute necessity that we build a new one. They were discharged on Thursday. Argument court was held on Friday.
—Mr. Wm. McFarlane's grist mill, near Boalsburg, was entirely destroyed by fire on Thursday evening of last week. The fire was the work of an incendiary. There was an insurance on the building of $2,500, which will not cover the loss.
—In Bedford county, the Recorder of deeds has introduced some improvements in the records. One is in placing under the name of the parties to each deed prominently the exact number of acres of land conveyed, so it can be seen at a glance.
—E. K. Keller formerly interested in the woolen factory business at Houserville, now resides on S. & A. Loeb's farm beyond the Springs. Mr. Keller is ready to furnish a few families in town with pure sweet milk, positively no adulteration of Adam's ale.
—Mrs. Emily L. McLaughlin of Boston, will speak under the auspices of the W. C. T. U. at the following places: Lock Haven, May 5th, Howard 6th, Philipsburg 7th, Houtzdale 8th, College 9th, Pine Grove 10th, Stormstown 11th, Fleming 12th, Milesburg 13th, Bellefonte 14th, Hubersburg 15th, Centre Hall 16th, Spring Mills 17th. Subject "sure promise of the future".
—Wilbur F. Reeder, Esq., has been making some improvements about his residence on the corner of Allegheny and Curtin streets. A new fence and board walk are the most conspicuous. Why not have the board walk built all along the south side of Curtin street now. Mr. Reeder has started a good one as far as his property extends.

—WANTED.—A spring poet and a cure for suicides.
—The potato-bug has "bug-un" to make his appearance.
—On Sunday June 14th is "childrens Day" in the Methodist church.
—Rev. R. Crittendon returned on Tuesday from a visit to Tioga county.
—Col. Geo. W. Bain the popular lecturer at the Court house to-night.
—Hicks & Buck have had the roof of their foundry covered with a coat of coal tar.
—The electric light company have put in handsome fixtures for the Grand Army boys.
—The season has opened for fish and snake stories now, who will produce the first.
—Mrs. Elizabeth Johnson of Gettysburg died on Tuesday at the age of 100 years.
—"Oddity is the fashion." The Renovo Record is being printed with blue ink now.
—J. W. Scott Esq., editor of the Tyrone Herald who formerly resided in Osceola moved to Tyrone.
—Mr. Newton Baily wants rheubarb pie. Can't some of you farmers bring in a stock for this craving rheubarb, editor?
—We are in receipt of the Daily News published in Philadelphia. It is one of the newest papers among our exchanges.
—Ex-Judge Samuel Linn of Williamsport, brother of J. B. Linn of this place was in town the early part of the week.
—The Lewisburg Saturday News is for sale. This is a good chance for some one who wants to purchase a paper in a good locality.
—The Troy Steam Laundry turns out the finest work you ever saw. The cuffs and collars are just like new. We know whereof we speak.
—Our thanks are due to our friend H. S. DeLong, for the large number of good cash subscribers he has been giving us during the two weeks of Court.
—Ex-Prothonotary J. C. Harper has been admitted to practice at the Centre county bar. We understand Cal. passed a very creditable examination.
—John G. Love, Esq. was in Tyrone Saturday attending the funeral of his nephew Mr. James Kissel, whose death occurred on Friday morning.
—Ministers living in different parts of the county, would confer a favor by sending as early as possible, notices of deaths and marriages in their respective localities.
—Mr. Thomas Shaughensy street commissioner and his gang of men are doing good work. Thomas makes a faithful officer. That is right Thomas we don't want the cholera.
—Mr. Ed. Kitzmiller the enterprising young manager of the telephone exchange, officiated as floor manager at the rink on Friday and Saturday evening. Ed does it up first class.
—The following representative men from Curtin township are present at Court this week: Messrs. John A. Dally, Hiram Young, John and Nathan McCloskey John and Wm. Mann, H. S. DeLong James Packer David Brickley and a number of others.
—As the cholera is raging in some parts of the state, we publish the following from a reliable medical journal: "The following prescription for diarrhoeic sickness has been proved effective by many years of use. It is simple, safe, inexpensive and readily obtainable, and the chances are that it will come in very handy next summer. Take equal parts of tincture of cayenne, tincture of opium, tincture of rhubarb, essence of peppermint and spirits of camphor. Mix well. Dose, fifteen to thirty drops in a wine glass of water, according to age of patient and violence of the attack. Repeat every fifteen to twenty minutes until relief is obtained."
—The closing exhibition at the Crescent rink on Saturday night was witnessed by a large audience. Mr. Fuller, as a trick and fancy skater, is first class. Mr. Burnham besides performing remarkable and difficult feats on the large ten inch rollers, is a natural born imitator. His imitations of a crowing rooster, pig squealing, steamer coming up the harbor, fog horns, and sawing a board or the bone in a ham, were all artistically done. The rink will be opened some time in the early fall. The managers have dealt honorably with all they have had any business with, and we wish them success in their new fields of labor.
—Yesterday, Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Bible, of North Broad street, Philadelphia, celebrated the sixtieth anniversary of their wedding. In their long and happy married life, extending over a most eventful period, they have had the rare fortune to be surrounded by a goodly number of olive branches reaching to the fourth generation, and have attained to almost the extreme of old age, still seemingly vigorous in body and mind. Mr. Geo. W. Bible, the associate editor of this paper, is their young est son, and we congratulate him and his aged and venerable parents upon so rare and happy an event as this anniversary implies, and wish the latter many returns of the occasion.—New York Journal of Fabrics, May 2nd.

—The fly will be the next pest.
—Try Harry Teats' boneless ham.
—The roads are drying off nicely.
Railroad travel is comparatively light at this time.
—Don't be hasty in discarding your heavy clothing.
—This is the harvest for barbers, as shaved heads indicate.
—Conrad Singer of Romola was visible on our streets on Tuesday.
—This is the season to make garden, whitewash and set hens.
—Theodore Boak of Snow Shoe, was visible on our street this week.
—The attendance at court this week was small compared with last.
—Harper & Magee will soon open their grocery store on Allegheny street.
The store building at the nail works is under roof, and will soon be finished.
Lock Haven is jailing their drunken individuals and imposing heavy fines.
—Goldsmith Bros. received a very handsome show case from Philadelphia.
The grain fields, the leaves, and other evidences of summer are hailed with joy.
—General Grant has worked so much that he is now able to work at his book.
—The commencement season, which is the closing season for the schools, is eagerly looked for.
—The Steam Heating Company in Lock Haven will shut off the heat in that city on the 20th inst.
—Most of the farmers have their oats sown, and are getting their corn ground ready as rapidly as possible.
—The best quality of fish at Teats' grocery on High street. You are asked to come in and examine his stock.
—Decoration day will be observed here with very appropriate exercises, which the G. A. R. are now arranging for.
—There has been no chance for the spring poet to bud and bloom, as we were ushered from cold winter into summer.
—The G. A. R. Hall will be formally dedicated on the 26th of May. Preparations are being made for a grand time.
—The funeral of Mr. Philip Gross, was very largely attended, 30 rigs were in line and a number of people walked.
—A seventeen year old Huntingdon youth married a maiden lady, forty years old. The boy believes in home protection.
—Miss Anna Dale, the young lady who attempted to take her life by shooting herself, is improving, and will probably recover.
—"Bunch of keys" is being played in most all the surrounding towns. We have an old bunch here, but can't get very much fun out of them.
—We give the balance of the court proceedings of last week, and this week up to the hour of going to press. Our next issue will contain the balance.
—A man when he has a deed, should have it recorded. If they are lost or destroyed by fire, you have nothing to show that you really owned the property.
—President Cleveland and party, visited the battle field at Gettysburg. Ex. Gov. Curtin was the chief escort; speeches were made by prominent men. A camp fire was held in the evening, and a general good time was the result.
—Tickets are being sold for the mock trial at the Y.M.C.A. rooms on Saturday evening. The affair promises to be interesting, and as the admission is only ten cents, all who can, should turn out and help the boys along.
—Philip Gross a very respectable citizen of this borough had a stroke of paralysis from which he died on Sunday morning. He was 58 years old and leaves a wife, two sons, and seven daughters. The funeral services were held on Tuesday morning in the Catholic Church.
—Wm. H. Remick, was the name of the young man who was killed at the Beech Creek fire on the 28th of April. He was a member of Good Will Hose Company. When the steamer was unloaded at Beech Creek, the boys in haste to get to the fire, seized the rope and started at a lively rate. Mr. Remick accidentally fell, when the steamer passed over his body instantly killing him. James Bradley a member of the company was also badly injured at the same time.
—Some time ago we gave a list of the prospective matrimonial candidates in this town, and now one by one they are paying their vows, by leading a handsome bride to the holy altar of matrimony. We predicted E. R. Chambers' wedding, and Ned vindicated the prediction. Mr. Bair, and Mr. Arthur Brown did likewise, and on Tuesday evening at the home of the bride's parents about a mile South west of town in the presence of about sixty invited guests, Dr. Miles Kirk was married to the estimable lady, Miss Eva Musser. Rev. Laurie pronounced them man and wife, after which congratulations and presents were liberally bestowed, (and just here, we will offer ours.) The guests enjoyed themselves until ten o'clock, when the doctor and his bride were driven to their own home on West High street which had already been nicely furnished, and everything in readiness to receive them. The doctor was wise in casting his lot at home, and with the lady he did. Mrs. Kirk (nee Musser) is an accomplished young lady, besides what is more, knows how to superintend a home of her own, understanding thoroughly all the details about house keeping, which after all is the greatest and most valuable accomplishment a young lady can have.

Personal:
Mr. Henry Keller, spent Sunday in Boalsburg.
Mr. J. A. Hoy and son, of Zion, gave us a call on Saturday.
Mr. Chas Scott of Williamsport was in town the early part of the week.
W. H. Fry, one of Pine Grove's leading citizens was in town on Monday.
Mr. John G. Confer, of Snow Shoe, enrolled his name for the DEMOCRAT.
Mr. Cal Brackbill's new house on Curtin street is another addition to that street.
Mr. W. K. DeLong, of Roland, was in town on Monday, attending to some business.
Mrs. Clement Dale departed for a month's visit among friends in Philadelphia.
Hon. Seth H. Yocum has been elected Mayor of Johnstown city, Tenn., so says the News.
Mrs. E. M. Sturdevant of New York State, is now visiting friends and relations in Bellefonte.
Mr. Israel Sternburg, who is clerking for James Murphy, a Renova Merchant is at home on a visit.
Rev. Black the Episcopal minister of Renovo will preach in the Episcopal church on next Sunday.
H. J. Fisher, the senior manager of the rink departed on the 5 p. m. train Monday, for Butler, Pa.
Messrs. James and Wm. Laurie sons of Rev. Laurie are visiting at the home of their parents on Spring street.
Messrs. Wm. Thompson, Wm. Temple and Robert Haynes of Snow Shoe, registered at the Bush House on Monday.
Messrs. A. C. Hopkins and G. W. Batchler, two of Lock Havens prominent citizens were in town on Monday, and part of last week.
Master Burlington Ames, Willie Mayes and Grant Coble all of Houserville spent Saturday and Sunday in Bellefonte and Coalville.
Thos. Merryman of Fowler concluded to give us an eagle to squeeze: Thomas is like a great many more, he always pays for his reading in advance.
Miss Lola Krom formerly of this place but now a resident of Lock Haven was married one day last week to Mr. Joseph Runion, son of George Runion of that city.
Mr. W. I. Fleming ex-burgess of Bellefonte, came over to the city yesterday and attended the lecture given by Bill Nye last evening.—Altoona Tribune May 1.
W. E. Hamer, Esq., of Vail, correspondent of the Tyrone Herald, a very pleasant and agreeable gentleman, was a visitor in Bellefonte. Mr. Hamer was under the chaperonage of Commissioner Henderson and of course was well taken care of.
Mr. David Houser and Mr. John Shuey, two enterprising farmers of College township, shipped a car load of fine cattle from Oak Hall to Philadelphia, on Thursday, last. They viewed the places of interest in the Quaker City and returned on Tuesday.
Mr. J. N. Van Ormer shook hands with his Bellefonte friends last week. Van is now a resident of Philipsburg. Mrs. Van Ormer is now visiting her sister at Coatsville Chester county, after which she will spend several weeks in Philadelphia visiting her son and daughter-in-law.
—On last Thursday a fashionable event, to which a large audience assembled in the Catholic church at 6:30 o'clock, a. m., to witness, was the marriage of Mr. Arthur J. Brown, of the firm of E. J. Brown, Jr. & Co., to Miss Lena S. Rapp, a very estimable lady of this place. Rev. Father Worful, of Huntingdon, assisted by Rev. Father McArdle performed the pleasant task. The bride was handsomely and very artistically dressed, while the groom was just looking his best; being handsome at all times, he was especially so on this occasion. Miss Lizzie Hazel and Mr. Walter Garrity were the "best friends" in the affair.
Excellent music was furnished by Prof. Whiteman and daughters, of Lock Haven. The 9:32 train conveyed the party eastward to Philadelphia and other points of interests.
—School teachers will do well to subscribe for the National Educator, edited and published by Dr. Horn, at Allentown. It contains much valuable information relating to the school room, and in fact on almost every subject. It will be remembered that Dr. Horn was an active worker at our late county institute.
—The terrible epidemic in Plymouth Pa. is raging at a fearful rate. On Friday thirteen deaths occurred, on Saturday four, and the same number on Sunday. Nanticoke a small town below Plymouth, reports about fifty cases there.
—Query.—Is the post office, as now conducted, Democratic or Republican?—Daily News.
Republican under a Democratic atmosphere, which of course is pure.
—The Lock Haven Express says "the wedding business is dull." Not so in our county, it has as big a boom here as the new railroad.

Court Proceedings.—On the last day of court the following cases were disposed of:
Louis Pasquale, minor, by his next friend John Pacinni, vs. John Hoy. Verdict in favor of plaintiff $64.50.
Wm. P. Brown vs. Henry J. Walker. Verdict in favor of plaintiff $90.50.
D. Casey & Co. vs. Witherite & Walker. Judgment confessed in favor of plaintiff for $140. 50.
Hanlon Bros. & Co. vs. Witherite & Walker. Judgment in favor of plaintiff for $142.
Commonwealth vs. Hugh Riddle, larceny. Defendant plead guilty. Sentenced to sixty days in county jail.
Same vs. Isaac Fields, larceny. Acquitted on ground of insanity and ordered to be removed to asylum for insane at Danville, Pa.
Same vs. Wm. Beck, assault and battery. Defendant plead guilty. Sentence—fine one dollar and costs of prosecution.
There being no further jury trials the traverse jury was discharged at 11 a. m. Thursday and the grand jury about an hour afterward.
The following cases during this week of Court were disposed of with Judge Krebs, of Clearfield:
Adeliza W. Merryman, et. al., vs. D. G. Bush, et. al. Plaintiffs filed an amended narr. the defendant plead surprise and case was continued.
John D. Gardner vs. John T. Fowler. Plaintiff suffered a voluntary non-suit.
David Gates vs. George W. Lyons. After hearing plaintiff's testimony, the Court desired a compulsory non-suit to be entered on motion of defendant's counsel.
Wm. W. Pettigill vs. T. F. Rowlands, et. al. Verdict for plaintiff $215.30.
The Saltzberg Bank vs. Benjamin Rich. Judgment confessed in favor of plaintiff for $4311.46.
John C. Hoover vs. Benjamin Rich. Judgment confessed in favor of plaintiff for $5.17.
A. J. & T. E. Griest vs. Benjamin Rich. Judgment confessed in favor of plaintiff for $275.35.
The case of John Hoy vs. A. Baum, growing out of a horse, is being tried before Judge Krebs, as we go to press; and the case of Margaret Nestlerode vs. the Williamsport & Clearfield R. R. Co., before Judge Furst in the grand jury room.
—The Grand Lodge of Pennsylvania, I. O. O. F. will meet in Annual session at Harrisburg on the 16th inst, Representatives from every order in the State, are expected to be present.
The Philadelphia board of health has ordered that all pumps and wells in that city be filled up and abandoned within thirty days. The board declares them public nuisances, having a tendency to endanger the health of the citizens, and to become focuses of disease.
—Jesse L. Test Esq., and wife of Reynoldsville visited Bellefonte last week. Mr. Test was formerly Register and Recorder of Centre county and is well known to the older citizens of town. He thought the town had made vast strides in the past few years. They were the guests of the senior editor of the DEMOCRAT, and while in town met many old friends.
—A copy of resolutions as passed by the Centre County Medical Society on the death of Dr. G. W. Kline. Meeting held in Brockerhoff House, Bellefonte, Pa., on Thursday 28th day of April:
Resolved, That, by the death of Dr. G. W. Kline, this society has lost a valued member, and the profession a young physician, who gave promise of a career of rare usefulness.
Resolved, That we lament the early death of one whose virtues endeared him to a large circle of friends.
Resolved, That the members of this society tender to the family of the deceased their heartfelt sympathy.
Resolved, That a member of this society be appointed by the President at the next regular meeting to prepare a brief biographical sketch of the late Dr. Kline for publication in the Transaction of the State Medical Society.
Resolved, That these resolutions be entered upon the minutes of this society and a copy of them be sent to the family of the deceased and also to the county papers for publication.

NEWSPAPER DECISION.—1. Any person who takes a paper regularly from the postoffice—whether directed to his name or another's or whether he has subscribed or not—is responsible for the payment. 2. If a person orders his paper discontinued he must pay all arrears, for the publisher may continue to send until payment is made and collect the whole amount, whether the paper is taken from the office or not. 3. The courts have decided that refusing to take newspapers and periodicals from the postoffice, or removing and leaving them uncalled for, is prima facie evidence of intentional fraud.
LEGS BROKEN.—Nathan Averill and George Fitzpatrick, two logmen working on Cassidy's drive, met with a serious accident at Lumber City last Monday evening. The two men were hard at work dislodging a bank of logs when they gave way, breaking one of Averill's legs in two places, and crushing one of Fitzpatrick's badly. Their companions helped the two out of the river and a surgeon was sent for, who attended to their wants speedily. They are doing as well as possible.—Circleville Review.
LOCK HAVEN has now only about half the number of saw mills she had a few years ago and the prospects of keeping those left in operation very long, are none of the brightest. What is to take the place of these saw mills? This is an important question and one that our people should hasten to solve. Other towns around us are up and doing and if Lock Haven is to go forward she must be about it at once, and not put off until to-morrow what should be done to day.—Express.
—A mare and buggy belonging to Rev. B. F. Kautz, pastor of the Lutheran congregation of McConnellsburg, were stolen one night last week. The horse is described as a roan, about seven years old and weighing about 1,000 pounds. The buggy is a "falling top," of Cincinnati make. A reward of $50 is offered for information leading to the arrest of the thief.—Bedford Gazette.
—Improvements going on this place since the beginning of the year will involve the expenditure of $50,000. Things have a stirring look which we think will continue for several years.—Centre Reporter.
—The total issue of postage stamps, stamped envelopes and postal cards during April, aggregated 271,008,819, as against 264,645,200, in the same month last year.
