

ROLAND.

Prof. Wolf county Superintendent visited several schools in this township last week. His presence is always welcome by both teachers and pupils.

There is one gentleman in this community who is always happy in sleighing time, and that is "Bunk." And the gent who managed to consume so many dishes of oysters at that select party is another who has't a care.

The next subject for debate at the Kennedy Literary Society is "Resolved that the Pen is mightier than the sword." This society meets every Friday in Kennedy school house and is made interesting by music, essays, and recitations, by ladies and gentlemen in the community.

Hon. Mortimer Whitehead lecturer of the National Grange P. of H., Hon. Leonard Rhone, and Col. James F. Weaver, were guests of Mr. S. B. Leathers, on Saturday last. Mr. Whitehead's lectures at Milesburg and Howard were listened to by large audiences who were pleased and greatly benefited.

Rev. J. H. Welch of the Evangelical denomination is this week commencing a series of meetings in this place. We sincerely trust that the efforts made by this divine, and also by the workers in his church may be productive of much good to the people.

SPRING MILLS.

On last Monday evening a party of Bellefonte lads and lassies, numbering sixteen couples, charmered by Abraham Baum, left Bellefonte for our little city, which place they reached about 10 o'clock at night. Mr. John H. Bibb, our excellent hotelier was, however, prepared for them, having laid in a good supply of provisions.

The music for the dancing was furnished by some of our professional artists, who had spent several evenings preparing for the occasion. Prof. Frank Rearick presided at the piano John A. Grenoble and Charles Palmer drew forth strains of sweet music from their cremonas and William Brown and John Weilan assisted on the cornet and baritone. The Evangelical denomination held a prayer meeting in the hall opposite the hotel on the same evening. They had no professional choir to furnish the music, but they did some good congregational singing.

Messrs. Philip and Lowell Meyer will hold a singing concert next Saturday evening.

Peter Wilson and S. A. Woods are both confined to the house. The former with general debility, and the latter with rheumatism.

Exciting Bear Chase.

It having been reported that traces of bear had been found in the Brush Valley Narrows, a number of gentlemen from this vicinity decided upon their luck in the way of bagging a few bruins. The party was composed as follows: Charles Kline, Wm. Englehart, George Englehart J. C. Oberdorf, Hiram Erb, William Erb, William W. Hanselman and Robert Jordan.

The party having fully equipped themselves for the proposed bear-slaying expedition, started out on last Tuesday morning for the Narrows. Our hunters soon succeeded in starting one of their intended victims and after a short chase captured him. After partaking of their noonday meal the party went back and routed another one. Mr. Wm. Erb shot and wounded it. After chasing it with the dogs till night the party returned home. In the chase one of the dogs got a little closer than Mr. Erb cared about, as he turned and gave the dog a "wiped" out over the head which he will be very likely to always bear in remembrance.

The next day our hunters started out again. They again routed the bear which they had chased the day before, and after an exciting chase and tussle, in which one of the dogs were killed, succeeded in putting an end to its existence, with the aid of nine bullets—one for each man.

The first bear killed weighed one hundred and three pounds, and the second three hundred and forty-eight pounds. The second one killed was evidently the parent of the first one.

Our hunters feel quite elated over their success, and show the hides of the animals to all desiring to see them with pride.—Mifflinburg Times.

SCOTTSDALE, January 25.—Sunday passed very quiet in the northern district of the coke country. At a mass meeting of strikers, held yesterday afternoon near the Standard works, it was determined to withstand any attempt at eviction to-day, if the operators tried to enforce the notices served on their tenants ten days ago. No action in ejectment has been made by the management to-day so far as can be learned.

From Our Exchanges.

The freight tonnage of the Pennsylvania Railroad in 1886, it is said, was greater than in any previous year in the company's history. The rates received, however, were not so remunerative as they were in 1884.—Altoona Times.

Mr. Frank Beyer, proprietor of a planing mill at this place has been missing money from his office drawer for some time past, and was considerably nonplussed as to who the guilty party was. Suspicion at last fell on a young man in his employ, and on Wednesday evening the money left in the drawer was marked. Yesterday morning nine dollars had taken wings and were among the missing. When the young man made his appearance he was taken into the office and searched, and a five dollar bill and three dollars in silver of the marked money were found on his person. A warrant was taken out and the young man was put under arrest and taken to jail in the afternoon by constable Ginter.—Tyrone Cor. Altoona Times.

In the Perry county court, on Wednesday, according to a special to the Philadelphia Times, Daniel V. Smith of Newport, was tried for violating the fish laws and acquitted. The charge was brought by Fish Warden Josiah R. Dunbar, and in the course of the trial the court was amazed at the production of several receipts for five dollars each, bearing the signature of the fish warden, which gave the holders the privilege of constructing fish baskets, etc. in the streams in question. It is alleged that similar receipts to the amount of hundreds of dollars are held by fishermen and that the law is violated daily during the fishing season.—Tribune.

Officer Verne with two prisoners, James and S. J. Kinley, departed on Niagara Express Saturday evening for Pittsburg, where the counterfeit shavers will be handed over to a United States marshal, who will see that they are kept comfortable until the next session of the U. S. Court. The two men were brought to the police office in "Tribulation Row" at about 3 o'clock on Saturday afternoon, where they were identified by several people who had been duped by their bogus money. A News reporter tried to interview them, but although quite ignorant, they refused to say anything except that they did not live in Lock Haven. They were handcuffed and had all the appearance of deep-dyed villains, and seemed unconcerned about almost everything going on about them. Although few like to admit it, there is no doubt but that the two men succeeded in passing counterfeit ten-cent pieces wherever they tried. They were not so successful with quarters and half-dollars, however, as almost every one tumbled to their badness at once. They tried their business mostly in saloons, and when offering a quarter they were generally informed that it was not good. They would then make some excuse about getting it in change up or down town, and would then offer a good coin. This was done in a number of places, and there is no doubt but that they spent more good money than they did bad. People cannot be too careful these days as the country is flooded with bad money, and much of it is so near like the genuine article that it is difficult to tell which is bad. There is no doubt but that the two Kinleys will serve the next few years behind the penitentiary doors.—Renovo News.

Tried to Run The Town.

MONTAGUE, Texas, January 21.—Last night a band of nine cowboys from Indian Territory rode into Burlington a little town ten miles north of here. After drinking heavily, they assembled on the public square and began an indiscriminate fusillade. Marshal Tucker and Deputy Sheriff Cook attempted to arrest them. The cowboys defied the officers and threatened to kill any one attempting to interfere with them. The officers having been reinforced by a number of courageous citizens, boldly advanced and demanded the surrender of the band. Upon this the mob began firing.

Upward of forty shots were fired when the outlaws, becoming alarmed, broke and fled for the Indian Nation. They were hotly pursued by officers, and a running fight ensued, which resulted in the killing of four cowboys, and five horses. The killed are: Luke Jackson; Billy Wimmis, a boy named Turner, and a cowboy whose name is not known.

An indictment has been found by the Bradford county Grand Jury against the proprietor of a billiard room at Towanda for allowing minors in his room. The indictment was found under the law of 1859, which says in brief that any keeper, proprietor, owner, superintendent, or marker in any billiard room, bowling saloon or ten pin alley, who shall knowingly allow or permit any minor in such room, saloon or alley shall, on conviction, be punished by a fine not exceeding $500, and not less than the license fee of such place and shall forfeit his license.

No Boom that Science has Conferred

Has been fought with greater blessings than that which has accrued to the inhabitants of malarial ridden portions of the United States and the Tropics from the use of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters. The experience of many years has but too clearly demonstrated the inefficiency of quinine and other drugs to effectually combat the progress of intermittent, congestive and bilious remittent fevers, while on the other hand, it has been no less clearly shown that the use of the Bitters, a medicine congenial to the frailest constitution, and derived from purely botanic sources, affords a reliable safeguard against malarial disease, and arrest it when developed. For disorders of the stomach, liver and bowels, for general debility and renal inactivity, it is also a most efficient remedy. Appetite and sleep are improved by it, it expels rheumatic humors from the blood, and enriches a circulation impoverished by mal-assimilation.
