—Renovo contains a woman who years ago was the belle of Wilkesbarre, and whose company was considered an honor by all of the people there. She married a man worth $50,000, and for awhile lived in the most magnificent style. Her husband failed in business, and she having acquired the habit of indulging in strong drink and opium eating, sank deeper and deeper until she had no control over herself. She and her husband came here a few years ago and both were known as ferocious drunkards. After living here a year or two the husband died and the woman has since been living in Renovo. She is not one of the paupers, but how she obtains a livelihood remains a mystery. She spends her days in drinking beer and whiskey and eating opium when she can get them, and when night comes a pig pen or any other place she can find is her bed.—Evening News.

—Luck seems to run in streaks. George Ferguson won the gold watch at the ride match and was presented with a fine ten pound boy on the same day. George is one of the men who can stand prosperity, however.—Clearfield Democrat. That's what it is to be Recorder of Clearfield county. Every mother's son of 'em gets a gold watch and a ten pound baby. Other fellows would be satisfied with a gold watch.

—Mr. Jno. Wagner, who is agent for the celebrated Niagara (white) Grape, allowed us to sampled a basket that his firm had sent him. The grapes had a delicious flavor, and are selling like hot cakes in town. Wagner is the only agent. See him and order your vines for fall planting.

—It ought to make a Bellefonte hide his head in the sand when he thinks of the hundreds of tons of iron ore that are shipped out of the county to be manufactured elsewhere and to know that he buys the manufactured product of this same ore when it should be manufactured at home.

—The Democrat and Register man is sick of fish stories, hear him:
 My son, go catch the fluky tribe,
 And try and bring home plenty.
 But should one weigh five or six pound,
 Why don't you ever let it weigh twenty.
 Let your thoughts, my gentle youth,
 Bear up for something higher,
 And keep your friends from calling you
 A piscatorial liar.

—The Valley Spirit has coined a new word "Retiracy." At least old Noah Webster knew nothing of it. "Retiracy" is a good word and one that should have a good run before going into the "retiracy" of private life. Give us another something euphonious like "played-out-ly."

—The hands, composed mostly of girls, employed in the Rubber Works at Williamsport struck, when the foreman, McKellan, posted up a new schedule of price for piece work. The girls are confident of success.

—Although the weather on Monday and Tuesday evenings was disagreeable, and the nights dark and dreary, a fair sized audience witnessed the performance of Walsh & Gilmore, so far the best attraction at the rink this season.

—Miss Ella Fox, who visited friends in Centre county during the past month, returned to her home in Renovo yesterday, much delighted with her trip.

—One ounce of oil of lavender mixed with one quart of water or alcohol and sprinkled about a room will rid it of flies. One who knows, says that four applications at intervals will be sufficient to drive away a host.

Sir John Glover, formerly Governor of Newfoundland, is dead.

WANTED.—From 50 to 100 acres of good white oak timber, at once. Address, E. M. HUYETT, & Co., Wernersville, Berks Co., Pa. 40-3t.

A GUNNER'S GUIDE.—Apropos of the approach of the gunning season is the "Paradise for Gunners and Anglers," a neat little pamphlet issued by the Passenger Department of the Philadelphia Wilmington and Baltimore Railroad Company, descriptive of the gunning and fishing resources of the Delaware and Maryland peninsula. The book treats of the game and fish of this section, their haunts and habits, the localities they frequent, and gives extracts from the game laws of the region, and in fact all the information a sportsman could desire. It is embellished with engravings of game and fish, and contains an excellent map, showing the water-courses, roads, and railways of the section. It is a complete manual for the gunner or angler, who would find his sport in one of the best game-stocked portions of the Atlantic States. The book is distributed gratuitously, and may be procured by addressing James R. Wood, General Passenger Agent, Philadelphia, Wilmington and Baltimore Railroad, Philadelphia, Pa.

The Explorer Stanley.

Mr. Stanly is fitting up a handsome apartment in the Bond street quarter of London—near Grafton street, and only two doors from Henry Irving. This does not necessarily mean that he is to settle in London at present. The explorer has a mass of accumulated treasures in Oriental carpets and embroideries and an assortment of African things which have been packed for years in boxes, and which will be ruined unless he has them arranged in what will certainly resemble a museum.

When in the Wrong Channel.

The bile wreaks grievous injury. Headaches, constipation, pain in the liver and stomach, jaundice, nausea ensue. A few doses of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters will reform these evils and prevent further injury. It is a pleasant aperient, its action upon the bowels being unaccompanied by griping. The liver is both regulated and stimulated by it, and it is very impolite to disregard disorder of that organ, which through neglect may culminate in dangerous congestion and hepatic abscess. The Bitters should be resorted to at an early stage. Failure to do this renders a contest with the malady more protracted. Fever and ague, rheumatism, kidney and bladder troubles, are remedied by this fine medicine and the increasing infirmities of age mitigated by it. It may be also used in convalescence with advantage, as it hastens the restoration of vigor.
