Get your ledgers, day books, blotters, etc., for 1886 made at the Bellefonte Book Bindery.

We are authorized to state that the county commissioners will not draw any orders until January 6th, 1886.

Freight on glass to Chicago was doubled last month, it is now 32 cents per hundred. The railroads have struck for higher wages.

Our thanks are due Mr. Geo. Koons of Pleasant Gap for his kindly remembrance. George knows how to make the heart of a printer beat with joy.

The story going the rounds of the Exchanges regarding a little girl being outraged near Stormstown, is untrue, unfounded and an outrage upon the public instead of the little girl.

The usual annual Catholic Fair, will begin on Saturday, in the store room lately occupied by Messrs. Bunnell & Aikens. It promises to be a grand event, and will continue for several days.

Clearfield county employes 286 teachers in her public schools, and has a reserve corps of 165 teachers. The name and address, together with the school taught by each, is published in last week's Republican.

A man by the name of Horace Paxton of Clearfield county died at the Mountain House, in Snow Shoe, on Wednesday morning, at the age of 67 years. We have not learned the particulars of his death.

The Centre Line Lutheran congregation held their annual institute near Stormstown on Tuesday. Revs. Steck and Crittenden of this place attended, the former gentleman preaching the opening sermon.

It is rumored that Bellefonte is to have another weekly paper. What its colors will be is hard to tell, but it is said by those who pretend to know that it will be Republican. That party surely expects old Centre to yield them a bonanza in the near future.

The nude body of an unknown man, was found near Eldorado, Blair Co. The clothes were afterwards found consisting of a gray cotton undershirt, check over jacket, balmaral shoes, diagonal pants, and black cassimere coat. The body was not identified and was buried on Tuesday.

Miss Kate Caldwell, the 16 year old daughter of Mrs. and Mr. James Caldwell, died at the home of her parents on Lamb street, of consumption. This dreadful disease claims the young as well as the old. At this age when life is bright and promising, it is so hard to see death claim them. But God knows what is best, His will be done.

We acknowledge the receipt of the Philadelphia Record almanac for 1886. It contains the usual amount of valuable statistics and information. The familiar views of Fair Mount water works, Winter in the Park, Rockland, Grants Log Cabin, The Girard Avenue Bridge, The Wisahickon Dam and many other equally handsome views.

Mr. J. B. Harris, who resides so near the line of Centre and Clinton counties that during the summer they are residing in his summer home eat their meals in Clinton and sleep in Centre, farm in Clinton and Centre, and during the chilling winds of winter reside in Centre, favored the DEMOCRAT with a very nice Christmas gift from Mr. J. C. Ohl. The gift was last year's subscription together with more than a year in advance.

On Saturday last, as Mr. John Reaser and family, of near Fillmore, were on their way to Bellefonte, an accident happened there which might have proved serious. While descending a hill, which was very icy, the brakemen failed to respond and the wagon sliding to one side, completely overturned, spilling the occupants into the road. Fortunately no one was hurt. About the only damage done was the breaking of four dozen eggs.

The dirtiest most forsaken band of Turks hailing from Constantinople passed through town on Monday. There were two men, two women, three children, three trained bears and two pocket horses loded down with blankets, clothes' cooking utensils, etc., and a little child strapped upon each horse. Young America followed along the streets being highly delighted with the amusement afforded by the dancing bears.

A very exciting scene, and which was the means of collecting a large crowd, together with all the doctors in town, who rushed down in the direction of the railroad ready to render valuable assistance. The excited by-standers exclaimed: Is he dead? Did he smother? How did it occur? What the trouble? Who's killed, and many other exclamatory sentences. A few minutes later it was discovered that there were two dead, both perished by the two extremes. One large canine had gotten into the 8 x 10 west box, known as the gentleman's waiting room, the other little poodle dog was caught between the baggage room, and the gentleman's waiting room, and was crushed to death.

Personal.

E. J. Pruner Esq., was in town on Monday.

Mr. Al Haupt has secured a position in an Insurance office in little York, Pa.

Mrs. Dr. Hayes returned from a visit to Philadelphia and Huntingdon on Monday.

Messrs. A. L. Shaffer and John Eby, of Zion, tarried in our sanctum a few minutes on Saturday.

Mr. Will Burnside the efficient agent for Fairbanks Scale Co., is spending the holidays with his mother in this place.

Mr. Jack Newton, proprietor of the Syracuse House at Howard, and Mr. Dike of the same town, were in town on Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Frank Montgomery is now in Philadelphia, her husband will join her on Thursday and spend the holidays in the Quaker city.

Mr. Christian Houser, of Houserville, attended the U. B. Conference which assembled in this place on Saturday and is in progress this week.

Mr. Conrad Singer, one of Curtintownship's leading citizens was in town on Saturday. Mr. Singer disposed of some of his choice honey.

Mr. Fred Kurtz Jr., of Centre Hall, took in the workings of the DEMOCRAT office on Wednesday. Fred attends to the making up of the Reporter.

Miss Mary Meek, daughter of Mr. P. Gray Meek, and who is now attending school at Bordentown N. J. is spending her vacation at her home in this place.

Mr. and Mrs. Jackson, of Berwick, Pa., father and mother of Mrs. W. F. Reeder, will spend the holiday season at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Reeder, in this place.

Mr. Frank W. Swab of Linden Hall, spent a few minutes in the sanctum of the DEMOCRAT on Wednesday. Frank is one of the young Democrats of that part of the county.

Mr. Samuel Homan of Renovo, and his brother James from Saxton Bedford county, have been visiting relatives in this county. In Centre Hall they were the guests of Mr. Wm. Bible.

Miss Annie Orvis, daughter of Judge Orvis, arrived home from Clifton Springs N. Y. where she has been attending school. She will spend her holiday vacation here and then return again to school.

Mr. Samuel J. Reynolds, of Lancaster spent Sunday in town visiting his brothers Messrs. Wm. and Thos. Reynolds. He is a handsome, well built man and one of the leading legal lights of Lancaster.

Mr. A. C. Wirts and his daughter Annie, of Shingletown near Boalsburg, were among our callers on Friday. Mr. Wirts is a most excellent blacksmith and has recently opened up a shop at the above place.

R. B. Loder of Walker one of the good staunch Democrats of that part of the county favored our office with his presence. Mr. Loder was formerly one of Centre county's successful school teachers, and is a bright and intelligent gentleman, with whom it is pleasant to converse.

Mr. Will Gray, who is now a law student at the Albany Law school, arrived here Friday. Will expects to graduate some time in May, and will then hang out his shingle and ready for a fee. We have not heard where he will locate, but presume, Bellefonte will hold out sufficient inducements for him.

An exchange very pointedly remarks: "No man should get angry because a newspaper publisher duns him for money. A dun is not an impeaching of a subscribers integrity, but simply an outcropping of a publishers necessities. For instance, a thousand men owe a man from one to four dollars each. He has to dun them all to get enough to pay expenses. Instead of getting mad and stopping his paper, because the publisher asks him for his honest due, the subscriber should thank him for waiting so patiently and pay like a man."

The following officers were installed at a meeting of Bellefonte Lodge No. 268, F. & A. M., on Tuesday evening last: W. M., W. I. Fleming; S. W., I. N. Gordon; J. W., D. B. Bell; Tress, H. Y. Styler; Sec., George B. Weaver; S. D., L. A. Shaffer; J. D., John Meese; Chaplain, S. D. Gray; S. M. C., Theo. A. Boak; J. M. C., W. Fred Reynolds; Purv., W. W. Bayard, Tyler, W. S. Phillips; after which the Lodge partook of the annual St. Johns Banquet.

Capt. Mickel, Register and Recorder, of Bedford county, a very courteous gentleman by the way, was a visitor to Bellefonte, on Wednesday. Captain Mickel is a Democrat and is such a popular fellow that he was elected Register in Republican Bedford.

The annual stated meeting of the officers of the 5th Regiment of N. G. P. met in this place on Wednesday pursuant to an order issued by Col. D. H. Hastings. The meeting was that of a business nature, discussions of matters relating to the perpetuity and up building of the organization were had, and last, but by no means least, was the banquet, or as there was no wine or drink stronger than coffee, we will not call it a banquet, but a dinner given at the Brockerhoff House by Col. D. H. Hastings. We need not say they had a capital time, for it is well known that Col. D. H. Hastings at the head of anything like a dinner, insures the boys a good time and served by that popular gentleman, Mr. C. G. McMillen, proprietor of the Brockerhoff House, boss time is doubly insured. Among those present from a distance we mention: Quarter Master J. A. Rohrer, of Altoona; C. Martin Bell, Capt. of Co. C., Holidaysburg; 1st Lieut. L. G. Gephart of the same place and 2nd Lieut. J. H. West; Capt. Burchfield of Co. D., Altoona; Capt. A. C. Braugher of Co. F., of Indiana; Capt. R. C. Elder, Co. G., Lewistown; Capt. A. T. Carswill, Co. H., Johnstown; 1st Lieut. F. W. Cox, and 2nd Lieut. W. W. Cope of the same place; Capt. E. F. Mickes, Bedford, and 1st Lieut. D. C. Burns of the same place; Capt. Amos Mullen, Co. B., Bellefonte, 1st Lieut. Geisinger, 2nd Lieut., Reber, Adj. Harry Hale, and a number of others whose names we have not learned. Col. Hastings was made President of the board, Lieut. Geisinger, Secretary.

A CORRECTION.—EDS. DEMOCRAT. In the last issue of the DEMOCRAT, it was stated that the Reformed congregation at Jacksonville expected to give a supper on Christmas evening, for the benefit of their church. This was certainly news to the Reformed people of this community, because nothing of the kind had been spoken of. The announcement was made the 1st Sunday in this month, that divine service would be held on Christmas evening, and that service No. 7 published by the Reform Publication Board, would be used on the occasion. Some time later it was resolved, that at the close of the service on Christmas evening, each member of the Sunday school should be presented with a copy of the revised New Testament. Why your informant, well known by the way, in this community, should be guilty of such willful misrepresentation is a mystery to all. Is it because he loves to misrepresent? Is it because it is his nature so to do? Is it the first time?

D. O. SHOEMAKER. Walker Pa. Dec. 21, 1885. [The bit of information was given not to willfully misrepresent, nor as a slur. We fail to see why the local refered to should call forth any rebuke. If a mistake we cheerfully make the correction.—Ed.]

Number of pupils who were present every day; males, Edward Allen, William Allen, Blair Lannen, Orris Spotts, William Bush, females, Minnie Bush, Lara Lucas. Those who missed only one day, Lona Lucas, Mahalida Allen.

Bishop Mallatou, of the M. E. Church, has appointed Rev. M. K. Foster Presiding Elder of the Juniata District of the Central Pennsylvania Conference, to fill the vacancy caused by the recent death of Rev. J. S. McMurray, D. D. Intelligence of the appointment was received here by telegraph to-day. Rev. Foster was once before Presiding Elder of this district, his time having expired ten years ago. He had previously preached here for a period of three years. His selection is regarded with satisfaction by the members of the church in the district.

ARE THE BOOKS ON PHYSIOLOGY IM-MORAL?—Huntingdon, Dec. 22.—The public school directors and teachers throughout this county are meeting with formidable opposition in their efforts to conform with the requirements of the late act of Assembly, relating to the introduction of text books on physiology and hygiene in the schools. A large number of parents have refused to supply their children with text books claiming that the study of these branches will prove detrimental to the morals of their children. In consequence of this a goodly number of the pupils have been excluded from the school by order of the directors. In the rural districts the opposition is so strong that in several instances teachers have succumbed to it, and are making no effort to enforce the provisions of the statute. The trouble is assuming very grave proportions, and the attention of the State Superintendent will be called to the matter.

Christmas Night.

BY P. G. BOOK. 'Twas der hide 'bout Christmas time, ven all dru der house, Every kid vos sly und quite like a mouse, Dem socks by der chimney vall vos hung, Ven out from der ped von young rascal sprung, To see vedder St. Nicholas had come; An down der stair so sly he did creep, An dru der duor des little rogue peeped. Ven right avay suddenly Old St. Nicholas said,

"Der first young rascal vot comes from his ped, Vould get for his Christmas, a knock on his head. An his old dirty sock vot hangs by der vol, Vull be knocked from der pin und on der floor fall." So hearen des wannin he quick get afraid An vipers out lud und to himself said: Of Mr. St. Nicholas vill forgiv me des time'

I'll gets back to pet in a minutes of time. Des sudden out-burst from der kid on der stair Caused old Sata Clause to grin un to stair In der direction dot noise vos comed to his ear; Und he speak loud like he dont vos keer, About given dot veller much gandy or kake, Ven he gets out of ped in der nide-time purdy late.

All dru der nide dot kid lay in ped Und dink of der vords vot St. Nicholas said. Und dinks vot his mudder also had said, Dot all of der childrens must stay in dair ped Of dey vouted some gandy some nuts an a bail, Put into dair socks vot hang on der vail. He vos now in a mighty big sweet, For fear dat his brodder all der presents vould get.

For Jim an Bill, an his big brodder Ned, Ver all dree ver good und stayed up in ped Und again he 'magine dat St. Nicholas said, Give dat, to der poy vos now up in ped. But to der ped little veller vot peeped dru der duor, I dink I had bedder dro his sock on der floor.

MR. WOLF ACQUITTED.—Clearfield Pa. Dec. 20.—The court convened on Friday evening at 7:30 o'clock and the case of the Commonwealth against Isaac Wolf for the murder of Henry McGowan, near Houtzdale, this county, was resumed. Hon. John H. Orvis, of Bellefonte, closed for the defense in an address which held attention of the audience for more than two hours, when the court adjourned until yesterday morning at 8:30. The crowd of the night before was in no way diminished in the morning to listen to the able address for the Commonwealth, by Hon. S. S. Blair of Hollidaysburg. Mr. Blair went over the evidence briefly, defined the difference between murder in the first degree, murder in the second degree, voluntary and involuntary manslaughter, closing by admonishing the jury to weigh the evidence carefully and bring a verdict in accordingly. His address lasted 1 hour and 10 minutes.

Judge Krebs then made a very fair and impartial charge to the jury, instructing them as to their duty, informing them that under the indictment a verdict of involuntary manslaughter would not be sustained by the court, but as to the grade of the crime let it be determined by the evidence as shown, closing by hoping God would aid them in doing so. At 11:30 the jury retired and after being out five hours and a-half returned with a verdict of not guilty. When the verdict was announced the cheering was loud and long, the Judge ordering the Sheriff to arrest the parties. The cheering subsided, however, without any arrests. The prisoner was congratulated by all who could get near enough to him. The verdict gives almost universal satisfaction in this vicinity. During the prisoner's confinement in the jail he lost one of his children by death, but the Sheriff kindly accompanied him to his home and allowed him to attend the funeral.

The jail building of Indiana county is in such poor condition that to keep a prisoner from escaping, the sheriff must stay in the cell with him. He must keep wide-a-wake, too.—Holidaysburg Standard.

The business on the new road is rapidly increasing, and it will continue to so long as Mr. Westfall has the management for he always caters to the wants and comforts of the patrons, which results in good to the road. He profits by suggestions made and has the good will of all who know or have any dealing with him.

They have helleffite in Germany. Helleffite is the name of a new explosive. It is said to be a mixture of nitro-glycerine and gelatine, dissolved in strong nitric acid. Its power is greater than that of nitro-glycerine or dynamite and it is much less dangerous to handle.

George Brown, Esq., District Atty. of Clinton was in town on legal business.

REBERSBURG. Rev. N. J. Miller preached his farewell sermon in the Reformed church last Sunday morning to a large concourse of people. In the evening a similar congregation assembled to listen to a trial sermon delivered by Rev. Dotterer, of Westmorland Co., Mr. Meyer, our landlord is the champion pork raiser, having killed one a few days ago weighing 474 pounds. Our genial friend "Sammy" Faust has twenty five sleighs ready for the market, as soon as sufficient snow falls to create a demand for them. Give Sammy a chance, and he will sell them all and many more.

Mr. George Stover succeeded in killing four deer, during the hunting season just ended, three of which he shot in two consecutive days. He sold two of them for twenty-five dollars. Mr. J. C. Burket is at present with his parents in east Brush Valley. "Grassy" is a plasterer by trade, and had an unusually busy season in Valley Falls, Kansas, to which place he will again return in a short time. He is the same boy he was of yore.

Mr. Geo. B. Weaver has again refused $500 for his splendid team of horses. It is unquestionably the best team in our valley. The horses weigh about 2750 pounds. The new register which confronts the traveling public when stopping at the Rebersburg Hotel, is very neatly and durably bound, and reflects much credit upon the Bellefonte Book Bindery whose manufacturer it is. Gentleman continue to put out such work, as it advertises itself.

Present indications point to a lack of zeal among the Miles Township teachers, as so far, but a few have expressed a willingness to attend Institute. We understand however, that Mr. C. L. Gramley will attend as usual, and while there will represent the Educational publications of Raub & Co. Harrisburg and expects a liberal patronage among the teachers of the county, as he undoubtedly represents papers and books that should be found in every teachers study.

WANTED.—Frank Leslies Popular Monthly of 1881, June, July, August and November. 1882, February, March, August, and November. 1883, January, February. 1884, October, November. 1885, February' March. Will pay 10 cents per No. for any or all at CENTRE DEMOCRAT office.

Mr. A. C. Wirts blacksmith, near Shingletown, on the Hason farm, has recently laid in a full and complete stock of material necessary for the blacksmithing business, and is now prepared to shoe a horse—four shoes, for the low price of one dollar, guaranteeing his work to be first class. All other work correspondingly low in price. 50-3-4.

HOLIDAY EXCURSION RATES OF THE PENNSYLVANIA RAILROAD.—Pursuant to the usual custom of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company excursion tickets for holiday travel will be sold between all stations on the main line and branches December 23d, 24th, 25th, 30, 31st, and January 1st, 1886, good to return until January 4th, at a considerable reduction from ordinary rates. This will enable all, who desire it, to indulge in the pleasure of holiday excursions and social visits, at very small expense.

Persons wanting any kind of lace or fancy work done, can be accommodated by calling on, or addressing, Misses Alice and Annie Wirts, Boalsburg, Pa. The young ladies are experts in this line, and a trial will convince you of the fact. Prices reasonable. 50-3-4.

Two men walked into a Rockton, Clearfield county store, and with drawn revolvers made the crowd stand "hands up" while they helped themselves to $15. The thieves escaped.—Exchange.

Many a poor sufferer has expended hundreds of dollars in the purchase of costly medicines put up in "prescription" form for the cure of rheumatism or gout, and without any benefit, if all such would but drop drugs and attack blood impurities with Vinagar Bitters, they would find that nature had provided at least one remedy for these terrible afflictions.
