

HUMOROUS.

The man in the moon is never talked to death by a barber. Next year let some one kill all the ground hogs in January. A humorist doesn't write for money but "just for the fun of it." An anomaly in pantaloons—They are never tight when they are full. The new directory of York shows 37 Smith families in that borough. A walking suit—One for which a change of venue has been taken. The frost got in a foul on Florida. Struck her below the orange belt. Of good fortune, as of ripe fruit, we must make the most while it lasts. It's the little things that tell—especially the little brothers and sisters. A very amusing mistake was recently made by a thief. He robbed a plumber. The ups and downs of American life are well exemplified on the toboggan slide. Orange is to be the fashionable color in Paris this season. In Florida frozen orange. The snows are probably not all down yet, neither are the cold waves exhausted. Advertising is a good deal like making love to a widow. It can't be overdone. A friend asked a remedy for cold feet. Make them stay on the other side of the bed. A rule that works both ways.—When a fleet goes out on a cruise, the crews go out on the fleet. It is worth nothing that Ajax defied the lightning before the Jersey brand was discovered. Dead men tell no tales. It is not necessary. The obituary writers do that work for them. Some of Gladstone's enemies call him a knave. He certainly eulched the party that held the queen. The gentleman who kissed a lady's "snowy brow," caught a severe cold and has been laid up ever since. It is rumored that the man who predicted a mild winter, has crept into the same hole with the ground hog. A bonnet covered with birds does not sing, but the fellow who has to pay for it whistles when the bill comes in. A great change has come over me," said the small boy, as he lugged home a bag full of pennies from the bank. The orange crop of Florida has been damaged by frost, but the alligator crop will be fully up to its usual standard. Happiness is a cold blooded goddess—she has to forget all the misery But rheumatism knocks her out every round. The hydrophobia scare is spreading all over the country in spite of the fact that hydrophobia is nearly as scarce as honesty. "Is the tide going out," asked a sailor of a gentleman who was passing a house where a marriage ceremony had just taken place. "How shall we treat Bismarck," asks an exchange. We believe they don't treat at all in Europe. Every man pays for his own beer. Joseph Cook and John L. Sullivan are the two "fellows" upon which the "Hub turns. Sometimes one is on top and sometimes the other. The Shah of Persia devotes his leisure to writing poetry. This vice, however, is atoned for by a conspicuous virtue. He does not publish it. A young American lady in China thinks the Chinese language easier for children to learn than English. It ought to be; it is the language of the child-like and bland. Debtor (furious)—Did you send me that bill? Tailor—Yes, I did; and I'd like to have the money, too. Debtor (mollified) Well, I thought you sent it, but I wanted to be sure. "If the cold and snow blows in at the windows, just fold a newspaper lengthwise and shut the window down on it hard, and no snow will blow under," says a house wife. The caprice of some fashionable young ladies is to have numerous small jeweled pins fastened carelessly on the dress waist. Some of these little pins represent butterflies, bees, crescents and horse shoes, and no two of them should match. "I would like slodding if it wasn't for walking up hill," says a York girl.

THE PECULIARITIES OF LAW.

But I tell you they can't put you in jail. They just can't, and that's the long and the short of it, said a lawyer to a client in prison. Well ding it all I'm here, ain't I? Not according to law, you ain't. But I am according to the cold facts in the case, and I want to get out. Well, yes; it might seem to anybody not familiar with the statute that you were really incarcerated, but seem, thunder! I'm locked up and you know it! Not legally, my dear sir; not legally. In law you're as free as a thunder gust. I don't care where I am in law. I know where I am myself, and I want to get out. According to the statute, you're out on the street at this minute. But according to common sense, I ain't anything of the kind. I'm in a box as tight as though I was nailed up in one, and I want to get out. In law you are out. In reality I'm in. You can't find a single scrap of law that allows them to lock you up. Heavens and earth, man! I don't want to. I want to find law enough to get me out. That'll be a hard thing to do my friend. Hard thing to do! And yet you tell me there's no law for putting me in. So there isn't, but you've got in some how, in defiance of all legal precedent, and that's where the blunder was. You've waived your legal rights by admitting that you are in jail, and its going to take oceans of law and plenty of money to get you out, as sure as you live. You should have come to me before you got in. Keeping you out then, when you had the law was quite a different matter from getting you out now, when the law has you.

Women's Province.

THE DUTIES OF THE GENTLER SEX—HOW BEST FULFILLED. What a great task is assigned to woman. Its dignity can not be elevated. It is not her province to make laws, to lead armies, nor to be at the head of great enterprises, but to her is given the power to form those by whom the laws are made, to teach the leaders of mighty armies and the governors of vast empires. She is required to guard against having the slightest taint of bodily infirmity touch the frail creature whose moral, intellectual and physical being is derived from her. She must instill correct principles, inculcate right doctrines, and breathe into the soul of her offspring those pure sentiments which in time to come will be a part of themselves, and bless generations yet unborn. Yes, to woman is given the blessed privilege of aiding the sufferer in all the various stages of his existence. She smiles serenely at the christening and weeps at the burial; while she soothes the bereaved heart. This is her province and duty. Yet how can she fulfill her mission unless possessed of a strong and healthy body? The preparation of Dr. S. B. Hartman, and known as PERUNA, is just the thing for persons suffering from a majority of the complaints incident to this climate. It is invaluable to women, and Mrs. J. W. Reynolds, of New Lisbon, Columbiana county, Ohio, is a noted example of what the medicine can do. She says she has suffered for years with congestion of the lungs, catarrh in the head, and was troubled with a bad cough. She had tried a number of physicians, but they all failed to cure her. She was induced to try PERUNA, and immediately a marked change took place. After using one bottle her cough ceased and in a short time her other ailments were cured. She is now completely restored to health, and gives all the credit to PERUNA. Mr. J. W. Reynolds, her husband, was a confirmed invalid. He could not sleep well, neither could he work. He used PERUNA, and as a result, was completely restored to his former vigor and strength. He says he now feels like a new man. Mr. Bernhardt Seubs, St. Clair, St. Clair county, Mich., says: "I have thoroughly tried your PERUNA in the various diseases to which parents and a large family of children are ever liable, and I find it in every case to be just the thing needed. No family can honestly be without it." Nancy Peterman, Cookport, Indiana, County, Pa., says: "Gentlemen: Your valuable PERUNA is the best medicine I ever used." PERUNA is sold by all druggists. Price $1.00 per bottle, six bottles $5.00. If you cannot get it from your druggists, we will send it on receipt of regular price. We prefer you buy it from your druggist, but if he hasn't it do not be persuaded to try something else, but order from us at once as directed. S. B. HARTMAN & Co., Columbus, Ohio.
