PHILIPSBURG NEWS.

A Batch of Interesting Items Picked up by a Special Reporter,

The Bigler campmeeting, which is held near Wallaceton, a small village about seven miles north of Philipsburg opened on Friday evening of last week, and from the very beginning was unusually largely attended. The grove in which it was held is one of the most beautiful and picturesque to be found anywhere in this section, and the parties having the affair in charge are determined to make Bigler campmeeting a permanent and prominent one. Special trains were run on the S. & C. branch, to the meeting on Sunday, and those coming by way of Philipsburg were un comfortably crowded with passengers, and by the time the crowd at this place boarded the cars they were much more so. The colored campmeeting about one mile west of Philipsburg, and which was commenced on Saturday evening P. R. R., P. & E., and N. C. R. R., to has thus far proven quite a success, both financially and religiously. Quite a crowl was in attendance on Sunday and the several sermons preached, and music rendered were both interesting. and excellent. This camp will continue ten days.

The Hamersley Opera Company is billed to appear in the New Opera House on August 20, 21 and 22. On the first night they will produce "Chimes' of Normandly," second, "The Mascot," Saturday matinee, "Olivette, and Saturday evening, H. M. S. Pinafore." Since Messrs. A. J. Graham and Jno. R. Herd have undertaken the management of this elegant new opera house, we have no doubt but to believe that it will from a financial success, and the public may expect none but the best of troups to visit our town in the future.

P. J. Fagan, the ever good-harted and enterprising "Pat" is laying sewers all through town, something that was very badly needed.

The staid village of Clearfield dont like the idea of Barnum showing in Philipsburg, and the numerous paper of real estate in Chicago. over there advise their citizens not to come to the circus at our town. Jealousy will do a great deal some times, but if the people over there want to come to see Barnum, they will do so. notwithstanding Clearfield papers to the contrary.

Business out about the new railroad continues unabatingly.

In the way of improvement Point Lookout is getting there in handsome are being erected there. It wouldent. be a bad idea to snex the Point with Philipsburg.

daughter Mrs. McKinney, who have ed to pay on the ground that he had een gone since the 9th of June visiting different portions of the West returned to their homes in this place the latter part of last week. They expressed themselves much pleased with their visit. We welcome them home.

Dr. J. C. Richards started one day last week for California. He went more for the purpose of bringing home h's son Jesse, who is lying ill in a hospital in San Francisco.

A Forged Will.

WIKES-BARRE, Penn., Aug 6 .- About the year 1868 Beckerwith S. Brockway, of Salem Township Luzerne county, had three life insurance policies, aggregating about $40,000, distributed as follows: $20,000 in the Ætna Life, of New York; $10,000 in the Connecticut | 15c. Mutual Life, and $10,000 in the Mutual Benefit Life, of Newark N. J. Soon after his death Daniel F. Seybert, with whom he had been boarding, presentshape, a number of new dwelling houses ed to the Register of Wills a will which made him sole executor and legatee. No caveat was filled, and letters of ad ministration were regularly issued. Seybert demanded the amount of the poli-Mr. J. W. Mattern and wife and cies, but the insurance companies refusno insurance interests in the life of Mr.

The case had almost dropped out of recollection, but has since been revived by the heirs of Mr. Rockway, who had a citation issued to the executor, and the case was heard before Register Boyd yesterday and today. The testimony shows that Seybert wrote the will himself and forged the signature of Mr. Brockway. One of the witnesses to the alleged will testified that it was a forgery and that he had signed it as a witness knowing it to be such. The heirs at-law are the Hon. Charles B. Brockway, of Bloomsburg, and F. E. Brockway, of Salem. The Register decide I that the will was a forgery, and the heirs will now take steps to recover from the insurance companies the full amount of the policies, with interest, which will amount to nearly $80,000.
