Rills upon the List.

WASRINGTON, D. C., Jan. 9 .- The Pennsylvania members have a number of important bills to introduce. Most of them are of local interest, but a fair proportion deal with the leading questions are likely to come before congress. In regard to the coinage of silver, that by Wm. L. Scott, of Erie, Pa., is likely to attact the greatest interest. Mr. Scott came to Washington at the close of the last session as the alleged spokesman for Mr. Cleveland and Mr. Tilden in the matter. A. WOOLMAN, Secretary. Pay of Teachers'

State School Superintendent Higher, has made an important decision on the subject of the pay of teachers while. they are attending the county institute At the institute held last week in Butler county Mr. Highee devoted a portion of his address to this subject, exploded the pavalent notion that direc. tors have no right under the act of June 25, 1875, to pay teachers for the time spent in attending county institute. He emphasized the opinion held at the school department at Harrisburg that the act of 1885 leaves the matter of granting the time, by the directors, to teachers while attendance at institute, where it was under the act of 1873. This decision coming from so high authority, was news to teachers and directors, as it probably was the
