

There are many ways of getting early crops, or of trying to get them, such as starting the plants in the house or hot bed, and covering them with glass, etc., after they are set out.

Shot Through The Heart.

FORT SMITH, ARK., May 7.—Mitch H. Anderson, a Choctaw Indian, seventeen years old, was yesterday executed according to the custom of the Nation, for the murder of another Choctaw boy named Winchester, last summer.

TWO YEARS ago an act was passed by the Legislature of Michigan providing for the probate of wills during the life of the testator. The law was a novel one.

A Good Endorsement of P. T. Barnum. In a letter to a New York weekly paper Mr. Henry Bergh the well-known president of "The Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Animals," says:

As Mr. Barnum has announced that he will positively take his "Greatest Show on Earth" in its entirety to Great Britain in 1887, we are glad to inform our cousins in the mother country that Mr. Bergh's indorsement is correct.

TRAVERS, DAK., May 15.—The county seat war broke out here afresh today. A mob came over from Wilmot and demolished the courthouse. No resistance was made, the attack being a surprise.

A REWARD FOR ABE BUZZARD.—The Lancaster county commissioners having become tired of employing private detectives without any satisfactory results in bringing the Buzzard outlaws to justice, have publicly offered a reward of $1,000 to any one who would succeed in arresting and bring safely to the county jail Abe Buzzard, the outlaw.

—Simon Sharp has been jailed at Somerset for the murder of Lewis Thomas in the Cumberland Mountains, southeast of Somerset, last Sunday. Thomas brought stories to Sharp's wife of the unfaithfulness of her husband, always selecting a time when Sharp was absent.

The following is the program of unveiling the Snyder Monument, Selinsgrove, May 27. The ceremony in the cemetery will begin promptly at half-past 1 o'clock, p. m., and consist as follows:

Music by Band. Prayer by Rev. J. Max Hartz, Moravian Minister of Lancaster. Unveiling Monument by Miss Mary Lillian Snyder, great grand daughter of the Governor, and daughter of Maj. Simon Snyder 5th U. S. I.

Gen. Simon Cameron and a number of distinguished Pennsylvanians have signified their intention of being present. Gov. Pattison, Secretary of State Sterger and Secretary of Internal Affairs, J. Simps n Africa, of the Monument Commission will positively be in attendance.

Excursion Tickets will be sold on the Penn'a. R. R. from Altoona, Harrisburg, Williamsport, Shamokin and intermediate points. Day Tickets will be issued along the line of Reading Railroad. Special train will leave Selinsgrove for Lewistown in the evening at 9 o'clock.

A decidedly interesting and romantic event is just developing in the history of our learned fellow-citizen Judge John H. Orvis. Thirty-two years ago, while he was living in Lock Haven, a younger brother went away from home. The name of this brother was Jesse Kilburn Orvis. When last heard of Jesse was on a steamboat sailing down the Mississippi. The boat was blown up and it was supposed that Jesse was one of the victims of the explosion.

The M. E. Church at Martha, which has been remodeled at a cost of $500 was re-opened last Sunday. The Rev. E. J. Gray, President of Williamsport Dickinson Seminary, preached in the morning to a large congregation. At the close of the sermon the congregation was asked for $125, all of which was provided for in less than an hour.

On Tuesday morning Joseph Smith who clerks in Valentines Store Co. Limited went to Kane Pa. to attend the funeral of his sister. We sympathize with Mr. Smith as it is the old, but true saying fulfilled "trouble never comes single."

DUBOIS. DUBOIS, Pa., May 14th 1885. EDITOR DEMOCRAT.—While straying around I landed in this, the new city of Pennsylvania, DuBois is a borough of twenty years old and contains about 7,000 population. It is a lumbering, mining and manufacturing town and is destined to be the next incorporated city in the state.

Oh, beautiful town! "Oh, lovely place!" "Delightful city!" "Angelic ladies!" "Handsome dudes!" Those are some of the remarks made by passengers on the trains during their momentary pause at this place, and, no wonder; if you could see it just now, dressed in its beautiful spring garb of living green, tinged with the delicate tints of the apple-blossoms, and so snugly enclosed among the foot hills of the Alleghenies, most of which are covered with blooming apple trees, whose delightful fragrance fills the surrounding atmosphere and makes one feel as if he were enjoying a foretaste of paradise.

John Brugger, who has been confined to a bed of sickness for several weeks, is once more seen perambulating the streets. John L. Rich is traveling in the interest of a N. Y. nursery firm. Thomas J. Dale is still engaged in selling the Sunday Telegram. Tommy is a lively agent.

Our people are gradually becoming accustomed to the changes made by the P. R. R. company in the station building. —On Tuesday morning Joseph Smith who clerks in Valentines Store Co. Limited went to Kane Pa. to attend the funeral of his sister.
